FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Jan. 12—Mrs. W. C. Crocket entertained at a bridge of three tables on Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Duncan Davidson, of Didsbury (Alta.), when Mrs. Alex. J. Thompson was the prize winner.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Belyea have returned from their wedding journey.

Mrs. Harold Babbitt was hostess at a bridge of four tables on Friday, when Miss Mabel Sterling was the guest of honor. Miss McLauchland was the prize winner, Lady Ashburnham getting the consolation prize.

Mrs. Coulthard gave a luncheon on Saturday in honor of Miss Mabel Sterling, when covers were laid for eight. Those present were Miss Mabel Sterling, Miss Helen Sterling, Mrs. W. S. Carter, Mrs. Hanbury (Brandon), Miss Hanford (Halifax), Miss Stopford, Miss Hunter and Mrs. Coulthard.

Mrs. Cudlip, of St. John, is visiting Mrs. D. Lee Babbitt.

Miss Frances Smith has returned from spending the holiday season with St. John friends.

Mrs. W. J. Weaver has invitations out for a bridge party for Friday evening.

Miss Helen Richardson is leaving today to resume her studies at Edgehill.

The Monday Club met this week with Miss Louise Sterling, when Mrs. W. H. Steeves was the prize winner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor entertained at dinner on Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Davidson, when covers were laid for twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, two children and maid, who have been visiting Mrs. Davidson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hodge, left last evening for their home in Didsbury (Alta.)

Mrs. W. G. Trites has returned from visiting friends in Moncton.

The Thursday Evening Club met with Miss Rita Barry this week, when Miss Louise Sterling was the prize winner.

The Ladies' Club met with Mrs. Smith on Tuesday evening when Miss Sterling was the prize winner.

Mrs. A. A. Sterling entertained today at a bridge of five tables, for her daughter, Miss Mabel Sterling, when Mrs. W. C. Crocket was the prize winner.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 13—James S. Neill of this city is the subject of double congratulations. He was last night elected president of the Fredericton Board of Trade and this morning word came that his eldest son, Charles E. Neill, has been appointed general manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in succession to E. L. Pease. The new general manager began his banking career here in the early nineties as clerk in the Merchants' Bank of Halifax under the late A. S. Murray. He was afterward manager of a branch of the Royal Bank at Vancouver and later became chief inspector. He was appointed assistant general manager in 1907. He is forty two years of age.

Five men of the 104th have gone to Sussex to take machine gun courses. One recruit was taken on here this morning.

Owing to several members of the 104th having lately had trouble with the police a picket was put on duty.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Jan. 13—Mr. A. B. Copp, M. P. and Mrs. Copp left Monday for Ottawa, where they will remain during the session of parliament.

Mrs. J. Wood entertained at Government House, Saturday evening, in honor or her granddaughter, Miss Margaret Black. Those present were, Misses Sybil and Georgie Calkin, Misses Margaret and Alice Pickard, Miss Lucy Smith, Miss Margaret Black, Miss Neta DesBarres, Miss Laura Darby, Mr. C. Loban, Mr. Edgar Copp, Mr. Tom Hunton, Mr. R. Wilson, Mr. L. Black, Mr. Russell Cahill, Mr. Stoddard, Mr. Towet and Mr. E. Davis.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Palmer entertained a few friends at dinner on Saturday evening. Those present were, Prof. and Mrs. Read, Dr. and Mrs. Liddy, Prof. and Miss Tweedie, Mrs. F. DesBarres, Miss N. Thomas and Rev. Dr. Bond.

Mrs. H. E. Fawcett, who has been spending a couple of weeks in St. John, returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. O. Calkin is visiting in Moncton, guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank McCully.

Miss Bessie Poole left Friday morning for her home in Lower Montague (P. E. I.), where she expects to spend the winter with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duncan are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son on Thursday, January 6.

The Misses Calkin entertained a few friends at a very enjoyable skating party on Friday evening at Silver Lake, afterwards returning to their home on York street where dainty refreshments were served. Among those present were Miss Lucy Smith, Miss Margaret Black, Miss Sybil Calkin, Misses Neta and Doutte DesBarres, Mr. Tom Hunton, Mr. Boyd Johnson, Mr. Edgar Copp, Mr. Russell Cahill and Mr. Amos Ayer.

Mrs. Morris, of Amherst, spent Thursday in town, guest of Mrs. A. B. Copp.

Miss Margaret Black left Monday for Toronto, to resume her studies at Havergal College.

