DIED.

At his residence, Mount Victoria, Vaudreuil, on Monday last, at about 3 o'clock, P. M., the Hon. GEORGE PRATT, formerly a Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench of this District, aged 76. As he was held in the highest esteem, both as an individual and as a Judge, a sketch of his career and character cannot fail to be acceptable. He was born at Halifax, N. S., on the 19th January, 1775; and, after a course of study in the office of the then Attorney-General, Mr. Uniache, was admitted to the Bar of that Colony. In the year 1800, he came to Canada, with the view of establishing himself in Upper Canada, the English system of Law prevailing there. On his arrival, however, at Quebec, he was induced, by a large number of friends, to whom he had letters, to remain in the Lower Province, as offering him a better field for exertion. Having, therefore, passed some time at Chateauguay, in this District, with the Cure of the Parish, in acquiring a knowledge of the French language, he was admitted to the Bar of Lower Canada, in which part of this Province he, from his arrival in 1800, until the period of his death, constantly resided, except on the occasion of three or four brief visits to his native country. He was, for a short time, Prothonotary of the District of Quebec, in succession with the late Mr. Perrault, but resigned the situation when he found that it precluded him from further advance in his profession. After this resignation, he was honored by the Crown with a silk gown, and held the office of Advocate-General. For some time he was Law Clerk to the Legislative Council, and also Judge of the Vice-Admiralty Court during the absence of the then incumbent. Finally, in 1818, he became one of the Justices of the Court of Queen's Bench for this District—an elevation wholly due to his own merit, in which office he continued during a period of 25 years, until the year 1843, when he resigned. It is due to the deceased to state, that few are the persons to whom so much, in praise, can be said with so much truth. He was, indeed, the beau ideal of a Judge, combining high talent with unwearied assiduity, leaning to equity without violating law, and exhibiting a demeanor exquisitely compounded of dignity and suavity. Never, while on the Bench, did he, either by word, look, or gesture, wound the feelings of any individual, nor use his authority in any but the most legitimate manner. In fact, it is no exaggeration to say, in ordinary phrase, that he was adored by the Bar. Nor was he less esteemed as an individual, for the noble qualities of his heart, his kindness, his friendship, and benevolence, his strong sense of duty to his Sovereign and the Empire, and his attachment to his adopted country. We have omitted to mention that he was the first person who published, in Lower Canada, a volume of Law Reports; and that as, like the late Lord Stowell, he reduced to writing his judgments in important cases with great care, he must have left behind him a valuable manuscript collection of them, which, by the bye, the Government should, we think, aid in publishing. Judge PRATT was twice married, has a tolerably numerous family by his first wife, but none by his present widow.

In this city, on the 3rd instant, EDWARD DUFFAL, aged 66 years.

In this city, on the 28th ultimo, ISABELLA, youngest daughter of Mr. GEORGE DAVIS, aged 2 years and 6 months.

JOHN JAMES AUDUBON, the Ornithologist, died at his residence, on the banks of the Hudson, on the 27th ultimo, aged 76 years.

At St. Hyacinthe, on the 29th and 31st ultimo, the twin-daughters of P. E. LECLERC, Esq., aged 6 years.

