adzen, who is now residing in Mont-has a very large circle of Shediac ds who extend heartiest congratula-

s. Chas. Harper and Miss Grace vis-Moncton friends during the week.
s Alice Dickson returned to Albert y this week from spending some time oint du Chene.
e stork recently visited town and left by son at the home of Dr. and Mrs.
obidoux.
ss Bertie Hannah has been spending past fortnight visiting Moncton relaand Mrs. E. Ayer, of Boston, are ding some time in town, guests of Mr.

's father, Mr. G. Ayer.
. H. Wrye, of Boston, recently arin Shediac and is the guest of his , Mrs. J. Scott. Mr. Wrye has been ith typhoid fever and is now con-cing.
. T. N. Vincent, of St. John, spent ay with his wife and daughter, who t present guests of Shediac friends.
s Margaret Evans, who left Shediac weeks ago and who has been visitriends in Winnipeg and Calgary en to the coast, is now in Vancouver relatives, having experienced a very tful trip "out."
s Lena Bray pleasantly entertained friends at tea on Wednesday of this at her home, "The Hedges," Sack-street.
and Mrs. O. M. Melanson, in comwith Mrs. J. V. Bourque, enjoyed tor trip to Richibucto this week.
s Georgie Cadman, who has been vis-her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cad-Shemogue, was in Shediac this week her return to Boston. Mrs. Cadman panied her daughter to Shediac and a short time with relatives.
. Fred Inglis and little child are vis-
Mrs. Inglis' parents, Mr. and Mrs.
ess, of Summerside.
Misses Melanson, in company with s L. and E. Melanson, spent Sunday rchester.
s Evangeline Melanson leaves this for Halifax, where she will be the of her sister, Mrs. A. Leger, for a eeks.

MONCTON

ncton, Oct. 19—Miss Gertrude Cleve-of Brookline (Mass.), is in town for weeks, the guest of Hon. C. W.
Mrs. Robinson.
. C. E. Northrup has returned from gthy visit with relatives in Frederic-s Florence Murphy and Miss Alice ave a china shower on Saturday af-on at the home of Miss Murphy in of Miss Florence Mitchell, who is e married early next month to Mr. y, of Fredericton. Miss Murphy was ed in serving by Mrs. Irvine Mal-Miss Jennie Dippey, Miss Hal and Miss Alice Lea. Mrs. Malcolm red appropriate music during the af-on. Among the guests were Mrs.
e Maddison, Mrs. Roy Peters, Mrs.
Gorbell, Mrs. J. H. Lockhart, Mrs.
e Palmer, Mrs. Coombs, Mrs. Irvine
lm, Mrs. H. L. Thompson, Mrs. Al-Gorbell, Mrs. Leslie Lawson and the s Katie Gorbell, Bessie Fairweather, Weldon, Minnie Leaman, Jennie
y, Minnie Rand, Minnie Toombs, Jones, Emma Emmerson, Nellie
s, Hazel Taylor, George Sherrard,
Moore, Grace Harris, Mary Moore,
Flanagan, Helen Moore, Gertrude
d, M. Mackay and M. Condon.
Fred Williams has returned from ndrews, where she was visiting her s, Rev. R. S. and Mrs. Crisp.
. G. H. Brown has returned to her in Boston, after spending the sum-with friends in the city.
and Mrs. T. Dobson and family returned from Wallace, where they spending the summer.
and Mrs. Guy H. Trueman are ena holiday trip to upper Canadian