Miss Marjorie Smith and Mr. E. Chandler, of Moncton, spent Friday in town, guests of Mrs J F. Allison.

Mrs. Harvey Copp left Friday for Moncton, where she will spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. George Wilson.

Miss Bessie Carter spent last week in Moncton, guest of Mrs. Alex Crichton.

Mr. C. W. Fawcett spent a few days on Prince Edward Island last week.

Mr. H. Strong, of the 145th Battalion, Moncton, spent the week-end in town.

Miss Marjorie Sumner, of Moncton, spent the week-end in town, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Wood.

Miss Nellie Turner, who has been visiting friends in Moncton, returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. C. C. Avard entertained at a very enjoyable bridge on Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. A. B. Copp, who left Monday for Ottawa. Dainty prizes were won by Mrs. Copp and Miss Tweedie. Those present were Mrs. Copp, Mrs. H. H. Woodworth, Mrs. D. S. Campbell, Mrs. H. Bigelow, Mrs. Crowell, Mrs. C. G. Steadman, Mrs. H. C. Read, Mrs. G. H. Mackenzie, Mrs. Freeman-Lake, Mrs. Warren Copp, Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, Miss Tweedie, Miss Effie Johnson and Miss Lou Ford.

At Government House, on Monday evening, Mrs. J. Wood entertained at a very enjoyable bridge in honor of Lieut. Chitty of London (Eng.) Dainty prizes were won by Mrs. C. W. Fawcett and Mr. Kenneth Pickard. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Bigelow, Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, Mrs. F. B. Black, Mrs. D. Allison, Miss Gretchen Allison, Miss Elsie Tait, Miss Elaine Borden, Miss Lou Ford, Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Helen Wiggins, Lieut. Chitty, Mr. Herbert Read, Dr. McKiel, Mr. H. Robertson, Mr. Maurice Fisher, Mr. Kenneth Pickard, Mr. Donald Smith, and Mr. Stoddard.

Dr. Louise Hart left Saturday for Halifax to visit her sister, Miss Lillian Hart, who is a patient in the hospital in that city.

Miss Gladys Borden, who has been visiting friends in Halifax, returned Monday evening.

A very enjoyable bridge was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Read, Bridge street, on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Red Cross Society, at which about $20 was raised for patriotic purposes. Prizes were won by Mrs. George Peters, Miss Jean Richardson, Mr. Pethick and Mr. Fred. Fisher. Among thosep resent were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Steadman, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton (New Glasgow), Mr. and Mrs. George Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Gains Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Copp, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Woodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cahill, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. David Allison, Mrs. D. S. Campbell, Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mrs. Frank Harris, Mrs. C. C. Avard, Mrs. E. Hazen, Mrs. Fred. Rainnie, Mrs. Sutherland, Miss Cameron, Miss Lou Ford, Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Jen Richardson, Miss Edith Hunton, Miss Marie DesBarres, Miss Bessie Carter, Miss Effie Johnson, Miss Helen Wiggins, Miss Caroline Cahill, Miss Kathleen Mackenzie, and Miss Etta Taylor.

Among the passengers who sailed from St. John on the 1st inst. by the Metagama was sub-Flight Lieutenant J. A. Cameron, of the Royal Naval Aerial Service. "Jack" will be remembered as a son of Mr. D. Cameron, formerly of Sackville, but now of the Imperial Bank, Toronto. He is a Mount Allison boy and his career will be watched with interest.

Lieutenant Warren A. Dakin, the former Pugwash (N. S.) boy who resigned the superintendency of the Regina General Hospital to enlist as a doctor with the Royal Army Medical Corps, is now on duty in the east. He is attached to No. 18 Stationary Hospital, which is understood to be now at either Cairo or Lemnos. A card received from Dr. Dakin a day or so ago stated that he was in good health. At least one other Nova Scotia officer is alos stationed near Lieutenant Dakin. Captain E. E. Graham, formerly a minister of the Nova Scotia Methodist conference, and now a chaplain with the troops. Both Dr. Dakin and Captain Graham are Mount Allison boys, and are well known in Sackville.

The Once-in-a-While Club held its initial meeting for the season, Monday evening, with Mrs. Wiggins at the rectory.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Trueman, who have been spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fawcett, Upper Sackville, have returned to resume their duties at Stanstead College, Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Talbot-Crosby and family, of Yorkton (Sask.), arrived in town on Tuesday. Mrs. Talbot-Crosby and children wil remain here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Morton, while her husband intends to enlist for active service. He belongs to an old Irish family and has already more than one brother serving his king and country at the front.

