Poetry.

THE SEASONS IN PASSING.

The seasons in passing, one sweet moral bring,
And well—if we marked it—would man do!
'Spread pleasure like me,' is the language of Spring,
Make all hearts as glad as you can do!
What a world it would be if, less mindful of pelf,
You esteemed every mourner a brother;
And if each, while he did a bit good for himself,
Did a little bit, too, for another!

The Summer but varies the lesson—'Make glad!
Treat all men with love and affection!
My sun shines alike on the good and the bad,
And shall you dare to think of selection?
What a world it would be if, less mindful of pelf,
You esteemed e'en a bad man a brother;
And if each, while he did a bit good for himself,
Did a little bit, too, for another!'

The Autumn proclaims—'Lo! my stores are for all;
But should one, in the scramble, get favour,
Let him share it with those to whom little may fall,
And what's left will have all the more savour!
What a world it would be if, less mindful of pelf,
You esteemed the unlucky a brother;
And if each, while he did a bit for himself,
Did a little bit, too, for another!

The Winter affirms it, while shaking the door,
And binding the stream with his fetter—
'Keep the cold that I bring from the hearts of the poor
And your own will burn brighter and better!'
What a world it would be if, less mindful of pelf,
You esteemed every poor man a brother;
And if each, while he did a bit good for himself,
Did a little bit, too, for another!

SELFISHNESS.—Selfishness has no soul. It is a heart of stone encased in iron. Selfishness cannot see the miseries of the world—it cannot feel the pang of thirst and hunger. It robs its own grave, sells its own bones to the doctor, and its soul to the devil. Who will fight manfully against a selfish disposition? It grows gradually, and then mutually, increases rapidly day by day. Prosperity and good luck feed the passions—silver and gold make it laugh outright. Who has not seen the eyes of the selfish water at a good trade? Who has not seen him leap for joy at the rise of flour, while the poor were starving about? Selfishness is a passion of hell, and good men should labor to keep it there. An anecdote is told of Barthe, a French author, which may serve to illustrate this passion. He called upon a dying man to obtain his opinion on a new comedy, and insisted that he should hear him read it. 'Consider,' said the dying man, "I have not more than an hour to live." "Aye!" replied the selfish man, but it will take but half the time.

THE GOLDEN ASS.—The American papers, which are richer than ever since the discovery of California, give an account of a donkey escaping laden with gold. This donkey, it would seem, is not the only one by thousands, who had gone quite wild, and allowed himself to be carried away in this new pursuit. We wonder how many donkeys are at present running after the first one! If he gets safe out of it with all the gold on his back, he is decided the cleverest donkey there is in California.—Punch.

A mother admonishing her son (a lad about seven years of age,) told him he should never defer till to-morrow what he could do to-day.—The little urchin replied, "Then, mother, let us eat the remainder of the plum pudding to-night."

A nurse at one of the Liverpool hospitals, being sent the other day for a "dose of tincture of rhubarb and peppermint," asked very gravely for "Indian rubber, and plenty of pepper in it."

St. Columba, of old, when asked to bless a soldier's sword, replied, "God grant, then, it may never shed a drop of blood."

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Copy of a Letter from His GRACE THE DUKE OF PORTLAND to MRS. ANN MILLISH, (one of his Tenants,) whom His Grace was pleased to send as a Patient to the Proprietor of this Extraordinary Medicine.

MADAM,

If Mr. HOLLOWAY will undertake to cure you perfectly, when the Cure is complete I will undertake to pay him £2 10s. You may show him this Letter.

(Signed) SCOTT PORTLAND.

Welbeck Abbey, May 31, 1842.

Copy of a Letter from the Most honorable the MARQUIS OF WESTMINSTER, K. G.

LORD WESTMINSTER has just received Mr. HOLLOWAY'S Medicine, for which he returns him his best thanks.

Eaton Hall, Cheshire, Feb. 12, 1842.

This inestimable Medicine being composed entirely of medicinal Herbs, does not contain any mercurial, mineral, or deleterious substances. Benign to the tender infant, or to the weakest constitution, prompt and sure in eradicating disease from the most robust frame, it is perfectly harmless in its operations and effects, while it searches out and removes Complaints of every character, and at every stage, however long standing or deeply rooted.

Of the Thousands cured by its agency, many who were on the verge of the grave for a considerable period (by perseering in its use) have been RESTORED TO HEALTH AND STRENGTH, after every other means failed.

All Diseases (and whatever may be their symptoms, however they may declare themselves, yet one cause is common to them all, viz., a want of purity in the blood and fluids) are cured by this wonderful Medicine, which cleanses the stomach and bowels, while its Balsamic qualities clear the blood, give tone and energy to the nerves and muscles, invigorate the system, and strength to bone and sinew.

The Afflicted need not give himself up to despair, as one without hope, but let him make a proper trial of the MIGHTY POWERS of this astonishing Medicine, and he will soon be restored to the blessings of Health.

Time should not be lost in taking this Remedy for any of the following Diseases:—

Ague,	Indigestion,
Asthma,	Inflammation,
Bilious Complaints,	Jaundice,
Blotches on the Skin,	Liver Complaints,
Bowel Complaints,	Lumbago,
Colics,	Piles,
Constipation of Bowels,	Rheumatism,
Consumption,	Retention of the Urine,
Debility,	Sore Throats,
Dropsy,	Scrofula, or King's Evil,

ST. JOHN COFFEE HOUSE,

AND GENTLEMEN'S

Oyster Saloon,

THE Proprietor most respectfully informs the Public of saint John, that he has taken that Commodious House in Cross street, (nearly opposite his old stand,) and formerly known as Mrs. Brock's Boarding House, and that he has, at a very great expence, and a disregard of time and trouble, fitted it up in the most approved manner, after the style of similar establishments in Great Britain and the United States. He flatters himself that he has among his friends and well wishers, a great number of highly respectable gentlemen, and to them he would now tender his most sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage he has received from them. To those who may henceforth honor the ST. JOHN COFFEE HOUSE with their patronage he will pledge himself to give every satisfaction both in the quality and style in serving up of the viands which he may place before them; as also to have at the earliest moment any and every variety which this and the American markets can produce.

Families can be supplied with the choicest Oysters, raw or cooked in any style, delivered at their own dwellings, the quality of which shall be unquestionable.

Clubs and Dinner parties attended to with the least possible delay and at the most reasonable charges.

☞ Gentlemen will please call and judge for themselves and they will have a proof positive.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR

Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great Eastern Remedy."

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING AND TRIUMPHANT.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c. it is unrivaled. But the Proprietors so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid:—the agent or proprietors of other and farther beyond the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy, a grand healing and curative compound, the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]

There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
