HOTELKEEPER WAS KICKED IN THE HEAD

James Gillson, of London Township, Mauled by Six Men.

James Gillson, who keeps a hotel north of the city, was brutally assaulted last night, between 5 and 6 o'clock at his hotel by six men, two of whom are now in the country jail. The men drove up to the house and refused to pay for the liquor they drank. One of the men grabbed Gillson by the hands and was thrown to the ground, Gillson being the better man. While Gillson was holding this man down he was kicked in the head by one of the men. The six then departed. Two of them were arrested by High Constable McLoud and Detective Ward, and brought before Squire Lacey, who remanded them for a week.

FORECASTS.

Fair this afternoon and tonight.

Sunday—Fresh to strong west to northwest winds; mostly fair and cooler, but a few scattered showers.

WEATHER NOTES.

A marked depression, centered near Toronto, has traveled from the Gulf of Mexico, attended by very heavy rains. Cool, wintry weather prevails from the Rockies to Manitoba, and the unusually high temperature prevailing in Ontario and Quebec promises to give way to cooler conditions.

LATE LOCAL ITEMS

—Mr. Wm. Scott, of Toronto, is visiting Mrs. Wm. Ferguson, of this city.

—Inspector Sanders leaves in a couple of days for a trip to Dublin and Mitchell.

—Mr. W. G. R. Bartram is home from Toronto, where he is attending Osgoode Hall.

—Miss Annie Clement, of Woodstock, is the guest of Miss Selkirk, 196 Simcoe street, city.

—The Grand Trunk ticket office disposed of over $3,000 worth of tickets during Easter.

—The Bishop of Huron is to preach in St. James' Church, South London, Easter Sunday evening.

—Mr. Herbert Mackenzie is spending Easter with his mother at 77 Byron avenue, South London.

—Cadets Chester Mathewson, Walter Reid and Kent Cameron are home for Easter from Kingston Military College.

—George Abel, John Bowie and a man named Errington are being tried before Squire Lacey this afternoon for spearing fish at Byron.

—The executive committee of the Delaware and Westminster Sabbath School Association met this afternoon in the county buildings.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. John Collins was held this morning from her late home, Edward street. Rev. Father Aylward said prayers.

—Miss Elva McBroom, violinist, pupil of Prof. Yunck, of the Detroit Conservatory of Music, is spending her Easter holidays at her home, Hyman street.

—Two of McMaster Hall's clever young men, Mr. C. E. Brownlee, B.A., and A. C. Watson, B. A. (of this city), will conduct the services at Adelaide Street Baptist Church tomorrow, morning and evening.

....Local ..6 ..6e..6 ..6 ..6 ....

—The new ranges were formally opened for the season yesterday. A section of cavalry men under Major Abbott spent the afternoon practicing, and a sweepstake was fired by a party from the 7th Regiment.

—Miss Jessie Maclachlan, in reply to President Pringle, of St. Andrew's Society, has kindly acceded to the general request to add "Wi' a Hundred Pipers" and "Rule Britannia" to the numbers she will sing on Tuesday evening next at the New Grand Opera House.

—Special Easter services will be held at Dundas Center Methodist Church tomorrow. Rev. J. W. Graham, B.A., of Montreal, will preach in the morning, and the pastor, Rev. C. T. Scott, at night. The choir will lead the congregational in an appropriate service of praise.

—By the way, the St. Andrew's committee were requested, if possible, to have the coming Jessie Maclachlan concert on some other night than Wednesday—the church meeting night. They have borne the request in mind—the great concert taking place on Tuesday evening next.

—The Grand Rapids Herald of recent date contains a sympathetic reference to the late William Rice, a brother of Mrs. Wm. Feeley, formerly of this city. Mr. Rice left Canada for Grand Rapids some 30 years ago, and after engaging in farming near there for some years, lived retired in that city, among whose citizens he was highly respected. He is survived by three children—Edwin and Flossie at home and Mrs. William Averill, of Chicago. Three sisters and two brothers also survive—Mrs. J. Cooper, Mrs. R. Foster and Mrs. Feeley, and John and James, of Grand Rapids. One brother, Nathaniel Rice, sheriff, died seven years ago.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Messrs. Frost & Wood have received a permit for the construction of a brick warehouse at the corner of Pall Mall and Richmond streets; and another has been issued to the Coote estate for alterations to two stores on Dundas street.

PARENTS NOT FOUND.