Mr. Wilfrid Smith, of the Royal Bank staff, Montreal, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Smith, Middle Sackville.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at All Saints' church, Manitoba, at 5 o'clock on New Year's eve, when Rev. Walter Loucks united in marriage Louise, youngest daughter of William Prescott, of Bale Verte (N. B.), and Mr. Philip G. M. Billington, of Regina (Sask.) The bride, who was given away by Mr. J. L. Strothard, wore a smart traveling suit of navy blue serge, blouse of maize-colored lace and a beautiful stole and muff of Alaska sable, the gift of the groom. Both bride and groom were unattended, and only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Billington drove from the church to the Union depot, where they too kthe G. T. P. train for their future home in Regina.

SUSSEX

Sussex, N. B., Jan. 13—Mrs. J. D. McKenna was hostess at a most enjoyable tea Wednesday afternoon from 4.30 to 6 o'clock. The drawing rooms were artistically decorated with pale pink and white carnations and narcissi. Mrs. McKenna received her guests in a blue silk gown. Mrs Harry Reid, wearing black silk, invited the guests to the dining room, where the handsomely appointed tea table, which was centred with red and white carnations, was presided over by Mrs. George W. Fowler and Mrs. M. Garfield White, Mrs. Fowler wearing black silk and Mrs. White black net over black silk. Those assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Percy Gunn, wearing pink voile with black velvet bodice; Mrs. H. B. Clarke, accordeon pleated grey chiffon with touches of pink; Miss DeBoo, black silk; Miss Roach and Miss Byrne, Miss Roach wearing white and Miss Byrne purple velvet. Among those invited were Mrs. Jesse Prescott, Mrs. G. L. Wetmore, Mrs. S. A. McLeod, Mrs. Wm. H. McLeod, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Flewelling, Mrs. A. G. Mills, Miss Mary McIntyre, Mrs. Hugh McMonagle, Mrs. Charles Willis, Mrs. J. P. Atherton, Mrs. C. Lawrence, Mrs. Wm. T. Barnes, Mrs. Boggs, Mrs. Helland, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Corelli, Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Mrs. J. Everett Keith, Mrs. F. R. DeBoo, Mrs. James Forbes, Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. Rising, Mrs. L. R. Murray, Mrs. A. Forsythe, Mrs. C. P. Clarke, Mrs. W. B. McKay, Mrs. A. S. Townsend, Mrs. W. D. Turner, Mrs. F. G. Lansdowne, Mrs. S. J. Goodliffe, Mrs. Mansel Shewen, Mrs. H. A. White, Mrs. S. H. White, Mrs. Maunsel, Miss Clements, Mrs. Ralph Freeze, Mrs. Dave Freeze, Mrs. Hay, Mrs. Wm. Stockton, Mrs. W. B. Jonah, Mrs. Isaac DeBoo, Mrs. Daly, Mrs. Stubbs, Mrs. McAlister and others.

Mrs. H. H. Dryden is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carey McFeeters.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keith, of Petitcodiac, were among the visitors here Thursday.

Trinity church Sunday school was given its annual Christmas tree and treat Wednesday and as usual a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Much credit is due the rector, Rev. Mansel Shewen, and the Sunday school teachers who were in charge.

Mrs. Smithers and Miss Smithers, who have been guests of Mrs. Smithers' mother for several months, have returned to their home in Fredericton.

Miss Jean B. Peacock, of Mt. Allison teaching staff, spent the week-end here as the guest of Mrs. Leonard Allison.

Miss Nettie Campbell left this week for Boston to consult an eye specialist. Miss Campbell has hosts of friends who wish her every success and hope she will return completely cured.

Miss Jean E. Allen left Thursday for Hyde Park (Mass.), where she will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Radford.

Mrs. Percy P. Gunn and Master Jack have returned from a pleasant visit in St. John, where they were guests of Mrs. Thomas J. Gunn.

Lieut.-Col. Fowler left Tuesday for Ottawa to attend the session of parliament. Major Boggs will be in charge of the 104th Battalion during Colonel Fowler's absence.

Miss Beatrice Lutz and Miss Marion have returned to Mount Allison to resume their studies.

Mrs. John S. Trites, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. M. Garfield White, has returned to New York.

Mr. M. A. McLeod and bride have returned from a short trip to Nova Scotia.

