THE GIFT OF THE GOLD CUP.

Would ye know why the love of the king in Thule,
Dying, gave him a wine-cup of gold?
'Tis a tale I have pondered long and duly,
And the meaning thus may be told.

O king! O lord! the hour draweth nigh;
This sunset, said the pitiful Hoch.
With the death of the daylight I shall die;
Breathe to thy kins my last fond sigh:
Give all thy soul to my failing speech.

Darling, lift my head to thy breast;
Fold me with strong and tender arm.
Sweet, it longs for the breathless rest.
This spirit's death-cold threadbare vest.
In the grave thy love will keep me warm.

Let me kiss the cross of thy sword.
Too weak, too weak! Press it thou to my lips.
The steel of the lonely life will be lord.
I know thee; my death is love's last word,
And my loss is all passion's eclipse.

I have drained thy days of delight;
But thou wilt forgive—thou wilt forgive.
Thy flesh and thy soul go with me to the night;
My bloodless shadow remains in sight;
But thou must conquer, and rule and live.

Bury thy heart with me, my own;
For so thou must; ah, God, thou must!
But grave thou above my corpse on the stone,
"She hath not left me wholly alone;
For glory and duty rise from her dust."

Now is the hour: bring thou the key;
Up to the couch the casket lift.
So oft thou hast fondly questioned me;
Now thy wondering eyes shall see.
And thy hands receive my dying gift.

Those were wonderful words. Who understood?
Brought from the south by that strange gray man.
How that a God became flesh and blood,
And died that men might be pure and good;
Ay, grow to be gods in life's brief span:

And how that, the night before he died,
He held with His friends a mystic feast,
And spake of a love, deep, universe-wide;
Of a comfort to come for which men sighed,
A spirit, to be the world's sole priest.

And then He lifted a wine-cup on high
And bade them drink and remember Him;
And promised that he would be near to their cry,
And bend an ear divine to their sigh,
When the lamp of life burns pale and dim.

I brooded on the strange words long;
And I bade them fashion—take it, sweet—
A wine-cup of gold— Love, love, be strong!
Let thy grief be royal with wine and song;
A king must walk with steadfast feet.

Drown thy tears in the blood of the grape.
Clasp me—I feel the death-shiver!
The years will be short; then soul will escape,
And meet a fond, faithful, waiting shape.
Then, darling! For ever and ever.

Dominion Lloyds.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

The accompanying letter was stolen from the Post Office by our agent and we request you to publish it in the interests of the public and our Government. It explains very clearly the opposition to our Dominion Lloyds in certain quarters and gives us an insight into the means sought to be employed to prevent its establishishment. Yours, &c.,

REFORMER.

JEMSEG, Dec. 12th, 1873.

MISTER J. L. BUMM.

