Browneli Didn't Know

R. E. Brownell of the Brownell Shoe Co., Meadville, Pa., didn't know he could get a complete detailed statement of sales, purchases and expenses by departments, by salesmen and by classes of goods in eight stores, all with one bookkeeper—didn't know it until he gave one of our men fifteen minutes one very busy day.

Now he says: "If it had cost us thousands of dollars to find it out and to get the means of doing it, we would consider it money well spent."

If it was worth "thousands of dollars" to Brownell, it will be worth a stamp to you to know all about it.
