DUTTON WILL VOTE ON LOCAL OPTION

Temperance Workers Decide to Submit Bylaw in January.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Dutton, July 11. — The temperance workers here and in Dunwich have decided to submit local option bylaws to the electors at the municipal elections in January. The bylaw in Dunwich carried three years ago was declared void by the courts, but by the instructions issued by the Provincial Secretary, the township was to remain dry for that term, after which licenses might be granted, unless the bylaw was again submitted and carried. The temperance people are most confident and declare that the ne txvote in this district will add a big dry territory to that already won.

DIED SUDDENLY

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Guelph, July 11.—Death came with startling suddenness to an old resident of Guelph, James C. Hadden, cab owner. He had complained of not feeeling very well for several days past, but did not pay much attention to it.

This morning he was sitting out on the lawn at the side of his residence and noticed three boys across the street apparently fighting. Mr. Hadden ran over and had just reached the boys, and was about to separate them, when he threw up his hands and fell backwards. He died in less than five minutes.

WILL AID RAILWAY

Galt and Paris Decide to Purchase Radial Bonds.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Galt, July 11. — By a vote of 685 for and 46 against, the ratepayers of Galt today passed the bylaw authorizing the purchase on debenture of $25,000 second mortgage bonds of the Lake Erie and Northern Railway. This gave a good margin over the one-third vote of 530 required. There was practically no opposition to the bylaw, but it took a strenous all-day campaign on the part of the board of trade to get out the vote recorded.

The success of the bylaw here, and of a similar one which also passed in Paris today, means that construction work will start almost immediately, according to Engineer Kellett, who also stated that it was expected that the Brantford-Galt end of the line would be in operation by May 1 of next year.
