FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, Sept. 7.

St. John has been crowded with visitors this week, here to attend the exhibition. Nearly every householder is entertaining friends from out-of-town, and the hotels have been taxed to their utmost capacity. Lieutenant-Governor Wood, who was here to assist in the opening ceremonies of the exhibition, remained in the city over the holiday. The weather was ideal for the week-end and holiday and continued so through the week. The outside attractions at the exhibition were very good this year and crowds were on the streets each day watching for the aeroplane and the balloon ascension, both of which proved most interesting. A large number of gentlemen strangers were here to take part in the golf tournament.

The marriage of Miss Constance Winslow, of Chatham, daughter of the late Mr. Francis Winslow, of that town, to Rev. George Peters, of Newark (N. J.), took place at an early hour Wednesday morning at the Mission church of St. John Baptist. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Convers. Mr. and Mrs. Peters left on the Boston boat for their home in Newark. Mrs. H. Montgomery Campbell, of Apohaqui, a sister of the bride, was present at the ceremony.

Mrs. D. B. Pidgeon entertained informally on Saturday afternoon at the tea hour. A number of ladies called and were served tea on the verandah.

Miss Daisy Sears, who has been spending her vacation in this city, returned on Wednesday to Montreal.

St. Luke's church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, when James Harold McMurray, of Fredericton, and Miss Frederica Seely Hatheway, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Rowan, were united in marriage by Rev. R. P. McKim. The bride was given away by Mr. A. M. Rowan, and was attended by her sister, Miss Elise R. Hatheway, and Mr. William Vanwart, of Fredericton, was groomsman. The bride wore a dainty gown of white satin with duchesse lace trimmings, and bridal veil with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore a pale blue silk crepe de chine and large black picture hat with old rose plume. After the ceremony luncheon was served at the bride's home, Main street. Mr. and Mrs. McMurray left on a camping trip and will make their home in Fredericton. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James McMurray, Dr. and Mrs. McMurray, Miss Lorimer, Miss Harmon and Charles Edgecombe, of Fredericton, and Hon. The marriage of Roy Primrose Clinch, of the Wm. Thomson & Co. insurance department, to Miss Gladys Duffield Bullock was a brilliant society event. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and golden rod. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilfred Gaetz, and Mr. John Bullock, uncle of the bride, played the wedding march. The Misses Creighton sang The Song of Thanksgiving, during the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a handsome gown of duchesse satin with princess lace and pearl trimmings, Brussels net veil with orange blossoms as a coronet, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Audrey Bullock, as maid of honor, who wore a gown of pale blue satin with ninon overdress, Miss Cunningham, of Kentucky, the bridesmaid, wore pink satin with lace trimmings. The maids of honor and bridesmaid wore chiffon wreaths on their heads instead of the usual hats. Mr. W. E. Church was groomsman and Joseph Bullock, Fraser Bond and Gordon Church were the ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's father, T. H. Bullock, in Germain street. The house was beautifully decorated. In the drawing rooms the colors were pink and green and sweet peas. Asters and ferns were used to carry out the effect. The dining room was done with white sweet peas and ferns. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Church left on their honeymoon trip. The bride's going away gown was navy blue with hat to match. On their return they will take up their residence in Carvill Hall apartment house. There were a large number of invited guests and some very beautiful gowns were worn. Mrs. Bullock, mother of the bride, wore a beautiful gown of copenhagen blue, hat to match, with lovely bird of paradise osprey.