HEAR THE OPINION OF A PROFESSOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, WHICH WAS PUBLISHED IN THE MEDICAL JOURNAL, IN 1847.—In various local diseases I have tested the efficacy of Dr. Sherwood's Embrocation to my satisfaction. In Erysipelas, no matter where present, or of what description, he found the Embrocation, painted over the parts with a hair pencil brush, preferable to leeches, lotions, incisions, scarifications or caustic. When pain and throbbing only existed, one or two applications of the Galvanic Embrocation cut short the disease, and, where suppuration had commenced, it repeated use, not only checked the progress of the disease, but caused the deposited matter to be absorbed. In a single case of bilious occurred when the Embrocation was applied before suppuration took place; and even then the pus was much less in quality than where poultices were used. In acute inflammation of the joints, it was more efficacious than any of the ordinary local applications over the knee—if the skin be delicate, it may be applied, one half the strength, diluted with spirits of camphor, and the strength increased as required. When the hip is affected, the Galvanic Embrocation might be painted all around the upper part of the thigh and groin. In gout its application cuts short the attack, and in atonic gouty pains of the joints, supposed to be gouty or rheumatic, its effects have been marked. In chronic inflammation and enlargement of the joints, such as the hip and knee, the Embrocation is extensively employed over the parts, and the application is repeated once or twice a day, according as the case may require. In the ankle or wrist, when the enlargement is of old standing, the Galvanic Embrocation has never failed to cure. In scrofulous swellings of the glands, it either resolved the inflammation and caused absorption of the morbid deposits, or of limiting the formation of matter, and assisted in the cicatrization of the sore. In chilblains, Dr. Sherwood's Galvanic Embrocation is applied over the parts affected, and beyond the boundary of the surrounding inflammation. This must be repeated daily for some time, and the affected parts should be immersed every night in water as hot as can be borne. When the ulceration looks healthy, and the skin has lost its livid color, the Embrocation may be discontinued. In burns and scalds, it appears to act as in Erysipelas; when the integuments are not destroyed, although the cuticle may be in blisters, one or two applications of the Embrocation subdues the pain and redness, after which, the parts only require to be kept free from injury. Lastly—beastes these affections, it has been used in foul ulcers, Sinbin's operations, gouty and rheumatic swellings of the small joints, from lacerations of their ligaments, malignant warts, gangrenous, the stinging of wasps, diseases of the spine, united fractures, concussion and wounds. In Gutta, Dr. Sherwood's Galvanic Embrocation is a perfect remedy. The parts should be bathed every day, well rubbed with the hand.

As to the efficacy of Dr. Sherwood's Galvanic Embrocation in nervous diseases, the testimony borne by many Physicians would be conclusive. It has removed Paralysis and Lumbago. This Embrocation enters, as we shall see, and in this manner exert a new impression upon the nerves, and in this manner exert a new impression upon the capillaries of the diseased portions of the dermoid system. We have often employed the Embrocation in all these cases with success, and similar testimony has been afforded by Physicians. In several cases of chronic disease of the liver, attended with Jaundice, Dr. Milligan found the Embrocation to produce a good effect; also, in Hypropiosis, applied over the region of the Liver and Spleen every day, with decided advantage. Nocturnal pains in the bones, and diseases of the bones have likewise been particularly benefited by the use of Sherwood's Embrocation, and the sufferers have always yielded to this remedy, which all others have failed. When applied over the parts affected, in Bronchitis, and all affections of the lungs and chest, The Embrocation should be applied about the neck and chest, during the paroxysm of coughing, and immediate relief will be obtained.

A Chemist Fleur Albus, this Galvanic Embrocation is a valuable remedy. A young female had long suffered under the affection, which had reduced her strength, and did not yield to any of the means that had been employed, when the Embrocation was rubbed, morning and evening, on the inner surface of the thighs; after this plan had been pursued for a few weeks the disease entirely ceased and disappeared.

Next to gold, perhaps the most wonderful and really rare articles of the "Soap Plant," which the native use for washing the meslers. It has lately undergone a series of scientific investigations, and the result is, that its saponaceous elements of this plant form the basis of Hagin's Amole Shaving Compound," and thus the use of alkali, so destructive to the skin, is avoided. Its vegetable and detergent properties have the purest and most soothing effect on the skin. It soothes and allays irritation; has a fine, thick, creamy lather, which does not dry on the face, and makes it altogether a luxury to be used with this soap; and as it is admitted the best article for shaving, the money will be refunded in all cases where it does not give entire satisfaction. To be obtained of the inventor, Wm. Hagin, 277 Washington Street, Boston, and Agents throughout the United States and Canada.

WEST WARD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE WEST WARD.

