AMONG THE POLITICIANS.

LABOR NOMINATION IN EAST TORONTO RATIFIED.

John Armstrong's Candidature Enthusiastically Endorsed—Meredith's Majority in London Sure to Be Over Five Hundred—The Opposition Leader's Program—Gossip of the Campaign.

The meeting of delegates from the Labor bodies, called to ratify the nomination of John Armstrong, in accordance with the resolution of the nominating convention, was held last evening in Richmond Hall. Robert Glockling occupied the chair. Over 100 delegates were present.

Some discussion took place as to the position of the Bricklayers' Union in the campaign, that body not having been represented at the convention. The secretary was instructed to invite them to take part in the campaign. Delegate Beales was also deputed to ask the Stonecutters' Union to participate.

A. W. Wright, late representative of Canada in the Executive of the Knights of Labor, came in and was greeted with much enthusiasm.

Delegate Dubois read the report of the Financial Committee to the effect that 55 subscription lists had been distributed to officers of unions and that the following organizations had so far decided to contribute as follows: Machinists, Bookbinders' Assembly 2622, K. of L. Assembly 2305, Energy Assembly, Tailors, Cigarmakers, Builders' Laborers, Varnishers and Polishers, Single-Taxers.

What the Unions Subscribed.

The delegates present were then called on for reports as to the amounts already voted, and the following were received: Iron Moulders, $20; Bricklayers' Laborers, $50; Brotherhood of Carpenters, $10; International Machinists, $15; Energy Assembly, $3; Assembly 2305, $5; Assembly 2622, $5; Socialist League, $2. Several of these promised additional contributions at a later stage.

The Bakers' Union reported that their members would pay 25c per capita. The Longshoremen would give the per capita asked for. The Bookbinders would take up a voluntary subscription.

Delegate Wilson of the Typographical Union stated that his union had not met in the interval, but would certainly do their share.

Delegate D. A. Carey said that many unions were waiting to see whether the meeting would ratify the nomination before contributing.

T. W. Banton, seconded by Charles Lamb, moved that the candidature of John Armstrong be ratified.

A. F. Jury made a vigorous campaign speech, urging workingmen to unite and lay aside all political prejudices in order to elect one of their own class. Canadian workingmen should take example from the laborers of England, France and Germany, who were everywhere returning labor reformers to the legislative bodies.

A. W. Wright Delivers an Address.

A. W. Wright was then called upon, and was received with loud applause. He said that John Armstrong was admittedly a life-long Conservative; so was his opponent. The question was simply then as to whether workingmen should be represented by one of their own class. The way to get labor legislation was to put in workingmen who knew from practical experience what their class needed. The merits or demerits of political parties were not in question in East Toronto. Mr. Armstrong had gone through a good school as a life-long member of labor organizations. He was glad to see the way the money was being raised. He would rather see the workingmen of Toronto put in their five cents each than to raise ten times the amount by subscriptions from wealthy men who had their own objects to serve.

D. J. O'Donoghue, though he had opposed putting a candidate in the field at first, felt it his duty to acquiesce with the majority and accepted the candidate unreservedly. He would work for John Armstrong's success to the utmost of his ability.

Phillips Thompson spoke briefly in favor of the nomination.

T. W. Banton asked workingmen from other divisions to attend the meetings in the East.

Robert Emmett urged that workingmen should be independent as between parties.

The motion was carried unanimously.

Cannot Be Bought Off.

John Armstrong, in accepting the nomination, said it would be a clean campaign. He had not been idle since the campaign began and had met many warm friends and much encouragement. The number of roorbacks afloat showed that things were getting hot. It was whispered that he was ready to be bought off, but he could assure them that there was not enough money in Canada to buy John Armstrong. [Applause.] He did not believe, as did his opponent, in taxing churches and exempting gas mains. If Dr. Ryerson were familiar with workingmen's houses he would know that there were more coal oil lamps than gas jets to be seen there. [Laughter and applause.]

On motion of G. T. Beales a resolution was adopted to the effect that the convention committee call a meeting in East Toronto for the purpose of organizing an election committee. Delegates from the plumbers and boilermakers stated that their unions would support Mr. Armstrong.

After the meeting closed the convening committee arranged for a mass meeting at Dingman's Hall in the East End on Tuesday next.

The Campaign In The North And East.

A joint meeting of Conservatives of North and East Toronto was held at 520 Parliament-st last night, Mr. T. S. Whitesides occupying the chair. Mr. G. F. Marter, M. L. A.; Dr. Ryerson, M. L. A.; Emerson Coatsworth, M. P. and other prominent Conservatives were present. The meeting was of the most enthusiastic description, all the speakers seeming confident of victory. Mr. Marter gave a short address, assuring his hearers of his confidence in their support and their ability to elect him at the approaching elections. He assured them that they would not have it all their own way and urged the necessity of organizing for the campaign.

