WESTERN ONTARIO.

BRANT.

The union picnic of the Zion and First Presbyterian Churches, Brantford, was held Thursday. About 450 of the young people of both churches went to Port Stanley by special train. An enjoyable time was spent.

BRUCE.

Sheriff Sutton, of Bruce county, was fined $5 and costs on a charge of assaulting Constable Heffernan while on duty in the court house. The sheriff appealed, and Judge Barrett quashed the conviction. The Telescope says: After hearing the evidence, his honor held that Heffernan had received no bodily injury, and that he had never complained of injury in any other way. He held that the sheriff, as the chief officer in charge during the progress of the court, had a right to enforce obedience from his subordinates, and had a perfect right to dismiss those who were insubordinate. He therefore sustained the appeal, the costs following the event. In other words, Heffernan had to pay the costs, which amounted to $28.

ELGIN.

An inquest held at St. Thomas on the body of a child found buried in a match box on Wednesday night outside the cemetery gate in that city, brought out the fact that the child was a still-born infant of Mrs. Jones, wife of W. Jones, street car driver, and was buried there by his instructions. Those who buried the babe were censured.

J. J. McCartney, of the West Lorne Herald, is trying to start a newspaper in Newbury and Wardsville.

ESSEX.

Mayor Fleming has fixed Friday, Aug. 19, as Windsor's civic holiday.

The body of a man was found in the river, opposite Amherstburg, Thursday. It was that of a man about 40 years of age, five feet seven inches in hight and weighing 140 pounds. He had a red mustache, dark hair, dark striped pants, dark vest and no shoes. One of the fingers of his left hand was cut off. The body was buried in the Amherstburg Cemetery.

James Wear, who for some years has been connected with the Excise Department in Walkerville, has been promoted to a position in Hamilton.

GREY.

The town of Meaford has appealed against their assessment, which was raised from $700,000 to $721,050 at the last session of the county council.

Robt. Frizzell, sen., of Bognor, recently found that someone had been playing a mean kind of "joke" at his expense. Three shoes had been taken from one of his horse's feet and replaced in the opposite direction.

HURON.

On account of the death of Judge McCrae, of Algoma district, it is expected that the junior judge of that district, Fred W. Johnston, formerly of Goderich, will be appointed judge.

A man from Seaforth was fined $5 and costs ($5 90), by Mayor Butler, of Goderich, on Saturday for poaching on M. C. Cameron's trout stream, Colborne. He will not try trout fishing again in Sharpe's creek.

There were recorded with Mr. Campbell, clerk of Hullett, for the six months ending June 30, 40 births, 18 marriages and 22 deaths.

LAMBTON.

Wm. Shotwell is now in attendance at the summer school of languages at Victoria College, Cobourg. He has been re-engaged in Watford at a salary of $750 per year.

Orland S. Clark, of Sarnia, has been appointed sub-collector of customs for that port.

Mr. Michael Fleming, whose death occurred on Friday, was one of Sarnia's most prominent citizens. Deceased was a native of Ireland, but had resided in Canada from his boyhood up. He went to Sarnia 33 years ago as a telegraph operator in the employ of the Great Western Railway Company, rapidly rising until he had filled the most prominent positions in the leading financial institutions of the town, and the highest civic offices his fellow-citizens could bestow on him. The various offices of trust he held at the time of his death were: Manager of the Huron and Lambton Loan and Savings Company, agent of the G. N. W. Telegraph Company and proprietor of Fleming's Bank. For four terms he served the town as mayor, and was at the time of his death holding the reeveship for the fourth term. He was for many years town treasurer and chairman of the board of education. Numerous other duties of a public nature have been discharged by deceased with honor to himself and credit to the town. Politically he was a Reformer. In private life he was a man of plain and simple manners, of very charitable inclinations, and much esteemed by all his fellow-citizens. He was 51 years of age.

MIDDLESEX.

James Eddie, one of the oldest settlers of Ekfid township, died at his residence on the Appin road, on Thursday in the 79th year of his age.

Carrie Brown, Hyde Park, has just completed a quilt that contains 9,409 patches. This is the seventh quilt she has pieced. She has just passed her 15th birthday.

OXFORD.

A meeting of the Ingersoll Town Council was held the other evening for the purpose of dismissing and appointing an assessor. At a former special meeting a bylaw was passed changing the time for taking the assessment and naming J. S. Smith as assessor. Mr. Rowland, the present assessor, took exception to this procedure and notified the council to that effect through his solicitor, Mr. Walsh. The council then secured legal advice, and ascertained that they could not appoint another assessor until the present one was dismissed. There was a full attendance of members, the majority of whom were unfavorable towards dismissing Mr. Rowland, and he was retained in office.

Rev. J. C. Farthing, rector of New St. Paul's, Woodstock, has declined to accept the rectorate of St. James' Church, Stratford.

John Kneeshaw, nephew of R. Kneeshaw, Ingersoll, late audit inspector of New Zealand railways, has secured an important appointment on a railway in New South Wales.

The superintendents of the Sunday schools of the four different religious denominations of Princeton have arranged for holding a union picnic in the grounds known as Mr. Hersee's flats, northwest of the village, on Tuesday afternoon, the 19th inst.

Edith Sheldrake, the 2-year-old daughter of Walter Sheldrake, of Mount Elgin, was accidentally drowned in a peculiar manner the other day. Mrs. Sheldrake was washing, the clean clothes being placed in a crock which was half-full of water. The washing being completed, the clothes were taken from the vessel and hung on the line. During the mother's absence, the child with a garment from her doll proceeded to imitate her mother in washing, using the crock for a tub. Not being tall enough to reach into the crock, the little one procured a box to stand upon, and during her play overbalanced and fell head first into the crock.

