NOVA SCOTIA IN SUMMER.

IMPRESSIONS OF A YANKEE.

THE CHARMS OF HALIFAX, CHESTER AND BRIDGETOWN.—UNSURPASSED ATTRACTIONS.—THEIR GREAT POSSIBILITIES.—EASE OF ACCESS TO HEALTHGIVING DELIGHTS AND VACATION JOYS.

In common with others who have preceded him, the writer proposes to give his impressions briefly, by way of a "parting shot" at Nova Scotia.

Halifax during the past summer has been the objective point of a large number of American visitors, eager to escape the heat of their great cities and at the same time to fill their lungs with the balmy ozone of the spruce trees and sniff the pure ocean breezes that are wafted continuously around the shores of this most beautiful maritime province. That Halifax has improved wonderfully within a few years is manifest at once; her parks, gardens, buildings and streets speak for themselves. But in its natural aspect is Halifax found to be particularly charming. The glorious harbor, its tributaries and surroundings, the attractions presented by the army and navy have been commented upon, and even the bard has "tuned his pipe" to sing their praises; but the languid Yankee cares more for the healthgiving conditions alluded to above than all these. A keen appetite is at once secured, and the most confirmed dyspeptic is soon made happy, fat and strong. The places of entertainment are numerous (they will soon have to be more so), the hospitality of the people is proverbial and unlimited.

But Halifax has neighbors who are giving her a close race for popularity. To the westward is Margaret's Bay, a magnificent sheet of water with numerous indentations or "coves," where for eleven miles one can drive along a curved beach, with the huge "coamers" in serried ranks, green as an emerald, advancing like an army and breaking in foam at your feet.

Next beyond comes Chester Bay, with its quaint old town and myriad of islands, conspicuous among which is Oak Island, reputed to be the identical spot where the bold Captain Kidd buried his ill-gotten gains. So confirmed are many in this belief that for years hunting for this treasure has been going on, the evidences of which are plainly discernible in the huge mounds of excavated earth thrown up; indeed one man is busy digging at this moment. But, trusting that the secret will never reach his ears, the writer will venture to remark that it is rumored that some of his predecessors have actually found the "sway," prudently "sloped off" and are now living in clover somewhere else. Chester has so many beautiful islands, inlets and coves, all heavily clothed with verdure, with water so translucent and shores so free from mud and other offensive conditions, that it is a natural sanitarium, and it is doubtful if there is upon this broad continent a spot so salutary and inviting to the American health hunter as this is. Were Bostonians endowed with the vision of Bazalisk they might easily discern it on a clear day from their own harbor, and as it is but 45 miles from Halifax, by boat or stage, is within easy distance. It can also be reached by Yarmouth boat and rail via Annapolis valley railroad to Middleton, thence by rail to Mahone Bay, a town within nine miles of Chester, reached by boat or stage.

Should one desire variety, a trip by boat to Mahone Bay, then by rail over the mountains to Middleton (in the "Valley"), and still a short distance further to Bridgetown, an entire change of scene would be secured. Here pastoral life in all its beauty would be presented, and a prospect unfolded to the view such as Goldsmith must have gazed upon when he wrote "Auburn, sweet Auburn, loveliest village of the plain," with the exception that Bridgetown is by no means a "Deserted Village!" On the contrary it is rather lively, and gives evidences of being very prosperous, if many beautiful churches, fine residences, good hotels and electric lighting count for anything. A conspicuous feature of this town is the regularity of its streets and the luxuriant orchards closely surrounding, all sheltered, by the near proximity of the North Mountain, from the storms of the Bay of Fundy. The hotels have opulent yet familiar names—the Revere House and the Grand Central! and do no discredit to their more lordly namesakes in the States as to generous and complete entertainment.

It was the good fortune of the writer to spend a few days in Bridgetown, and the hospitality he received has left an impression upon him that will not be readily effaced. How could it be otherwise, after the pleasant evenings spent in the parlors of the Revere, enjoying the sweet music, the rollicking laughter, the timely refreshments, and also the impromptu addresses of Collingwoon Young, who so ably depicted the glorious possibilities of the Dominion, in a manner Chesterfieldian and with the pose and costume of a Brummel?

But tempus fugit, the summer wanes, and the Yankee pilgrim must hurry back to the rush and roar of busy life—with reluctance, however, for as he leaves Bridgetown he casts a lingering backward glance at the pretty town, its quiet, orderly ways, its genial people, and thinks of a future return, or—will they ever meet again?