Mr. J. A. T. Cosby, John Hewitt, R. S. Neville, E. F. H. Cross, Dr. Ryerson, Emerson Coatsworth and others also spoke in the same line, and from the appearance of the meeting last night there will be an enthusiastic fight in North and East Toronto.

Political Notes.

A committee room has been opened at 589 Dundas-street, near Brock-avenue, in the interest of Ald. Thomas Crawford.

South Grey Conservatives have invited Charles Moffat of Glenelg, formerly master of the Dominion Grange, to be their candidate. There is a very visible dissatisfaction among the Conservatives in the riding and a strengthening feeling that a supporter of Mr. Meredith's should be placed in the field. Mr. Moffat has the matter under consideration.

The Prohibitionists of Centre and East Wellington, in convention assembled, decided to make no nomination, the electors being left to take their choice of the candidates before the people.

Centre Bruce will have a three-cornered fight, James Shouldice, reeve of Elderslie, having accepted the P.P.A. nomination. His opponents are Liberal Whip Dack and McDonald, Patron.

John Tolmie, Mayor of Kincardine, will run under the auspices of the P.P.A. in West Bruce for the Dominion House.

West Huron Conservatives talk of running Mayor Butler of Goderich in opposition to Garrow (Lib.) and Connolly (Patron). A convention will be held May 30.

Hon. John Dryden will address West Huron electors May 30.

Peter Moyer of The Berlin News is said to be willing to accept the Conservative nomination in North Waterloo, but will step aside for Mr. F. G. Gardiner of Berlin, who will give an answer to-day. The candidates already in the field are Robertson (Reform) and Shoemaker (Patron).

Mayor Fish of Waterloo isn't satisfied with the manner in which the Reform convention race was run, and it is said that he has resigned the vice-presidency of the Waterloo Association.

Dufferin Conservatives met yesterday and selected Dr. Barr, M.L.A. He is being opposed by William Dynes (Patron), and the Liberals will hold a convention to select a candidate on June 1.

East Hastings Liberals will not put a candidate in the field.

East Durham McCarthyites have endorsed Col. McLean of Port Hope, the Patron candidate for the Commons.

The six registration offices for West Toronto will be situated as follows: Two in Queen between Dundas and Niagara-streets, two in Queen between Lansdowne and Sorauren-avenues, two in College in the vicinity of Ossington-avenue.

City Clerk Blevins is preparing the list of polling sub-divisions for municipal purposes, with the expectation that the returning officers for the provincial contest will adopt the list for the voting on June 26.

The offices for the six divisions of Toronto East will be two in Queen east of the Don, two in Queen between Parliament and Sackville and two in Wilton-avenue between Parliament and Sackville.

Hon. J. M. Gibson had so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to visit Toronto yesterday. He will devote most of his time between now and election day to his own constituency.

Mr. Nicholas Awrey writes to The Hamilton Spectator denying the insinuation which he alleges The Spec made with reference to the payment of $11,999.01 to one John Dickenson for supplies to the Hamilton Asylum. Mr. Awrey writes: "What little I have in this world has been honestly earned, and I have ever striven to give my country full value for all I have received."

Mr. John Armstrong, the Labor candidate in East Toronto, will open his campaign by a mass meeting in Dingman's Hall on Tuesday evening next.

Conservative committee rooms are open at the following addresses: Corner Queen and Manning-avenue, 1215 Queen-street west, 708 Queen-street west, 589 Dundas-street, 763 Yonge-street, 518 Yonge-street, 520 Parliament-street and 304½ Yonge-street. The Central committee rooms are at 40 King-street east.

E. F. Clarke will be one of the speakers at the grand Conservative rally at the Pavilion on Wednesday next in addition to those already named. Everything is being done to make the demonstration a brilliant success. The hall will be artistically decorated and the spacious galleries reserved for ladies with their escorts.

A meeting was held at the Central Conservative Committee Rooms for West Toronto, Queen-st. west and Manning-avenue last evening for the distribution of canvassing-books among the active workers for Mr. Crawford. There was a large attendance and a spirit of great enthusiasm and activity was manifested.

Reform committee rooms for the campaign in West Toronto have been opened as follows: Central committee room, 1093 Queen-street west; Parkdale, 1396 Queen west; Brockton, 702 Dundas; Dovercourt Village, corner of Dovercourt-road and Bloor-street; 777 Queen west. The organization is reported perfect, and the canvassers are busily at work.