W. C. Coombs entertained at tea onday evening in honor of Miss ce Mitchell, when some twenty ladies were present. Among the were the Misses Florence Murphy, Lea, Nellie Forbes, Marion Lea,
Hunter, Carrie Weldon, Bessie Fair-
r, Minnie Seaman, Julia Flanagan, Moore and Mrs. Budd Taylor, Mrs.
Toombs and Mrs. J. H. Lockhart.
and Mrs. J. W. Patterson have refrom a trip to Montreal where ere the guests of relatives.
F. B. Whelpley has returned from with friends in St. John.
Elmer Ferguson, who has been g his vacation at his home in the as returned to Montreal.
H. W. Church has returned to her n Petitcodiac after a pleasant visit riends in town.
Fred Mundle, of the Bank of New wick staff, has returned from spend-holidays in Richibucto.
and Mrs. W. H. Price left on y on a trip to Boston.
Friday afternoon Mrs. George Spenceived for the first time since her ge. Mrs. Nugent, mother of the and Mrs. Spencer, mother of the assisted Mrs. Spencer in receiving.
ride was gowned in white corded ith gold and cut crystal trimmings.
Nugent wore gray silk with black et overdress, and Mrs. Spencer, silk. Mrs. J. McD. Cooke poured d wore a white gown with touches ner and picture hat with lavender nk roses. Miss Emma Prince assist-serving, wearing navy blue silk with picture hat. Miss Garbell wned in pink silk, with hat of pink nd lilies of the valley. Miss Bessie ns wore Copenhagen blue broad-with black hat. Miss Dorothy Wil-wore white voile with grey beaver
The drawing room and tea table astefully decorated with pink and arnations and asparagus ferns.
John Russell, of Newcastle, is g some time in town, the guest of l Mrs. A. M. McLellan.
Frank Armstrong also received on and was assisted in receiving by her, Mrs. Donald, Mrs. Armstrong er wedding gown of ivory satin, oint lace. Mrs. Donald wore black h gold trimmings. Mrs. John Don-red tea wearing a grey gown and at. Mrs. Arthur Way, who assisterving wore coronation blue with lvet hat. Miss Hazel Rayworth nk silk voile, with black velvet e drawing room decorations were rnations.
riday afternoon Mrs. James Gear ned at the tea hour. Mrs. Geary sted in receiving by her sister, llespie, of Parrsboro. Miss Geary gown of white and green silk foul-ss Gillespie was in white with of black. Mrs. Edward McSweeney at the tea table wearing a gown broadcloth with hat of black vel-ermine. She was assisted in serv-Miss Fannie Taylor, Miss Emma nd Miss Hazel Taylor. Miss Fan-lor wore white broadcloth with at, Miss Welch white lingerie ith picture hat, and Miss Hazel hite with hat of fawn velvet.
H. W. Dermier has returned to after spending several months atives in Boston.
nd Mrs. A. J. Tingley have also from a hiloday trip to Boston.
V. A. Ferguson entertained at a f five tables on Friday afternoon.
McD. Cooke, Miss Agnes Peters,
Emma Price served the guests.
Archibald McHaffie left on Tuesday

for Springfield (Mass.), where she will spend the winter.

Rev. J. L. Batty and Mrs. Batty returned on Friday from a ten days' holiday trip, during which time they visited Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo. Miss Hattie Tweedie, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Batty, returned on Monday.

Mrs. Frank Dayton received on Tuesday for the first time since her marriage. She was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. W. H. Crandall, and aunt, Mrs. W. B. Dickson, of Hillsboro. Mrs. Dayton wore her wedding gown of ivory satin with pearl and cut crystal trimmings. Mrs. Cranhall wore black satin with blue and gold beaded trimming, and Mrs. Dickson, black silk with black applique. The drawing room was tastefully decorated in pink and white, while the tea run was in yellow and green. Mrs. Irvine Malcolm poured tea, wearing pale blue broadcloth with black beaver hat. She was assisted by Miss Vera Dickson, in black and white silk with black beaver hat with willow plumes; Miss Ethel Crandall in white with touches of lavender, with picture hat of roses and forget-me-nots; Miss Bessie Williams, in blue broadcloth with black picture hat; Miss Beatrice Payson, in white silk with chiffon overdress and picture hat, and Miss Jennie Henderson, in Yellow satin with hat of pale blue and white lilies. Miss Dorothy Crandall attended the door, wearing a gown of pale pink.

Mrs. James Geary entertained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon, and was assisted in receiving her guests by her sister, Miss Gillespie, of Parrsboro, and Mrs. Henry Emmerson, of Amherst. Mrs. L. H. Somner won the first prize, and Mrs. J. J. Taylor the second. Miss Hazel Taylor and Miss Fannie Taylor served the guests.

Mrs. W. A. Humphrey is spending a few days in Hillsboro, the guest of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Steeves.

Mrs. William Jones has returned from Seattle, where she has been spending the past six months with her daughter, Mrs. Woodworth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ripley, of Joggins Mines, are spending a few days in town with their son, Mr. R. Ripley.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Oct. 18—Mrs. B. H. Thomas is visiting friends in Havelock this week.

Mrs. Harmon Curtis, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Friel, for several weeks, returned to her home in Massachusetts on Monday, of this week.

