The annual meeting for the purpose of appointing Methodist deaconesses was held yesterday afternoon in the board room of the Wesley Building. The regimental orders for the week contain the following promotions: To be corporals, Pte. W. A. Mathieson, Pte. R. Prins, Pte. W. Hinchcliffe; to be lance sergeant, Corp. F. Vallary; to be sergeant, Lance-Sergeant W. White; to be lance-corporals, Ptes. J. R. Cotterill, J. Rogers, J. Chambers and R. King. There are 15 struck off the strength of the regiment and 19 added. What's the Matter With Burgess?

London, Sept. 25.—(C.A.P.)—A letter to The Birmingham Daily Post, signed J. Burgess, Port Carling, Muskoka, warns emigrants against being misled by advertisements and glowing placards representing golden prospects in Canada, as thousands of people are only getting a living there and working harder than men in England.

No more delightful outing could be planned than a trip to Scarboro Fair on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 1.

Miss Ettie Trebilcock has returned from a six-weeks' visit to her sister, Mrs. Davidson, at Halifax, N.S.

Miss B. Geary of Chicago and Mrs. Brennan of Newcastle are the guests of Mrs. Hay, Florence-avenue.

Mr. Wooley of Palmerston is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sand, Edward-street.

There is a feeling among some of the residents of East Toronto that it would be a very unwise action if the Council in any way interferes with the agreement made with the Grand Trunk Railway Company to maintain in perpetuity the Main-street bridge. It is not every day that a bargain like that can be made and like all other corporations the railway company will not spend money for sentimental reasons, but must see some probability of cash returns for their investments and it is unlikely that they will build an expensive bridge on Main-street, such as the town requires, unless it will pay them in some way and it is thought that the only terms upon which the bridge could be had would be by relieving the Grand Trunk of the maintainance of it.

An alternative plan is for the town to build a bridge of its own at Enderby-road. All that would have to be done would be to procure the consent of the Railway Committee of the Privy Council and no dickering would be necessary with the G.T.R. In any case a bridge will be necessary at the point named as soon as the population increases a little more and an additional argument in favor of this plan is that the car service would be much better. It now extended west on Gerrard-street to Enderby-road, thence north over the proposed bridge and east on Danforth-avenue. The Council should certainly carefully consider this latter proposition before taking action that would burden the town with the maintainance of the Main-street bridge.

Balmy Beach.

A "taffy pull" took place at Mrs. Arthur Bollard's, Balmy-avenue, last night. Among those present were Misses Edwards, Sparrow, Eyeleigh of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mackie, H. Howe, Arthur Ellis and O. Lyons. They all had a sweet time.

The stock is issued at the price of £97 10s per £100, £10 on application, £25 on allotment, £30 on Dec. 1, 1903, the balance on Jan. 1, 1904. Interest at the rate of 4 per cent. allowed on the above payments, will be paid from Jan. 1, 1904. Dominion Line's New Departure.

Starting with the SS. Southwark, from Montreal for Liverpool, Oct. 3, and the SS. Kensington, Oct. 17, these twin screw steamers will only carry two classes for the balance of the season—second and third class. Many people are deterred from traveling second class, as they are restricted to certain parts of the deck. This is avoided by passengers who will travel by these steamers, as the payment of the second class rate entitles them to the rooms that have been used for the first class passengers this season, and gives them access to all parts of the passenger deck. This is certainly a grand opportunity that cannot be thrown aside of going cheaply and comfortably to Europe. These steamers are over 8000 tons, and are fitted with every convenience and comfort that will enable the many patrons of the Dominion Line to cross the Atlantic with safety. Tickets and all information may be obtained from Mr. A. F. Webster, northeast corner King and Yonge-streets, Toronto.

Senator Edwards' Great Sale.

The sale of Senator W. C. Edwards' entire breeding stock of horses, to be held at "The Repository," corner Simcoe and Nelson-streets, Toronto, on Thursday next, Oct. 1, at 10.30, is important to every farmer and breeder, as well as those requiring high-class Hackney cobs, carriage pairs, single drivers or saddle horses for their own use. The superior breeding and superb conformation of the horses in this splendid lot is unusual. The horses will be on view at "The Repository" on Wednesday next. Catalogues now ready.