The parents of the child which was picked up on a veranda in Mount Brydges have not yet been located. The baby is three months old. It is being cared for by a resident of Mount Brydges. The only explanation advanced is that the child was brought from a distance.

ITALIAN FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Luigi Castellano, who died suddenly on Thursday afternoon, took place this morning from his late residence, King street, to St. Peter's Cathedral, where, after prayers were said by Father McEwen, it proceeded to the Catholic burying-grounds. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Guy Sidato, Jos. Niosi, Antonio Vita, A. A. Cortese, M. Caravella and P. Ramagno. Two of deceased's aunts, Mrs. J. Caravella and Mrs. Famalora, live in this city, besides Mr. Caravella, of Talbot street.

ENJOYABLE BANQUET.

To show the esteem in which they held Mr. Malcolm McGugan, M.P., the resirents of Mount Brydges and vicinity last night tendered him a banquet on the occasion of his removing from the village back to the farm he formerly lived upon. Liberals and Conservatives joined hands to testify to the popularity of the member for South Middlesex. The affair was held in the Commercial Hotel, and about 75 persons were in attendance notwithstanding the inclement weather. Mr. Holmes, member for West Huron, gave an able and interesting speech. A long list of toasts was introduced, and songs were given by Messrs. George Bond and William Forsythe.

DEATH OF MR. EDWARD GRANGER.

Mr. Edward Granger died at his residence, No. 679 Colborne street, this morning. Mr. Granger was in his 77th year, and had lived retired in this city for the past 36 years. He had not been in good health for a year or more. Mr. Granger had many friends here, and in London township, where he formerly lived, who will learn with sorrow of his death. Mrs. Granger survives him, and three children—James, of the firm of Rowat, McMahen & Granger; George, of Campbell & Co., and Mrs. O. H. Talbot, of this city. The funeral will be private, and will be held on Monday.

POLICE COURT.

What with scorchers, riders on sidewalks, family squabblers and drinkers of the "red-eye," Police Magistrate Love had a busy session this morning. The court bench was filled with offenders, but no one appeared in the box with the grilled ironwork. Frank Legg was assessed $2 for riding on the sidewalk, and Walter Stenhoff, John Richards and Herbert McDonald were fined the same amount for scorching.

The case of Ernest Graham, charged with unlawfully concealing a bicycle, was adjourned until next week on the request of the defendant. A local hotelkeeper was charged with selling liquor to youths. No evidence to prove this was brought out and the case was dismissed. A family squabble, indulged in by about eight people, brought a charge of assault against two young men. The complainant is an East End resident, and on March 24 he was attacked by two men, who set upon him and left him with torn clothes and a black eye. The case was adjourned till next week.

LEAVES A VACANCY

Lieut.-Col. Smith's Retirement From the Seventh Regiment Makes Room for Promotion.

The retirement of Lieut.-Col. Smith from the position of officer commanding the Seventh Regiment will cause a vacancy in the rank of major, which will be filled either by promotion within the regiment or the appointment of a new junior major from outside. In the event of the former method being followed, the promotion would fall to Major Hayes, who already has the brevet rank of major.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

DAINTY PAREE.

The Dainty Paree Burlesquers, who performed yesterday at the London Opera House, gave an entertainment that was not displeasing to the large audience it drew. Mlle. La Toska is an exceptionally clever contortionist—one of the best ever seen in London—and the songs, dances and scenery were all good. A fair-sized audience attended the matinee today. The company appears at the London again tonight.

New Wall Paper Store.

Messrs. George Howe & Son have opened an artistic wall paper establishment at 247 Dundas street, in the store formerly occupied by the Crealy Dairy Company. Mr. Howe is well known as one of London's contractors, having had a successful patronage during his long term of activity in the building trade of this city. In entering on this new departure it is still the intention to continue with his contract work in painting, graining, etc. The store has been filled with an entire new stock of wall papers, exquisite in design, for the spring trade now opening. Besides the wall papering, the store is tastefully arranged with pictures, picture frames and moldings. A complete stock of these goods will be carried. It is certain that a liberal number of London's householders will extend to Messrs. George Howe & Son a fair share of their patronage.

FIERCE GALE AND FLOODS

Newfoundland Coast Swept by a Northeaster.

Rough Times for Sealers—Huronian Supposed to Have Been Wrecked by Ice Floes—Floods in Mississippi.