On October 10, at the bride's home in Stoneham (Mass.), the marriage of Miss Eunice Irene Burgess to Mr. Edgar W. Weldon, of Dorchester, took place. Mr. and Mrs. Weldon arrived in town from their wedding trip on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Card and daughter, Irene, have returned home from Stoneham, where they had a pleasant visit, and were present at the Weldon-Burgess wedding.

The funeral of the late Alfred Sherard, who death occurred after a lingering illness, on Friday, took place on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Service was held in Trinity church by the rector, Rev. R. A. Robinson. The surviving members of the family are his mother, Mrs. James Sherard, and one brother, Gordon.

Miss Mima Lockhart has been spending a week in Sackville with friends.

Mr. Thomas Colwell contines very ill at his home.

On Monday evening in Hickman's hall, a musical and literary entertainment was given by the members of Trinity church, who were assisted by the Dorchester orchestra. The programme included choruses by the choir members, readings by Miss Muriel Chapman and Mr. R. W. Hewson, a duet by Mrs. McGrath and Mrs. P. Pimock, songs by Mrs. P. Dimock and Miss Kathleen Hewson, and several pleasing numbers from the orchestra, the members of which are Miss K. O'Brien, and Messrs. G. B. Fowler, Kane, F. C. Dickie, F. O. Chapman, Tom. Gillespie and Ernest Kirk.

Rev. D. E. Hatt has returned from a vacation spent in Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Menzies, of Providence (R. I.), who were in town on their wedding trip for several days, returned home on Monday. Mrs. Menzies was formerly Miss Mildred Maxwell, and at one time a resident of Dorchester.

Mr. W. D. Wilbur has been confined to the house for a few days with a slight indisposition.

Mrs. Harvey Atkinson is visiting in town at the home of Hon. H. R. Emmerson.

REXTON

Rexton, N. B., Oct. 20—Miss Murdock, of St. John, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. A. B. Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hutchinson are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son.

Miss Margaret McGregor is visiting friends in Moncton.

Miss Bella Dixon, of Upper Rexton, has gone to Portland, Maine, to spend the winter.

Rev. F. A. Robinson, of Toronto, and Rev. G. Farquahar, of Hampton, have been here during the recent local option campaign.

Alfred Mundle, of Upper Rexton, who went west on the harvest excursion in August, came home Monday.

HAMPTON

Hampton, N. B., Oct. 18.—Mr and Mrs. Arthur W. Sharp, St. John, who have spent the summer here, returned to their city home on Monday. They intend to be back next spring and will build a modern residence house on the very eligible site they have purchased on Everett street, directly facing Linden Hotel.

Mr and Mrs. Allan W. Hicks, who have been visiting in Botson and vicinity for the past two weeks, are expected home by the end of this week.

Mrs. Arthur B. Smith, who has been consulting a Boston specialist during the past we kor two, will still be absent for about two weks.

Mr. George Davidson, I. C. R. station master here, and Mrs. Davidson, who have been spending a vacation of two weeks at New York and Philadelphia, expect to be home by this week-end.

Mrs. Frank Young, a former resident but now of Halifax, is visiting at the home of Miss Minnie Travis, Hampton Station, and will probably remain till next week. On Tuesday Miss Travis entertained a thimble party in her honor. Mesdames T. Wm. Barnes, E. A. Schofield, N. E. Humphrey, R. A. March and G. M. Wilson were among the invited.

Mrs. Hayfield, widow of Rev. Jesse Hayfield of the Newfoundland Methodist conference, who has been visiting with the family of her brother-in-daw, the Dev. James Duke, during the past month, returned to her home in Newfoundland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Barbour (nee MacMichael), arrived here on Monday and took up their residence for the winter season in the W. O. Slipp house.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Evans and family, St. John, were week-end guests of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Evans.

Miss Georgie Wilson, professional nurse, is attending Mrs. Wesley Weyman, apohaqui.

Mrs. Fanny Hooper left this morning for Newport, Rhode Island, where she will take her final year's course in nursing at the hospital there. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Wm. Langstroth, of The Wayside Inn.

Professor John Lloyd and family are removing to Sussex today, where they will make their home for a time.