Respektabul Sur,—I'm mighty glad to see you a pitchin into em gov'ment chaps thet air fer a noo Loids. Jest ez cf the fellers thet go loifin round the country callin 'emselves Loides an Buster Fusters wuz n't enuff without startin another batch onto us. I've bilt scows an sech like an my forefathers afore me on these waters an never hed nobody t' lokerst trunnel 'em or kopper fasten 'em till the last one. You see a nabor uv mine he he sez, sez he "Neezer. you'rea gettin behind the times, you're bilt an all-fired pile uv vessels thet air the pride uv this nashun, but ef you 'xpects t' keep ahed uv 'em bilders down in Saint Johns you must git a stifikate. Wal, Josh Hopkinses boat wuz jist shiverin her mainsale in the breese watin fer the cook t' come abord with pervishuns fer the voyeg an' I klimed onto her deck an took a state room fer the city. I could n't see nothin uv you sur on gittin down fer I knowed you wuz mighty sharp an could put me onto the feller which 'd sell the cheepest stifikate. But lookin round I lit onto a Mister Mukeloud who said he knowed a man 'd do the bizness right sartin without no truble ez he allers did fer him with wracks an sech like on the North some wares, I jest dis-remember the name uv the place. Wal, he walked me up to a queer ole feller who wore a big stick an wuz kind o' down by the head an shaky ez it wur an he seemed rejoicin t' see me, give his hands a rub t' gether and sez he to a sleepy lookin chap writin at a tabel in his offus, thet ef bizness rush'd in on 'em in this way from noo places all over the country they'd hev t' kabul fer more serveyers, that he allers knowed t' would come round all right sometime, an thet 'em Buster Fuster's wuz gittin play'd out. Without axin' me to a cheer, the sleepy feller pulls out a big book an' sez he "Mister, wut's your name?" "Neezer Hemlock," sez I. Then sez he, "wut's your ships dimensures?" Sez I, "mister, she aint no ship, only a sloop, an her figgers air 40 foot long, 20 foot wide, an 20 foot deep." Ole shaky an him looked kinder mad at t' other fer a minit then they gut down a book all full uv figgers an begin pensilin t' gether, an at last the ole un who wuz the Boss I seed, sez he, "Mister Hemlock, you 've gut tu much depth uv hold fer your other dimensures, an our book wont stan' it, but ef you 'll redoose her hold to 19 foot 6 inches we 'll do the bizness." I told him that's wut, I argified with Josh Hopkins a comin down in his boat thet p' raps I hed strechted it a leetel tu fur in layin down the hold uv the noo craft. The pint hein gut over, the Boss he sez, "Mister Hemlock' wut class air you after?" Wal, ez I had a Sunday skool class an a singin skool class to hum an hed about all the classes I wanted t' handel fer one wile, I jest kinder hinted I ded n't want no class at all. With thet the ole chap he jumped up, pounded his stick onto the floor, shook hisself red in the face an sez he very rood like, "Hemlock, wut in —— then did you come here fer?" This pinted remark took me all aback suddin an I begin to think I'd gut inter the wrong shop, so I jest blurted out "you dont sell stifikates then?" Wen I said stifikates the sleepy lookin chap—wich wuz n't so very sleepy after all tho', sez he, "Oh, yes you didn't onderstan' us," and he took the Boss over into a korner an jist combed him down, an then they come over to me an said ez how it wuz all right, an the stifikate 'd be writ out after the Boss 'd go up an 'spekt the vessul, an ef I'd leeve a tiket fer the stemur he'd go up in a day or so. Wal, the tarnal cost uv this kind uv travelin sort of skeered me, an I jest observed perlite like, thet ez I'd bespoke a state room in Josh Hopkinses boat fer the round voyeg, I wuzn't agin a sheer in uv it with the Boss. At this the ole man he begin gittin all fired red hot agin an wus feelin round nervus like fer his stick so I just bout ship an said hurredly like thet I'd fetch thet ticket round myself sartin', "Cause," sez I, "in the words ov our bard of Jemseg

'Ef you wish a thing to be done well you must do it yourself, you must n't leeve it to others."'

There was a big gatherin round our place wen the stemur come up with the stefekate man and you may jist gess some ov the nabors wuz over with jclissy at me a gittin ahed ov 'em. We all marched down in persusshun the ole man an me leadin the crowd and canvassin permiscous like till we brought up agin my naval yard. Unbeknowns t'me the foreman was off gittin spliced thet mornin and t'other man in the gang wuz jist left alone with the holl 'sponsability onto his sholders. He wuz busy, with a noo axe I'd jist brought hum, in e sain away about half a frame ware a plank'd take kinder hard, and ef ever you seed a weezul go fer a rabbit you'd git a idee how thet stefekate man traveled fer my gang. The gang he give a side glause at the truble comin and the way thet craft wuz deserted you'd jist thought both pumps was choked an the water waz up to the taffrail. Wal, the Boss he took up the job ware the gang left off. He yanked off his coat and slung thet noo axe about ez ef he owned the vessel and there waz a sudden demand fer kindlin wood. He chopped the stem in two to make sartin it wasn't rotten; he ripped a duzzen plank off the bottom t' see wether they wuz hum agin the timbers, he bust about half the deck up to git a good look at the corkin, he broke four or five bars ov thet iron akross his knee and said he knowed d——n well ware thet came from, he chucked round keerless my best selekted sprooce trunnels and called 'em d——d noo fangliered noshuns uv'em Buster busters an after hackin round gen'ally till he got so hot he couldn't hack no more he sot hissel down, pulled out a leetle book and read off thet I must kopper fasen up to 19 foot, gulvernize bolt t'other foot, skatter about 10,000 lokerst trunnels over the bilge, pay him a shillin a tun and then he'd write onto a stefikate ez how the vessel wuz fit an proper to carry market projuce on the Jemseg fer 6 months when the holl thing 'd be gone over agin. Now, respektabul sur, you know how et is yourself. Huming natur's huming natur, an I wuz riled. I meanderd round 'em premisus lookin fer sutthin thet wouldn't kill a party very bad, an I lighted onto a tar mop. Peoples thet wuz handy an warn't egscited sez thet the next ten m nits wuz fully occurpied by thet stefekate man an me makin tack an tack round thet craft. At last, gittin a start, he wuz off with a good full fer the stemur agin, an jist ez he borded her thet ole mop made a spot ez big ez a cheese onto a pare ov korderoys thet I gess wuzn't used no more ware parlour cheers wuz vallooed. I've heern say sence from a nabor uv mine thet town's folks don't b'leeve the Jemseg bizness's hankered after by thet Loides koncern sence thet ewentful occashun.