St. Johns, Nfld., March 29.—The sealing steamer Harlaw arrived in the channel Thursday night with 12,000 seals aboard. A furious northeast gale has been raging for the last 36 hours, and it is feared that it will cause disaster among the sealing fleet inclosed in the ice floes.

The steamer Algerine, having on board 3,000 seals, was forced to seek shelter at Little Sand owing to the violence of the storm.

The sealing steamer Leopard, which has just arrived here, reports terrible weather all along the coast.

The sealer Newfoundland has reached Placentia. She had no seals on board.

Ships which have arrived here from Europe with cargoes of salt report vast ice floes off the Virgin Rocks and the Grand Banks, and directly in the track of Atlantic shipping. The presence of ice in that locality is regarded as confirmation of the belief that the missing Allan liner Huronian was lost there.

TRAFFIC STOPPED BY FLOODS.

Meridian, Miss., March 28.—Eleven inches of rain have fallen here during the past 48 hours. Many farms are under water, bridges have been washed away and railway traffic in this vicinity is at a standstill. No trains have entered or departed from Meridian since Thursday afternoon. Telegraph wires are down and some points are entirely cut off.

Jackson, Miss., March 28.—The flood situation is somewhat improved today, so far as the railroads are concerned, but traffic has not yet been resumed from New Orleans, Vicksburg or Meridian. The flood from the upper country is being felt here, and Pearl River has already backed up to within 100 feet of the old capitol. Scores of families moved to high ground today. So far there has been no loss of life.

TRAINS HELD UP.

Decatur, Ala., March 29.—All northbound Louisville and Nashville trains are held up here indefinitely, owing to wash-outs. The storm damage is widespread in this region.

Hayward Roberts (white) and Tom Evans (colored) were killed by electric wires broken by the storm.

ANOTHER BLIZZARD

Visits Colorado—Snow Has Fallen Steadily for 24 Hours—Cattle Suffer Badly.

Denver, Col., March 29.—A general storm prevails on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains in Colorado. Snow has fallen continuously in Denver and vicinity for the past 24 hours. At some points on the mountains the storm has reached the proportions of a blizzard. Cattle on the ranges in the northeastern portion are suffering severely

UNRECORDED FIGHT

In Which British Seem to Have Been Roughly Handled.

London, March 29.—A casualty list, published this afternoon, records a hitherto unreported fight in the Rhenoster Valley, near Sutherland, Cape Colony, March 24, when the British were evidently severely handled. They lost eight men killed and ten men wounded, and twenty-nine were captured. The latter have since been released.

MISS STONE IN LONDON.

London, March 29. — Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, arrived in London today. She looked fairly well, but was very nervous.

THE NEW CANADIAN MOUNTED CONTINGENT.

Details as to Its Formation Expected Soon—The Matter of Supplies.

Ottawa, March 28.—So far as can be learned, the war office has not yet indicated the lines upon which it desires the new force of 2,000 men to be constituted—that is to say, it has not defined how many officers there are to be, and how the force is to be divided up. These details are expected at any time, and as soon as they are received no time will be lost in making the necessary arrangements to enroll and equip the men. It is thought the Lanark firm which had the contract for manufacturing the cloth for uniforms for the 2nd Mounted Rifles will be intrusted with a similar order on the present occasion, and that the Sanford Company, of Hamilton, will be authorized to make the uniforms. In the matter of purchasing horses, Mr. Robert Beith, M.P., has rendered such good service in the past, that it would be foolish for the department not to again avail itself of his services, so far, at least, as Ontario is concerned. In the case of the last contingent the time was opportune for buying mounts, many persons who had horses, not wishing, when a sale could be made, to keep them during the winter, and a splendid lot of animals were secured at prices which could not be deemed excessive. It will be more difficult to secure horses now, but if the right men are chosen they can be got, though prices may be a little stiffer.

Deaths of a Day.

Hanover, Prussia, March 29.—Prince Berneburg (better known as Count Von Muenster-Ledenburg), who has been, during the course of his career, German ambassador to France, Great Britain and Russia, is dead. He was born in London, Dec. 3, 1820.

London, March 29.—William Stephen Temple Gore Langton, fourth Earl Temple, died at Cairo, Egypt, yesterday evening. He was born in 1847.

London, March 29.—Sir Sidney Godolphin Alexander Shippard, formerly judge of the Supreme Court of Cape Colony, and who has held various other positions in South Africa, is dead.