The engine snorts, the train is off to Annapolis, and, via Digby, St. John, Eastport and Portland, the Yankee bean-eaters are once more in Boston, brown as berries, filled with renewed vigor and at once engaging in drumming up recruits for a Nova Scotia tour next year.

HUGH MCDEVITT.

An Extraordinary Offer!

THE WEEKLY MONITOR
From now till the 1st day of January, '94, for Two Cents per week.

It is not often that we indulge in self-praise, but we should be lacking in our duty to the MONITOR did we not gratefully acknowledge the many kind of complimentary notices we are lately in receipt of.

We endeavor to make our paper interesting to all our readers at home as well as to those who are absent, by letters and communications from every section of our county, knowing that to many dear ones far away, the MONITOR comes like a message from home, giving details of births, marriages, deaths, improvements, changes, personal goings and comings, and a variety of other matter tending to keep up their interest in the old friends and land of their birth.

They write us that our columns are eagerly read and all advertisements closely scanned, and never without a fond memory when a familiar name greets the sight, and a review of the changes that have taken place since they left, causing alternately gladness or sorrow, but always a feeling of pleasure that they can follow through our instrumentality and the courtesy of our numerous correspondents, news of the old folks, the young folks and "home."

To still further increase our circulation, and as an inducement to new subscribers, we have decided to mail to any address in Canada or the United States from now till the our paper at the usual price of $1.50, cash in advance, making a total of Sixteen Months.

What further inducement should be needed to induce parents, brothers or sisters to become subscribers at once.

How many of you have relatives living in various parts of the United States and the Dominion, who are looking eagerly and longingly for letters from home! and how keenly the disappointment is felt at their non-arrival, owing to business cares and other obstacles of hindrance daily occuring.

Now is the time to have our paper mailed regularly every week to them.

It costs but a trifling sum to assure them every week that you bear them in fond remembrance.

There are hundreds from Annapolis County scattered abroad, and how welcome the Monitor, with its local details from every portion of the county would be.

It would cost you in stationery and postage at least five cents per week to write letters, when we, by making of mailing to any address requested, our paper for the above sum stated, $1.50, cash in advance, from now till the 1st of January, 1894, (and changing address whenever required), only ask of you TWO CENTS per week.

Lose no time in availing yourself of this opportunity, as the earlier you subscribe, the more value for your money.

Your sons, daughters, or friends, are longing for home news which the Monitor affords, in lack of the letter which so often fails them, and which those away from their homes always most heartily appreciate.

By this offer we hope to show our readers that we are not unmindful of their patronage and encouragement, which we hope in the future, as in the past, to deserve, by ever writing up the progress and advancement of our county, widely circulating the industry and enterprise of our merchants, as shown by their increasing business, keeping up the interest of the absent by reminiscences from "Home, Sweet Home," and generally using every effort to make our paper a welcome guest in every household which it enters.

—Are you troubled with flushings, fullness, general distress? Take K. D. C.—the King of Dyspepsia Cures. It is guaranteed to cure you. 24

Lawrencetown.

Mr. Israel Foster is ill with fever. We hope it will not spread among us.

Plums are coming in slowly. Apples are better than was expected. The first shipment to England will be made next week.

The Brickton Cricket Club failed to come to time on Saturday. Lawrencetown boys were disappointed, and dainties meant for the entertainment stayed at home.

At last there is to be service in the Episcopal church here. We learn that Rev. Mr. Warren has taken Wilmot parish for a year on approbation.

We hear with regret of the death of an old and respected resident, Mr. James Franks. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at half-past one o'clock.

Miss Manning, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Elliott, has returned to her home in St. John. Miss Betts is again at her post in Councillor Elliott's store.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Wightman again and were very much pleased with the discourse delivered by the rev. gentleman from the pulpit of the Methodist church here. He evidently means what he says, and we wish him success in his ministry.

If the persons who are visiting our orchards clandestinely, would call on the proprietors, they would be pleased to show them over their estates or over the fence, with what assistance the case may warrant.

We hear that one of our townsmen will be found among the Benedicts next week. The lady in the contract is well known and much appreciated by her companions. We wish them a great deal of happiness.

Paradise Gleams.

Mrs. E Palmer is visiting her sister Mrs. S. K. Morse.

Hon. and Mrs. J. W. Longley made some calls among friends here on Thursday last.

Mr. M. P. Longley, of Lynn, made a short stay at his father's and returned home last week.

Mrs. Roberts, after spending a pleasant summer with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and other friends, leaves to-day for Boston.

