THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., NOV. 8, 1907.

Death of Hon. Dr. Parker

On Monday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, the death occurred at his home in Dartmouth of Hon. Daniel McNeil Parker, M. D., D. C. L., in the 85th year of his age. He was a native of Hants county and was one of the best known and most highly esteemed men in Nova Scotia. He was twice married. His first wife was Elizabeth Ritchie, daughter of the Hon. J. W. Johnstone, his second wife was Fannie Holmes, daughter of the Hon. W. A. Black. He leaves a widow and four children, Mary Ann, wife of Rev. Dr. Keirstead; W. F. Parker, barrister of this town; Laura McNeil, wife of McCallum Grant; and Fannie A Parker, living at home. The doctor was a distinguished physician and a man who all respected and loved.

Acadia vs. U. N. B.

The foot-ball game on Tuesday afternoon between Acadia and the University of New Brunswick resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 6—3. The day was a delightful one and the game was witnessed by a very large number of spectators. In the first half the visitors had the best of the play and by splendid rushes carried the ball into Acadia's territory and McNaughton scored a try. In the second half Acadia got down to work and for the most part kept the ball in the visitors' territory. Messenger by a quick dash got across the line and scored a try, and just before the conclusion of the half DeBow made another try, and amid wild cheering the game ended 6—3 in favor of Acadia.

A reception was given in the evening in Assembly Hall, in honor of the visiting team, which was a very successful affair. The guests were received by Miss Mildred McDaniels, President of the Y. W. C. A., and Lemuel Arkland, President of the Y. M. C. A. Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Wortman and Mrs. Chute were the chaperons.

Nova Scotia's Fruit Exhibit.

Nova Scotia's exhibit of the choicest varities of apples grown in this province, which is to be placed on exhibition at the Royal Horticultural Society's show which is to be held in London the latter part of the month, has arrived in London. For this collection the Government of Nova Scotia bought twenty-five boxes and eight barrels of the best to be had this year. In addition to this, there were contributed 144 boxes, 23 barrels and six half-barrels of choice samples. Of these, there were two barrels from A. C. Starr, Starr's Point, which contained thirty varieties, all grown on one farm, which is in itself a remarkable phase of the exhibit. There was also a collection of small fruits, consisting of strawberries, plums, etc., preserved in acids, which will give a fair idea of the perfection to which many kinds of such fruit, besides apples, grow to maturity in this province. The names of the contributors to the Royal collection, with their post office addresses, are as follows:

F. W. Foster, North Kingston, Kings County.
R. S. Messenger, Tupperville, Annapolis County.
J. C. Johnson, Bridgetown, Annapolis County.
W. H. Woodworth, Berwick, Kings County.
J. A. Kinsman, Lakeville, Kings County.
J. Elliot Smith, Wolfville, Kings County.
A. C. Starr, Starr's Point, Kings County.
J. C. Welton, North Kingston, Kings County.
John Donaldson, Port Williams, Kings County.
E. E. Archibald, Wolfville.
D. H. Collins, Port Williams.
Berwick Fruit Co., Ltd., Berwick.
F. A. Parker, Berwick.
A. L. Morse, Berwick.

A Warning to Mothers.

There are unscrupulous dealers who for the sake of trifling gain are willing to sacrifice the health—perhaps the lives—of little ones. This is proved by the fact that there are a number of imitations of Baby's Own Tablets offered. The mother can protect her child by seeing that the full name Baby's Own Tablets and the four-leaf clover with child's head on each leaf, is found on the outside wrapper around each box. Do not take anything else as you may endanger your child's life. If you cannot get the genuine Tablets from your dealers send 25 cents to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and get a box by mail post paid.

The opening lecture of the College will be given by President Hutchinson in College Hall on Wednesday evening of next week at 7.30 o'clock. The subject will be 'The value of an education.' The public are cordially invited.

Town Council Meeting.

THE CITY FATHERS HOLD A QUIET AND BUSINESS-LIKE SESSION.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Council on Wednesday evening Mayor Black and all the members of the Board were present except Councillor McKenna.

