WESTERN ONTARIO.

BRANT.

On Wednesday in Brantford, an investigation was held into the charges made against the brakeman on the excursion train. Mr. Larmour, general superintendent, conducted it, and examined Agent Perks and Constable Adams. Robinson, the brakeman, has been dismissed.

A sale amounting to $22,000 was made a few days ago at the Brantford wincey mill.

Maggie Moore, an old colored woman, was found on the streets in Brantford in a state of intoxication. P. C. Hickey was forced to borrow a wheelbarrow from a neighboring yard in order to take her to the lock up. At the police court she pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $1 and costs or twenty days in jail.

The Cainsville Epworth League is officered thus: Honorary president, Rev. J. G. Foote; president, A. W. Crawford; secretary, Miss M. L. Thompson, and treasurer, Miss May.

A number of Italians arrived in Brantford on Thursday, to work on sewers. They have hired a house near the Grand Trunk station. There are some 50 of these dusky sons of sunny Italy altogether.

A seven-pound pickerel was caught the other day in Paris by Joseph Harrison, blacksmith.

A few days ago at Evergreen Villa, the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. John McCoy, of Brantford, Miss Susanna J. McCoy, was married to the Rev. P. Musgrave, of Seaforth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. McCoy, brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. Campbell, brother-in-law of the bride. Among the many presents was a purse well filled with gold, the gift of the bride's uncle.

ELGIN.

Miss Dollie Weir, of Tyrconnell, who was so severely injured at Port Stanley on June 30, Elgin public school picnic day, by being struck with a swing, is able to be around again. She is quite deaf in the ear that was struck; though her ear was almost severed it is quite healed and but a slight mark left. It was a most providential escape from instant death. She left Port Stanley for home Thursday.

About 500 excursionists went to St. Thomas on Thursday from the east on the Loop Line picnic, and 200 from the west.

J. Halson, Shedden, is preparing to pull his flax, which is nearly ready.

The East Elgin election trial will be held between Oct. 20 and 30.

Daniel McIntosh, cattle buyer, St. Thomas, died on Thursday, aged 59 years. He was afflicted three years ago by sunstroke and never fully rallied. He was insured for $3,000 in the P. P. I., $3,000 in the Royal Arcanum, and $2,000 in the A. O. U. W. Mr. McIntosh was an active Liberal.

ESSEX.

James Eldridge & Sons, solicitors, of Newport, Isle of Wight, England, are seeking information of Robert Goodchild, alias William Chessell, who was a resident at Windsor in 1872.

John Carscallian and Antoine Leguee, arrested for digging about one-half an acre of potatoes on a Rochester farm and selling the products in Windsor, have been remanded for trial.

Hamilton Hanna, living in Tilbury West, and who has been an invalid for over a year, was taken in by a patent bedstead man last week. The party represented that he had an invalid's bedstead to sell. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna being unable to write were induced to make their mark to what was represented to them as an order for one of these bedsteads. The order now turns out to be a note for $75. The stranger tried to get the note cashed at two places in Comber, but in both cases was refused.

Jane Dyan, a decrepit old lady, was found on the Boulevard, Detroit, in a state of intoxication. When taken before Judge Shenan she said she was 82 years old and hailed from Amherstburg. She was hunting for her relatives, who she said lived in Detroit, but she had not a cent of money. She was allowed to go free if she would return to Canada.

William McGregor, M. P. for North Essex, is at present engaged in securing the allowance due from the Government to certain residents in Anderdon.

At a convention in Essex on Wednesday a provisional Sunday school organization for the county was formed. The following officers were elected: President, John Milne, Essex; vice-president, Alex. Black, Windsor; secretary, Martin J. Wigle, Essex; treasurer, Mrs. Love, Essex. A meeting for permanent organization will be held in St. Andrew's Church, Windsor, on Oct. 15 and 16.

Samuel Page, of the Windsor and Walkerville Railway, will spend a month's vacation driving through Michigan with a friend.

Drainage Referee Britton, of Windsor, is ready to proceed with the various drainage suits awaiting trial and has notified the respective solicitors to that effect.

The Government will shortly appoint a commission to take evidence on the working of the drainage law, and report necessary amendments. The commission will comprise four members besides W. D. Balfour, M.P.P., and Mr. Britton, the commissioner, who are not to receive any compensation. Two of the commissioners will probably be residents of Kent, one from Lambton and the third from Essex. The evidence will be taken at several places in the Province, probably in October.

Amherstburg is putting in an extra 3,500 feet of pipe for their waterworks.

HURON.

A very large number of lambs were shipped from Exeter on Saturday by H. Willert, of Dashwood, to Buffalo. This is the first shipment of lambs that has been made from there since the quarantine regulations of the American Government were removed.

