Two small fires occured in Wolfville this week but fortunately both were extinguished without doing very much damage On Tuesday evening an alarm was rung on account of a burned out chimney at the residence of Rev. A. H. McLeod, Westwood Ave. The second alarm came Wednesday morning when a burned out chimney set fire to the roof of the residence of Mr. R. O. Chisholm, Gaspereau Ave. The fire apparatus was soon on the scene and the fire extinguished before it had made much headway.

A very successful Carnival was held at Evangeline Rink on Wednesday evening. It was an ideal night and some of the skaters came in cars from a goodly distance. The management had ready a splendid sheet of ice, which was enjoyed by a large number of skaters, a fair proportion of whom were in costume. Excellent music was furnished by the Scout band. The prize winners were as follows: For the best ladies' costume, Miss Olive Stackhouse, as a Scotch Lassie, and Gladys Delaney and Margaret Mitchell, as Snowball Girls; for the best gentlemen's costume Paul G Webster, of Kentville, as a Mexican Dresser.

There will be a special meeting of Sir Robert Borden Chapter in the Town Hall on Tuesday, February 18th, at 3 30 p.m

Perhaps a word is due in explanation of the Princess Patricia Silver Shower which we have been asked to make more widely known in Wolfville. The gifts received for this purpose are to be used toward the purchase of a Victory Bond as a wedding gift for Princess Patricia.

The annual business meeting of Sir Robert Borden Chapter was held on Tuesday, February 4th, and the following officers elected for 1919 2: Regent, Mrs. Laura Moore; 1st Vice Regent, Miss Dixon; 2nd Vice-Regent, Mrs. Black; Secretary, Mrs M R. Elliott; Treasurer, Miss Archibald; Standard Bearer, Mrs. Elliott Smith The Secretary reported 32 members added during the year. The Give Service Girls at this meeting made two of their members, Miss Grace Shaw and Miss Mary Black, life members of our Chapter. In regard to Field Comforts, there have been distributed 750 pairs of socks and 52 pairs of trigger mitts. In addition to this, in September 1 6 Xmas boxes were sent to Wolfville and Greenwich boys in active service. At the January meeting, fifteen of our members who have sons in active service, were presented with I O D E War Clasps. The Treasurer's report showed receipts for the year $1129 64, expenditure $1028 98 leaving a balance on hand of $100 66 Membership fee $1 00 We would ask all those whose names were proposed at the annual meeting to be present if possible next Tuesday, Feb. 18th.

Red Cross Notes.

There was a slight mistake last week regarding the box of supplies sent to Halifax, and it should read, 66 prs. of socks sent from the I O D. E., as well as 61 prs. from the Red Cross. The box of Refugee work was sent from both societies.

We would ask everyone to read and note the Red Cross article in the Chronicle of Tuesday last, Feb 11th, and see the large supplies that have recently been asked for and are still wanted. No one need be in doubt as to whether we should keep on working, or if we want all the wool we have on hand. We want it all and as much more, and all the workers we can get.

We hope to get off a large box of Refugee work before the last of March, as freight will be charged on all packages after that date.

The Kaiser's Guest.

This is the title of one of the latest books. It is a vivid and thrilling story of prison life in Germany and of escape from the Huns' clutches. The author is Private Frank C MacDonald of the 1st Canadian Mounted Rifles, who was captured and wounded at Sanctuary Wood was starved, bounded, and beaten up in half a dozen Prison Camps, and finally escaped after trying three times unsuccessfully. You should know about 'The Black Hole' of Germany, and how the Red Cross Parcel System kept our boys alive It's all in the Kaiser's Guest Pte. MacDonald has lectured for patriotic societies throughout Canada. Last fall he gave a very interesting lecture in the vestry of the Baptist church, and those who heard him at the time will not soon forget the story of his amazing experiences He tells a good story but has written it much more in detail. His book is illustrated with hitherto unpublished photos, Some of these were brought out of Germany by the author.

Pte. MacDonald has been 'Over the Top' and under the bottom and came out right-side-up Read his experiences in the Kaiser's Guest. For sale at the Wolfville Book Store, price $1 50.

Agnes C Laut.

This renowned Canadian writer is turning her hand to fiction again She is starting a story which promises to be one of the best books of the year—and it will appear serially in MacLean's Magazine some time during 1919.

The whole English-speaking world acclaimed "Lords of the North" as a masterpiece. Consequently readers of MacLean's will look forward with keen relish to this new story of Miss Laut's MacLean's Magazine is only $2 00 a year, H P Davidson, The Magazine Man. Phone 5

The Boy Scouts.

The Canning boys have invited the Junior Scout Hockey team to play them a friendly game in the Kentville rink this evening. After the game they will entertain our boys at supper. The visit of the Canning team to Wolfville two weeks ago, although the game was one sided, was a very pleasant affair.

On Saturday morning to-11 the semi-final game of the Patrol Hockey League will be played between the 'Lions' & 'Tigers'