GOOD NEWS FOR HIS OLD HOME

VERNON BROMLEY CURED BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

For Years He Was Crippled by Rheumatism and Sciatica—Dodd's Kidney Pills made him a New Man.

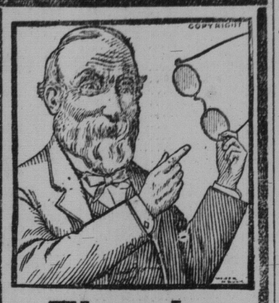
Morristown, N.Y., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Vernon Bromley, now of this place, but formerly of Trenton, Ont., relates an experience that will prove of great interest to his old friends in Canada.

"I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism and sciatica for years," Mr. Bromly states. "The citizens of Trenton will remember what a cripple I was. I could neither work nor lie down, the pain was so great.

"Reading of cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills finally led me to try them, and from the second box I began to feel relief. I continued to use them until I had taken twelve boxes, when I was completely cured.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills have made a new man of me."

Rheumatism and kindred diseases are caused by uric acid in the blood. If the kidneys are sound they will take off the uric acid out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills make sound kidneys.



..Thanks..

"Many thanks for fitting me with Spectacles. They are simply perfect and I am delighted."

NOT WANTED.

Owen Sound, Sept. 25.—In a Toronto paper a letter was published from a man in Meaford who suggests that the 5500 idle men at the Soo come down to Owen Sound, Meaford and Collingwood, where there is plenty of work for all. There is a good deal of nonsense in this letter. Five hundred men would easily cover the shortage in the labor supply in the vicinity of these three towns during the next month or two. After that our own men begin to lay off. Building tradesmen and the marine classes swell the labor supply. Owen Sound, in any event, does not want a thousand or more dollar-a-day dagoes to cut in on the local labor market. It is in the interests of the laboring classes here that these idle men be not encouraged to come to Owen Sound. It is doing them an injustice for work is not available all thru the winter months under present conditions.

MAN ON HOOK.

St. Paul, Sept. 25.—Joseph LaBree, a fisherman residing on the upper levee, was rescued from the river last night in a peculiar but painful manner. He fell from the boat and grasped the troll line. A fish hook imbedded itself in his palm at the base of his thumb. Seeing him securely grasping the line his companions hauled him in, in spite of his howls. LaBree hastened to the Central station where the police surgeon worked half an hour taking the hook out.

Perth County Assizes.

Stratford, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The case of William J. Kennedy against Norman Benning, for slander, resulted in a verdict of $100 for the plaintiff. Mr. Justice Street dismissed the action of William Lucas against Brown. Tavlin and Barr for damages for the loss of a finger in defendants' mill, the jury finding the plaintiff guilty of negligence. The sittings was concluded this afternoon.

Radial Railways in Sight.

Stratford, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Representatives of the City Council and the Board of Trade will meet H. M. Sloan, promoter of the Stratford Radial Railway Company, next week and receive his proposition. Mr. Sloan and an engineering expert will go over the proposed route.

In the Police Court yesterday Sam Gubbe was given 30 days for assaulting his teacher, who nearly died from the result of the attack.

MEMBERS MUST GET PASSES MATTER MADE COMPULSORY

Sir Mackenzie Bowell Would Rather See Them Prohibited Altogether.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Senator McDonald of Prince Edward Island failed in his efforts to modify the clause in the railway bill relating to passes so as to make the issuing of passes to members of parliament optional, instead of compulsory. He moved his amendment in the Upper House to-day.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell seconded the motion. He said he did not believe that the votes of members of parliament are affected by passes, and he felt certain that passes should not be made compulsory. He would rather see them prohibited. The amendment was lost, whereupon Sir Mackenzie moved to exempt members of the Senate from the operation of the clause. This motion was also lost.

McMullen and Bowell.

