F. B. M'CARTHY OR FRED YOUNG?

A Great Card for the Electric Light Races at Hanlan's Point To-Night—Hulse or McKellar?

The best program of the year is down for the electric light races at Hanlan's Point to-night. Besides the two match races, there is a big lot of entries for the novice, handicap and lap races. Tom Eck is in the city and will referee both matches. Pat O'Connor will probably be here, and will give an exhibition mile. He promises to reel it og in less than 2.04. The program:

Yesterday Hulse finishe second to young Wills of the Wanderers in a quarter sprint of 34 seconds, but McKellar's friends have every confidence in their man. They will likely lower th American class A competition record in the paced mile.

McCarthy reeled off a mile yesterday in 2.15, and will go to the post to-day a favorite, but many cannot see how Freddy Young can possibly lose. It will be a great race.

FIRST DAY OF THE REGATTA

DONS CAPTURE THREE OF THE FOUR EVENTS.

Argonauts Win the Junior Fours—L. Marsh Finishes First in the Junior Singles and Second in the Intermediate—The Junior Doubles Go to Raime and Hurley Races on the Lake Course.

Hamilton, Aug. 2.—The opening day of the sixteenth annual regatta of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen brought forth many victories from Toronto scullers, who were very much in evidence in every event on the card. In fact, the first day's sport consisted in little more than a series of contests between representatives of the various rowing clubs of the Queen City, there being other scullers in only two events, and these were Hamilton men. With its few representatives the Ambitious City made a poor showing.

The sport given by the Toronto men, however, was good, and was appreciated by the spectators, who were not present in very great numbers. The attendance on Saturday is expected to be large and a good day's sport is promised. About 3 o'clock the Viola of Toronto, containing the officers of the day, left the piers and it was about 3.30 when the first race was called. The course on the bay being choppy, the races were rowed on the lake course, and while the water was not perfectly smooth the course was fairly good. The Viola carried the following officers:

Referee—J. W. Hogg; time-keepers—Messrs. W. R. Davis, George M. Hughbotnam, R. B. Harris; judge at finish—William Ince, jr.; assistant, J. M. Harris; clerks of the course—R. H. Labatt, Miles Hamilton, Don Cameron, S. C. Mewburn; scorers—S. P. Grant and Alex. Boyd.

The first race was the junior singles, in which there were three starters: A. E. Wark, Leanders, Hamilton; E. C. Jury, Torontos, Toronto; and L. Marsh, Dons, Toronto. Davis and Hoskins, the book-makers, were on hand, but speculation at no stage was hustling, and little money changed hands.

Marsh closed favorite in the books, selling at 2—4, Jury 3—2 and Wark 15—2. In the pools Jury opened at 5 even against the field, but the post odds was Marsh 5, field 3. Jury got off first, and pulled strong enough to keep the lead for a good portion of the journey, but in the finish was handily overhauled by Marsh, who won with little exertion, three or four lengths ahead. Wark was so far behind that he didn't finish. Time 9.54 4-5.

The second event on the card was the junior fours, which the Argonauts won in a walk, with the Dons second and the Leanders third. The crews were: Argonauts, R. W. Hoskins, bow; N. W. Linton, 2; O. Heron, 3; H. W. A. Dixon, stroke. Dons, D. O. Keefe, bow; T. Friend, 2; J. Delaney, 3; J. Nicholson stroke. Leanders, R. Calvin, bow; T. Myers, 2; A. Scott, 3; S. Aikins, stroke. In the book the Argonauts opened 3—10, Dons 10—2, and Leanders 10—2 and the postbetting was: Argonauts 2—5, Dons 5—2, Leanders 8—2. In the pools the Argonauts sold for 5 and the field 3.

The race was a pretty one throughout, the three crews being pretty well together till the last quarter, when the Argonauts pulled away, crossing the line half a dozen lengths ahead of the Dons. The Leanders quit at about the last quarter. Time 9.23 2-5.

The third event was the junior doubles, in which there were but two crews, both from the Dons. Crew No. 1 was C. Raime, bow; J. Hurley, stroke, and their opponents were T. Friend, bow and James Hedley, stroke. No. 1 crew was quoted 3—10 and No. 2 crew 3—2, but there was very little speculation. No. 1 crew had a slight lead at the last quarter, when the stalwarts pulled away and won by two lengths.

In the intermediate singles O'Connor got away in the lead, was overhauled by Marsh near the mile, but the favorite pulled a strong, rapid stroke at the finish, crossing the line four fet ahead in almost record time. 9.52 2-5.

CHICAGO GOES CRICKET WILD

CANADIANS PARTICIPATE IN A HEAVY HITTING CONTEST.