Miss H. Lenore Barnes, professional nurse, is in attendance with Miss Laura Tweedie, Sackville, who is said to be very ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Ethel Fowler, who has been very seriously ill with typhoid fever, but was thought to be rapidly improving, had a bad turn yetserday, and her case is by no means encouraging. For some weeks the Methodist church bell has been rung for a few strokes only, in calling to services, on account of her illness.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Oct. 19—The coming season promises to be a very gay one socially and already the clubs for the winter are being formed. The Monday Afternoon Club will hold their first meet of the season next Monday with Mrs. Harry G. Chestnutt. Some of last winter's members are dropping out this year and a number of new ones are being added to fill the vacancies.

The Ladies' Club will hold their first meeting with Mrs. W. H. Steeves on Tuesday evening, Oct. 31.

Mrs. T. Carleton Allen has issued invitations for a double bridge of ten tables for Tuesday evening and for Thursday evening.

Mr. G. A. Taylor, the new manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, has arrived and with his family is moving into "The Gables" and is being warmly welcomed by friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens are receiving many congratulations on the arrival of a son at their home.

Friends here were pleased to learn of the arrival of a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reid, of Calgary, lately of St. John. Mrs. Reid was formerly Miss Fanny Vanwart.

Mrs. Dawes Gillmor left on Tuesday for St. John to meet Mr. Gillmour and will accompany him on a hunting trip.

Mrs. J. A. Edwards has returned from a three weeks' trip to Boston.

Mrs. W. H. Steeves returned from St. John on Saturday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. W. E. Raymond, and Mr. Raymond, who paid a week-end visit here and on their return to St. John were accompanied by their niece, Miss Valerie Steeves.

Most interesting accounts have been received of the post nuptial reception of Mrs. Wilfred Hanbury (nee Carter), of Brandon. The home of Mrs. Flemming, Mr. Hanbury's sister, was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride in her wedding gown looked charming. Assisting were: Mrs. Cumberland, Mrs. Jeffrey, Mrs. Claude Wile, Mrs. Christie and Mrs. Duncan with the Misses Gwen McGregor, Bertha and Melinda Speers and Cosey Lee. Mrs. Hanbury is being warmly welcomed back to Brandon, having spent some time here four years ago with her cousin, the late Hon. S. W. McInnis.

Mrs. J. H. McDonald is in Cape Breton visiting her sister, who is in poor health.

Mrs. A. F. Randolph and Miss Randolph left on Monday evening for Boston, where they will reside for the winter.

Mrs. Byron Coulthard returned today from a visit to Toronto.

Miss Rawlings, of Yarmouth, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Day.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Babbitt are expected home from their trip to the coast on Saturday.

Miss Margaret Jeffrey returned on Saturday from a visit to New York and Garden City, where she was the guest of Mrs. Bull, nee Miss Rainsford.

Mrs. Julien, of St. John, is spending some weeks in the city.

Miss Alice Block, who has been visiting her sisters, the Misses Block, returned to her home in Concord yesterday.

Miss Berkley, of St. John, paid a week-end visit here, the guest of Miss Sherman, returning home on Monday.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Oct. 18—Mrs. N. H. Tonop spent last week in Waltham (Mass.)

Mrs. Charles R. Watson left on Thursday for Malden (Mass.), to spend a month with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sylvester.

Mrs. DeLancey Tompkins, of East Florenceville, is visiting her son, Sheriff J. R. Tompkins.

Messrs. Eldon Clarke, Allan Poole, and Wendall Slipp left on Wednesday for a visit in Boston.

Mrs. R. B. Welch and Miss Hazel Welsh left on Saturday for a trip to New York.

Rev. J. C. Berrie and Mrs. Berrie, of Marysville, and guests of their son, Mr. Charlton Berrie, and Mrs. Berrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Mair have returned after a trip to Boston.

Miss Helen Shaw will leave this week to spend the winter at Riverside, California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hay, of Millville, spent Sunday in town, guests of Mrs. D. McQueen.

Mrs. W. Jack Dibblee received for the first time since her marriage, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. On Tuesday she was assisted by Mrs. T. Carleton Ketchum, while Mrs. R. U. Loane, Miss Kussie Connell, Miss Janet Brown and Miss Lou Smith served. On Wednesday, Mrs. R. Norman Loane received with Mrs. Dibblee, with Mrs. Ketchum, Miss Catherine Rankin, Miss Marguarite Smith and Miss Marguerlate Lamb assisting in the ding room.

Mrs. Frederick W. Harrison returned last week after a visit at Chatham.

Mrs. Hallam Drysdale and little daughter left on Tuesday for New Brittain (Conn.), where they will be guests of Dr. Leon. Darry.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird were visitors in Presque Isle last week.

