PRESIDENT PIERCE.—We cut the following from the Providence Advocate. It is an item worth putting in your scrap-book: "The President made an excellent speech at Baltimore. He's a good speech maker—the President is. One of the best speeches we ever heard him make was in a little seven-by-nine school-house. He said that a rum-shop was a nuisance, and ought to be closed by the law, until the owner of it would give bonds to deserve the name of a respectable one." By the by, a correspondent of the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer says that the President refuses to drink wine, or to put the glass to his lips, with his guests. That's right—there's no safety in the wine glass.

From T. B., Otterville, will be inserted in an abridged form. Letter from E. L. F., Amherstburgh, will appear abridged. The letter from Rev. G. K., of Aylmer, is under consideration. The letter from Bath, before noticed, is too personal to publish entire. We alluded to it generally, which will accomplish all that is sought, without occasioning a discussion in our columns.

☞ The Report of the proceedings of the last Session of the Grand Division at St. Catherines, have just been received from the Grand Scribe. We strongly recommend the Divisions to have these proceedings read upon different evenings in their Divisions.

Dr. James Hope's Vegetable Purifying Health Pills and Oriental Balsam.

These Valuable Family Medicine, of long-tried efficacy, for correcting all disorders of the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels, and those Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood. The usual Symptoms of which are Costiveness, Flatulency, Spasms, Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Giddiness, Sense of Fullness after Eating, Dimness of the Eye, Drowsiness, and Pains in the Stomach and Bowels, Pains in the Side, in and between the Shoulders, Indigestion, producing a torpid state of the Liver, and a consequent inactivity of the Bowels, causing a disorganization of every function of the frame, will, in this most excellent combination of Medical Agents, by a little perseverance, be effectually removed.

A very few doses will convince the afflicted of their salutary strength. The Stomach will soon regain its strength; a healthy action of the Liver, Bowels, and Kidneys will speedily take place, and instead of listlessness, heat, pain, and jaundiced appearance, strength, activity, and renewed health will be the quick result of taking these Medicines, according to the instructions which accompany them.

As a pleasant, safe, and easy aperient, they unite the recommendation of a mild action, with the most successful effect, and require no restraint of diet or confinement during their use, and for elderly people they will be found to be the most comfortable Medicine offered to the public.

Families at a certain age should never be without them. They are warranted to contain no Calomel or any other deleterious ingredient.