Mrs. A. L. Robinson entertained her Sunday school class at a most enjoyable supper in the vestry of the Methodist church Friday evening last.

Sergt. John Theakston, of the 104th Battalion left Thursday for Halifax.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Robert McFee.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hayes and family are receiving many expressions of sympathy owing to the very sudden death of their only son, Stanley Hayes. The funeral, which was one of the largest ever held in Sussex, took place Wednesday afternoon. Rev. H. C. Rice officiated at the house and grave. Many beautiful floral offerings were in evidence.

Miss Annie Huestis and Miss Nellie Huestis spent the week-end in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Neill, of Bellisle, were here this week attending the funeral of Mrs. O'Neill's brother, the late Stanley Hayes.

HAMPTON VILLAGE

Hampton Village, Jan. 13—Mrs. G. O. D. Otty wishes to thank those who so generously responded to her request for knitting. She has already forwarded 219 pairs of socks to her son for distribution among the men of his company.

Misses Evelyn Chipman and Eva Howard left on Tuesday to resume their studies at Acadia Seminary.

Douglas Scribner has returned to River Glade after spending the Christmas season at his home here

Miss Jennie Paget, of Hartland, Carleton county, was the guest last week of her friend, Miss A. Laura Howard.

Miss Parlee, of St. John, was the guest during the holidays of Miss Dorothy Mabee.

Dr. W. S. Morrison is confined to his home this week on account of an injury to his knee resulting from a fall while on the way from the depot to his office in St. John.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Jan. 12—Mr. Frank Holland and sister, Miss Nora Holland, who have been spending the holidays here, returned on Monday to resume their studies at St. Joseph's College and convent.

Misses Eleanor and Annie Lockhart and Miss Julia Palmer left last week for Fredericton to resume their studies at the Normal school.

Miss E. McMahon spent Monday in Moncton, guest of friends.

Messrs. Adrian and Fred Richard returned this week from St. John, where they spent New Year's.

Miss Nina Tait returned on Friday last from Moncton, where she has been the guest of Mrs. Jas. Friel.

Miss Imogene Chapman is visiting friends in Moncton.

Miss Mary Mitton, of Port Elgin, is the guest of Miss Mina Palmer.

Miss Lila Foster returned on Monday last from St. John, where she spent New Year's the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Daniel Jordan, of Moncton, is the guest of her sister, Miss E. Cumming.

Mr. C. Lionel Hanington is confined to his home this week with a severe attack of grippe.

Mr. Jas. A. Piercy and two daughters, Misses Mollie and Jean Piercy, and granddaughter, Miss Lou McDonald, of Antigonish, who spent New Year's in St. John, guests of Mr. Piercy's mother, Mrs. Samuel Piercy, returned home on Wednesday last.

Mr. Charles Hickman left on Thursday for Rothesay to resume his studies at the collegiate school there.

Miss Garda Tingley returned last week to Salisbury to resume her duties as teacher in the Consolidated school.

Mr. Jack Hickman, of Amherst, is spending several days in town, guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hickman.

Mr. Fred Foster, who spent the Christmas vacation at his home here, returned last week to Kingston (Ont.) to resume his studies at the Royal Military College.

Miss Maria Walsh left on Tuesday for Antigonish (N. S.) to resume her studies at Mt. St. Bernard convent. She was accompanied by Miss Lou McDonald, who has been the guest of her grandfather, Jas. A. Piercy, and the Misses Piercy.

Miss Lila Foster left on Monday for Amherst, where she intends opening a kindergarten.

Private William Burden, of Fredericton, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. DeMille Buck, returned to Fredericton on Saturday last.

Mrs. Geo. Payzant and daughter, Miss Joan, are ill with a severe attack of grippe.

Mrs. W. Hazen Chapman left last week for Boston, where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Dysart, and Mr. Dysart.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Frank Gillespie have returned from Chatham, where they have been guests of Mr. Gillespie's sister, Mrs. Miller.

Miss Berniece Emmerson left on Tuesday last for Toronto, where she expects to spend some time the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Deacon.

Mr. Frank Cosman, of St. John, is visiting friends in town.

Privates Edward Gaudet and William McDougall, of Valcartier, Quebec, are spending several days at their homes here.

Mrs. George Bishop, who has been spending the past three months in Amherst, guest of her son, Mr. Aubrey Bishop, and Mrs. Bishop, returned home on Saturday last.

