Grace Church Picnic

The Grace Church Sunday school scholars had a great time Wednesday on the occasion of their annual picnic. They were accompanied by parents and friends and numbered 200 strong, Whiteman's Creek being selected for the trip, which was made in the big bus and four carioles. Fortunately the rain interfered little with the arrangements and all went well. Races, sports and games were taken part in, and for the younger members there was a peanut scramble and also a candy scramble. Many handsome prizes were awarded in fitting manner to the race winners by the Venerable Archdeacon, who enjoyed the pleasantries to the full. Rev Patterson-Smyth was notably genial and he was found in favor with all from the tiny tots to elderly matrons. A pleasant interlude was afforded when the mill was inspected and the workings explained to all.

One of the members was accidentally left behind when the group returned at 7.30. He was Mr Clark and this morning he declared that the hike of seven miles was most enjoyable.