After the reading and confirming of the minutes of the last meeting the chairman of the Streets Committee presented a verbal report. Very little work had been done during the month, as it was almost impossible to secure labor. Mr. Ellis, the teamster, had applied for higher wages and his request not being granted had given up his position. The horse is now being cared for by Mr. Rye. Concerning offer of Acadia Electric Light Co., the committee reported that the company's offer included town plant and franchises. The committee reported on curbing Main street that 1110 feet of granite curbing had been laid at a cost of about 70 cents per running foot. The committee believes this to be a move towards permanent streets without increasing our bonded debt, and recommends that more of this curbing be contracted for, also the necessary crossings. This can be secured now at a cost of five cents less per running foot, and there will be no delay in going to work as soon as the weather permits in the spring.

The Committee on License and Police reported the receipts for licenses granted during the quarter ending Sept. 30th $68.00. The court fees during the same time amounted to $14.75. "The duties performed by policeman continue satisfactory, and good order prevails in the town at all times."

The Finance Committee reported the receipts for the month $723 84 and the expenditures during the same time $1198 97. The bank overdraft on Oct. 31st was $1768 80. The auditors' balance sheet for the nine months ending Sept. 30th was also read. There is sufficient outstanding taxes to wipe out our debt and leave a balance on the right side at the end of the year.

The following accounts were read and ordered to be paid:

Thelbert Rice	$741 45
L Clyde Davidson & Co	.80
L. W. Sleep	5 19
T. L. Harvey	14 66
T. R. Wallace	6.98
J. P. Jodrey	2.88
Wood & Mahoney	31 60
Shaffner & Pineo	10.00
John J Ellis	4.75
Town Clerk	2.40
Rebecca Gould	12.50
Mrs. Weatherbee	4.00
Valley Telephone Co	9 25

Mr. W. H. Duncanson was present and asked permission to move a building along the streets to his own property, which permission was, on motion, granted.

Resolved that the Council approve of the idea of contracting for another thousand feet, or more if necessary, of granite curbing for Main street at 60 cents per foot.

Correspondence was read between the Street Committee and the management of the Valley Telephone Co. concerning the erection of telephone poles in town and it was

Resolved that the request of the Valley Telephone Co. that they be allowed to proceed with construction on the streets be granted and that the Superintendent of Streets be appointed to supervise such construction.

The Companion as a Christmas Gift.

Nobody is too young, nobody too old, to enjoy reading The Youth's Companion. For that reason it makes one of the most appropriate of Christmas gifts—one of the few whose actual worth far outweighs the cost. Welcome as the paper may be to the casual reader on the train, at the office, in the public library, it is, after all, the paper of the home. The regularity and frequency of its visits, the cordial sincerity of its tone, make for it soon the place of a familiar friend in the house. Like a good friend, too, it stands always for those traits and qualities which are typified in the ideal home, and are the sources of a nation's health and true prosperity. Is there another Christmas present costing so little that equals it?

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price (with 50 cents added for extra postage on Canadian subscriptions), the publishers send to the new subscriber all the remaining issues of The Companion for 1907 and the Four Leaf Hanging Calendar for 1908 in full color.

Full illustrated Announcement of the new volume for 1908 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free.

The Youth's Companion,
144 Berkeley Street, Boston, Mass.

Writs for the by-election in Colchester county have been issued. The nominations are on Nov. 21st and voting on Nov. 28th. John Stanfield will likely be the Conservative candidate, and Mr. Hill, brother of the local member of the county, the Liberal candidate.

Wedding Bells.

LEAVY—VAUGHAN.

A quiet wedding took place at Mrs. Ida Vaughan's, Greenfield, the mother of the bride, on Wednesday evening, October 30th. The parties were Mr. Maurice Edward Leavy and Vera Gladys Vaughan, both of Greenfield. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Brown, officiated. The bride was becomingly attired in a white silk dress with chiffon trimmings. Only immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch and chain. A Chinese tea set, cream set, fruit dish, cake plate and other useful and ornamental presents were given.

NEW LONDON, CONN, Oct. 17th.—A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drew, 78 Smith St., last evening at 5 o'clock, when their daughter Jennie Alice and Robert W. Holmes were united in marriage.