Private William Gillespie, who has been spending some time here guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Frank Gillespie, returned to Valcartier, Quebec, on Wednesday last.

Mrs. J. Williams, of Winnipeg, spent Monday in town, guest of Miss Etta McCaull.

Miss Marjorie Hutchinson, who has been visiting Miss Alice Hickman, returned to her home in Truro on Wednesday last.

Mrs. C. S. Starratt, Mrs. Robert Starratt and Mrs. George Taylor spent Thesday in Moncton, guests of friends.

Miss Mabel Lawson, of Amherst, is the guest of Misses Muriel and Myrtle Thomas.

SHEDIAC

Shediac, N. B., Jan. 18—Rev. and Mrs. B. C. Borden, of Sackville, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tait. On Sunday evening, Rev. Dr. Borden occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church and preached an eloquent sermon on behalf of the educational work of the church.

The ladies of the Baptist Sewing Circle were entertained by Mrs. Hobson on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. E. C. Turner will entertain the ladies' aid of the Methodist church on Friday afternoon.

Miss Beatrice Harper left town on Friday for Philadelphia where she was summoned by the serious illness of her uncle, Mr. F. L. Theal. Miss Harper was accompanied on her trip by her brother-in-law, Mr. H. B. Steeves.

Miss Gladys Smith left town on Monday to resume her studies at Havergal College, Toronto.

Mr. W. R. Williams, of Winnipeg, formerly of this place, visited Shediac friends this week.

Miss Lena Bray is visiting friends at Hopewell Cape, Albert county.

Mrs. J. C. Webster left town on Saturday for Chicago after spending the Christmas holidays at her summer home here. Mrs. Webster was accompanied by her sons, Johnie and Billie, who will resume their collegiate studies at Oakville (Ont.)

Miss Margaret Melanson, daughter of O. M. Melanson, M. P. P., has returned to her studies in the convent at Silliry (P. Q.)

Mrs. W. A. Flowers has been spending a few days in St. John.

Fred. Robidaux, M. P., and Mrs. Robidaux have been spending some days in Richibucto before proceeding to Ottawa for the session.

Mr. Ernest Ross has returned to his home in Quebec after spending a few days with friends in town.

Miss H. Barnes, of Hampton, was a week-end guest of Miss Elizabeth Blair, and left on Monday to resume her studies at Mount Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Saunders have returned from a visit to their former home in London (Ont.)

Mr. Boucher, formerly of the Bank of Montreal staff in St. John, has been recently transferred to the bank here to fill the position of accountant vacated by Mr. W. Stewart, who has enlisted.

Mr. Arthur Dysart has returned to Winnipeg, after spending the summer months at his home in Cocagne.

Miss Annie Dysart, of Cocagne, is the guest of Mrs. M. A. Oulton for a few days prior to leaving for Boston where she will spend the winter. Mrs. Oulton entertained at bridge in honor of her guest on Wednesday afternoon and again in the evening.

Miss Elizabeth Blair returned to her studies at Mount Allison on Monday after spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. Gordon Blair.

Mrs. Thomas Brown, of Edmundston, is the guest of Miss Bessie Wortman.

CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., Jan. 18—Mr. Mac Marquis, accompanied by his friend, Mr. Richard Sharp, of Charlottetown, have returned to Acadia University to resume their studies.

Miss Katie Anderson, of Campbellton, is spending a few days with friends here.

The afternoon tea and bean supper held Monday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. R. V. McCabe, in aid of the Millbank Red Cross Society, was largely attended and as a result over $50 was realized. Mrs. McCabe and the aldies assisting deserve great credit for their untiring efforts towards making the affair such a decided success.

Miss Gray Loggie, who has been spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Loggie, has returned to Toronto.

Miss Mary McLaughlan, who has been the guest of the Misses Babineau, returned to her home in Buctouche on Thursday.

Mr. G. E. Martin, of the public works department here, is in Halifax qualifying for a commission in a corps of guides.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stewart, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hennessey, Blackville, left Saturday for Peterborough (Ont.), where they will be the guests of their son, C. Kerr Stewart, for a few weeks.

Mr. Edward Johnson, who has been seriously ill for the past month, went to Montreal on Monday for treatment. He was accompanied by Dr. B. A. Marven and Mr. W. Haley.

Private James King, one of the returned heroes, who was wounded while serving with the 13th Battalion in France, returned to Fredericton on Friday, after a short visit to Chatham. He was accompanied by his bride, formerly Miss Catherine McGrath, of this town.