John Pedlar, Stephen, has a fine stalk of wheat, containing about 80 grains, very large, and of the velvet chaff variety. He says this wheat will yield enormously, about 45 bushels to the acre.

Geo. Vosper, of Exeter, shot off three of his toes of the left foot a few days ago. He had loaded his gun to shoot sparrows, but the gun failing to discharge, he pointed the muzzle to the ground, and while withdrawing the charge the gun went off. His boot was torn to pieces and his foot otherwise badly injured.

KENT.

A Sunday school organization was formed for Kent county in Chatham the other day.

Mr. Paterson, of the Chatham Collegiate Institute, formerly principal of the Simcoe High School, has been appointed by the Minister of Education chairman of the department of political literature in the departmental and matriculation examination and member of the appeal committee.

James Kingsley, who died at Bothwell the other day, had been a resident of the locality for upwards of 50 years, and had attained to a very old age. He leaves a son and daughter, together with many friends, to mourn his loss.

The C. P. R. has closed a bargain with the trustees of the First Presbyterian Church, Chatham, for their property fronting on Wellington and Center streets. The property comprises about two acres of land, the north end lying along the C. P. R. tracks west of Wellington street, and is admirably situated for yard purposes. The price paid was $7,000. It is believed the church property has been secured as a site for an elevator to be erected this season.

Water was struck a few days ago about a mile west of Fargo, and now gushes about 50 feet in the air.

The annual conference of the B. M. E. Church will be held in Chatham the second week in August.

MIDDLESEX.

Belmont I. O. Foresters realized $112 at a lawn social a few evenings ago.

Henry Fortner, Lobo, celebrated his 70th birthday a few days ago, when upward of 60 invited guests assembled. F. L. Harrison, mayor of Strathroy, was called to preside over the assembly, while L. Fortner stepped forward and read an address on behalf of the sons and daughters, who met to celebrate the old gentleman's 70th birthday, expressing the great pleasure it gave them to do so, and presenting to Mr. Fortner a gold-headed cane, and to Mrs. Fortner a pair of gold glasses. J. S. Aikins, of Rochester, Mich., an adopted son, and his wife then came forward and led Mr. and Mrs. Fortner to a couple of beautiful easy chairs, and when the aged couple were seated in them another kindly-worded address was read. Mr. Harrison then made mention of his long acquaintance with Mr. and Mrs. Fortner, adding that he had always regarded them as true friends, and had the assurance that every good work and enterprise had been helped on and encouraged by Mr. Fortner. He also presented him with a beautiful gold locket. Mr. Fortner feelingly replied to all, and after singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," the happy gathering broke up.

The merchants of Middlemiss have drawn up and signed an agreement to the effect that the stores will be closed three nights a week, viz., Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 8 o'clock sharp.

E. E. Shepard and family, who have been visiting E. Culver, of Mapleton, have returned to their home in Toronto. They intend leaving for Germany in about a week.

New potatoes are selling in Belmont at 35 cents a peck.

Strathroy has got a new pot barley, split pea, oat and cornmeal mill.

Malcolm Campbell, Caradoc, died on July 20, aged 76 years.

Isabella McKay died in Poplar Hill on July 16, aged 92.

On Monday afternoon in Strathroy an unfortunate accident befell Harry, eldest son of James Butler, by which he lost the second finger of his right hand. He was feeding the picking machine in his father's woolen mill, and while attempting to pick some wool from the cog wheels his finger was caught and severely crushed, and but for the prompt stoppage of the machinery no doubt his hand would have been terribly mangled.

The Excelsior Brass Band is the name of the latest organization in Parkhill. Its members are all efficient musicians and make a first-class band. The following are the officers: W. Bawden, secretary; J. Hall, treasurer; Prof. Ticknor, leader.

OXFORD.

The trustees of the Roman Catholic separate school at Ingersoll have very generously arranged to give the children of their school free tickets for an excursion to Port Stanley on Thursday, July 30.

Princeton's civic holiday is on Aug. 14, and an excursion to Grimsby is on the tapis.

Andrew Ainslie, Norwich, died on July 14, aged 80 years.

G. M. Franklin, who has charge of the old Episcopal Church built by Admiral Vansittart at Eastwood, conducted the services at St. James' Church, Ingersoll, on Sunday. Mr. Franklin was a few years ago employed in the postoffice, Ingersoll, and was secretary of the Y.M.C.A.

James L. Grant & Co., Ingersoll, are removing from their old office in Smith's block to their new quarters at the factory. The work of lowering the mammoth safe of the firm, weighing 4,500 pounds, was watched with much interest.

E. E. Orr, who has been leader of the A. O. Foresters' band in Ingersoll since its organization, has been presented with an ebony gold-headed cane on his retirement from the leadership.

The Ingersoll Fall Fair will be held on Oct. 7 and 8.