The ranks of young men are being gradually thinned as one after another leaves for the colleges. The first was Mr. Chas. Morse, who left last week for Horton Academy, and others are soon to follow.

The all-important theme just now is regarding dividing off the school section between this and Bridgetown section. Of course opinions differ,—some from notion and some from principle favouring it being divided off, and others that it shall remain as formerly.

Victoriavale.

Most all our boys are defending their country at Aldershot.

The knitting circle will meet at Mrs. W. R. Bowlby's Saturday evening, Sept. 17th.

Mrs. L. H. Whittemore, who has been visiting her brother Mr. Harding Weaver, returned to her home in Boston, Mass., on Thursday last.

Parker; Miss Martha Smith of Newport, Hants Co., is visiting Miss Louise Craig; Miss Ida Young, Miss Ida Balcom, Miss Nettie Young, of Paradise, Mr. E. A. Farrell of Montreal, and Geo. Williams, of Victoria, B. C., have been visitors to our village the last few days. B. S. Patterson returned to his home in Lincoln, Mass., on Friday last.

Margaretville Matters.

The quiet of this little village has been broken by no important occurences of late, so that there are few items to report.

We had a short visit from J. B. Mills, M. P., on Wednesday last.

The work on the new ship is rapidly progressing under the efficient master-builder, James Martin. It is believed that she will be launched the last of November.

The schooner Ocean Bird arrived a few days ago loaded with coal, and every body seems to be laying in their winter's supply. This reminds us that Jack Frost will soon be here.

J. A. Balcom, manager of The Valley Telephone Company and a few of his men were here over Sunday. He reports that they will be in Berwick this week.

Picnics, which have been the order of the day for a time, are just drawing to a close, as the season is also.

Berwick.

Miss Amy Rice leaves Berwick to-day for her winter home in Boston.

Rev. A. S. Tuttle occupied the pulpit of the Baptist Church on Sabbath.

Rev. and Mrs. Daley are away for a fortnight's vacation.

Rev. Mr. Alcorn has gone to Queens Co., where he will supply a circuit for a time.

The house and land on Main street, lately owned by A. J. McLeod, Esq., of Boston, has been purchased by Rev. J. L. Read.

The members of the Y. P. S. C. E. held a very enjoyable picnic at Harborville on Thursday last.

Of the eight candidates who presented themselves for examination for grade B from the Berwick high school, six were successful in obtaining the grade applied for, the remaining two securing grade C.

On Tuesday evening a social was held at the house of Mr. Wm. Croscup. Quite a number attended, as the beauty of the evening made driving and walking pleasant; and Mrs. Croscup had had socials before, and people knew what was to come.

A week ago one of our girls left us for Uncle Sam's dominion. Miss Dimock has become Mrs. Margeson, and will live beneath the stars and stripes.

Business is quite brisk. The Star boot and shoe store is to be moved further into town. It will be brought across the R.R. track, and be stationed on the corner of Commercial and Mill streets.

Clarence Chips.

The farmers are busy preparing apples to ship to England on Thursday, this being the first shipment of the season.

We are sorry to report the serious illness of one of our oldest citizens, Mr. William Sprowl, who is very ill with pneumonia. Owing to his advanced years, but little hopes are entertained as to his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols of Moncton are visiting at Mr. S. N. Jackson's. Miss Alice Knight of St. John is visiting at M. E. Marshall's. The Misses Knight of St. John, who have been visiting at Mr. Robert Marshall's, left for home last week. H. H. Roach and W. Creelman left last week for Wolfville, where they will spend the winter in Horton Academy. Miss Bertie and Mrs. Ansley Johnson left for Boston last week, also Miss Minnie Marshall and Messrs. Marshall left for Lynn, all of whom have been spending the summer at their homes here.

Port Lorne.

Mr. Myrton A. Cutler and sister Helen A., who have been spending a part of their vacation with Miss Bertha A. Brown, have returned to their home in Fitchburg, Mass. Mrs. William Cropley is stopping a few days with her father, when he will accompany her to her home in Boston. Capt. Joseph Brinton is home for a few days, and is not idle, but is making improvements about his premises. Capt. Joseph Anderson has been home, but left on Tuesday to join his ship in Halifax. Mrs. Adam Charlton, of St. John, is visiting friends here.

2.—Only one claim will be allowed in one season even though the claimant may have fished in two vessels or in a vessel and a boat or in two boats.

3.—The owners of boats measuring not not less than a thirteen foot keel, which have been engaged during a period of not less than three months in deep sea fishing for fish other than shell fishing for fish other than shell fish, salmon or shad, or fish taken in rivers or mouths of rivers, shall be entitled to a bounty on each such boat.