Sergeant Chas. McCulley, son of Colonel and Mrs. S. N. McCulley, of Chatham, returned home yesterday. Sergt. McCulley was wounded while on active service and has received a commission in the 132nd Battalion, Col. Mersereau, officer commanding this fine regiment, having asked the minister of militia and defence for Sergt. McCulley and also for Sergt. Ronald Allan, of the 18th Battalion. Sergt. McCulley returned on the Scandinavian and it is understood that Sergt. Allan is on the way home.

ST. ANDREWS

St. Andrews, Jan. 13—Mrs. Richard Gwen spent a few days in St. Stephen this week.

Mr. C. M. Wallace, who was called to Providence by the illness and death of his mother, returned on Friday last.

Mrs. C. A. McCormac kand children, of St. Stephen, have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Mallock.

Mrs. Lloyd Murray left on Monday night for her home in Antigonish, after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Grimmer.

Mrs. George Gardiner entertained a few friends at the tea hour on Monday.

Miss Bessie Grimmer entertained at afternoon tea on Saturday and was assisted in serving by Miss Alice Grimmer and Miss Gwendolyn Jack. Among those present were Mrs. Allan Grimmer, Mrs. Vernon Lamb, Mrs. William Morrow, Mrs. Lloyd Murray, the Misses Broad, Bessie Hibbard, Anna Mitchel, Gwendolyn Jack, Nellie Stuart, Nellie Mowatt, Alice Grimmer and Julia O'Neil.

Mrs. Alexander Russel, of Bayside, is spending a week with Mrs. R. A. Stuart.

Miss Nellie Stuart left on Tuesday night to spend a few weeks in Houlton (Me.)

Mr. John Morris, who has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. W. Mason, returned to Montreal on Wednesday night.

The W. A. branch of the Episcopal church collected more than $120 last week to buy bags of flour for the Belgians.

Miss Minnie Keay entertained at the tea hour on Monday in honor of Miss Edna Giberson's birthday. When the birthday cake was cut Miss Anna Mitchell was the happy possessor of the button; Miss Carolyn Rigby the ring, Miss Laura Shaw the thimble, and Miss Giberson the money. Among those present were Mrs. P. G. Hanson, Mrs. Vernon Lamb, Mrs. William Morrow, Mrs. Richard Keay, Miss Anna Mitchel, Miss Laura Shaw, Miss Carolyn Rigby, Miss Gwendolyn Jack.

T. A. Hartt, M. P., left for Ottawa on Monday night.

Miss Bessie Mallock left on Saturday for Moncton to resume her school duties.

Word was received this week of the safe arrival in England of Dr. Percy Hartt.

Miss Laura Shaw entertained on Saturday evening a number of her friends at a theatre party and afterwards at her home, where a social dance was much enjoyed.

Mrs. E. A. Cockburn has been visiting friends in St. Stephen recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayter Reed closed Pansy Patch last week and sailed on Friday for England.

Mrs. Lawson Jeffrey returned to her home in Yarmouth (N. S.) last week after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Beckerton, at Bayside.

A very enthusiastic patriotic rally was held in the Palace Theatre on Monday night, when the hall was filled to its capacity. The band attended and played several patriotic selections in their usual excellent style. Mr. F. H. Grimmer, K. C., acted as chairman. The speakers were Captain L. P. D. Tilley and Lieutenant-Colonel Guthrie, who were listened to with great interest. After the meeting the following offered their services in defence of the empire: Messrs. M. Storr, Philip Reid, Hector Richardson, Fraser McQnoid, F. McDowell, Herbert Hossnell, Clarence Cammick, Frank Grimmer, Herbert Grimmer, S. T. Duggan, John McClure, George Ross. A ladies' recruiting committee was organized. The officers are Mrs. Vernon Lamb, president; Mrs. Allan Grimmer, vice-president; Miss Bessie Grimmer, secretary; Miss Julia O'Neil, treasurer. A men's committee was also formed with Mr. F. H. Grimmer as chairman; Sheriff R. A. Stuart, vice-chairman, and Mr. James McDowell, secretary.

Miss Kathleen Cockburn left on Wednesday night's train for Minneapolis to spend the remainder of the winter.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, Jan. 12—On Friday afternoon Miss Gladys Blair was hostess to a very pleasant thimble party, given for the pleasure of her guest, Miss Rachel Walker, of St. John.