Geo. Alderson, Ingersoll, shipped two carloads of hogs to Montreal on Tuesday. During the past two weeks he has paid out to farmers in that neighborhood $11,000 for hogs.

A horse owned by Mrs. W. W. Reed was killed on the G. T. R. at Wonham street crossing by a passing train on Sunday night last. This is a very dangerous spot and many fatal accidents have occurred there, the responsibility of which appears to be a matter of dispute between the town of Ingersoll, the G. T. R. and the Crotty estate. In December, 1888, John Marshall, while crossing at this point, was run over by a train and killed; shortly before that time Jas. Regan lost a horse, and several cattle have been killed at the same place.

PERTH.

The burglars who entered the Milverton store have both been captured. One gives his name as John Chambers, and says he is a painter. The other is Robert Shey, molder, and hails from Toronto. They appeared before His Honor Judge Woods Wednesday morning and Chambers pleaded guilty to having possession of the goods, but says he did not steal them. Shey elected to be tried by a jury, and will be held until next assizes. It is said that he escaped from the Central Prison, and he expects by asking for a jury trial to have opportunities for escape.

Stratford's civic holiday is named for Aug. 27, and a demonstration will be held there on that day.

New hay sells in Stratford for from $8 to $9 a ton.

A. H. King, of the American House, Stratford, has sold his valuable pacing horse Sir Archer to F. Beaman, of Chicago, late of Stratford, for $450.

A party from Stratford were frightened out of the Ellice berry patch the other day by the appearance of a large brown bear, who menacingly disputed their right to the fruit.

Robt. Reid, for 24 years a resident of Listowel, died on Tuesday.

At a Knox Church congregational meeting in Stratford it was decided to build a porch as soon as there was sufficient funds received by envelope subscriptions. A grant of $75 to Rev. A. F. Tully was made as a token of appreciation of his services while acting as moderator.

WENTWORTH.

The J. M. Williams Stove Company, Hamilton, intend to ask the Dundas council what inducements will be offered them if they come to Dundas. Collingwood has offered a bonus of $3,000 and Peterboro a free building and plant, but it is thought they will come to Dundas if they can secure a loan of a couple of thousand dollars on their plant.

At a recent meeting of the Presbyterian Church, Waterdown, it was unanimously resolved to extend a call to the Rev. P. McEachern, recent graduate of Knox College, to become their pastor.

John Gilbert, Rockton, is 95 years old.

A terrible accident occurred at Wm. Ryckman's planing mill at Waterdown on Monday. James Vance, 14 years of age, a nephew of the proprietor, was fixing some belting in the mill above the table of a circular saw when he slipped and fell in a kneeling position on the saw. The knee bones were horribly cut and the flesh torn. It is hoped that the limb may be saved.

John McManamy owns a cow that had a calf on the morning of July 8. He thought it a small calf for such a big cow, but put it in the stable and let the cow go with the rest. On the evening of July 15 the same cow had another calf, about the same size and color as the first. He let the first out and the two are now with the dam as smart as two deer.

WATERLOO.

Mrs. Mackenzie, mother of Mrs. John Caldwell, of Galt, had been at Hespeler in company with Mrs. Caldwell, returning to Galt early Tuesday evening. At about 11 o'clock she arose from her bed and almost immediately fell to the floor and expired.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goldie, Miss Ella Goldie and Alex. Goldie, Galt, leave next Wednesday on a pleasure trip to Sitka, Alaska. They go per C. P. R., to Vancouver, thence per steamer.

The Salvation Army is holding a six-day camp meeting in Lowrey's Grove, near Galt.

WELLINGTON.

Jessie Morrison, about 6 years old, daughter of James Morrison, farm laborer for James Lewis, near Guelph, was severely kicked by one of Thos. Simpson's horses. The child is in a very critical condition.

On Tuesday evening as the G. T. R. train west was passing the boundary line crossing east of Guelph, it ran into a cow of Ed. Crawford's, killing it instantly. This is the second cow that has been killed at that crossing in six weeks, Barney Gibson being the owner of the other.

Soothing Magic.

The unspeakable comfort in feeling pain pass away is well set forth by Mr. Albert Heege, Clayton, Mo., U. S. A., August 1, 1889, who says: "I suffered fourteen days with a sprained wrist, and a swelling formed, growing larger and larger. It disappeared as if by magic after using one bottle of St. Jacobs Oil." It is the best remedy.

As they stood on the beach where the wavelets play
She laid her head on his satin vest
And lifted her lips in a pouting way
And—he did the rest.

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of and other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

An ill-paid minister went to his deacon and asked for an increase of salary. "Salary?" said the deacon, "I thought you worked for souls." "So I do," said the minister, "but I cannot eat souls, and if I could it would take a good many of your size to make a dish."
