MISS JESSAMY HARTE, daughter of Bret Harte, will shortly make her literary debut.

An effort is likely to be made to induce Rev. J. G. Train, of Hull, to entertain a call from London. Mr. Henry Bradley, the colleague of Dr. Murray, receives $750 a year for his work on the great dictionary.

THERE are now six London pulpits vacant—Regent Square, Marylebone, Haverstock Hill, Millwall, East India Road, and Willesden.

THE Rev. J. Macdonald, B. D., of Ardochy, Inverness, has accepted the call to Dornoch Church. The call was signed by nearly 900 persons.

MR. W. A. OSBORNE, son of Rev. II. Osborne, M.A., has taken a highest place in all Ireland at the recent Royal University examinations.

MANCHESTER Presbytery have accepted the resignation of Rev. Arthur MacArthur, of Mount Street Church, Blackburn, who was ordained in 1870.

THE Rev. Joseph II. Leckie, assistant in Queen's Park Church, Glasgow, has accepted the call to Boston Church, Cupar. Mr. Leckie is the son of the late Dr. Reckie, of Ibrox.

THE Rev. Dr. Norman MacLeod, of Inverness, says that Gaelic is a fine language in which to preach the Gospel, and regrets that ministers of the old type of lingual purity have disappeared.

THE death is announced of the Abbe Dr. Vincenzo de Vit, a classical scholar well known for his contributions to Latin lexicography. He was a native of Padua, and was upwards of eighty.

ROSEMARY STREET Church, l'elfast, which was injured in the recent great fire, is closed for a month for repairs, and the congregation are in the interim worshipping in May Street Church, Dr. Lynds.

THE Rev. Finlay M'Donald, of Coupar-Angus, has obtained from his Presbytery two months' leave of absence to attend the l'an-Presbyterian council at Toronto, to which he is an Assembly delegate.

MR. MACGREGOR (Rob Roy), whose death occurred recently, was a Presbyterian, and, untifailing health necessitated his removal to Bournemouth, he was a member of the Blackheath Church.

MISS C. A. GRAY, the Continental missionary of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, planted the order of Good Templars in Leipzig, Germany, by successfully instituting, on July 4, the "Gute Hoffning" Lodge.

A LITTLE steamer of galvanized steel for mission service on the Zambesi and Shire was launched at Govan last week, Mrs. A. L. Bruce, of Edinburgh (a daughter of Dr. Livingstone), naming it the Henry Henderson.

THE Rev. R. W. M'All, who has done so much for Paris that the police have said that he no sooner opens a mission than drunkenness is checked, is to be decorated with the Legion of Honour. He is an Aberdonian and has been twenty years in Paris.

THE Rev. James Denny, of Broughty Ferry, learning that Regent Square vacancy committee were about to recommend him to the congregation as successor to Rev. John M'Neill, requested that the proceedings go no further as he could not accept the call.

The death took place at Ayr recently of Mr. James Law, shipowner, Glasgow, at the age of forty-four. He was joint-owner with his brother William of the Shire line, the largest fleet of sailing ships in Scotland. An elder in St. Georges-in-the-Fields, he was highly esteemed, and was often urged to enter public life.

MR. GLADSTONE'S last Midlothian speech was delivered in Penicuik United Presbyterian Church. He occupied the pulpit, and at times so heavily did he thump the cushion that his words were caught by the reporters with difficulty. Before entering the meeting he took tea in the manse with Rev. John M'Kerrow, who moved the vote of confidence.

THE Bishop of Argyll and the Isles (Angus Macdonald) has been appointed Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh. Of an old Highland family, he was born at Borrodale, Inverness-shire, in 1844, and has held the Hebridean diocese since 1778. An eminent Gaelic scholar, he lent his aid to the establishment of the Gaelic chair in Edin burgh University.

THE new church at Carrick Castle, Loch Goil, the erection of which is mainly due to Rev. George Jack, was opened recently, the forenoon service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Stevenson, of Rutherglen; the afternoon, which was for the children, by Mr. Jack, and Rev. Dr. MacEwan, of Claremont United Presbyterian Church, Glasgow, gave an account of his travels in the East in the evening.

It is in Norman style, seats about 400, and has cost over $10,-000. The artificial lighting is by electricity generated at Northfield. Mr. Usher has also provided an endowment of $250 a year towards the minister's stipend.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE SMALL BOY.—Now is the season when the ubiquitous small boy fills himself with green plums and greener apples, and bolts half-ripe cherries, seeds and all. His voracity almost invariably leads to Cramps, Diarrhea, or Dysentery, and the family hearthstone resounds with his lamentations. If his parents are prudent people, they will have a bottle of Perry Davis' Pain Killer ready for such emergencies, and a spoonful of this great specific will bring the young scamp around all right. Druggists all sell it. Only 25c. per bottle new large size.

Dr.J. C. Ayer & Co.,
Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sirs:- Thave used Ayer's Hair Vigor for some time, and it has done wonders for me. I was troubled with dandruff my hair was turning gray and falling out, so that I was rapidly becoming bald, but since using the Vigor my head is free from dandruff. The hair has ceased coming out and I now have a good growth of the same color as when I was a young wornan.

Very truly Lydia O. Moody.