Charlie Hyman's Eleven Compiled No Less Than 241 Runs, While All Chicago Gets 86 for the Loss of Only Three Wickets—Laing Makes Almost a Century.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Old-time cricketers and Chicagoans in general were enthusiastic over to-day's game between the Canadian team and all Chicago eleven, declaring that no finer cricket has been seen here for years. Both sides distinguished themselves, the visitors by big hitting and the home team by their excellent fielding. Laing carried off the individual honors of the day by scoring top figures of the series, 91, not out. The Canadians beat their previous total scores, making 241, and when time was called the Chicago players had done remarkably well, 86 for three wickets down, and only one of their heavyweights, Cummings, on the retired list. As this is a two-innings contest, should Chicago score over 241, the game will be declared a draw, unless there is time to-morrow for each team to play another innings, which is not likely. To-day's game was decidedly the best of the series, and the attendance was much larger. Captain Hyman tried half a dozen of his bowlers against the picked team, but only Wadsworth was able to do any effective work. Score:

Parkdale's Secretary Writes About Chatham.

F. W. Monteith, secretary of the Parkdale Cricket Club, writes: Noticing that you afford the prominence of your columns to an item from The Chatham Banner, referring to the cricket match played last Tuesday between Parkdale and Chatham, I regret to say that it contains some wilful and glaring inaccuracies. Parkdale was not "reinforced by two players from East Toronto, one from Rosedale and one from Toronto." Mr. D. J. LeRoy of East Toronto was the only outsider, and he was not selected as a member of the team, but being on the ground was asked to take the place of an absentee. The story of a defeat by an innings is, like the other, a pure fabrication, for the match was understood to be finished when the first innings was completed and many players left under this impression. Now, as to the other side of the story, this match was hurriedly arranged by wire at the request of Chatahm, and interfered with other fixtures of the Parkdale Club; these had to be set aside in order to accommodate the Chatham players. Many Parkdale men were unable to play; others were away, and we were unable to get as strong a team as we would have liked to have had; nevertheless we spared neither trouble nor expense to entertain the visitors to the best of our ability. Under these circumstances the remarks of The Banner correspondent are not only in the worst possible taste, but are both ungentlemanly and unfair, and are bitterly resented by the members of the Parkdale Club, who do not at all relish being made the butt of the brilliant nastiness of these alleged gentlemen from Chatham.

In connection with the above, Parkdalian writes: For several years it has been a cause of regret to all true cricketers that no trace of proper sportsmanlike spirit has ever been found in those who undertake to speak and act for the Chatham Cricket Club. When you meet the eleven you find several gentlemen and true sports in it, but off the field they seem to be without voice, weight or consequence. The report of the Chatham-Parkdale game which one of the visitors sent home to The Banner, and which was copied into your issue of to-day, breathes the spirit which has made the Chatham club the most unpopular in Ontario. It is a spirit that unfits the club to gracefully conduct itself in defeat or victory.

The Banner correspondent did not say that W. H. Parker, the Parkdale bowler, J. E. Hall, S. W. Black, G. Read and Dr. Beemer, five men who play when Parkdale's best eleven is in the field, were all unable to be present. And in another connection he did not say that Mr. Kenny of Chatham, in making 36, gave six easy chances. He may observe also that in reporting the game, no Toronto papers detracted from the batsman's performance by commenting upon this. He did say, however, that the innings of Mr. Clark for Parkdale was lucky. This batsman made only 22 runs, though at bat for upwards of an hour and a half, and did not give a chance. Just how his innings can be called a "lucky" one, I do not see. But the two men who scored against Chatham could not be praised or even passed in silence—something belittling and disagreeable had to be said. Burrows, the Detroit pro., made 204 runs in one innings against Chatham. They bring this lion along, and call him theirs; yet they object to playing Dean, who is a paid member of three different clubs, and an amateur of the fairest sort.

Notwithstanding Tuesday's game, I believe that Parkdale can beat the best Chatham can produce, five times a week all summer.

Comfort and Relief

Given to Rejoicing Parents.

A Child's Health and Strength Built Up by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The gratitude which is felt by parents over the recovery of their children from distressing diseases it is hardly possible to express in words. Many fathers and mothers have seen the good effects of Hood's Sarsaparilla in restoring their children to health, and they have written gladly of their great joy and thankfulness for the virtues of this medicine. Following is such a case:

"My little girl, aged 4, weighed but 3 pounds at her birth. During the first three years and a quarter she was not well a single day. I was recommended to try a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had little faith in the medicine, but as I had tried all other medicines, I thought I would give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial, and I began giving it to the child according to directions. The result is that she since taking the first bottle, which was seven months ago. You do not know what a comfort and relief it is to my wife and myself to have her restored to health. She is now robust and weighs as much as any child of her age in town." GEORGE MCFARLAND, Wallaceburg, Ontario.