No. 343 Queen-street west has been opened as a local committee room for Oliver A. Howland, with W. H. Coleman in charge. The canvassing books have been distributed amongst the workers in Mr. Howland's interest.

The telephone number of the central Conservative committee rooms, No. 40 King-street east, is 197.

Mr. Moss' committee are devoting themselves at present specially to looking after the registration of the manhood suffrage voters and letting the general work of canvassing alone until after the registration has been effected. There are one or two workers out in every subdivision looking up those entitled to register as manhood suffrage voters.

Six Liberal committee rooms have been opened in South Toronto as follows: 206 Queen-st. east, 391 Yonge-st., 61 Queen-st. west, 267 Queen-st. west, 541 Queen-st. west and 675 Queen-st. west.

At the Court House yesterday Judge McDougall began the revision of the voters' lists to be used in the coming elections. The court room was filled with voters who wished to see that they were properly on the list. In all 3418 claims are in and W. F. Summerhayes and H. A. E. Kent, for the Conservative committee, have sent in over 2000. Judge Morgan will preside at to-day's session of the court.

Mr. Meredith will hold one meeting in Toronto next Wednesday, one in Toronto Junction and one in Markham.

Hon. Clarke Wallace will address the electors of West York and probably of other ridings on Ontario politics.

A meeting of the members of No. 1 Ward Liberal-Conservative Association will be held at Dingman's Hall this evening.

The Meredith boom, or call it the anti-Mowat boom if you will, is something phenomenal.

Bets are being freely made that three of Sir Oliver's ministry will be defeated.

At a meeting of the Toronto division of the Women's Enfranchisement Association at 466 Spadina-avenue it was resolved that the members use their influence with friends to support only candidates favorable to woman suffrage. Candidates will receive a letter from the secretary asking for their views on this question.

Western Ontario politicians who were in the city yesterday expressed the conviction that Meredith would defeat Hobles in London by at least 500 or 600 majority. W. D. Balfour will, it is believed, be defeated in South Essex by the opposition candidate in North Essex. Sol White is holding meetings nightly, and there is strong reason to hope that he may win despite the confidence of his opponents. Brower the Conservative candidate in East Elgin will have a walk over, notwithstanding that he is opposed by ex-Liberal M. L. A. Dance, and P. of I. Fard, who is warden of the county. Mr. McColl, M. L. A. has a popular opponent in Mr. A. McNish (Liberal) in in the west riding of Elgin, but as St. Thomas is likely to give McColl 450 or 500 majority, his re-election is expected.

SOME HOTHEADS IN THE Q O R

TEAR DOWN THE STARS AND STRIPES IN ST. THOMAS.

The Affair Reported to the Consul-General at Ottawa, and by Him to Washington, With the Common-Sense Comment That It Was the Act of Some Irresponsible Individual.

OTTAWA, May 25.—The visit of the Queen's Own to St. Thomas yesterday does not appear to have passed off as pleasantly as at first reported. Mr. J. B. Riley, Consul-General of the United States here, this morning received a despatch from Mr. George A. Willis, Consul at St. Thomas, stating that after the concert last night a member of the Queen's Own tore down the American flag from the consulate.

Mr. Riley wired Mr. Willis to report to the State Department, Washington, and also to him, but up to a late hour to-night the report had not been received. It is probably coming by mail.

Mr. Riley visited the Department of Justice for the purpose of seeing Sir John Thompson on the subject, but Sir John being absent at the time Mr. Riley reported it to Solicitor-General Curran, who answered him that the Government would do all it could in the matter.

The Government Given Assurance of An Investigation.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The State Department this evening received a despatch from Consul-General Riley at Ottawa stating that the Canadian authorities officially disavowed any knowledge of the alleged insult to the American flag at St. Thomas and gave him assurance that an investigation into the affair had already been instituted by the police. The Consul says the occurrence was probably the act of some irresponsible individual and in nowise reflecting Canadian feelings.

"A Reckless Act."

[St. Thomas Journal, May 25.]