Miss Myrtle Waite, of Andover, spent last week in town, the guests of Mrs. H. Rankin McLardy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hay entertained a number of young people at bridge on Wednesday evening. The guests were Miss Madeline Lovett (Yarmouth), Miss Ida Hay (Chipman), Miss Mildred Cartell, Miss Marguerite Smith, Miss May Marley, Miss Marguerite Lamb, Messrs. Charles Jones, Richard Shaw, Perley Hartley, Frank Woolverston, Kenneth McLean, Burpee Hay. The first prize was won by Miss Louvett and Mr. Charles J. Jones, and the consolation by Miss Lamb and Mr. Frank Woolverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bailey returned on Saturday after a trip to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farley and family left on Saturday to make their home in California.

Mrs. A. D. Holyoke left on Saturday for a visit in Boston.

Dr. R. G. Thompson and Miss Thompson returned on Wednesday after a trip to Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. William Lowney received Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Watson. She was assisted in receiving by her mother, while Mrs. Loggie Ross, Miss Mary Clarke, Miss Mildred Balmain, Miss Isabel Watts, Mrs. E. L. Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Post arrived from Vancouver (B. C.), Tuesday, accompanied by Miss Bea Blew.

CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, N. B., Oct. 19—Mrs. Harry Fair, of Pt. La Garde (Que.), visited friends in town last week.

Mrs. Tapper, of Montreal, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Benson.

Miss Fletcher returned to Amherst Monday morning, after a visit with friends here.

Mrs. John Stevens and two children and Miss Babin, of Edmundston, were the guests of Mrs. Thos. Malcolm last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wran have returned from a trip to Boston and New York.

Mr. Harry Anslow has returned from a trip to Moncton and St. John.

Miss Elizabeth Joudry returned home last week from a visit with friends in P. E. Island.

Mr. Earl Mowat, of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff, Montreal, spent his holidays at his home here.

Mrs. Walter Appleton returned home this morning from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harold Shaw, in Montreal.

Miss Alice Joudry arrived home this week from Claremont (N. H.) and will spend the winter here.

Miss McKenna, of Moncton, is the guest of Miss Maud O'Keefe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. G. McKenzie spent part of last week in Carleton.

Mr. A. D. Munroe, of Montreal, is in town, relieving Mr. Glennie, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mrs. James W. Patterson left this week to spend a few days in Moncton.

Mr. Evan Price left this morning for Moncton.

Mrs. Hambley and children, of Melita, are the guests of Mrs. Hambley's sister, Mrs. A. E. G. McKenzie.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Oct. 20—Miss Stables returned on the 17th from a month's visit to Fredericton.

Mrs. Clifford Allison and little daughter Louise, are spending a month with their cousins, the Misses Kelly, of Fredericton.

Percy McLean, of Moncton, spent the week-end home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McLean.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Dean are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter on the 17th inst.

Miss Elizabeth Parker, who has spent the sumer with friends here, returned to New York on the 17th instant.

Stuart Stables returned from Fredericton hospital on the 17th, after successfully undergoing an operation.

Ald. George Stables is able to be out again after a severe illness.

John DeBow, late of the Lounsbury staff, has accepted a position in Toronto, for which he left last night.

Gordon Turner, of Moncton, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ingram.

Miss Pinkie Ingram, who has recently graduated from business college, has accepted a position as stenographer in Boston, and will leave for that city on the 28th inst.

Charles Robinson, of St. John, and his children, Miss Clara and Master Everett, are visiting the former's mother and sisters.

Mrs. A. Bowman and Mrs. Walliver, of Boston, spent the last two weeks with friends in Douglastown.

Miss Alma Goodin, who spent the last few months with her sister, Mrs. J. D. Paulin, has gone to Montreal to study nursing in St. Justine Hospital.

John A. Creaghan left on the 17th to attend Dalhousie Law School at Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris, of Moncton, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. H. Sinclair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sinclair gave a programme of eighteen dances, exclusive of extras, to a large number of their friends on the 17th. McEachern's orchestra furnished music, the house was beautifully decorated and a delightful supper was served.

Arthur Robinson, of New York, is occupying his villa at Holmes Lake.

Misses Agnes Pittman and Jennie Bransfield, of Douglas town, have gone to Boston.

Miss May McCallum returned on Wednesday to Brockton (Mass.)