The bride was attired in white satin and bride's veil with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Dowd, of this city, was attired in pale blue silk and carried white carnations. The best man, a cousin of the bride, was William Tomkins, of Graton.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred Poole Grint, Ph. D., at St. James' church. There were guests present from Buffalo, N. Y., Plainfield, N.J., and Groton The bride received many useful and handsome presents. After a short wedding trip to Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will take up their residence at the home of the bride's parents in this city.

[The groom is a son of Mr. William Holmes, of Avonport. THE ACADIAN extends best wishes.]

Mrs. Malaprop

ON THE HIGHER EDUCATION OF YOUNG WOMEN

In a town interested in the higher education of young women Mrs. Malaprop's views upon this question will be of interest:

'Observe me, Sir Anthony. I would by no means wish a daughter of mine to be a progeny of learning: I don't think so much learning becomes a young woman; for instance, I would never let her meddle with Greek, or Hebrew, or algebra, or simony, or fluxions, or paradoxes, or such inflammatory branches of learning: neither would it be necessary for her to handle any of the mathematical, astronomical, diabolical instruments. But, Sir Anthony, I would send her at nine years old to a boarding school, in order to learn a little ingenuity and artifice. Then, sir, she would have a supercilious knowledge in accounts:— and as she grew up, I would have her instucted in geometry, that she might know something of the contagious countries:— but above all, Sir Anthony, she should be mistress of orthodoxy, that she might not mis-spell, and mis-pronounce words so shameful as girls usually do, and likewise that she might reprehend the true meaning of what she is saying. This, Sir Anthony, is what I would have a woman know:— and I do not think that there is a superstitious article in it.'—The Rivals.

At Home

A very pleasant "At Home" was held at the residence of Prof. and Mrs Emery on Friday evening of last week. The guests present represented Kentville, Grand Pre, Melanson, Lakeville, Long Island, Wallbrook, Wolfville and Greenwich. The following musical program was presented:—

THE PROGRAM

'Fear Not Ye, O Israel' — Duck
Miss Palmeter
'An Old Garden' — Temple
'Just for This' — Beach
'Hasheen' — Needham
Miss Palmeter
Duet—'O for thy wings, O dove' — Watson
Miss Palmeter and Mr. Emery
'The Rosary' — Nevin
'You and I' — Lehmann
'My Dear Jerusaly, — Gaynor
'Slumber Boat' — Gaynor
'Tit for Tat' — Poniet
Miss Palmeter
Duet—'A Lover and his Lass' — Walthew
Miss Palmeter and Mr. Emery

Mr. and Mrs. Emery were the accompanists.

Miss Palmeter, of Grand Pre, a pupil of Mr. Emery, has made remarkable progress and in the rendition of the program proved herself to be a young lady of pronounced musical ability. The evening was a most enjoyable one.

Death of James M. Stevens.

HARVEY, Albert Co., Oct. 30.—The funeral took place today of James M. Stevens, the veteran postmaster of this place. He was about eighty years old. His death occurred on Monday. Mr. Stevens, who was a cousin of ex-Governor McClelan, was one of the oldest postmasters in the province. For many years he conducted a general store at this place and besides being a deacon of the Baptist church and a prominent worker in Sunday school affairs, he took an active interest in everything which pertained the welfare of the community. A man of kindly disposition, exceedingly sympathetic and generous, he possessed a vein of humor which made him a pleasant conversationalist.

Mr. Stevens was twice married, both wives having died before him. He will be greatly missed, particularly by the people of this part of the country.

We copy the above from a New Brunswick paper as the deceased had many relatives amongst our readers, his father, Aron Stevens, with others from this township, having gone to Albert county, N. B., where they built up a 'New Horton' on the banks of the Shepody river.

Aaron Stevens was the son of Moses Stevens, one of the original settlers of this township. His brothers settled here were Jacob at Alton, Moses at Gaspereau and Rev. James Stevens, well known throughout the province. His sisters were Mrs. P. M. Benjamin and Mrs. Ebenezar Coldwell
