QUESTIONS REQUIRING ATTENTION.

Meeting of the Deputation Appointed to Go to Ottawa.

A preliminary meeting of the city council deputation appointed to press upon the Dominion government the necessity of giving attention to various matters in connection with the city was held yesterday. Present were Chairman Shaw, Ald. Steiner, Defoe, Hall, Jones and Mayor Howland. With reference to the dangerous condition of the King street west railway crossing, it was decided to act in accordance with the report of the works sub-committee, which recommended that the C. P. R. be required to direct their tracks to cross King street side by side with the G. T. R. tracks, and that authority be obtained for the erection of a subway. It was decided to see how far the government would go in completing the harbor improvements. Other matters that will be laid before the government are the increasing of the candle power of gas from 16 to 25; the abolition of assisted immigration; the refunding of the money expended by the city for the relief of volunteers and their families; and the necessity of erecting a new iron bridge in place of the wooden one—at present crossing the railway tracks at Dundas street. It was also decided to ascertain the intentions of the government as to the erection of a new drill shed.

The members of the deputation are Ald. Shaw, Steiner, Turner, Defoe, Pepler, Hall, Saunders, Jones and the mayor. They will leave for Ottawa Tuesday night.

Another Fire in the Ward.

Fires in the ward have been of frequent occurrence of late. Another broke out at 9.40 last night in the stables in the rear of William Dancy's butcher shop at Chestnut and Edward street. Mr. Dancy's horse was removed from the stable in time to escape burning. The flames spread to the carpenter shop of John Penderleith, who lives in Mr. Dancy's rear in the first house south of Edward on Chestnut. Three hundred dollars' worth of damage was done to his tools and plant. The neighboring houses are almost exclusively frame buildings, and for a time there was an exciting scene. The residents of at least a dozen houses in the vicinity got their effects into the road. The flames caught on the roof of the house on the southwest corner of Edward and Elizabeth streets, occupied by Matthew Ryan, and did another $500 worth of damage. Mr. Dancy lost $1000, partially covered by insurance.

Toronto Vocal Society.

The attention of the non-commissioned officers and men of the city volunteer force is called to the concert to be given by the Toronto Vocal society in the Pavilion music hall on April 27 in aid of the Sisterhood of St. John the Divine. The sisters gave their services as nurses at Moose Jaw to the wounded volunteers during the late rebellion, and the entertainment should receive the hearty support of their comrades. Those attending are requested to appear in uniform.

A hint to house-keepers. Drop in and see those beautiful Brussels Carpets at 55c per yard. A few choice patterns left. 284 Yonge street, Purland & Duffett, cor. Wilton ave.

Giants in Lanark County.

A correspondent writing from Smith's Falls says: "Having seen an item representing that there are in the state of Georgia six brothers who measure 38 feet 6 inches, and weigh each over 200 lbs., I submit the following as a production of Ontario, and of the county of Lanark. We have eight brothers here by the name of Coade, who measure in their socks 52 feet 4 inches, and weigh 1720 lbs., or an average of 215 lbs. each. The tallest is 6 feet 7 inches, and the shortest 6 feet 4 inches. The heaviest weighs 277 lbs., and the lightest 195."

An Irish Landlord in America.

CHICAGO, March 19.—Six weeks ago the Tribune published an article on alien landlordism, showing that an Irishman named Wm. Scully, now residing in London, is proprietor of between 75,000 and 90,000 acres of the best farming land in Illinois. The writer of the article on visiting the Scully estate claimed that the lands were tilled by a wretched class of tenants from whom are exacted enormous rentals. Almost the entire proceeds from the sale of their crops went to pay the rents. Investigation was instituted and a tour of Kansas and Nebraska developed the information that the title to more than 100,000 acres of the choicest prairie lands in those states is vested in the name of Wm. Scully. The lease that binds the tenants is virtually a chattel mortgage, and all other claims against the tenants are shut out until Scully gets his rent.

Playing Marbles.

From the Boston Courier.

When smiling spring returns to cheer
And nature's warblers reappear,
And buds upon the trees are seen,
And leaves again show glints of green,
And Sol begins to dry the ground,
The small boy in the streets is found,
And no less happy than when he
Rushed down the "coast" so merrily;
He's put away his sled and skates,
And now plays marbles with his mates.
Full of excitement, through his veins the young blood swiftly leaps;
It is no small affair to him—not when he plays for "keeps."
"The child is father of the man" this boyish pastime shows;
He'll play for "keeps" with stocks and bonds for marbles when he grows.
