TOTAL GERMAN LOSS IS OVER 3 MILLION

Statement of Casualties During War as Computed From Official Lists.

London, July 10—German casualties from the beginning of the war to the end of June, as computed from the official German lists, are given as 3,012,637 in an official statement made public here yesterday, This announcement follows:

"German casualties reported in German official casualty lists, exclusive of corrections, in the month of June, follow:

Died of wounds and sickness	18,585
Prisoners and missing	6,279
Wounded	63,187
[illegible]	88,051
Total

"These, added to those reported in previous months and including corrections reported in June, 1916, bring the totals reported in German official lists since the beginning of the war, to:

Died of wounds and sickness	757,327
Prisoners and missing	342,673
Wounded	1,912,637
Total	3,012,637

"These figures include all German nationalists — Prussians, Bavarians, Saxons and Wurttembergers. They do not include naval casualties or casualties of colonial troops. They are not an estimate by the British authorities, but casualties announced in German official lists."

WOODENWARE FACTORY AT DESORONTO BURNED

Deseronto, July 10.—The large plant of the Dominion Hardwood, Limited, manufacturers of woodenware, was totally destroyed by fire this morning about 4 o'clock. It was a new industry, and had just commenced running in full operation to fill a number of large orders. An east wind was blowing, but the firemen succeeded in preventing the fire from spreading to adjoining buildings. The loss was placed at $100,000, partly covered by insurance. The company expects to rebuild immediately.

PRINCETON MAN IN HOSPITAL

Charlie Moore Wounded at Ypres, But is Now on Road to Recovery.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Princeton, July 10.—Mrs. A. P. Moore has just heard from her son, Charlie, who was taken to Boulogne military hospital, June 4th, suffering from wounds and shell shock. At the third battle of Ypres, he was blown into the air by a shrapnel shell and alighted on his back, which has been sore ever since. He also had three pieces of shrapnel in his chest, four in his leg and one in his ear, all of which have been successfully removed, and he is now doing well in Reading hospital, England, where he expects to be for some time yet, as his nerves are still very shaky.

A corporal who was with him in a hole in the trench after his corps had retired, was shot in the hip through the water bag he carried, and bled to death by his side.

BIG DISTURBANCE AT JEW SYNAGOGUE

Man Placed Under Arrest Charged With Picking Worshipers' Pockets.

Toronto, July 10—Abraham Daniels, living at 97 Oxford Street, was arrested in Chestnut Street Synagogue during a special service yesterday morning on a charge of picking the pockets of the worshippers. The service was being held to celebrate the opening of a new synagogue, and when Daniels was taken into custody the other members of the congregation were donating liberally towards the cause.

The arrest of Daniels followed a miniature riot in the church auditorium. Several members of the congregation missed their money and suspected Daniels. Enraged, they attacked him, and were beating the man when Constable Greenberg, attracted by the noise, arrived. He at once took the suspect into custody. Three complainants followed Daniels to the station and swore out informations.

The special service was held to perform the ceremony of "making the Bible" for the new synagogue, and of selling flags to secure a financial backing for the congregation. The event was preceded by the carrying of the scroll, and the procession attracted such a crowd that the synagogue was crowded when the trouble comenced. Notwithstanding the interruption the police stated that the new synagogue was successfully launched and a good subscription was raised.

At the station Daniels was searched, and considerably over $50 was found in his posession. One of the complainants claims that he lost $31, while the other two place their losses at about $5 each. Daniels is about 28 years of age and is married. He is a presser by trade.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST LAND REGULATIONS.

THE sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any Dominion Lands Agency (but not Sub-Agency), on certain conditions.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, on certain conditions. A habitable house is required except where residence is performed in the vicinity.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre.

Duties—Six months residence in each of three years after earning homestead patent; also 50 acres extra cultivation. Pre-emption patent may be obtained as soon as homestead patent, on certain conditions.

A settler who has exhausted his homestead right may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.

The area of cultivation is subject to reduction in case of rough, scrubby or stony land. Live stock may be substituted for cultivation under certain conditions.

W. W. CORY, C.M.G.,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.
