Note and Comment

Too one-sided was the verdict in regard to the junior final yesterday afternoon at the island stadium. Owen Sound has a team of big, husky players, who would give Eatons or the Athletics, the other divisional champions, an argument. They have a couple of home men who will be heard from later. Following is the list of C. L. A. junior champions:

1901—Bracebridge.
1902—Bradford.
1903—Elora.
1904—Brantford.
1905—Brantford.
1906—Bracebridge.
1907—Junction Shamrocks.
1908—Bracebridge.
1909—Bracebridge.
1910—Owen Sound.

Con. Jones is out just $764.43 in the operation of his Vancouver team, that failed to affect New Westminster in the B. C. League lacrosse standing. He paid his 23 players in wages $11,356, and ground rent $4983, which were his chief items of expenditure. His gate receipts ranged from $456 to $4503, and were his only source of income.

Vancouver News-Advertiser: Should the Vancouver team succeed to-day, as all local followers of the game expect, they will oppose the Internationals, and it will take a great team to beat them. Whether Vancouver will be that great team remains to be seen. Cornwall is the home of Joe Lally, the lacrosse expert, and he has lately expressed himself of the opinion that the Cornwall team would win the trophy. However, after seeing the V. A. C. team at a workout quite recently, he was not so sure, so a great battle can, therefore, be looked forward to.

Ike Owens, the Toronto boy, who caught for Minneapolis in the American Association this year, is back in town, and will leave early in November to join his teammates, who will tour Cuba and the West Indies this winter, playing the best teams there. Ike says some of the pitchers are favoring Lajoie in the race for the auto on account of his popularity, and the corresponding ill-favor with which they regard Ty. Cobb.

While Canadian Rugby teams are proceeding evenly in the natural course of their early season, the game across the line is in the kindergarten state. The Yankees are this year getting a taste of real Rugby football. They have our rules in part, and are said to be anxious to import some of the Canadian coaches. Griffith, Clancy and Ripley would be welcome at Yale, Harvard and Princeton, but they are too busy at home.

The U. S. followers have already discovered one feature about the new rules that works out well for the spectators, and also serves toward evening up the game for the opposing teams. That is the division of the game into four periods instead of two. As the teams and the ball change their positions on the field between the first and second and third and fourth periods, the spectators seated in the end sections of the stands are able to get a better view of the play. This is especially true in the early games of the season, when the big colleges meet the little fellows.

Other than providing rest for the players of three minutes, and allowing the coaches a chance to look after the condition of the players, the new rules work out well in dividing the advantages obtained in kicking with the wind. Under the old system of halves the team winning the toss and choosing the goal favored by the wind at the start of the game, had a decided advantage. As it frequently happens that the first half ends without a score, or one team does not score until the close of the first half, the opposing team did not have a chance to benefit by the wind until the second half. And, as the wind usually dies down toward the end of the afternoon, the advantage of the wind's favor does not count as much as earlier in the game. So the division of the game into quarters is an added attraction to the spectators, besides serving well the players.

Mr. Richard Rudolph Best Man.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Charles E. Rudolph, jr., of the New York bar, of the law firm of Messrs. Henning and Rudolph of New York, was married this afternoon to Miss Anna Augusta Ramstock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramstock of New York. The wedding was held at the Church of St. Thomas Aquinas, Tremont and Daly avenue. The groom was attended as best man by his brother, Mr. Richard Rudolph, and a reception was held afterwards at the home of the bride's parents, 1951 Clinton avenue. Among the large number of guests present were Mr. F. F. Mitchell of New York, Controller Church of Toronto and Russell W. Ford of New York.

UTILITY CUB PICKED TO STAR IN WORLD'S SERIES

Zimmerman's Chance Looks Bright, According to Evers, Whose Place He Fills.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Heine Zimmerman, utility man of the champion Cubs, will have a chance to carve his name in the hall of baseball fame along with such eminent pastimers as George Rohe, Babe Adams, et al. Every world's series has produced its pitching, fielding or batting terror, and the appearance of "Zim," caused by the deplorable accident to Johnny Evers, will give thousands of fans fresh food for reflection. The Bronx boy may or may not be the lion of 'em all when the decks are cleared, but such a wise judge of playing talent as the peerless Evers is free to tout his protege as the coming twinkler of the Cubs-Athletics clash.