4.—Canadian registered vessels of 10 tons and upwards (up to 80 tons) which have been exclusively engaged during a period of not less than three months in catch of sea fish other than shell fish, salmon or shad, taken in rivers or mouths of rivers, shall be entitled to a bounty to be calculated on registered tonnage, one-half of which bounty shall be payable to owners and the other half to crew, except in case where one or more of the crew shall have failed to comply with regulations, then such share or shares shall not be paid.

5.—Owners or masters of vessels intending to fish and claim bounty on their vessels must, before proceeding on a fishing voyage, procure a license to be attached to the claim when sent in for payment.

7.—Ages of men must be given. Boys under 14 years of age are not eligible as claimants.

8.—Claims must be sworn to as true and correct in all their particulars.

9.—Claims must be filed on or before the 30th of November in each year.

10.—Officers authorized to receive claims will supply the requisite blanks free of charge, and after certifying the same will transmit them to the department of marine and fisheries.

No claim in which an error has been made by the claimant or claimants shall be amended after it has been signed and sworn to as correct.

Any person or persons detected in making returns that are false or fraudulent in any particular, will be debarred from any future participation in the bounty and be prosecuted according to the utmost rigour of the law. The amount of the bounty to be paid to fishermen and owners of boats and vessels will be fixed from time to time by the governor in council.

The Exchequer Court.

JUDGE BURBIDGE DECIDES THAT FISHWAYS ARE NOT PUBLIC WORKS OF CANADA.

Mr. Justice Burbidge has filed his judgment in the case of John A. Brown, et al, of Lawrencetown, Annapolis county, vs. the queen, which was tried at Halifax in May last. The judgment is as follows:

"The suppliants complain that the crown by its servants so negligently and unskilfully constructed a fishway in a mill dam used to secure a head of water for running certain mills owned by them that such mills and premises were injuriously affected and greatly depreciated in value. Immediately upon the case being opened it was objected that the court had no jurisdiction on the ground, among others, that neither the dam nor the fishway was a public work of Canada (50-51 v. etc., 16 s. 16 c.), and I thought that the objection should prevail. As there were, however, a number of witnesses in attendance from long distances, the parties agreed that the question should be reserved and the hearing of the case continued. For the negligence of its officer in the construction or in the directing the construction of a fishway in the dam, it was admitted that the crown was not liable unless such liability was founded on a statute, and that the suppliants could not succeed unless the fishway in question was held to be a public work within the meaning of 50-51 Victoria C. 16, 2. 16 (c). On that point I adhere to the view that I expressed at the trial. The case is, I think, very clear. The fishway was not a public work within the meaning of the statute. Whatever right of action the suppliants might have had against the persons of whose negligence they complain, they have none against the crown, because there is no Act of parliament creating any liability to answer for such negligence. A number of other objections were raised and discussed, but as the one I have mentioned disposes of the case, it is unnecessary to refer to them. There will be judgment for the respondents with costs."

H. E. Gillies was solicitor for the petitioners, and J. A. Chisholm for the respondents.

Keep Your Daughters at Home.

E. J. O'Brien writes from Boston to the Moncton Transcript: "I would like to give a word of advice to mothers of Moncton and everywhere else. If you care for your daughters' welfare keep them at home. There are thousands of human snares waiting for them. If you value your daughters' souls keep them at home. I saw two young girls on Sunday in the streets of Boston (who less than a year ago were Sunday school teachers in Moncton) in company with two fast young men, who were so drunk that they had to keep them from falling into the gutter. I tell you such sights as these should cause every true Canadian to sound a word of warning. Keep your daughters at home."

—Is your food like lead on your stomach? Take K. D. C. It acts like magic on the stomach, and is guaranteed to cure every form of indigestion or dyspepsia. 24

His nearest relatives and Dr. Douglas were at his bedside when death came, and he seemed to be conscious up to the last moment. The funeral takes place at Amesbury, Mass., on Saturdsy afternoon.

Newfoundland Fisheries.

Montreal, Sept. 6.—The Gazette's St. John's, Nfld., correspondent says that none of the daily newspapers have yet been re-established, so that usual source of intelligence of the fisheries is wanted. From all I can learn, however, I am disposed to think that there is a prospect of a fair average fishery. Intelligence from Labrador is meagre but the whole favorable. In regard to the shore fishery it is pretty much the old story. Some localities doing fairly well, others the reverse. The bank fishery, I fear, is deficient.

