COWARDLY SLANDERS MEAN A LOSS OF HUNDREDS OF VOTES TO PUGSLEY AND MACRAE

"Gershom S. Mayes dredge scratched nothing up from the bottom of St. John harbor half as foul and dirty as the plot he and the Tory leaders between them have hatched to discredit the Minister of Public Works. The fact that the charge against Mr Pugsley is based on something alleged to have taken place two years before he went to Ottawa shows the absurdity of the whole matter.—Halifax Echo.

H. A. Powell, K. C., speaking before the Conservative Club here on the 25th ult., said:—

"In Mr. Pugsley you have a man who, in SERVING HIS OWN and his country's interests, is also serving yours."

Mr. Powell evidently knows Mr. Sumner sufficiently to be placed in W. A's interests first and then the country's. That's how it would be if the impossible happened.—Powell evidently knows.—Moncton Transcript.

"I had the reputation of being a temperance man from the time I was at my mother's breast and prohibitionist from then up," says George Eulas Foster. It was wise of Mr. Foster to say nothing stronger than that he had the "reputation." His reputation at present among the prohibitionists is about as sweet as Limburger cheese.—Halifax Echo.

One reason why St. John is going to support Hon. Mr. Pugsley in the present campaign, is because the people of that city believe that he will work in their interests. They have no confidence in a government of which Mr. Foster would be the finance minister. Mr. Foster refused to extend St. John any aid towards the development of [illegible]

Charles R. Wasson Chosen President—Round Table Conducted

Business was resumed at the Baptist Young People's League of New Brunswick at two o'clock yesterday afternoon and was concluded with the evening session. C. R. Wasson was elected president for the ensuing year. H. H. Parsons opened the afternoon session with devotional service. After which the president, H. A. Dearness, took the chair and the meeting heard the reports of the officers, including the treasurer and the editor of the young people's page in the Maritime Baptist. The secretary's report showed in all 1200 members and upwards of 20 branches had been heard from.

Rev. David Higginson led a round-table conference on "How to better our Young People's Work." Mr. Hutchinson pleaded for greater social effort on the part of the young people.

The nominating committee reported they had chosen the following officers:

Chas. R. Wasson, president; Allan McIntyre, general secretary; A. H. Campbell, recording secretary; E. T. Coanan, auditor and Miss M. L. Silas, Woodstock, treasurer.

Addresses were given by the newly elected and retiring presidents. Mr. Dearness declined a second term of presidency for another term and under his [illegible] gain of many votes for Carvell on the 24th. It was on Tory ground, but with both candidates before them the people showed by their applause their appreciation of the able and gentlemanly manner in which Mr. Carvell conducted himself. Carvell will cut down the adverse majority.

THE SWISS REPUBLIC.

The Swiss republic with various changes has survived from the year 1308, though its present constitution dates only from 1874. It now embraces three nationalities—German, French, and Italian. The original nucleus of the state, however, was German, and even now considerably more than half the population is German. Federated under the constitution of 1874 are 22 distinct states.

Leadership great progress was made. An address by Rev. A. B. Cohoe followed.

In the evening a public meeting was held and an address by Rev. B. C. Dockrill at Moncton closed a successful convention to a close.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Miramichi is discovered at present by the presence of [illegible] baronet, who has come a [illegible] to shoot moose at the Burnt Land. Mr. Langham is his name, and he arrived on the steamer Vicomia last week, coming through to Newcastle by railway. He was accompanied by a guide, who was formerly in the employ of the Miramichi Game Protective Association, and who is well known in this city. The party went up the river on Monday last, and it is understood that they have secured a moose. Mr. Langham is a keen sportsman, and has shot in many parts of the world. He is a member of the Marylebone Club, London, and has shot moose in Newfoundland. He is a tall, fine-looking man, and has the appearance of a good sportsman. He is a nephew of Sir Thomas Lipton, and is a cousin of Mr. Langham, who was a guest at the Miramichi last year. The party will return to Newcastle next week.
