COLONIAL BISHOPRICS.

The Bishop of Tasmania, accompanied by the Venerable Fuzherbert Marriott, Archdeacon of Hobart Town, sailed for his diocese in the Duke of Roxburgh on Sunday the 5th of March. His Lordship has undertaken to remain a few days at the Cape, to confirm the candidates who shall be presented to him. The next bishopric to be erected, according to the order laid down in the "Declaration of Archbishops and Bishops," is that of New Brunswick; and the subjoined circular will show that the Committee are taking active measures for raising the necessary endowment:—

"BISHOPRIC OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

"We, the undersigned, having been appointed by the Archbishops and Bishops, who are now arranging measures, in concert with Her Majesty's Government, for the erection and endowment of additional bishoprics in the colonies, to act as a Sub-Committee with an especial regard to the intended see of New Brunswick, beg leave to request your assistance and co-operation in furtherance of this most important design. The colony of New Brunswick is at present included within the see of Nova Scotia, but the Bishop has long felt, and urged upon the authorities at home, the necessity of dividing the diocese, and placing New Brunswick under a distinct ecclesiastical head. The province in extent is about 26,000 square miles, (nearly the size of Ireland,) and its population, a rapidly increasing one, is now 156,000. But these circumstances, though of great weight in themselves, yet present but inadequately the grounds upon which the necessity for the establishment of the proposed bishopric rests. The distance between place and place, and the difficulty and uncertainty of communication, from the state of the roads, the modes of conveyance, and the severity of the climate during a very considerable portion of the year, contribute to separate the clergy from each other; and will, of course, render their mutual intercourse, even with a resident Bishop, less frequent and regular than would be the case under other circumstances. But the effect of all this is very seriously augmented by the fact, that the Bishop of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick resides at Halifax; and that, with the claims which Nova Scotia has on his time, it is impossible for him to visit New Brunswick so frequently, or so thoroughly, as is desirable, and as his Lordship most earnestly desires.

"The endowment of a bishopric for New Brunswick cannot be estimated at less than 1200*l.* per annum; and this must arise from a capital invested in permanent securities. We have the satisfaction of stating, that the Archbishops and Bishops have appropriated for this object a sum of 10,000*l.* from the general fund placed at their disposal; and there is good ground for hoping, that from the colony itself some considerable contributions will be transmitted. But there will still remain a large amount to be raised, before the great object which we have in view can be attained.

"We now, therefore, earnestly appeal to you for assistance in raising this sum, and we hope and trust that we shall not appeal in vain.

"We are your obedient Servants,

(Signed) J. T. COLERIDGE,
JOHN LONSDALE,
H. GOULBURN,
H. TRITTON,
V. K. CHILD, Clk., Hon. Sec.

79, Pall Mall, May 6, 1842."

Since the publication of the foregoing statement, the Committee have received several encouraging communications from New Brunswick, the substance of which they feel it incumbent upon them to make generally known. The Lieutenant Governor, Sir William Colebrooke, in an official dispatch to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, makes the following express reference to the subject of the proposed bishopric:—

"It is greatly to be regretted that a difficulty is experienced in obtaining clergymen for several parishes, in which the church congregations have in consequence been dispersed.

"Some progress has been made towards raising a fund for the endowment of a bishopric; and if an active and zealous clergyman should be raised to this station, a considerable improvement in the prospects of the Church might be anticipated."

This feeling of the importance of a more complete organization of the Church in New Brunswick, so clearly expressed by the governor, is shared by many of the principal inhabitants of the province. The Hon. Ward Chipman, chief-justice of New Brunswick, has taken the lead in a subscription for the necessary endowment; and the sum contributed from one district alone, namely, the city and neighbourhood of St. John, already amounts to 2150*l.* The solicitor-general has undertaken the management of the subscription in the counties of York and Carleton; and other gentlemen have been solicited to act in the other divisions of the colony.

It seems almost superfluous to add, that the Bishop of Nova Scotia is forwarding this important work, not only by a very liberal subscription, but by all the influence which he possesses. He thus writes on the 31st of December, 1842, after completing a visitation tour of more than 1400 miles in one division alone of his vast diocese:—

"My desire for the accomplishment of the benevolent intention of erecting a new see for New Brunswick increases with my growing consciousness, that more labour is required than any individual can perform. It is also increased by a conviction, that the circumstances of the times are peculiarly calculated to ensure, with the Divine blessing, the full benefit of such creation."

With these simple and authentic statements, showing at once the want which is felt in the colony of a resident chief pastor, and the zealous exertions which are there making for the endowment of a bishopric, the Committee feel that they are more than warranted in calling anew upon all who value their own spiritual privileges, to forward, by every means in their power, the attempt which is now making to build up the Church of Christ in one of the most important provinces of the British empire.

79, Pall Mall, March 3, 1843.