Wall, last fall, you know, wen I brought the craft down with 'em squash, Hopkins, he sez, "Neezer," sez he, ef you ain't tu pesky skeered tu face the mooskick there's a fust rate feller I ken take you tu thet'll give you a stifikate on one thet's a plagey site better'n thet other ole chap's. You know, sur, it ain't nateral t' chawer a hot puttater twice in succeshun, but sutthin hed tu be did, fer Hopkinses and Bill Skoolers boats wuz a makin 20 cents more'n me onto the round voyeg entirely fer a havin stifikates. So I jest sez t'once "pint her!" Strikin intu a six mile gate, Josh and me traveled fer the city, feelin mighty dubersom in my mind an keepin a eye t' windward fer thet sleepy chap an the ole boss wuz p'raps hedn't entirely a fergut me. At last, without knockin onto the door or sayin ez much ez by yer leave, Josh scrooges me an him intu a leetel cabin uv a room ware wuz a ole stove, a picter uv a vessel cut in too ez it was an a darned sivel lookin chap jist like enny the rest ou us a picklu his teeth an sez he sort uv familyer like without in his amoosement sez he "Take a cheer gentl'm'n." 'Sposin he waz some ole chum of Hopkinses in the junk line an bein drefful dry fer a smoke I sez, sez I "Mister seein ez how we're all friends t'gether p'raps you would not mind handin over thet pipe uv yourn an histin this way thet t'bakker." The leetel man begin t'git red round the gills an Josh he worked oneasy like onto his cheer wen inckily jist then a tall black appeerin party banged open the door with a segar in his mouth an sez he right out loud ez of he hed charge uv things gen'rally sez he "Our P. M. hez chuck'd half her kar go overbord, but it wuz all the capt'ns fault fer he hed his wife abord unbeknowns to us an we're going t'put a noo c'pt'n in an we 'xpect you after our adoin uv all this t'give us 20 year fus letter." Wile they wuz a talkin easy t'one another about fust letter an capt'n's wife dn 20 year and so on Josh he whispered very quiet "you'd better go a leetel slow, Neezer Hemlock, ef you don't want t'put yer foot intu it fer that leetel chap's the Buster Fuster man." You may guess, respektabul sur, I wuz knocked some. I jist unbent my ole sow-westur suddin, shook the reefs out of my noo humspuns down over my boot tops, histed up the ends uv my paper kollar a inch or so and took very quiet t' a genr'l dustin of my close. In too minets Almira Jane wouldn't a know'd her keerless lookin Neezer. I put on sech big licks in shapes. But sur I needn't a done it. It wuz all throw'd away fer the leetel chap don't keer a darn fer looks It's all biz with him. He jist come right over t' me wen the man thet wuz fer the 20 year slammed hissel out an sez he, frendly-like, a slappin uv me onto the sholder, sez he, "Want a stifikate, ole feller?" Not carin to plung tu deep after my late epersode with the Boss, I jist play'd off ez ef I wuz a goin t' dicker fer a bargain. "Praps," sez he, after a paws, "we ain't got no class nigh enuff fer your ship; she's from Quako, I b'leeve." "Better'n thet," sez I, "she's from Jemseg! Hecrn uv Jemseg, sur? Nobni country, no fog, no wet sea air, timber all sesoned thru an thru ez it grows. The Ministur uv marines (ez thet politikal man Mister Burpee allers calls him) observed t' me wen he wuz huntin fer timber fer the Jemseg plint revolushinin light hus thet it wuz the best sesoned country he ever seed, an he only wished he cou'd bild all his light huses onto it." "Wal," sezs the leetel chap, sezs he, "thet's logik. I can't ganesay the plint with you ole feller, you argify convincin. Ef your timber's fit for lighthuses it's fit fer ships, 'cause dou't it stan t' resin sence they both on 'em's fer use at sea; an ef your craft wuz cross-cut and grubb'd near the Ministur uv marinces timber, I tell you out squar you've bust our book an Monsure Canon Bal'l hev t' call all on us t' Paris t' orgonise sutthin noo for you. Daly, sez he, there's jist one plint, Mister Hemlock. You must try an crowd a stapeler knee ortu in 'mongst your t'other fasenin, 'cause stapeler knees air the fundamental prenceprul uv our Buster Fuster. It's bilt on em. Without 'em we'd never a become the stand'rds fer naval arkstectoorers. The world can't never fergut how the Saint Martin's Head from Kardif with sails on her voyeg wen her bottum wuz knock'd in an her sky sale yard sprung an the holl salwashun uv ship an kargo wuz a hangin onto one pare of 'em stapeler knees. Fact is, sur, I b'leve of a vessul's beems wuz all kerried away her stapeler knees 'd keep her solid." Now, respektabul sir, this sezs all kinder flatterin to a modest man an ez I didn't want to give him him sech trubel t' go away t' Frunse on my akount, I jist told him I didn't mean to disjint all their regoolashuns, thet they needn't start a noo book a purpus fer me, fer I coud content myself with 20 year or so fust letter 'samzee t'other man axed fer. Respektabul sur, wuzn't this sutthin like bigness? Noue uv thet penscrlin about hooks an crooks an kopper tu Lord knows how many foot an everlastin lokerst trunels an specshun towers t' the Jemseg an acuttin an a hackin. We jist understood one 'nother t' onct an he come down with the dokyment. Qn course there wuz some leetel figgerin in the cash line wich I spose wuz all proper tho Josh Hopkins he said ez how it allers struck him kinder kurus how this Buster Fuster man figgered $5 fer a soverun an wen on airth travelin xpenses wuz wen he didn't do no travelin. But, sur, my ideas on that pint air thet enny respektabul bilder 'd sooner pay thet $5 an 'em travelin 'expenses an git a stifikate for 20 year without no trubel than hev thet ole boss from Loides konsurn a chippin up his craft an a readin him holl lecters about kopper an gulvernizin an so forth an then charged him a shillin a tun an palmin off onto him a darned ole stifikate for 6 months. Howsom'd ever, I've heern say from some uv our folks thet go shulin round consider'ble thet some uv 'em ongratful critters on the Mash did rize a muss about 'em travelin xpenses, an thet big soverun an come near shuttin up shop onto the Buster Fusters. "Wall, some pork will bile so." It's kinder naterul I spose t' git bumptshus wen peoples hez their own way so much in this wurld, but 'em fellers 'd ought t' give way a triful 'casion'lly t' thet leelel inspeeshun chap. Wut he wants 's the tin an wut they wants 's the stifikate. Its mighty easy sleddin with 'em an no big letters, or black marks or nasty pryin inter things.

