STEWART'S
SOLILOQUIES

MAMMOTH PROCESSION.

One of the herd of white elephants of the city to pass in review on Thursday. The press gives no warning note, therefore let the brethren in affliction, for fear its weight might crush us, invite you to join together and stay the monster's parade at the ballot box with a No! No!
Another $350,000. The corner of Yonge and Gould streets cannot stand. STEWART.
Ye men of note what would ye that we do? Ally ourselves to a people who, till brought to book but yesterday, maintained a piratical condition of affairs in the North Pacific seas—who boast of the retention of the moneys of a friendly power; obtained through the over-requited fraudulent claims of the Alabama—who on the floor of our Legislative House have made the spoliation of our fisheries their determined purpose, who yearly, apparently unknown to Canada, steal of our natural wealth off the coast of Labrador and Hudson Bay by the shiploads: No! No! No!
Until possessed of common honesty and accept as their own the lesson the unsanctified Heathen Chinee taught the other day in a case analogous to the above: The curse of Ishmael be on those that would advocate such an unholy affiliation. Crystallized Canadian sentiment given vent from the corner of Yonge and Gould streets. STEWART
Let me give a douse to Goldwin Smith's racial hallucination, and an eye opener to Erastus Wiman's mammon vision. Our Canadian Pacific Railway points the line along which the car of Empire is destined to roll. The northern crown of this small earth sphere of ours is to be enveloped about with the green bay laurel of British liberty. The connecting link between east and west is Canada. She is thereby brought into direct contact with a filial and cordial relationship of 300,000,000 people. There's the consummation that dwarfs to insignificance any hope that she might indulge in her dealings with the aquisitive and tricky Yankees of only 60,000,000. Nothing small in the national ideal at the cor. of Yonge and Gould streets.

STEWART.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING
EPPS'S COCOA.
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

The Musical Opinion and Music Trade Review, published in London, Eng., April 1, 1887, under the heading CANADIAN MUSICAL EXHIBITS AT THE COLINDES EXHIBITION, has the following:
Referring to Piano Fortes of Messrs. Heintzman & Co., Dr. Stainer says as follows: "I much regret that, owing to the late period at which I was called upon to make a report, all the more important instruments exhibited by this firm HAD BEEN SOLD AND REMOVED. But those remaining fully justified their high reputation. An Upright Grand, which I examined was in every respect a fine instrument; the touch was sympathetic and had a good repetition; the tone was full and rich. I also tried a specimen style No. 9, which was equally deserving of unqualified praise."