Mrs. Ernest Mullin and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. Allison, of Campbellton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kingston are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a boy.

Miss Annie Crocker spent Sunday with the Misses Herbert, of Bathurst.

Miss Cicely Clancy, of Dervy, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Morrison.

Mrs. Henry McLean and son, Harry, have returned from Lawrence (Mass.)

Mrs. Annie O' Brien, of Williamstown, is visiting her son, Neil O'Brien.

Mrs. John Morrissy is visiting Dr. and Mrs. McManus, of Blackville.

Misses Jennie Williston and Annie Cop spent part of last week in Whitneyville.

Ernest Hutchinson, of Douglas town, has returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Hugh Moncrief, of Winnipeg.

Mrs. Malcolm McLeod left on Wednesday for a visit to her sisters in Amherst and Truro, before returning to her home in Robury (Mass.)

ANDOVER

Andover, N. B., Oct. 19—Rev. J. A. Ives and Mrs. Ives are spending a few weeks in Boston.

Miss Davies and Miss Robertson walked to Bath Friday, going from there to Bristol by auto.

Mrs. M. A. MacDonald, who has been visiting Senator and Mrs. Baird, started for her home in Cranbrook (B. C.), last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. A. Perley is spending a week or two in Boston.

George Camber, of Presque Isle (Me.), passed through Andover Wednesday afternoon, to his old home at Arthurette. He was accompanied by a friend.

Senator George F. Baird left Andover Thursday for Winnipeg to be gone a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beveridge, of Arthurette were calling upon friends in town Wednesday.

Mrs. S. P. Waite is visiting friends in Boston.

Miss Sarah Watson drove to Fort Fairfield (Me.), Sunday, where she was the guest of Mrs. E. S. Hopkins.

W. A. Gillett was a recent visitor at Fort Fairfield, Maine.

Dr. R. W. L. Earle was again called to Hampton, last week, owing to the illness and death of his mother. Dr. Earle has many friends who sympathize with him in his bereavement.

Mrs. F. M. Howard entertained the Tuesday Club this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Bedell were recent visitors at Fort Fairfield, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy G. Porter, Mrs. Spike and Miss Armstrong went to Florenceville by auto Monday.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton, who has been preaching in the Presbyterian church during the summer, gave his farewell sermon Sunday evening and will leave Andover Saturday.

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, N. B., Oct. 19—Mrs. J. P. Byrne, of Bathurst, spent two days in town last week, guest of Mrs. J. B. H. Storer.

Mrs. H. A. Hilyard left last Thursday for St. John to spend a few weeks with friends.

Miss Alice Harquail, night matron of the General Public Hospital St. John, is here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harquail.

Miss Emma Baldwin, of Boston, is now at home for a month with her mother, Mrs. John Baldwin.

Mr. L. E. McLellan, of the Royal Bank of Canada here, who has been on his vacation to his home in Summerside (P. E. I.), returned on Monday night to Dalhousie.

Mrs. George E. Mercier and her daughter, Lumina, left for Montreal last Friday to visit friends for a few weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Stewart spent Sunday last at Cross Point (P. Q.), guest of Mrs. Jellett.

Mr. Charles Scott, of Amherst, spent a few days at home last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Scott.

Mrs. Thomas Murphy left town on Saturday to visit friends in Petit Rocher and Bathurst for a few weeks before joining her husband in the West.

Dr. B. Sproul and Mrs. Sproul, of Black Cape (P. Q.), are spending a few days in town with friends.

Mrs. John Baldwin gave a very enjoyable birthday party last night in honor of her daughter, Margaret. The following were present: Miss Alice Harquail, St. John; Miss K. Magee, Moncton; Miss Opal LaBillois, the Misses Troy, Miss Eva Barberie, Miss Stasia Harquail, Miss B. Mercier and Miss Ettie and Emma Baldwin, Boston; also the Misses F. Morris, R. Richard, A. L. LeBillois, W. Loggie and F. Troy.

WESTFIELD BEACH

Westfield Beach, N. B., Oct. 19—Mrs. W. H. Lingley is spending a few days in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stephenson have returned home from Boston, where they spent a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith were visitors here on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Prime and son Ralph spent the week-end in St. John.

Mrs. Parlee, of Auburrn (N. S.), spent Sunday here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Lingley.

Errol A. Inches and W. Gordon Kerr are spending the week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Coster, who have spent the summer at Woodman's Point, have returned to the city.

