SICKNESS AMONG CHILDREN, is prevalent at all seasons of the year, but can be avoided largely when they are properly cared for. Infant Health is the title of a valuable pamphlet accessible to all who will send address to the N. Y. Condensed Milk Co., N. Y. City.

Quida, after the enforced sale of her beautiful furniture by the authorities of the United Italy which she so hates and reviles, has retired to a villa in the environs of Lucca, where she is concentrating all her bitterness against Italians in a three-volume novel.

American enterprise is discounted by a grocery firm of Liverpool, England, who recently sent out black-bordered circulars, announcing the sad death of a partner and on the blank page gave the current prices for bacon, eggs, butter and other staples in which they dealt.

When Du Maurier made an engagement with Harper Brothers to contribute a full-page drawing each month, he received a protest from Punch, whose officials thought themselves exclusively entitled to his services. His reply was as follows: "DEAR—: Man cannot live by Punch alone."

A certain Bishop, who thinks every boy should learn to repeat the Thirty-nine Articles as well as the Catechism, recently asked a youthful scholar if he had read the Thirty-nine Articles. "No," said the boy, "but I have read 'Ali Babi, or the Forty Thieves.'" "You may stand down, sir," said the Bishop.

OF INTEREST TO DYSPYPTICS AND OTHERS.

Gluten Flour is the name of a most delicate, light and nutritious flour especially prepared for dyspeptics and others with weak digestion, by the well-known manufacturers, Messrs. Farwell & Rhines, of Watertown, N.Y. This flour, with which most delicious and wholesome bread may be made, contains the best elements of three different kinds of wheat. Only the nutritious part of the grain is used, all deleterious parts being rejected, thus insuring a bread that the most delicate stomach can digest. The manufacturers will send a sample of Gluten Flour free to anyone upon receipt of name and address—an opportunity for house-keepers to test for themselves the merits of this admirable flour.

A Russian grand duke, one of the Czar's predecessors, was once the guest of a German Prince. It was early in the century. In Russia the imperial double-headed eagle is to be seen everywhere and on everything throughout the empire, stamped, painted, embroidered, or sculptured. At that period the education of grand dukes was somewhat limited. This grand duke went out shooting in Germany, and, among other things, shot a large bird. He asked an experienced huntsman who accompanied him what the bird was. "An eagle, your highness," was the answer. The grand duke turned on him in an irritated way. "How can it be an eagle," he asked, "when it has only one head?"

MORE than a year ago Rev. T. Watson of Coburn, Ont., wrote the following:—"E. D. C. has produced in me a wonderful change, almost from the first time of using. My indigestion is all gone, and my general health is much better than it has been for years. E. D. C. has my heartiest and unqualified commendation. I believe it to be all its makers claim it to be." (Aug. 14, 1896), he writes again:—"I am thankful to say that the benefits derived from E. D. C. in my case did not prove merely temporary but abiding."

K. D. C. ought to be found in every home, as it is the remedy for little stomach ills, as well as the great curer for the worst forms of Dyspepsia.

K. D. C. Pills are splendid for the liver and bowels. They cure chronic constipation when taken with E. D. C.

through all its varying moods if you have your clothing interlined with Fibre Chamois. This wonderful fabric is so light that you never notice its presence in a garment till you get out into the wind and cold, then you realize that you are cosily warm even tho' lightly clad. Fibre Chamois is a complete non-conductor of heat and cold, not the strongest wintry blast can penetrate it, nor can the natural warmth of the body escape through it—This explanation and the fact that it

A doctrine lived is more beautiful than a doctrine preached. Jesus taught His disciples to forgive men their trespasses, and that was beautiful; but when upon the cross He prayed, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do," that was sublime. If we are not all called to preach, we are at least called to adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things, and that is better than mere preaching.

During one of his speeches out in Wisconsin, Eugene V. Debs threw back his head proudly, struck his bulging chest, and shouted: "I've been in jail!" The shouts of pride and congratulation had scarcely died out when a more villainous-looking man arose in the gallery, and, imitating the voice and manner of his great compatriot, shouted: "I've been in jail, too!" The audience went wild with joy.

Office Boy—Doctor, that red-headed Mrs. Squabch came in while you were out and ripped around awfully! She called you a quack and a fraud and a swindler, and threatened to have you arrested or sued or something. Dr. Tombs—Great Scott! What was the matter with her? Office Boy—Why, she said you told her that her husband could not recover, and she went and sold all his clothes to a second-hand dealer. And now he is getting well as fast as he possibly can.