Miss Margaret Murchie has returned from a pleasant visit in Eastport with her sister, Mrs. I. Everett Dyas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. MacNichol and family have arrived home from Toledo (O.), where they spent the holiday season with relatives.

The sad news of the death in Cambridge (Mass.), on Sunday last of Mrs. Henry Copeland, was heard in Calais this week with the deepest regret. Mrs. Copeland was the mother of Prof. Chas. Copeland of Harvard College and had lived in Cambridge for some time although Calais has always been her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Todd, who have been visiting Boston, are again at home.

Mr. Hugh McBride arrived from Winnipeg on Saturday last for a short visit.

Mrs. Augustus Cameron has returned from a visit in Boston.

Mrs. James Murray entertained a party of young people on Friday evening at which Miss Rachel Walker, of St. John, was the guest of honor.

Mrs. J. M. Johnson and Mrs. Maud Benton, who were summoned here owing to the sudden death of their father, Mr. John G. Murchie, have returned to their home in Boston.

Mrs. Edwin Cockburn, of St. Andrews, has been the guest during the past week of Mrs. Maria Burton.

Mr. N. Marks Mills has been confined to his residence for several days with a severe cold.

Ven. Archdeacon Newnham, of Christ church, is in St. John this week on business connected with the approaching meeting of the provincial synod.

Mrs. Lloyd Murray, of Antigonish (N. S.), was in town last week to visit her aunt, Mrs. Frederick E. Rose.

Mrs. R. D. Owen, of Hartland, is the guest of Misses Eleanor and Mary Short.

Mrs. William Thickens, of Manchester (N. H.), is spending a few days with Calais friends.

A very happy wedding party gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McWha, this morning at 7 o'clock, to witness the marriage of their second daughter, Miss Marcia Kirk to Mr. Malcolm A. MacLeod, editor of The Maritime Farmer, of Sussex. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. Wyllie of the Presbyterian church in the presence of relatives of the bride, and a few intimate friends. The bride was attired in a handsome travelling costume of navy blue ratine cloth with trimmings of fur. She wore a hat to match with guilles of astrich feathers. There were no attendants. After the ceremony, and congratulations a wedding breakfast was served. Later the happy couple drove to the C. P. R. station and left on the morning train for St. John. They also intend to visit other provincial cities before going to their home in Sussex. The bride was the recipient of numerous handsome wedding gifts in silver, cut glass, and linen, a fine piano and several substantial checks. On the return of Mr. and Mrs. MacLeod to Sussex they will be at home to their friends after February 16.

Miss Elsie Lawson is in Woodstock visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Rankin Brown.

CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, Jan. 12—Mrs. S. J. Trites left yesterday morning on the Ocean Limited for Moncton to visit her mother, Mrs. Somers.

Miss Mary Graham, of Halifax Ladies' College, who has been spending her vacation at her home here, returned to Halifax Friday morning to resume her studies.

Miss Winnifred Lemieux left last week to visit friends in River du Loup.

Miss Florine Andrew, who has been spending the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. F. Andrew, returned to Halifax Ladies' College Monday morning to resume her studies.

Mr. Harry McLennan and two little sons, Alexander and Ivan, visited relatives in Chatham recently.

Miss Greta Metzler, of the Mount Allison teaching staff, Sackville, who has been spending the vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McD. Metzler, Andrew street, has returned to Sackville to resume her duties.

Mrs. J. F. Gallagher left Monday evening to visit friends in Moncton and St. John.

Mrs. W. J. Gillis has returned from South Hadley (Mass.), where she has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. MacAlcese. While away Mrs. Gillis also visited friends in Boston, Cambridge, Springfield and Holyoke.

Private Jude Nelson visited friends in Moncton last week.

Mrs. Charles Smith has returned from Moncton, where she was visiting relatives.

Miss Lou Gilker has returned from River du Loup, where she was visiting friends.

Miss Bertha Ferguson left last week for Montreal, where she will visit friends.

Sergeant Edmund Sargeant, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sargeant, who returned a short time ago from the front wounded, has been appointed recruiting officer for Restigouche county.

Rev. Mr. Camp, of St. John, has arrived in town, where Mr. Camp has taken pastoral charge of the Baptist church. Before leaving St. John a presentation was made to Rev. Mr. Camp and Mrs. Camp by members of the congregation. The presentation was made by Sheriff Wilson, who after reading an address, presented Mr. Camp with a purse of gold and Mrs. Camp with a handsome silver tea service.