The pleasure of the visit of the Queen's Own Rifles was marred by one thoughtless act of some foolish and over-rollicsome members of that corps. Mr. G. J. Willis, United States consul here, has his office over Duncombe's drug store. Yesterday, besides the Stars and Stripes usually flying from the office window, two others were draped at the lower part of the windows of his office. One was hung along the Talbot-street front of the store. Last evening a couple of hundred of the Queen's Own were walking along Talbot-street in a continuous circle. When passing Mr. Duncombe's drug store several different members of the crowd stuck their heads in the door and told Mr. Duncombe to "Take down that flag." Finally a couple of members of the Queen's Own got up on the shoulders of a companion, tore down the flag and carried it off. It was torn into little strips, which some pinned on their breasts under their coats. The act was one deeply regretted by all, but by none more so than by Col. Hamilton and the majority of the Queen's Own regiment, who feel keenly the disgrace brought upon them by the act of a few ignorant and thoughtless members. Adjt. Mercer waited upon Mr. Willis, U.S. Consul, and as the representative here of the United States Government Col. Hamilton expressed to him his deep regret at the commission of the act and offered the fullest apology.

Mr. Willis was seen by The Journal this morning in regard to the action he intended to take or had taken in the matter. Mr. Willis stated that he had notified the Consul-General at Ottawa, and also the Secretary of State at Washington. He said he had also paid for and sent a message in regard to the affair to The Associated Press, but did not know whether they had received it or not, not having seen any of the morning papers.

That the affair occurred will be deeply regretted by all, but there seems to be a tendency on the part of some to attach undue importance to it. When the facts are made known to the authorities that will likely be the last ever heard of the affair.

The U.S. Consul Not Blameless.

Commenting editorially on the incident The Journal says: It is a pity the United States Consul in this city doesn't hang his flag a little higher, where it will be out of the reach of thoughtless boys. Of course the flag of a friendly nation should be respected, and be safe from insult even if within reach of every passer-by. At the same time, there is no necessity for flaunting temptation to overt acts in the face of a lot of young fellows out for a lark. The removal of the Consul's flag last night was in no sense a deliberate affront to the great nation he represents. It is doubtful if the young men who took it down knew that it was flying from the Consul's office. They saw three American flags and no Union Jack over a drug store, and their exuberant loyalty found expression in an act much to be regretted, but which was very fully stoned for by apologies tendered to the United States representative by the officer in command of the men. It is to be regretted that the matter was not allowed to drop as unworthy of official notice. Instead of this, an effort to magnify the incident into an affair of international importance has been made, and another opportunity given to those whose delight is in creating friction between these two neighboring and essentially friendly countries.

"A Foolish Act."

[St. Thomas Times, May 25.]

Yesterday U.S. Consul Willis, wishing to show special respect to the Queen's Birthday, in addition to the U.S. flag which regularly floats from a staff opposite his office at the corner of Talbot and Southwick-streets, on the Southwick-street side, put out two others in the form of bunting in Talbot-street. Last evening some members of the Queen's Own, who had indulged in the ardent sufficiently to lose their judgment, climbed up and tore one of them down and destroyed it. Some of their comrades tried to prevent them, but were unable to do so. They were about to proceed to tear down the second one, when P. C. Smith intervened. Lieut-Colonel Hamilton, on learning of the affair, had the special train held and came back to the Grand Central and apologized on behalf of the men to Consul Willis. He would not, however, accept the apology, and telegraphed a report of the affair to the State Department at Washington, and the Consul-General at Ottawa. It is much to be regretted that the affair occurred, as by the foolish act of a few members of the regiment, a stain has been brought upon its reputation. The public will not, however, judge of them as a whole by the few who so far forgot themselves as to insult a friendly nation.

Consul Willis to-day received a despatch from Ottawa, saying the matter would be referred to the Militia Department. He says now he cannot do otherwise than accept the apology which was so courteously tendered.

Colonies of bacteria per cubic centimetre in the water: Belleville 705, Ottawa 710, Guelph 1035, Quebec 1045, Berlin 1380, London 1820, Montreal 1895, St. Thomas 1970, Collingwood 2365, Stratford 3570. In one city the water showed 5339 bacteria per C.C., but it was found that the sample had been kept over night and that accounted for the immense increase in the bacteria. If the above statement is correct the people in those cities should drink the celebrated Mount Clemens "Sprudel" water. It is not only the best mineral water sold on this continent, but every bottle is put up at the Mount Clemens spring, and never shipped in casks to allow the bacteria a chance to develop. These bacteria are the germs of typhoid, scarlet fever and diphtheria, etc.

THEY LEARNED A LESSON

Which They Won't Forget In a Hurry—Wet Feet At the Races—Some Almost Lost Their Soles.