When hitting of the free, straightaway and clean-up style is considered, the big German belongs at the top of the heap. That Zim can hammer that ball is a matter of history. His all-around ability on third base has stamped him a possible guardian of the far corner next season or the year after. He has exhibited intermittent flashes of brilliancy while substituting for Joe Tinker on the short field, and his play at second, considering the few games he has played in Evers' place, brands him a capable understudy.

But how will our old friend Heine behave when put to test before thousands of wild-eyed rooters, especially on foreign fields? That's the all-consuming riddle to be answered only by the flight of time.

Including the game of Monday, Zimmie has participated in 79 battles since the curtain ascended at Cincinnati April 14, inaugurating the 1910 pennant race. He has gone to bat 294 times for a record of 85 hits and a total of 116 bases, scored 32 runs, and otherwise filled the bill to the highest stage of perfection.

All pitchers look alike to Zim, but he fairly dotes on the opposing flingers who feature the fast ball while toiling on the knoll. It's this ability that makes Heine of the greatest value to the West Side machine, according to veterans of the club. In fact, Evers, speaking from his cot in the West Side Hospital, the other day, predicted Heine would be of greater value to the team against the style of pitching served by Mack's flingers than John himself.

According to statistics, the big German has played 23 games at second base, accepting 100 chances, with but eight errors to mar his record. He has covered third base, vice the veteran Steinfeldt, in thirteen games, accepting 36 chances, with but one miscue. At shortstop, however, Zimmerman has a record marked by several mistakes, most of which beat the Cubs out of important contests. One hundred and thirty-four chances have traveled his way while filling in for Joe Tinker, and of this lot Zim has mussed up 24.

When the Cubs' colony became overridden with cripples during the latter days of July, and Hofman was pressed into commission on first, vice P. L., Zimmie was shunted to centre field, where he played four games, committing but a single error. Then, on Aug. 5, Chance swung his swatting youngster to first base to finish the game.

The big chap is a born player, fast, aggressive and willing; but his overzealous attempts to play the entire infield often has spelled his disaster to the team's record. Many's the time, however, when the Cubs, entering their seventh, eighth or ninth innings, and score oppressed by the hostiles, needed one run to turn the tide. And many's the time Zimmerman pranced out to bat for some shipmate who in previous attempts had failed to deliver.

Those line drives hammered off the business end of Zimmie's war club have turned the trick on more than one occasion, and Chance says the big chap will be there in the thickest of the championship combats. More than one star pitcher in the National League has handed Zim full measure of credit for being the most dangerous batsman in the parent circuit.

Pitchers who dispose of Wagner in three times out of five without granting the Pittsburg demon the faintest semblance of a clean knock, say they don't know how to pitch to Zimmerman. He hits everything that comes within hailing distance of the plate, and with terrific wallops. Zim will fill the bill without a doubt, according to wise men of the national pastime.

At Disraeli, Que., Napoleon Dupuis, aged 14, was going out hunting and, when climbing a fence near his home, the gun went off, the bullet going thru his face. He died immediately.

Owen Sound Junior C. L. A. Champions Defeat Newmarket

About three hundred people wended their way across the bay yesterday afternoon to see Owen Sound score a 12-to-2 victory over Newmarket in the final for the Junior C.L.A. honors. The Vancouver team were present in a body as the guests of the C.L.A., and enjoyed the game immensely.

The field was a sea of mud, and the players found it almost impossible to keep on their feet. Pinder of Preston kept the game clear of roughness by handing out penalties for the slightest offences.

The first quarter saw the play all for Owen Sound, with the Newmarket boys played off their feet, and the quarter ended with the score 7 to 0 for the Sounders.

The second quarter was the same as the first—nothing to it but Owen Sound, with Newmarket hardly aware that they were on the field at all, and Owen Sound tallied two more, making the half-time score: Owen Sound 9, Newmarket 0.

In the third period the play began to get a trifle rough, and the penalties were handed out fast, while the play was still all for Owen Sound, and the quarter ended with it 11 to 0 for Owen Sound.

Newmarket started the last quarter with lots of speed, and after four minutes of fast work found the net for their first tally, and again scored after five more minutes of strenuous playing, but one and a half minutes later Owen Sound found the net for the last tally of the game.

The teams lined up as follows:

Owen Sound (12)—Goal, Turcott; point, Wilkins; cover, Fletcher; first defence, Stephens; second defence, Field; third defence, Elliott; centre, T. Lee; third home, Hilts; second home, Neving; first home, R. Lee; outside, Yeo; inside, White.