Preparations are being made for a "farmers' supper" to be held in the hall here on Saturday evening, 28th inst.

Mrs. Hatton has returned to Calais, having been the guest here of her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Watters.

BATHURST

Bathurst, N. B., Oct. 19—Mrs. D. T. Johnston has returned, after a visit to Chatham friends

Mrs. H. McDonald, who spent the summer with her mother, Mrs. J. Mullins, left for Ottawa this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stubbs, of St. John visited friends here last week.

Mrs. S. Shirley left this week to visit relatives in Berlin (N. H.)

Miss Lou Abbott reached home this week, after a month's absence in Chatham.

Mrs. J. P. Leger went to Buctouche on Tuesday to spend a week.

Miss Annie Burns returned to Boston during the first part of the month, to resume her duties as professional nurse there.

Miss May Ryan, of Newcastle, assumed charge of the N. W. T. office here last week.

Mrs. Thos. Murphy, of Dalhousie, is a guest of Mrs. Wm. Sweeney.

Miss Kathleen Mullins left recently for a visit to friends in Boston.

Mrs. Geo. Metzler and family went to Campbellton during the week, and will in future reside there.

Mr. H. K. B. Marsland, of Chatham, made a short stay here this week.

Mr. Sandy McQueen, of the staff of the Bank of Montreal, has been transferred to Montreal, and will leave for that city this week. He will be replaced here by Mr. F. Blair, of St. John.

Miss R. Carter, of Tetegouche, has gone for a visit of several months to New Jersey.

Miss Ida Sullivan, who has been in Vancouver (B. C.), is at home to spend the winter.

Mr. Clytus Elhatton, recently a student at the Grand Seminary, Montreal, has gone to Rome to enter the Canadian College.

Dr. Wm. Coffin and Dr. Wesley Coffin, who recently purchased the residence and practice of Dr. J. McNichol, arrived in Bathurst last week. The many friends of Dr. McNichol and Mrs. McNichol are delighted to find that their departure for the West is not immediate, and that they will spend some months longer here.

Mr. J. Elhatton, of Boston, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Elhatton.

A very pretty house wedding took place on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shirley, when Miss Maud, their third daughter, was married to Mr. Wm. Killam, of Campbellton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Walter Matthews. The bride was unattended, and wore a charming costume of blue broadcloth. After the marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Killam left for a trip to Toronto and other Canadian cities. Presents both costly and numerous were received.

SUSSEX

Sussex, Oct. 19—Mrs. Charles Pickard, of Sackville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Mark Teakles.

Mrs. Wm. W. Stockton will leave Saturday for Charlottetown, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Sharpe.

Mr. Leo Lipsett and Mr. H. G. Keith, of Boston, who have been spending their vacation here, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler, Miss Fowler, Mrs. Clark, of Halifax, and J. Everett Keith went to St. John Wednesday in Mr. Fowler's auto.

Mrs. W. S. Thomas was hostess at a delightful bridge on Thursday evening of last week. Mrs. J. M. Kinnear and Mr. G. S. Kinnear won the honors. The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Daly, Mrs. Meaney (New York), Mrs. Ross and Mrs. McRobbie (St. John), Mrs. Clarke (Halifax), Mrs. Geo. W. Fowler, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kinnear, Major O. R. and Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Leonard, Miss Della White, Mrs. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. Begg, Ralph Freeze and S. J. Goodliffe.

Mrs. Wm. D. Turner received this week for the first time since her marriage in June. The house was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations and asters. Mrs. Turner wore her wedding dress which was cream satin with lace and pearl trimmings. She was assisted in receiving the guests by her mother, Mrs. William Maggs, and Mrs. Percy P. Gunn. Mrs. A. G. Mills and Mrs. Osgoode ushered, Miss Phyllis Wier attended the door; in the dining room Mrs. J. Everett Keith poured tea; Mrs. H. E. Goold served the ices; Miss Mary Allen, Miss Bessie Parker, Miss Maggs, Miss Annie Huestis and Miss Lottie Maggs served.

Mrs. J. J. Daly entertained at bridge on Monday evening. Mrs. George Fowler, Mrs. C. P. Clarke and J. M. Kinnear won the honors. The guests present were Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Arnold, Miss Della White, Mrs. McRobbie, Mrs. Meaney, Mrs. C. P. Clarke, Mrs. Begg, Mrs. W. H. McLeod, Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Clarke (Halifax), Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Geo. W. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kinnear, Mr. and Mrs. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Kinnear and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas.

