THE WEATHER

FORECAST—Fresh to strong south-westerly winds, fine and cool today and on Sunday.

Local News.

Registrar Jones reports eight marriages for the present week, also eight births, 4 girls and 4 boys.

Much interest is being shown in the exceptionally fine Thanksgiving concert to be given in St. John's Presbyterian church.

Sight is priceless. You can preserve it at small cost. See D. Boyanner, Optician, 651 Main street, and get glasses that fit.

Bishop Casey acknowledges the receipt of forty dollars from E. H. McAlpine, K.C., towards charitable institutions.

Wm. B. Akerly, a former St. John boy, who was kicked by a horse in Boissevain, Manitoba, about a month ago, is improving at the Borden, Man., hospital.

In the bean guessing contest at the City Cornet Band Fair, No. 2,404 won the sofa cushion donated by Rev. Father O'Donovan. Louis King was the winner.

Mrs. Adjt. Payne, matron of the Evangeline Home, will address the meeting on Sunday evening at Indiantown S. A. Hall. Her little son Alex., the child speaker, will also take part.

A morning paper yesterday said that Mrs. W. S. Morrison was elected president of the W. F. M. S. This was not so, as Mrs. Robert Baxter, who has held the position for years, was re-elected.

Augustus Matthewson has been reported for allowing his ferocious dog to go at large unmuzzled on Somerset street on Sunday, 8th inst., whereby Selina Albert, aged twelve years, daughter of Joseph Albert, had her clothing torn by the said animal

E. H. McAlpine returned yesterday from New York, where he attended on behalf of the government the hearing of evidence in the case of Crosby vs. the King. This case arose out of the seizure of molasses entered here as a direct importation from the West Indies, but which the crown claims is subject to higher duty, as having been reshipped from New York in other than the original packages.

The Dorchester correspondent of the Sackville Post says: "A property in which Dorchester and Sackville people are more or less interested is the brick works which S. L. Chapman has been operating for some time. A company is now being formed, in which F. C. Palmer & Co. will have a leading share, to take over this well known property, install new machinery and run it for all that it is worth. It is believed to be a good paying speculation. There is an abundance of raw material; the shipping facilities are excellent and the quality of the finished product second to none. These works will doubtless be found booming next spring."

THE SPENCER STAR COURSE

The entertainments of the Spencer Course will be in a sense private, as none but subscribers will be admitted at any price. This was not at first intended, as the subscription sale was not expected to reach the seating capacity of the building, but now there is little doubt that in another week there will be a sufficient number of course ticket holders to fill the seats at every one of the five entertainments. Under these circumstances, it will be wise on the part of those who have not as yet been canvassed, and have some intention of becoming a subscriber, to communicate by 'phone or mail to F. G. Spencer, and a canvasser will at once call and supply all desired information. This also applies to those who have already subscribed and desire one or more additional tickets.

MISS DAVIS TO RETURN

Among the members of the W. S. Harkins company that opens at the Opera House on Thursday evening next in "Darkest Russia" is Miss Ethel Davis, one of the most promising young actresses on the stage today, possessing, as she does, youth, beauty and ambition. Miss Davis will be remembered by St. John theatre goers by her performance in the leading ingenue role in "Sweet Clover," when it was presented here last spring. Miss Davis possesses a sweet singing voice, as well as being a beautiful danseuse. In "Darkest Russia" Miss Davis will play the "Baroness... a most delightful comedy part. During the Harkins' engagement there will be the usual popular priced matinees with a special matinee on Thanksgiving Day.

A WHIRLWIND OF FUN

A whirlwind of fun is the way that the Boston papers spoke of the Gay Matinee Girl when they played there last December. The fun commences at the rise of the curtain, and there is not a dull moment throughout the whole show. John E. Flynn as Dan McGinty kept the audience in an uproar all evening. The vaudeville in the second act was of the highest order and seldom seen outside of a vaudeville theatre.