Newmarket (2)—Goal, Knowles; point, Duncan; cover, McHale; first defence, Epworth; second defence, Staley; third defence, Dey; centre, Smith; third home, Trivett; second home, Griffith; first home, Canton; outside, Haskett; inside, Russell.

Referee—Kinder of Preston.

One More Game for Mann Cup.

The Mann Cup trustees last night heard the Young Torontos' defence in regard to Joe Heal and Andy Mara, who played one game with the pro. Torontos some years ago against the Brantford pros. Heal has been playing hockey regularly and Mara was a member of the Canadian Amateur Olympic lacrosse team. Vancouver protested the game on account of the presence of these men playing against them last Saturday. The tourists are also said to possess a player with somewhat similar experience, Burns by name, and his pedigree was also looked into. The trustees will consult C.A.A.U. authorities this morning and then announce that:

The final game for the Mann Cup will be played on Saturday at Scarboro between the Young Torontos and Maitlands.

Owing to the illness of three players, Eatons have dropped out of the contest.

Young Torontos will hold a practice tonight at Scarboro Beach.

RUGBY NEWS AND GOSSIP TEAMS HARD AT PRACTICE

Officials For Saturday in Inter-College and Big Four Games—Notes.

The rain last night didn't stop the Argos from turning out 38 strong at Bayside. Dissette and Meegan were again in uniform and Coach Ripley put the scullers thru a good workout. He has confidence that the oarsmen will do themselves credit in their opening Big Four fixture Saturday at Montreal.

Games in the High School League, Group B, this afternoon, are as follows: Oakwood at Humberside and Riverdale at Malvern.

Parkdale Seniors and Juniors will practice to-night at the Brock-avenue grounds at 7.30.

Adams of Royal Military College was out last night at the Parkdale Junior practice.

Clancy claims his Rough Riders has the fastest back division in the Big Four. Maybe!

George Ballard and Dick Harcourt have been agreed upon as officials for the opening game of the intercollegiate series here Saturday at Rosedale, between McGill and Varsity, the Canadian champions. Charlie Gage, the crack outside wing player of last year's team, turned out with Varsity last night for the first time, but it is hardly likely he will play Saturday, as he will not know the result of his exams till Monday. The reserve seat plan for the game will open this morning at 189 Yonge-street, for the general plan, altho the season tickets will remain on sale just the same.

Hamilton and Ottawa will line up as follows on Saturday in their Big Four fixture:

Tigers—Full-back, George Smith; halfbacks, Moore, Kid Smith, Burton; quarter, Awrey; scrimmage, Scott, Pfeiffer, Pottieary; inside wings, Bramer, Barron; middle wings, Isbister, Gage; outside wings, Thomson, Glassford.

Ottawa—Full-back, Johnstone; halfbacks, McCann, Kennedy, Gérrard; quarter, O'Neil; scrimmage, McCuaig, Kilmartin, Ferguson; inside wings, Church, Phillips; middle wings, Disney, Vaughan; outside wings, Kilt, Gaisford.

The probable line-up of the R. M. C. Cadets against Queens on Saturday will be: Full-back, Galt; halves, Stuart, Robertson and Smith; quarter, Lawson; scrimmage, Irving, Young and Stewart; inside wings, Arnoldi and Sweeney; middle, Roberts and Goldie; outside, Lewis and Gwynne.

Billy McMaster of Montreal and Jack Newton of Varsity are the officials who will handle the Tiger-Ottawa game Saturday.

McGill had a good turnout in the wet yesterday, and the team should be in pretty good shape for the game here on Saturday. Captain Dan Gilmore will be in line, and Stewart Forbes' shoulder is all right again, and he will be in his position at quarter. Timmons has returned and there has been some talk of his turning out with the squad, but it is rather doubtful if he will. Following instructions from the athletic directorate, the football and track men kept out of the rush yesterday to avoid possible injuries that might affect the prospects of both squads.

Argonauts and T.A.A.C. have arranged to play a practice match at Rosedale this afternoon, starting as close to 5 o'clock as possible. The game was to have been played at Varsity field, but the Argos had made all arrangements to hold it at Rosedale, so T.A.A.C. decided to go up there. It will do both teams a lot of good, the Crimson particularly, as they are very much to the bad on condition and they have a hard senior O.R.F.U. game on their hands with St. Michaels at Varsity field Saturday.

Rayner was cut with T.A.A.C. yesterday and the 200-pound inside wing should strengthen them greatly when he rounds into shape. Dick Burton will be back in town again to-day and will take part in the practice with the scullers at Rosedale.