Newark, N. J., March 29.—Dr. Thos. Dunn English, the poet, who has been ill for several days, was reported to be in a dying condition today. His family has been summoned to his bedside.

AN OTTAWA MYSTERY

Mr. Arthur Lindsay, Chief Clerk in Postoffice Department, Missing.

Ottawa, March 29.—Mr. Arthur Lindsay, chief clerk in the postoffice department, has not been seen since Friday, March 21, and his family and friends are greatly alarmed over the fact.

On the morning in question Mr. Lindsay left his home to go to the department, but did not turn up there. Shortly before noon he was noticed by a friend on O'Connor street, but there is no knowledge as to his subsequent movements. Mr. Lindsay had a considerable amount of money in his possession, and the fear is that he may have met with foul play.

It is possible that he may be suffering temporarily from mental aberration, as he was known to be depressed in spirits recently. Dr. Coulter, deputy postmaster-general, states that Mr. Lindsay left his affairs at the department in proper condition, and he knows of no reason for his absence.

Political Points.

Legislation will probably be introduced at the present session to give the Yukon representation in the House of Commons.

The Liberals of West Huron will hold a convention at Dungannon on April 7 to select a candidate for the Legislature.

The Reform convention for Algoma will be held at Bruce Mines on April 7; for West Huron at Dungannon on the same date, and for Manitoulin as soon as navigation season opens.

SHANTYMEN QUARANTINED.

Ottawa, March 29.—The shantymen's quarantine station at Ottawa was used yesterday for the first time, when 40 men from the lumber camps were taken there to have their clothes fumigated and to be vaccinated and washed. The station will be kept busy for some time until the rush from the shanties ends.

LOST FORTUNE IN TWO NIGHTS.

New York, March 29.—A member of the Knickerbocker Club and the son of one of New York's most exclusive and richest families, lost $108,000 at roulette in Canfield's gambling place in two nights recently. The first night he lost $103,000, the second night $5,000 more. Reginald Vanderbilt, youngest son of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, who came of age a few months ago, and entered into the possession of a large share of the fortune left to him by his father, denies the report which is current that he was the victim. New York is "wide open." More than that, the gambling houses, the pool rooms, the crap games, even the cheapest of the policy shops, are running today as they never ran before.

—Mrs. J. D. Bradshaw, Toronto, is visiting Mrs. H. P. Allen, 494 King street.

Catarrh.
Called an American disease, is cured by an American medicine, originated and prepared in the most catarrhal of American countries.
That medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla.
It cures radically and permanently, in that it removes the cause, cleansing the blood of scrofulous and all other impurities. It overcomes all the effects of catarrh, too, and builds up the whole system. c

The body of the aged woman found floating in the Genesee River at Charlotte, N. Y., yesterday afternoon has been identified as that of Henrietta Pasch, aged 76 years. As a result of the autopsy, the police of Rochester have another murder mystery to solve.

South Wellington prohibitionists have appointed a committee to select a candidate for the Ontario Legislature.

I have been troubled for over seventeen years with gas in the stomach caused from indigestion. Six years ago I began to have dreadful distressed spells and at times would suffer such intense pain that the doctor would give me hypodermic of morphine to relieve me. An attack on the jail at Clayton, N. Y., for the purpose of lynching Postmaster J. W. Guyer, who killed Wm. E. Searles, a jeweler, last Wednesday, is threatened. Searles attempted to shoot the postmaster, who, it is charged, circulated a pamphlet reflecting upon the character of Searles and his wife.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE of John McVicar, late of the village of Otterburne, in the municipality of De Salaberry, in the Province of Manitoba, yeoman, deceased—Notice is hereby given, pursuant to Section 38 of Chapter 129 of Revised Statutes of Ontario, that all persons having any claims against the estate of the said late John McVicar, who died on or about the 27th day of August, A.D., 1901, at the said village of Otterburne, in the Province of Manitoba, are required to send their names and addresses and full particulars of their claims and the nature of the security (if any) held by them, to M. P. McDonagh, solicitor for the administrator, 418 Talbot street, London, on or before the 7th day of April, A. D. 1902. And notice is hereby further given that on the last-mentioned day, Neven McVicar, the administrator of the property of the said deceased will proceed to distribute the said estate among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which she shall then have had notice. Dated at London, this 14th day of March, A. D. 1902. M. P. McDONAGH, solicitor for the administrator. 32c-t