The Donaldson line steamship Almora, Captain Turner, arrived in port early this morning from Glasgow with a general cargo, among which is 20,339 bags of Scotch hard coal, also 22 cast iron pipes for the new Marsh road water main, each weighing 6,500 pounds and 12 feet long. This is the first consignment of the pipe for the city, more will follow on the next steamer. The Almora is berthed at the city wharf and commenced to discharge her cargo at 1 p. m.

BODY FOUND IN OLD CAMP

A despatch from McAdam this morning says that a party of hunters found the body of an unknown man in an abandoned lumber camp near that place.

No particulars as to the identity of the unfortunate man or how he came to his death have been obtained by the Times up to the hour of going to press.

SAID HE HAD NO QUARAEL

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 14—Sir William Mulock made the following statement to your correspondent in reply to the effort made by a Toronto newspaper to misrepresent the circumstances under which he retires from the federal cabinet:

"It is quite an error," said the postmaster general, "for any one to suggest that I am withdrawing from the government because of any disagreement with the government or any of its members on any question whether political or personal, I am leaving the cabinet simply because after nearly a quarter of a century of uninterrupted public life with its many arduous exactions I do not feel equal to a continuance of the task, the duties of which have already become a severe strain. It is with the utmost regret that I part from the premier and my colleagues and from a government which enjoys my fullest confidence whilst the severance of the strong personal ties of affection which have developed between me and each member of the cabinet adds greatly to the poignancy of the separation."

JUMPED INTO THE TUNNEL

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—A large automobile containing six persons, four women and a man as passengers, and the chauffeur jumped over the east embankment into the tunnel at 33rd street and Park avenue in front of the Park East Hotel early this morning. The drop is 15 feet to the asphalt of the tunnel. All of the passengers were seriously injured. The chauffeur alone escaped serious injuries. Two of the women were so badly injured that it is feared they will die. They were sent to Bellvue hospital in ambulances that were summoned to the scene. Others followed in ambulances that responded to a second call. None of the names could be learned as all of the injured passengers were still unconscious from shock and injuries.

BABY'S SLEEP.

One of the first signs that something is wrong with an infant is disturbed sleep. Usually the trouble is with the stomach or bowels. If your little one is cross and restless do not give it an opiate or "soothing" medicine of any kind. All these things are deadly poison, and the sleep they give is unhealthy, unnatural and injurious. Your baby will sleep and let you sleep if you treat it properly. In Baby's Own Tablets there is not an atom of poisonous "sleepy stuff," and yet by their beneficent, healthy action they give refreshing sleep. They remove the cause, and the result is healthy, refreshing, life-giving sleep from which the little one awakens bright and well. Mrs. S. T. Douglas, Petitcodiac, N. B., says: "My baby was troubled with constipation, was restless and uneasy and did not sleep well at nights. I gave him Baby's Own Tablets and the change they made was wonderful. They regulated the bowels and he now sleeps well at night." If your dealer does not keep the Tablets send 25 cents to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and a box will be sent you by mail postpaid.

ROYAL BANK BRANCH

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the North End branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, P. G. Hall manager. The situation, corner of Simonds and Main streets, is an excellent one, and should be found very convenient by a large section of the business. The opening of this branch is another indication of the growing importance of the North End, and of the Royal Bank enterprise. This bank, with fifty branches in Canada, is in a position to offer first-class banking facilities, and it is the intention to open the branch on Saturday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock to meet the needs of depositors.

ABOUT C. N. SKINNER

(Chatham World.)

Hon. C. N. Skinner, K. C., ex-M. P., Recorder of St. John, is staying at the Bowser House while engaged on a case in the circuit court. Mr. Skinner was solicitor general in 1887, and carried a bill through the assembly abolishing the office. It has been revived since then, because a government supporter wanted the salary. Mr. Skinner is Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the Maritime Provinces, and may take occasion to visit the lodges in Newcastle and Chatham during his stay.