One of the most pitiable sights at the races on the holiday was to see hundreds, yes, away up in hundreds, of young men standing around in deep mud and soggy grass, anxious to get a glimpse of the starters (who, by the way, ran in the midst of the heaviest showers of the afternoon). They came home with feet, socks and boots as wet as bay water, and many a dollar the druggists have now, and the doctors, too. Now, if these gents were wise when purchasing their footwear and stop that contemptible Jewing in looking for the cheapest trash in the country, but encourage high-class labor, No objection to attending races, but think of it when you attend races. Dollars do count, but in a shoe store don't kick about a quarter or 50c. Pay it and get a solid pair of boots, and you are in pocket in the end by all means. If you don't know of a competent dealer who won't keep but the best, and whose motto is, "Not how cheap, but how good for little money," just go to Howell's cut-rate shoe parlors, queen east and west, and you will find what can be relied upon.

After being indicted by the coroner's investigation, after being sent to trial by the Police Magistrate, after being tried by a jury of their peers, the Messrs. J. The Men Who Bet Hats on the Losing Horses.

The wager of a hat has always been a favorite one with those who take an interest in the races. This season there have been many more than usual, or else W. & D. Dineen have done more than their share of the business, for each day scores of hats are paid for by backers of the winning horses.

The hat usually bought at Dineens' is the two dollar fedora, "Mantell," the neatest and most handsome of the new styles. As citizens already know, the complete stock of Mantells was purchased by W. & D. Dineen from an embarrassed manufacturer at such a low price that this fine hat, made to sell at $3, can be sold for the record-breaking price of $2.

Ormondes are again almost sold out, and would-be purchasers may not be able to get their sizes for a day or two until the next consignment arrives.

The Dineen Derby is, of course, one of the most favored styles, and a very large stock has reached low ebb, although there is still a complete assortment of colors and sizes.

LONDON, May 25.—The Gazette announces that the Queen has conferred the honor of knighthood upon the following gentlemen:

Hon. Frank Smith, member of the Canadian Senate.

Judge L. E. Casault of the Superior Court of Quebec.

Arthur Renwick, Commissioner from Sydney, New South Wales, to the World's Fair at Chicago.

J. J. Grinlinton, Commissioner of Ceylon to the World's Fair at Chicago.

William C. Van Horne, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, appointed Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

C. E. de Boucherville, Canadian Senator, Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

Viscount Wolseley, Commander of the forces in Ireland, and Sir Donald Stewart, Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's forces in India, Field Marshals.

Senator Smith yesterday received a letter from His Excellency the Governor-General announcing that the Queen had conferred the honor of knighthood upon him. Sir Frank replied, accepting the honor.

Although Hon. Mackenzie Bowell's name does not appear in the cabled list, it is understood that he also has been knighted.

Fresh Air Prohibited.

[From The Philadelphia Record.]

Many are the stories told of the great reverence in which the Scotch people hold the Sabbath. Their methods of showing their reverence, however, are sometimes so remarkable as to draw a smile from others, who may nevertheless be reasonably strict observers of the "day of rest."

A minister of the kirk told an American clergyman who was traveling in Scotland that on one occasion he passed a Sunday in a little country inn, and as the tiny parlor of the house was exceedingly close and stuffy and the day was warm, he started to open one of the windows.

"What are ye aboot, mon?" enquired the landlady with much severity, entering the room just in time to prevent the carrying out of the minister's design.

He meekly explained that he had thought it would be pleasant to have a little fresh air.

"Eh, mon!" said the landlady, with additional emphasis and severity, "ye can hae no fresh air in this house on the Sawbeth. Six days are enow for that, mon."

A Graceful Compliment.

Nothing so delights a lover of racing as to be on the winning side. It would be a graceful act upon the part of winners on the Seagram horses to wear a Seagram necktie today. The only place in town where the correct size of stripe and color may be had is at quinn's. This strictly proper article has been endorsed by the Seagram management; price 50c.

No Derby Plug Smoking Tobacco is genuine unless it bears the Derby Cap-shaped tag.

Mainly Scotch This Month.

All Single Taxers should get a copy of Our Monthly for May, which contains something for them to bite at. This little journal, edited by George Moffat, is immensely popular among all classes. Read the articles "For Auld Lang Syne," "The Oldest House in Great Britain" and "A Protest from Scotland." Read the editorials "The Toronto Jugernaut," "Did Your Wife Ever Kick?" and "How to Pay Off a Mortgage." John P. McKenna, Bookseller and Stationer, 80 Yonge-street, near King, has secured a few copies of this, the only insurance journal in the world that does not sicken the average reader.

To drive away dull care and insure good digestion use Adams' Tutti Frutti. See that Tutti Frutti is on each 5 cent package.

At the Woodbine.

A visitor from out of town to the races remarked yesterday: "One thing that struck me at the track was the popularity of Obico natural mineral water. The demand for it was almost universal. It seems to me that this water will shortly monopolize the Canadian market."
