THE LION

Corner Wyndham and Macdonnell Streets

1876. FALL CIRCULAR. 1876

At the commencement of the Fall Season we desire to thank our numerous friends for the very large patronage extended to us throughout the Summer months, during which time we can confidently assert that we have done a larger business than has ever been equalled by any house in Guelph. We are well aware that this has been occasioned by our having been able to sell at very much lower prices than any of our neighbors. Indeed, so much has this been remarked, that the Lion is now known far and wide as

The Cheapest Store in Ontario.

During the coming season our aim will be to maintain, and if possible, increase this reputation for selling cheap. We feel that our customers' interest are identical with our own, and our desire is

Not to Extort Large Profits, but to do the very best we can for our Customers.

With this in view our prices will be marked down to the lowest possible figures so as to suit the hard times occasioned by the small harvest.

WE HAVE PURCHASED

THE LARGEST STOCK

Ever Brought to Guelph.

all at bottom Prices, and from the first producers in Great Britain and the United States.

We are showing 1,100 Pieces of Choice Winceys, twenty-five per cent lower in price than ever known before.

Our Stock of Dress Goods is enormous as to quantity, and very choice in design, while the prices astonish every one. We are showing all the New Colors, embracing Myrtle Green, Navy Blue, Seal Brown, &c., &c.

Especially we would mention our Silks of which we succeeded in laying in a large stock of Black, Plain Colors and Fancies, prior to the recent large advance in prices

MILLINERY.

We have much pleasure in stating that we have succeeded in engaging the services of Miss Lynch, lately of Toronto, and already well known in Guelph as an artiste of the highest attainments, and we can assure our lady friends that any orders entrusted to her will be executed in such a manner as will give the utmost satisfaction.

Our Show Room is now replete with the very latest designs from Paris and London, together with a beautiful assortment of Flowers, Feathers, and Trimmings of every description.

Ladies Don't Fail to Pay us a Visit.

Ladies Jackets AND Cloaks

In this branch we have secured a range of very beautiful goods which will be found unequalled outside of Toronto for choice design and beauty of material. We need only mention that Miss Manny has charge of this branch, in order to guarantee DESIGN AND EXECUTION OF THE HIGHEST ORDER.

—We desire to call particular attention—

To Our Ready Made Clothing

Of which we have an immense variety, at prices which cannot be touched elsewhere.

AND TO OUR CARPET ROOM

Which contains an immense assortment of every style of manufacture and design. No one should purchase a carpet without seeing our stock Best grain bags $3.00 per dozen.

In every branch our stock is perfect and complete while our prices cannot be beaten.

Times may be hard, harvest may be poor, money may be scarce, but remember a dollar will buy more goods at The Lion than at any other store.

J. D. WILLIAMSON & CO.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

The partnership heretofore existing between Samuel Saunders and Robert Murray, as fruit dealers, &c., 49 Wyndham Street, has been this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will hereafter be carried on by Robert Murray, to whom all accounts must be promptly paid up.

S. SAUNDERS.
R. MURRAY.

In connection with the above, Mr. Saunders begs to inform his numerous friends that he is at present engaged in stocking up and will open in a few days with a splendid assortment of choice

FAMILY GROCERIES, CROCKERY, FRUIT, &c.

At that handy store in the West End, lately occupied by Mr. Wm. Ryan, and better known as the West End Grocery, where he will be prepared to sell all kinds of goods better and cheaper than they are usually sold in the vicinity.