Dr. Allan Brown and Dr. Smirle Lawson are slated to officiate in the Senior O.R.F.U. game between T.A.A.C. and St. Michael's College at Varsity field Saturday afternoon.

T.A.A.C. line-up is beginning to take definite form. With George Barber, who is credited with being one of the best outside wings in Canada, their team is about complete. It will figure something like this: Backs, DeGruche, Allan, Murdill, Fleming, Allan, Powell, Capreol, Reade, McCrimmon, Art. Meredith; quarter, Cory or Sheriff; scrimmage, Drummond, O'Grady, Fred Thompson, Maguire; inside wings, Julius Thomson, Dick Burton, Shaw, George Raynor; middle, Holden, Hewson, Babe Burkhart, Grant; outside, Barber, Burkhart, Harcourt, Haynes, McCrimmon and Art Meredith are expected out shortly. Shaw will not be out till Monday.

The plan for the St. Michaels-T.A.A.C. Senior O.R.F.U. game at Varsity oval on Saturday will open at 189 Yonge-street Friday morning.

George Barber has definitely decided to cast in his lot with the Crimson.

"Dode" Burkhart met with an accident yesterday, getting a cut on his head and may be out of the game for several days.

The Capitals and Central Y. M. C. A. Rugby teams, the survivors in District No. 2 of the Junior O.R.F.U., have arranged to play off for the championship of the district, the first game to take place next Saturday on Varsity campus at 3 o'clock. The winner of the series will probably meet the winner of the Lindsay-Peterboro section in the first game. The Centrals will practise to-night in Jesse Ketchum Park from 7 to 8.30. All players will please take notice.

SOCCER NOTES.

The Broadviews hold a practice to-night, when all players are asked to turn out.

The big game between Broadviews and Toronto City, which has been looked forward to for some time, will come off Saturday at 4 o'clock on Broadview Athletic Grounds. Both teams will present their usual strong line-up, and a good, hot contest may be looked for. Last Saturday Broadviews defeated the champion Thistles, 2—1. Broadviews and Wychwood will play at 2.30 in an Intermediate T. and D. game.

In the Southern English League yesterday, Portsmouth beat Crystal Palace by 1 to 0.

Brunswicks Take Three.

A match game was played on the Brunswick Alleys between the Brunswick representatives of the Toronto City Association and E. Pierce's Nationals of the Central League. Altho the novices lost all three games, they showed great form for their class, and deserve great credit for matching up against the old-stagers. This team looks like a winner for the coming season. Ed. Nicols was high man for his team with a 575 score to his credit. Wm. McMillan was there with his old-time form, having a 602 count, and 223 in his middle game. Mac was certainly hitting the pins last night. The scores:

Brunswicks—		Nationals—
McMillan	202	Ed. Nicols	575
Ed. Sloan	425	Ellis	428
C. Adams	479	W. Woods (2)	273
C. Gordon	471	Fitzgerald (2)	289

		W. Armstrong (2)	270
Brunswicks	899	855	779—2521
Nationals	789	767	752—2317

Ed. Nicols is high for the $5 gold piece, with 575, topping D. King's score of 561 by 14 pins.

Florals v. Careys.

SIDELIGHTS.

Owing to a pressure on our space the bowling scores have been given in a condensed form the past few days, but henceforth the full figures, including the three single frames, will be printed.

Big doings will be the order on Monday night when the presentation of prizes of the T.B.C. League will take place.

The Central League will commence to spill pins on Monday next, when Nationals v. Hunters and Centrals v. Brunswicks will be the fixtures.

The City League this year will be of one class only, made up of eight teams.

Bill McMillan of the Brunswicks was sure spilling them last night, having a 602 total, while his first game was 202 and his second 223, but he fell away in the third, having only 166.

The Brunswicks totaled 2521 last night against the Nationals.

Cubs Favorites at 10 to 8.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—With the world's series rapidly approaching betting is beginning to boom, and already hundreds of wagers have been placed at the various sporting headquarters. Betting opened at ten to six, with the Cubs the favorites, but after the injury to Evers the odds shifted, and local bookmakers are offering ten to eight now.

Several large lized bets have been laid around town, altho the bulk of the coin is being held in reserve by plungers favoring the Cubs, who demand even money. A suitcase full of greenbacks will be shipped to Philadelphia, all to go on the Cubs' chances, within the next ten days, according to Tom Chamales, one of the strongest Cub rooters in the city.