TWO VISIONS NEEDED

(Hartford Courant.)

The late Bishop Williams, of the Episcopal diocese of Connecticut, was a confirmed bachelor, and had a deep-rooted antipathy for becoming entangled in Cupid's net. Once he was visited by a rather erratic maiden lady of his acquaintance, who was also his ardent admirer.

"Well, Bishop," she remarked, after some unimportant preliminary skirmishing. "I have had a vision from the Lord that you and I are to be married."

The Bishop looked at her, overcome with consternation and amazement. But only for a short time was he at a loss; then he replied:

"Splendid, splendid. Just as soon as I have had my vision, I will communicate with you.

FIVE DROWNED BY GREAT WAVE

Steerage Passengers on the Steamer Campania Carried Overboard --- Thirty Others Injured.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 — Five steerage passengers of the Campania were carried overboard by a great wave that swept the ship on Wednesday last. None of them were rescued. About 30 other steerage passengers were injured, some of them seriously.

LATER.

Five lives are known to have been lost and more than 30 persons injured, some of them seriously, on the Cunard line steamer Campania last Wednesday when a gigantic wave rolled over the vessel and swept across a deck thick with steerage passengers. So sudden was the coming of the disaster and so great the confusion which attended and followed it that even the officers of the steamer themselves were unable to estimate the full extent of the tragedy. It is possible that five persons known to be missing from the steerage may not constitute the full number of deaths.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14—When the Campania reached quarantine some of the passengers were still in the hospital and some of them very seriously injured. Scores were nursing minor injuries. A heavy quaterering sea was running, but the weather conditions were far from unpleasant, and the big boat's deck was crowded with passengers. The steerage deck was covered with merrymakers, and there was nothing to indicate the approaching disaster when suddenly the big vessel lurched to port and scooped up an enormous sea. The wave boarded the steamer about amidships on the port side and swept clear across the steerage deck, completely filling the space between that deck and the deck above and carrying everything with it. The steamer's side was buried so deeply that the passengers on the deck above the steerage were submerged to their waists as the immense volume of water rolled aft and then surged forward. All the cabin passengers on the upper deck succeeded in clinging to supports while the waters surged around them, and they were saved by good fortune. But the unfortunates on the steerage deck of the vessel were utterly helpless. The irresistible rush of waters sweeping towards the forward part of the ship carried every thing movable with it.

Before it, heavy railings and obstructions which had been arranged near the railings to prevent passengers being washed overboard, served their purpose only in part. So great was the volume and force of the rushing waters that a door in the rail was smashed and through this opening five of the helpless ones were swept to their deaths. Others, dashed against the rails and other like obstructions, escaped death, but many of them received severe injuries. One woman had both legs broken at the thigh and others suffered broken arms and ribs, while more than a score were bruised and battered.

SAYRE CASE IN COURT

There are court developments in the suit of the Sheriff of Kent as assignee of Abdallah Sayre, and in court here this week Judge Barker granted an injunction to restrain the disposal of certain insurance moneys or sale of certain goods.

The statements made before Mr. Justice Barker recited that Abdallah Sayre carried on a busines in Beersville and Adamsville, in Kent County, and occupied a store at Beersville, which he claimed he owned, but which was insured in the name of his wife, Jessie, for $1,200; that he had there goods which were valued at $8,000, and were insured for $1,500. These goods, it was alleged, had been purchased largely before the fire. The fire took place on July 6th, and it was intimated, but not proven, that the insurance recovered amounted to more than the value of the stock lost. It is also said that Mrs. Sayre collected $1,200, the insurance on the building.

Proceedings were taken against Mr. Sayre under the absconding debtors' act. He then assigned to H. H. Parlee, of Fowler, Jonah & Parlee, of Sussex, and the first meeting of creditors was held at Sussex on Sept. 5th, when Augustus Leger, sheriff of Kent, was substituted as assignee. About August 30, notice of the intention of the Sayres to apply for incorporation was published and since then they have filed their petition for such incorporation.