GENTLEMEN,—It has afforded me much gratification to learn that the result of the double canvass of the West Ward, which has just been made by Messrs. R. P. ISAACSON and A. B. STEWART, on behalf of myself and JOHN FISHER, Esq.,—and by Messrs. J. H. ISAACSON and G. SMITH, on behalf of myself and H. H. WHITNEY, Esq., is that my name has been almost unanimously placed on both tickets.

If the confidence thus so generally expressed should place me, at the approaching Municipal Election, in the Corporation as one of the Councillors for the West Ward, I beg to assure you that I shall endeavor to promote the interests of the City to the best of my ability.

I have the honor to be,
GENTLEMEN,
Your most obedient servant,
JOHN LEEMING.

Montreal, January 17, 1851. 284

H. H. WHITNEY, Esq.:

DEAR SIR,—I enclose you a requisition, numerously signed by Voters of the West Ward, begging you to allow yourself, in conjunction with Mr. JOHN LEEMING, to be named as a Candidate for the said West Ward at the next ensuing Municipal Election.

On my own part, I have to inform you, that, in connection with Mr. J. H. ISAACSON, I have carefully canvassed the Ward, and do not hesitate to affirm, that a majority of the Voters therein have pledged themselves to support you.

I am,
SIR,
Yours very truly,
GEO. SMITH.

Montreal, 17th January, 1851.

MR. GEO. SMITH:

MY DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your note, and also the requisition accompanying it: In reply, I beg to state that I feel highly honored by the call made on me by so large a number of the Voters of the West Ward, and shall be happy to comply with their request.

With many thanks for the trouble you have taken in the matter, believe me,

DEAR SIR,
Yours very truly,
H. H. WHITNEY.

THE BANK OF NEW YORK.

IT would be idle to suppose there are any so ignorant of passing events as not to have heard of the wonder of the age, THE GREAT WORLD'S FAIR. It would be absurd to suppose that any who have heard of this event would not have a strong desire to witness this novel, gigantic and grand Exhibition. But amid the tens of thousands in whom this desire exists, there are thousands UNWILLING and thousands UNABLE to make the necessary outlay for a journey to and from London. To every one of these an Engraving, which shall be valuable as well because it is intruthful picture of the interior of this fairy-like crystal palace, as because it exhibits the extremest perfection of art, will be an object of interest.

We have taken the trouble to ascertain, by a careful and elaborate estimate, that to produce an Engraving worthy of this memorable occasion, and to make 4,000 copies of it, would cost at least $5,000. For such an Engraving the print-sellers would charge certainly $10, probably $15 a copy, and pocket perhaps $20,000 of profit. Instead, however, of letting this enormous sum be swallowed up by the print-sellers, we will publish the Engraving by co-operation, so that each subscriber can obtain a copy at, to say the least, one half the price the print-sellers would charge, and then have a large sum to spare to distribute as prizes.

First, we intend to secure the services of a first-rate American Artist, who will proceed to London and make a sketch of the interior of the Great World's Fair in the very zenith of its splendor, when every thing will be displayed to the greatest possible advantage on the occasion of the visitor thereto of the projector, the Prince Albert, his Consort the Queen of England, and their children. From this sketch the Engraving will be made, and will form the most magnificent and interesting tableaux.

The number of Subscribers is limited to 4,000.

Each Subscriber will be entitled to a copy of the Engraving and a chance for one of 50 Prizes.

The accounts will stand thus:—

| | |
|---|---|
| 4,000 Subscriptions, at $5 each, will be. | $20,000 |
| The Engraving, and 4,000 copies, will cost..... | $5,000 |
| The expense of management, advertisements, &c., &c., will not exceed..... | 2,500 |
| Total expenditure..... | 7,500 |

Which deducted from $20,000 leaves $12,500

This $12,500 is to be divided into 50 Prizes—25 First Class, and 25 Second Class.

These Prizes to be distributed among the Subscribers in the ordinary manner of Art-Unions.