Miss Helen Stevens returned to Fredericton last week to resume her studies at Normal school.

Captain Walter Gillis, of Ottawa, visited friends here last week.

Miss Constance Murray, of Halifax Ladies' College, who has been spending the holidays with relatives here, returned to Halifax last Friday.

The many friends of Mrs. George G. McKenzie will regret to learn that she had the misfortune to fall last week, breaking her collar bone.

Private Donald Blue left last week for Halifax to take a lieutenant's course at the Royal Military School there.

Mr. Dodge, of Aylesford (N. S.), who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kelly, has returned home. Mr. Dodge was formerly on the Bank of Nova Scotia staff here.

Miss Long, of the Campbellton High school teaching staff, who has been spending her holidays at her home in Woodstock, has returned to town.

Mr. T. W. Sansom, of Fredericton, was in town last week, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary Sansom.

Miss Dorothy Duncan has returned to Ottawa to resume her studies at the Ottawa Ladies' College.

Mrs. J. L. McKenna and little son, of St. John, are in town, guests of Mrs. McKenna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Martin.

Mr. F. M. Anderson has returned from a trip to Montreal.

Miss Ninetta Alexander, who has been spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alexander, left Monday morning for Halifax Ladies' College to resume her studies.

Miss Verna Hunter, of Moncton, visited friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Savidant, of Montreal, who have been visiting Mr. Savidant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Savidant, have returned home

Private A Theberge, of the 104th battalion, Sussex, was in town last week, visiting his mother, Mrs. J. A. Theberge.

Miss Stella McKenzie has returned from a trip to St. John.

Miss Irene Murray, daughter of Dr. Murray, left last week for Montreal to take a three months' course in household science at the Macdonald College.

Mrs. I. W. Stevens has returned from Bathurst, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. F. McCarthy.

Mr. Guilford Bruce, who has been spending his holidays with his mother, Mrs. D. J. Bruce, returned last week to Fredericton to resume his studies at the U. N. B.

Mr. and Mrs. S. McLean and children, who have been visiting Mrs. McLean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd, have returned to their home in Chicago.

Miss Gladys Currie, of Acadia College, Wolfville, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Currie, returned to Wolfville Saturday morning.

Mr. Louis Cyr left that week for Bonaventure and Maria, to visit friends and relatives.

Sergt. Harold Wallace, of the siege battery, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wallace, has returned to St. John.

A very happy family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dow on New Year's Day. The entire family of eleven children with the sons-in-law, daughters-in-law and twelve grandchildren were present. This is the first time the family has ever been united, as some of the children were married and away from home before the younger ones were born.

Miss Mildred Turner visited friends in Charlo last week.

Miss Kathleen Richards, of Acadia, Wolfville, who has been spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Richards, has returned to Wolfville.

Among those in Halifax at the Royal Military School are Lieutenants Fred. T. Mowat and R. H. Mowat, taking machine gun courses, and Wm. Duncan taking an N. C. O. course.

Miss A. Gogun, of Moncton, was in town last week the guest of the Misses Wall.

Mr. Lyman Richards, who has been spending his vacation at his home here, returned to Fredericton last week to resume his duties at the U. N. B.

Miss Maud Lodge, of Runnymede, is spending some time with friends in town.

The many friends of Mr. P. J. Crowley, of the J. & S. A. Harquail Co., Ltd., will regret to hear of his illness at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Ramsay have returned from Summerside, where they were visiting Mr. Ramsay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Ramsay.

Lieut. Arthur T. McIntyre, of Bathurst, spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. R. A. Black, C. E., of Quebec, has been appointed resident engineer here in place of Mr. F. O. Condon, who has been removed to Moncton.

Mrs. Alchorn, of St. John, is visiting in town, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sargeant.

The members of A company of the 132nd battalion held a most successful supper and dance in the Dimock tea rooms on Monday evening of last week, the sum of $130 being realized, which will be used in paying for the band instruments lately purchased by the company. An excellent dance programme was played by the orchestra, which was not only enjoyed by the dancers, but by the large number of spectators present.

The death occurred at Campbellton on Saturday, Jan. 8, of Mrs. Thos. Swift, wife of Mr. Thomas Swift, I. C. R. train despatcher. Deceased was formerly Miss Lilian Nixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nixon, of Moncton. She is survived by her husband, two little children, parents, two sisters, Minnie and Lottie, and one brother George. Much sympathy is extended to the family in their s