Mrs. Fred Davidson and little daughter, Dorothy, spent Wednesday in Petitcodiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bonnell are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, born the 19th.

Professor Charles J. Oviatt, of the University of Wyoming, was here this week and was the guest of J. Frank Roach and Walter McMonagle.

Mrs. S. Hayward, of Hampton, was a visitor here this week.

PARRSBORO

Parrsboro, Oct. 19—Mrs. Clarke, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James D. Gillespie, has returned to Pugwash.

F. B. McCurdy, M. P., and Mrs. McCurdy, of Halifax, were in town on Thursday.

Miss Warner has returned from a visit to friends in Amherst.

Miss Delia Reid, of Wolfville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. Berryman.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Spicer, of Amherst, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Spicer last week.

Mrs. Bird, of Amherst, is visiting her parents, Capt. and Mrs. C. M. Roberts.

Mrs. J. Hugh Tucker, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Day, in Halifax, returned on Friday.

Mrs. Webster and little daughter, of Kentville, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Webster.

Mrs. T. C. Choisnet is visiting Mrs. W. J. Gard in Amherst.

Mr. Robert Gabriel went to Eastport on Monday, where he has accepted a position.

Mrs. William E. Holmes has purchased the residence of Mr. R. W. Hodgson on Western avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson will occupy the flat over Miss Kirkpatrick's store for the winter.

Mrs. James W. Stevens was at home on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. She was assisted by Mrs. Stewart Mason and Mrs. D. K. Holmes.

Miss Bessie Brown, formerly of Parrsboro, and Mr. Guy Sydney Holmes were married at Winnipeg a few days ago.

Mrs. Charles McDade and Miss Rector spent last week with friends at Maccan.

Rev. W. J. Sweatnam is spending his vacation in Cape Breton.

Bishop Worrell, of Halifax, administered the rite of confirmation to about twenty persons in St. George's church on Monday evening.

Miss Lillian Ward arrived from Boston on Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ward. Miss Ward has just returned from a four months' tour of Europe.

Miss Effie Hatfield left for Boston the first of the week, where she intends to remain for the winter.

Mrs. J. J. McKay is spending a few days in Springhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cutten have gone to Springhill to reside.

Mr. William Myers and Mr. Robert Morrison, two aged and esteemed residents, died this week.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, Oct. 19—The Kent County Teachers' Institute will be held at Buctouche Thursday and Friday, Oct. 26-27. An interesting programme has been announced, and a large attendance is expected.

D. H. Waterbury, dominion government building inspector, was in town on Monday.

John McCleave, of Buctouche, last week underwent a serious, but successful operation at the Moncton Hospital.

Miss Hattie Pierce has returned from St. John, where she spent the summer.

Mrs. William Bell went to Moncton on Tuesday, to see her little daughter, Marjory, who is now rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Carter returned on Saturday from a visit to Moncton.

J. Harry Baird, business manager here for A. & L. Loggie, returned last week from a well earned vacation, spent at his home in Salisbury.

Mrs. Thomas Long and little son, who have for some weeks been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Long, left on Saturday to return to their home in Montreal.

Misses Lily V. Peters, Peters' Mills, and Miss E. Alberta McBeath, of the South Side, are away on a trip which will include visits to friends in St. John and Westmorland counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hutchinson and family, who were spending a few weeks with relatives in Moulies River, returned last week to their home in Brownville, Maine.

NORTON

Norton, Oct. 18—The revival meetings held here were largely attended.

Miss Alice Byron, accompanied by her friend, Miss Cunningham, spent the week-end in Norton.

Miles Killie, of St. John, spent a few days with friends here.

Harry Campbell has returned to Hartford (Conn.)

Wm. Foley, who spent a few days in Norton with friends, has returned to Boston.

Mrs. James Byron has returned home, after spending a month with her brother, John McDuff, of Roxbury (Mass.)

William Gallager was united in marriage to Miss Monahan, of Southfield, in the Sacred Heart church, on Oct. 8. They will reside in Norton.

HARCOURT

Harcourt, Oct. 19—Miss Marion Wathen and Miss Annie Campbell went to St. John on Tuesday to attend the annual convention of the New Brunswick Sunday School Association.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buckley returned on Tuesday to Pictou, after a pleasant visit with relatives in town.

Miss Jessie P. Dunn returned on Thursday to