Hansler & Burn, of Tillsonburg, have about 800 fancy chickens which they have raised this year. They intend exhibiting upwards of 300 at the poultry show in Buffalo next month.

ONTARIO.

The vicinity of Beaverton was visited late Friday afternoon by a tornado which took a sweep about a mile wide, clearing a path in the T. C. Hodgkinson's and Peter Grant's bush, the latter being completely destroyed. Thomas Bennett's large frame barn was entirely demolished. The roof fell in on Mr. Bennett and his son, who were working at the building, seriously injuring Mr. Bennett. The son also was injured, but it is thought he will soon recover. Charles Westcott's barn was completely wrecked. The barns of Peter Grant, James Waddell, Neil Westcott and Mrs. McDougall were unroofed, and the dwellings of Peter McDougall, Francis Ducett and Allan McLean were demolished. A great deal of damage was done to standing timber and fences, and a large acreage of crops has been destroyed.

PERTH.

St. Marys Roman Catholics are going to erect a handsome stone church in that town.

The other day in Stratford two little boys named Beckler and Coughlin, found two $1 bills. They showed them to Hedley Cook, the liveryman, and asked him if they were good. He was "doubtful" about it, but gave the boys 5 cents each for the bills "on chance." An information was laid against Cook for obtaining money under false pretenses and he paid the money into court. The magistrate directed that the bills remain with the chief of police until Aug. 1, after which they are to be returned to the boys in case they are not claimed by the owner.

Mr. Reddaway is building a large grain elevator at Milverton. It will have a capacity of nearly 40,000 bushels.

WELLAND.

There's a funny state of things at Welland. The mayor dismissed the clerk and adjourned the council because it insisted on building a sewer to which he objected. The council refused to adjourn, and went on with business. At another meeting the deadlock was continued. The mayor will not sign checks, and the council empowered the reeve to do it.

The wheat harvest has begun throughout Welland and promises an abundant yield. Haying is not yet through, and it is the heaviest crop had in years.

Lorenzo C. Raymond, Welland, has been appointed deputy judge of Welland county during the absence of Judge Baxter.

WELLINGTON.

Mount Forest Town Council has decided on a rate of 21 mills on the dollar for this year.

Daniel Webster, tinsmith, of Fergus, went to sleep in his wagon the other day, when he fell out on his head. His left ear was torn almost completely off, probably by a wheel of the vehicle; his forehead sustained a big cut, and the thumb of his right hand was dislocated.

WATERLOO.

The little village of Hawkesville has been thrown into excitement and indignation over the sudden death of a girl named Marian Strauss. The young woman was suffering from a swollen limb, and, it is said, was given medicine by a traveling agent which caused her death. A search was made for the man, but he could not be traced. A later dispatch says that the girl died from heart disease.

Aug. 3 has been fixed as Berlin's civic holiday.

Saw the Sea Serpent.

TOLEDO, O., July 17.—Early Wednesday morning, while the schooner Madeline Downing, on her way from Buffalo to this city, was passing the Dunning, about 150 miles east of here in Lake Ere, Capt. Patrick Woods saw, about half a mile ahead, the waters of the lake lashed into a foam. Drawing near, to the surprise of all on board, a huge sea serpent, wrestling about in the waters as if fighting with an unseen enemy, was seen. It soon quieted down and lay at full length on the surface of the water.

Capt. Woods estimates it to be about 50 feet in length and not less than four feet in circumference of body. Its head was projecting from the water about four feet. It had viciously sparkling eyes and a large head. Fins were plainly seen, seemingly sufficiently large to assist the snake in propelling itself through the water. The body was dark brown in color.

As the vessel passed on its course the snake was seen disporting itself on the lake. The lake was calm and there could have been no mistake in recognizing the object.

Sliding Down the Mountain.

GOLDEN, Cal., July 17.—A mass of earth 300 feet wide is sliding down the side of the Table Mountain east of this place, carrying with it an eight-roomed house, an orchard and garden and the tracks of the Colorado Central Railroad. The slide is caused by water from the river irritating the ditch and penetrating the earth below.

The Wyandotte Launched.

DETROIT, July 17.—The handsome new river steamer Wyandotte, built by the Detroit Drydock Company, has been successfully launched. The new boat is of steel, 165 feet over all, 35 feet beam and 7 feet draft of water. She will be driven by a triple-expansion engine. Steam will be furnished by two steel tubular boilers, and it is calculated that with 165 pounds she will go seventeen miles an hour. The boilers are 7½ feet in diameter and 21 feet long. On the upper deck she will have small cabins elegantly fitted and finished and with stained glass windows. The boat cost $75,000 and will undoubtedly prove a fine investment.

"Your woman of fashion might revolt at the idea of eating tripe, but she delights at the prospect of wearing it," said F. L. Ashton, a Boston hide and leather dealer. "The finest quality of leather now extant is tanned tripe. Tripe, you know, is nothing more nor less than the stomach of an ox. I don't mean what is popularly called the stomach—that is, the intestines, large and small, and everything else it the abdominal cavity—but the actual organ known as the stomach, that is the tripe, and when properly cleaned and cooked, it makes a delicious dish, too, though it is considered plebian. Well a shrewd Scothman some time ago discovered the availability of tripe for commercial purposes. In the process of tanning the tripe is turned black as ebony, with a beautiful gloss on its surface. It is thinner and softer than kid or chamois skin, and is also preferable to both.