The assignee brings a suit against the Sayres for an injunction restraining the disposal of any insurance moneys or any sale of goods which they might have, and which might formerly belong to Mr. Sayre and for a declaration that they belong to the assignee.

On Thursday Judge Barker granted the injunction and ordered the appointment of a receiver to take possession and hold any of the goods formerly belonging to Mr. Sayre that might be found in the Sussex store. The receiver appointed is A. C. Fairweather, referee for Kings County.

SALVATION ARMY

The local forces of the Salvation Army are making great preparations for their 23rd annual congress, which takes place in St. John on October 26th to the 31st, inclusive.

In connection with the congress the heads of the Army here have made arrangements with the I. C. R. for an excursion from points in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

This congress is expected to eclipse all previous ones. About 1,500 people are expected to come in from different points in the maritime provinces. There will also be five brass bands in attendance.

Commissioner and Mrs. Coombs, assisted by Col. Kyle and staff, will conduct special meetings in the Opera House all day Sunday, October 29th. They will also preside at a big demonstration given in St. Andrew's Rink on Monday, 30th, when the evolution of the Salvation Army or 40 years' accomplishment will be presented to the people by living tableaux.

PROF. WINDSOR'S LECTURES

Prof. Windsor delivered another excellent lecture in the York Theatre last evening before a large and intellectual audience. The professor very skilfully handled the subject in hand, "How to Become Rich," and, apart from the interest necessarily attached to all lectures given on this ever present question, he enlivened the instruction with many laughable anecdotes and kept the audience in a thorough good humor.

Tonight the professor lectures on "How to be Healthy." On Monday evening "Matrimony" will be the subject under discussion, and the phrenologist will delineate the characters of several young ladies and select from the audience gentlemen who would be, in his opinion, most suitable as life partners.

MUST TAKE MORE PILLS

In the police court this morning Allan Halliday, George Martin and Robert Dixon were fined $3 each for drunkenness.

The latter pleaded hard for a chance to conduct himself properly. He said he had just arrived from Woodstock, and as he was ill he intended going to the hospital. Magistrate Ritchie informed him that he would have to go to jail and the official medical man would be summoned. "It's no use getting him," exclaimed Dixon, "as the last time he gave me nothing but 3 big black pills." Despite his entreaties he was sent below.

Yesterday afternoon the three men, Joseph Hughes, William Martin, and Lawrence Olsen were remanded on the charge of aggravated assault upon the person of Charles Murray.

This morning the prisoners were brought to court and again remanded. Mr. Murray is suffering from the injuries received and was unable to be present in court this morning.

Mr. Myles, of Winter street, last night gave James Fitzgerald in charge of the police for using abusive and threatening language to him on his premises. Mr. Myles stated that the prisoner was very annoying and he wanted him kept off his premises. He had relatives who were tenants of his, and when the prisoner came there he was abusive to him. Fitzgerald was remanded until his brother could be consulted.

OIL WELL BORING IS ABANDONED NOW

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reid of Boston are spending a few days in Moncton with Capt. and Mrs. R. C. Bacon.

Moncton big game hunters have had greater success this year so far than in any previous season. In the first part of the season the sportsmen returned empty handed, but now it is the exception to see parties returning without a moose. Among the Monctonians who have an opportunity of boasting of shooting a moose this season are William LeBlanc, A. H. Melanson, Edward Hayward, B. S. Killam, Fred Winter, Dr. L. H. Price, Police Officer Chappell and Zed. Landry. Quite a number of others have returned with deer and smaller game and taken altogether the season may be regarded as one of the most successful for many years.

A. E. Killam, I. C. R. bridge inspector left tonight for Pittsburg, Pa. to attend the annual convention of the Railway and Bridge Building Association of America.
