Raymond Jones, who was arrested on Monday on charge of criminal assault on hearing on Saturday. Before he was cap-cape. Armed with a knife he threatened to use it when cornered but Frank Thornton, a baseball player, brought him down with a stone. Officer A. R. Foster hurried him away in an auto and saved him from rough handling by twenty-five men who were engaged in the chase. It is the most revolting crime in the history of the county and the people of the vicinity are much wrought up over it.
