British News

A COURT-ROOM INCIDENT of novel nature occurred at Exeter, (Devon), not many days ago. Upon the rising of the Court, one of the jurymen asked to be excused from further attendance as he came from Winkleigh, 30 miles away, and had important business on hand. The judge granted the relief asked for, whereupon there was a chorus of applications from the other jurymen. The judge said he could not release half of the twelve, and suggested that they should draw lots to decide who should go. A Juror—I think we had all better toss. This course was decided upon, and the six jurors in the front row had a spin of the coin with the six jurors in the other row.

NEARLY £200,000 was left for charities under the will of Mr. John Jones, of Grove Lodge, Wrexham, a retired brewer who died in April. His estate was worth £302,607, and he left £50,000 and subject to life interest, a further £3,000, Roseneath House, and grounds, and Claremont Hydro, at Rhyl, upon trust to found and endow a William and John Jones Infirmary at Wrexham, and convalscent home by the sea at Rhyl, and a convalscent home at Minera. This included £4,500 on trust to pay an income, about Christmas time each year, to twelve persons who have been in better circumstances and have become necessitous.

A BURGLAR'S CAROUSE was disturbed by three policemen at London recently. Awakened at 4.30 in the morning by men's voices in her house, Miss Margherita Martin, a photographer; woke the housekeeper and crept downstairs and called in the policemen. On opening the diningroom door they found two men sitting at the table, each with a glass of whiskey in his hand. Both were very drunk and had their boots off. By the table was a chopper with which the window had been forced. One of the two men was a gardener, Charles Simpson, who has done odd jobs at the house.

A SPIRITUALIST FUNERAL service was held at Manchester a few days ago. Wearing a Scotch tweed suit with a light brown soft hat and a red rose in his buttonhole, Councillor Will Phillips conducted the service at the funeral of his mother at the Southern cemetery. Mr. Phillips is a Spiritualist and his mother belonged to the sect. The hearse, which was drawn by grey horses, was lined with silk, and all the mourners wore summer costumes, one woman having a heliotrope dress and a picture hat. The drivers of the coaches wore white breaches.

Paris News

PARIS, July 28. — The Grand Trunk Railway are contemplating making numerous changes at the Junction. The old diamond is to be done away with and a system of interlocking switches to be installed. The main line will also be moved some twelve feet to the north. All trains are now required to stop at the diamond, but will proceed through after the work is completed.

The whole gang of municipal laborers are employed putting in the new sewer at Paris Junction, the trench having to be dug to a depth of fifteen feet in some places.

Victor Carlstrohm, the birdman, passed over Paris at 7.40 Friday morning, having made the flight from Hamilton in 25 minutes. He appeared to be about 2000 feet in the air and was a pretty sight as the machine glided without the trace of a waver, directly over the centre of the town, and gradually faded away with the blue sky.

Mr. Franklin Smoke, who is about to leave town, was presented with an address and a handsome meerschaum pipe by his brothers of Grand River Lodge, I.O.O.F. on Thursday night. Mr. Smoke has been auditor of the lodge for many years.

William St. bridge over the raceway, which has been closed for some two weeks was repaired on Saturday and is again open to traffic.

Mrs. C. M. Howell and children of Chicago, are the guests of Mrs. Howell's father, Mr. T. Shawcross.

Mrs. T. Dunn and Miss McGrory, are visiting in Toronto.

Mrs. Arthur Hackney and baby left last week for an extended visit with relatives in Weck, Somerset, England.

The Sanderson-Harold excursion to Niagara Falls was very well attended on Saturday.

WATER COMMISSION MET THIS MORNING

At a meeting of the Water Commissioners held in the Mayor's office this morning Moses Reeder, lessee of the Waterworks farm requested the board to cancel the agreement whereby a right of way should be run through the property. This the board refused to do. The chairman was instructed to purchase a new horse for the department and dispose of the one now in use.

The city solicitor will be requested to give an opinion on the power of the Board of Health to order extension of the Waterworks system to supply consumers in places where the revenue received for same will not pay the interest on the cost of construction.

Congratulations from Sam.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 28—Col., the Hon. Sam Hughes on behalf of the Dominion Government has cabled the following message to the commandant of the Canadian Bisley team: "Congratulations to Hawkins, the team and yourself, on winning the greatest of all prizes—the King's."