Launch of the Biggest Steamer in the World.

Glasgow, Sept. 8.—Cunarder Campania, the largest steamer in the world, was successfully launched here to-day.

No Fooling on the Blake.

A. in honors in 1826, and M. A. in 1830. He was for three years curate of Southleigh, Devon; for seven years incumbent of St. John's, Truro, Cornwall, and for seven years vicar of St. Thomas, Exeter, and prebendary of that cathedral, and in 1845 was consecrated first bishop of Fredericton. His diocese extended over the entire province of New Brunswick.]

Dr. Talmage in Hyde Park.

London, September 4.—Dr. Talmage addressed two enormous congregations this morning, and as it was clear that no church in London was adequate to accommodate such gatherings, he consented in response to an urgent request to speak in Hyde Park at 6 o'clock this evening. Conversative estimates place the number present there at 30,000. Owing to the pressure of the crowds many women fainted. To avoid accidents Dr. Talmage was compelled to suspend the hand-shaking, which is the customary accompaniment of the public services. At the close the crowd lingered and Dr. Talmage and his party accepted the escort of a platoon of police through the park. Thousands followed him a considerable distance.

DISCOVERIES IN MARS.—In a despatch to the Herald from Arequippa, Peru, Professor Pickering says: "Mars has two mountain ranges near the south pole. I have seen 11 lakes near Solis Locus varying in area from 80 by 100 miles to 40 by 40 miles. Branching dark lines connect them with two large areas like seas but not blue. Many of Schiaparelli's canals have been seen single."

—The potato crop in Maine this year will be small, owing to the lack of rain and the ravages of the Colorado beetle, which has been more destructive this season than for many years past. Massachusetts farmers complain of the unusual prevalence of potato bugs, and New Hampshire, New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Rhode Island will have small crops on account of the drouth.

—Edward Bellamy, the author of that much talked of book "Looking Backward," has originated the idea of a convention to be held at the World's Fair. Lads from 13 to 20 years of age, from the schools of all nations in the world, are to be sent as delegates, and will be addressed by the leading educators of the age and various subjects of interest are to be discussed.

—It is understood that the delegates lately taken through Manitoba and the Northwest Territories have prepared an elaborate report of what they saw in that country. It is now in the hands of the C. P. R. authorities and will soon be printed for distribution.

WILL CURE YOU

"Backache means the kidneys are in trouble. Dodd's Kidney Pills give prompt relief."

"75 per cent. of disease is first caused by disordered kidneys.

"Might as well try to have a healthy city without sewerage, as good health when the kidneys are clogged, they are the scavengers of the system.

"The above diseases cannot exist where Dodd's Kidney Pills are used."

THE INTERNATIONAL BRICK AND TILE CO.
Bridgetown, Annapolis Co.
HAVE NOW ON HAND A LARGE QUANTITY OF Beautiful Hard-Burnt Brick, which are manufactured by the most approved modern machinery, from a superior clay, thoroughly mixed with sand; have smooth surfaces, square edges, and
ARE GUARANTEED TO STAND THE WEATHER.
Our selected stock brick will look as well in the front of a building as some of the so-called face or repress brick, nor are they liable to chip or split with the frost. So far as tested they have not shown any of the WHITE SUBSTANCE, which so disfigures some brick buildings, and we believe them to be entirely free from this ingredient. We aim to keep on hand a large quantity, so that the trade can always rely upon being supplied with good brick.
Having a good wharf on our property and a siding of the W. & A. Railway, we can ship either by vessel or rail.
For the information of builders we publish herewith a certificate from a well-known architect.
YARMOUTH, N. S., February 16th, 1891.
The International Brick and Tile Company:
GENTLEMEN,—I took one of your stock brick promiscuously from a lot shown me and put it to a severe weather test, having boiled it in hot water and put it out to be frozen at once, and often in an open atmosphere, but have not yet seen the least change in the surface. I consider them first-class in all respects. Yours truly, J. B. KINNEY, Architect.

TO THE
PUBLIC OF LAWRENCETOWN
Do Not Make a Mistake!
Three reasons why you should buy all you can from
W. E. PALFREY.
1st. He does not buy cheap and inferior goods for the purpose of making A PUFF. His goods are the best, and sold as low as the lowest.
2nd. He only has one price, takes produce in exchange for goods, and allows the highest market price for it.
3rd. As his motto has always been "small profits and quick sales," his goods are always new and fresh.
Everybody should look after the bargains he will give during the month of SEPTEMBER.
