WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO'S IMPROVED BUTTER COLOR

A NEW DISCOVERY.

For several years we have perfected the Dairy-maid of America with an excellent artificial color for butter; so meritorious that it met with great success everywhere receiving the highest and only prizes at both International Dairy Fairs.

But by patient and scientific chemical research we have improved in several points, and now offer this new color as the best in the world. It will Not Color the Buttermilk. It Will Not Turn Rancid. It is the Strongest, Brightest and Cheapest Color Made.

And, while prepared in oil, is so compounded that it is impossible for it to become rancid.

BWARE of all imitations, and of all other oil colors, for they are liable to become rancid and spoil the butter.

If you cannot get the "improved" write us to know where and how to get it without extra expense. (46)

WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO., Burlington, Vt.

Scientific and Useful.

ETHER would seem to be the safest of all anæsthetics. In 23,204 administrations, there was but one death, while with bi-chloride of metylene caused death once in 5,000 instances.

FRENCH SALAD.—Place a little heap of mixed salad in the dish, sprinkle a little powdered white sugar over it, a little pepper and salt, a little vinegar and olive oil, garnish with beetroot.

TO USE UP COLD MEAT.—Prepare the meat as for hash; fill a deep dish with boiled maccaroni; on the top of that place the hash; cover it with tomatoes, over which sprinkle bread crumbs with a little butter; bake until nicely browned.

ROYAL MUFFINS.—one quart flour, two tablespoonfuls sugar, half teaspoonful salt, one tablespoonful lard, two eggs, one and a quarter pints milk. Mix to the consistency of a cake batter. Fill cold muffin rings, well greased, two-thirds full. Bake in a good hot oven twenty minutes.

SUPPER FOR A CONVALESCENT.—A nice dish for the supper of a convalescent is made by toasting two thin slices of bread; flatten and soften the crust by pounding it a little; butter the toast while hot, put one slice on a warm plate, and spread over it a thin layer of cooked chicken chopped or cut in small bits; season with pepper and salt, add a soft-boiled egg, then lay the other slice of toast over it.

COTTON-SEED OIL is said to be superior for many cooking purposes. It does not scorch so readily as other oils, and if properly refined gives an excellent flavour to what is cooked with it. People have been using more cotton-seed oil than they knew, much of it being palmed off as olive oil. Now that its merits are better understood, it can afford to pass under its true colours. Let those who desire to consume oil have their opportunity.

LIMA BEANS.—These can be had either canned or dried, the latter being quite as good and much cheaper. If dried are used, soak them over night in soft water. Pour it off and add boiling water salted to the proportion of one teaspoonful to a quart. Boil slowly until they are soft, perhaps an hour or more; drain them; add a cup of milk, a little butter, pepper and salt according to taste. A pint of dried beans will be sufficient for a family of six.

JELLY ROLLS are delicious made from this recipe: Three eggs, half a cup of butter, one cup of flour, one and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, two-thirds of a cup of pulverized sugar, a little salt; bake in shallow pans—a dripping pan well buttered is good for this purpose; put in the dough till it is about half an inch thick; take it carefully from the tins when baked, and lay on a cloth; spread jelly evenly over it with a knife; roll while hot; if this is not done the cake will crumble.

A RICH TOMATO SOUP.—Take eight good-sized tomatoes, cut them in half, put them into a saucepan with a bunch of sweet herbs, and an onion stuck full of cloves, some allspice, whole pepper and salt. Cook them slowly until quite soft, then strain through a strainer or hair sieve until the skins and onions and herbs only are left behind. Have a quart of plain stock boiling hot. Stir the tomatoes into it, add the yolks of two eggs beaten up in a little cold water. Serve with sippet of toast or dried bread.