Respektable sur, wut the free an independent owners uv this country ax fer 's libbaty. They dont want no rules, no regoolashuns, no 'strickshuns on no man's bizness and they dont want no pryin round an it should be resolvoled down by the Legislatiff. This county wants to bild its own craft jist ez it dam pleases. A kind Providence planted lots uv trees here an no Loids should n't say we must n't use 'em. Peoples hez their own idees, but I argify ef it wuz n't never meant t' bild ships out uv 'em trees they would n't never a growed here. Ef you 'xpect this nashun t' prospur, dont hev no shackles on its tunnage. A liberal classifyin 's the thing required. Some sez 20 year, but my idee 's t' give every man a stefikate A. 1 onlimitud an wen he about kalkerates his craft wuz a gittin weekish he cou'd come then an git his stifikate chang'd fer a A 2; fer I holds thet every man knows best wut kind uv stifikate his vessul ou' t' hev, leastwise he'd make a closs gess onto it. Ez the Buster Fuster folks come nighest my noshuns, I goes the holl hog fer their princerpels.

Respektabul Sur, you 've a heep uv influoence at Quako, an up here an you 'll fetch out all right by purseweerin. Ef some uv 'em Saint John shippin fellers keeps on a agitation fer thet Minister uv Marines inspekshun I'd jist hev it gently brot round t' their recollekshuns thet thet last skooner uv theirn hed fergut in the hurry uv levin t' take abord thet spare anker an thet thet squar rigger wou'd n't be none the wus fer em 90 fath'ms uv chain kable her capt'n lent t' a frend wich wuz in the junk line at Kalleo. Morrll suasion uv this kind alers goes a long way t'wards uprooting prejewdisses an onkorrect ideas. P'raps the Buster Fuster man might'n't a jist hed this view oocur t' him.

Respektabul sur, put yer foot down on 'em noo inspekshun chaps. We don't want 'em, we air jist wal enuff now an allers will be, onless we might be better, wich 's preferable. I now close, summin up the hollgist uv my obsarvvashuns in remarkin thet its classifyin an not inspekshun we wants,