Senator Watson tried to restore the clause affecting stray cattle on the highways to the form in which it left the Commons. He pointed out that every possible precaution against deliberate action which would enable cattle to get on the track, and to protect the farmer, the company and the traveling public, had been taken elsewhere in the act. The precautions were severe, but in such cases they could not be too severe, Sir Mackenzie Bowell objected that the proposed clause made the onus of proof of negligence on the railway companies. A man might turn out his old horse and then sue the company. Senator Watson contended that this was fully provided against.

Senator McMullen characterized the clause as a very drastic one. He believed the clause left the company open to attempts at imposition such as Sir Mackenzie Bowell has indicated. It was extreme legislation and he would not vote for it. The motion was lost on a vote of 26 to 19.

Not Exceeding $5000.

Senator Beique stated that Hon. Mr. David would not move his amendment to clause 239, the fire clause, on condition that the clause was made such as to provide that in case the company shall be proved to have used every modern and efficient appliance and has not been guilty of negligence, the damage caused by a fire shall not exceed $5000, to be divided as the court directs. Senator Beique moved an amendment along these lines, and it carried in the face of considerable opposition.

During the discussion on the bill respecting bounties on iron and steel, Senators Ellis and Edwards vented their free trade theories. Senator Scott replied that it was the bounties that made the industry at Sydney possible.

All Protectionists Bad.

Senator McMullen made a similar argument. Senator Edwards asserted that a protectionist naturally had a diseased mind, and found strange arguments. Why did they not propose a duty on gold. Not a dollar had been made out of gold mining in Canada. The condition of the works at the "Soo," and the Dominion works, was due to the fact that they had been called into existence by unnatural means.

After recess, Sir M. Bowell stated that he thought a good, round heavy duty in Canada would produce the same results as it had in the United States, and he would rather have seen it. The bill was reported without amendment, read a third time and passed.

The house went into committee on the lead bounty bill. In an answer to Sir M. Bowell, Hon. Mr. Templeman said the bounty wa calculated so as to keep the value of lead per 100 pounds t othe owner about the same, namely $345. The bill was reported with amendment, read a third time and passed. The house went into committee on the bill respecting the granting of assignments to the direct service. The speaker criticised the character of the despatches so far received. It was disappointing. He would like to see some really good despatches, containing genuine English news. Sir M. Bowell continued in the same train. He agreed with the speaker that some capable Canadian newspaper man should be sent over to collect and despatch the news. Hon. Mr. Ellis pointed out that some of the news received had been trivial, but he reminded the house that the American papers were represented by men of diplomatic qualifications in London. Unless Canada were better represented, it would be wise to consider the continuances.

Hon. Mr. McDonald, P.E.I., denounced the vote as unnecessary and unwarranted expenditure, which the country would not justify.

The mounted police bill and judges' salaries bill passed their third reading.

TROUBLE AT BLUEFIELDS.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Because of trouble near Bluefields, Nicaragua, involving the interests of an American Steamship Company, the State Department has requested the United States Navy Department to send a warship there for the protection of American interests. Orders will be issued to the gunboat Nashville, now at Pensacola, Fla., to proceed to Bluefields in the next few days.

Death of William Nicolas.

William Nicholas, a well-known bartender, who has worked in several down-town hotels for years, and of late has been connected with the Bero House, died suddenly yesterday at the General Hospital of meningitis, in his 39th year, after an illness of only a few days. The funeral will take place on Monday at 2.30, and will be attended by the Sons of England and other societies.

TISSUE BUILDING

Tissue building practically means the development of the body generally, and is consequently a matter of the first importance. A man's happiness, as well as his usefulness in after life, largely depends on a healthy development of every part of his body. Given an absolutely healthy parentage, a life "near to nature's heart," with proper diet, and nature may be depended upon to produce a well-developed man, but all these conditions rarely exist, and nature frequently requires assistance.

For an all-round tissue-builder, nothing yet discovered by science compares with FERROL, which contains in palatable and readily assimilated form all the constituents necessary for the perfect development of flesh, muscle, bone, nerve and brain.

In infancy and childhood, when tissue building is most active, FERROL can always be depended upon to produce splendid results. Children favorable. The it, and it always agrees with them.
