WEAKNESS SHOWN IN GRAIN MARKET

Closing Down of Chicago Elevators Has a Depressing Effect.

Chicago, pril 29.—Closing down of some Chicago grain elevators, together with disquiet regarding the financial situation, led to weakness today in the corn market. Prices closed unsettled, 3-4 to 2 1-4c net lower. May 172 1-2 to 172 3-4, and July 162 3-4 to 163. Oats finished at 7-8c decline to 3-4 advance, and provisions varying from 75c off to 7c gain.

Notwithstanding that stoppage of work at various grain elevators was due to the railway switchmen's strike, and had an evident tendency to render more difficult the filling of future delivery contracts, especially for the month of May, the effect in the corn market was in general to depress values. Bears contended that the railroad traffic status here was shown to be distinctly less satisfactory, and that other industries would be forced to quit. Cautiousness of banks in making loans was also dwelt upon as well as the heaviness of stock morket quotations. Numerous rallies took place, but none of an impressive character, or apparently associated with anything beyond transient pit conditions.

Oats were weak with corn, except that belated coverings by unlicensed shorts hoisted the May option somewhat sharply. Oats available for immediate use here commanded $1.10 a bushel, the highest price on record.

Provisions averaged lower in the absence of much demand for meats.

MONTREAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Montreal, April 29.—In sympathy with the decline in oats in the Winnipeg market a weaker feeling prevailed here today in the cash article, and prices were reduced. A fair amount of business is passing in the baled hay market and the feeling is firm. There is no further change in the egg situation and the potato market was without developments. LIMITED OFFERINGS PREVENT DECLINES

Mining Market Shows Very Little Change From Several Previous Days.

TRETHEWEY A WEAK ISSUE

Yesterday's mining market was simply a repetition of that of several previous days. Trading was insignificant, and offerings were too limited to have much influence on quotations. Trethewey was again the principal weak spot, and it is believed that liquidation from large holders is going on in this issue. The announcement of the Peterson Lake deal for the treatment of its slimes did not have much effect. This stock sold up a fraction, but the influence of the general market was against any outside interest. Gradual pressure was again present in McIntyre, and the price receded to 201. Dome sold at $10 in New York, and was comparatively firm on that exchange. In the minor issues, Wasapika was lowered to 16. Silver was quoted at 1.14, and was not regarded as showing much resiliency after the sharp decline.

SILVER PRICES.

London—66d per oz.
New York—114c per oz.

RUNS CONTINUE LIGHT WITH NO PRICE CHANGES

Former Manager On Visit to the Yards.

One of the lightest runs on record featured the Union Stock Yard's receipts yesterday, the official board, at 3 o'clock, registering exactly 15 cars, including 74 cattle, 33 calves, 818 hogs and 4 sheep. A few cattle were left over from Wednesday's trading and these, together with yesterday's deliveries, appear in the short list of sales.

The scarcity of receipts was, of course, in a large measure due to the uncertainty which has all week existed in respect to the anticipated labor troubles at the plants. Now that everything is happily adjusted, we will, in all probability, have a reasonably heavy run on Monday. Mayoe a few odd cars today. The market yesterday (if it could be called a market), was steady to strong compared with Wednesday's prices, a few extra choice steers selling up to $14.50, and an odd one or two to $15 per cwt.

In the sheep, lambs and calves, the market held about steady with practically no offerings.

The hog market is apparently more settled and on a basis approximately 50c higher than that formerly determined by the packer buyers. A determined effort has been made for the past week to depress prices to a level of 13½c to the farmer, but outside causes, notably the strike uneasiness and other causes, have contributed to light receipts, resulting in a compromise on the basis of 19c f.o.b., and 20c fed and watered. For Friday and Saturday's loading, it looks like 13¾c f.o.b., according to last night's advices.

Were Warmly Welcomed.

A personal feature of the Union Stock Yards during the week was the visit on the exchange of J. H. Ashcraft, manager of the Edmonton stock yards (and former manager of the Union yards), together with P. J. Kelley, local manager in Edmonton, Alta., of the H. P. Kennedy, Limited, and a member of the executive of the Edmonton Company.

Touching briefly on the conditions in the far west at the present time Mr. Ashcraft told The World yesterday that the weather when he left Alberta about a week ago was just about like that prevailing in Ontario. He said that while the spring was late seeding would go in under promising conditions, the ground being well filled with moisture. On the highlands a little snow was still lying, but not much.

Talking about the reported shortage of feed in central Alberta, Mr. Ashcraft said that while the losses were serious they were less than reported. In Central Alberta there was an adequate supply last fall, but not anticipating such an extreme winter they had sold all their surplus in other parts. "But I am more optimistic of the future of the great west than ever I was before, and a good year will put us on our feet," he said.

The live stock is one of the big industries of the west, and the success of the Edmonton yards is a tribute to Mr. Ashcraft and Mr. Kelley, the latter of whom, besides being associated with the H. P. Kennedy, Ltd., is deeply interested in the success of the yards.

The two westerners were warmly welcomed by the commission men and drovers on the Union yards on Wednesday and given the freedom of the city.

DIPLOMAS PRESENTED TO O.V.C. STUDENTS

Thirteen Veterinary Graduates Receive Honors at Hands of Minister of Agriculture.

Hon. Manning W. Doherty, minister of agriculture, presented the diplomas and prize to the graduating students of the Ontario Veterinary College, yesterday. Thirteen awards were made and, in presenting them, Hon. Doherty spoke on several aspects of veterinary science. He warned the students against the too common mistake of specializing in horse diseases, asserting that other animals were equally worthy of attention. He went on to say that agriculture is the foundation of our civilization, and that agriculture cannot progress if veterinary science remains at a standstill.

Dr. C. D. McGilvray, in introducing the class, congratulated the students on their diligence and success, and wished them God speed. He dwelt on the importance of the use of preventive medicines, and assured the graduates that they need not be discouraged because horses have in many places been discarded, and replaced by automotors.

Prize Winners.

The first prize for general proficiency was won by James S. Glover and George E. Stanley, who shared the honors equally. The second and third prizes were awarded to A. G. Frew and R. G. Law, respectively, and honorable mention was accorded Leslie E. Turner of Mono Road. The class consisted of the following graduates: W. D. Baskette, R. J. Bowerman, W. J. Drennan, E. G. Folsom, jr., A. G. Frew, J. L. Gleason, J. S. Glover, L. B. Jackes, R. G. Law, H. G. McDonald, J. E. Nesbitt, G. E. Stanley and L. E. Turner.

A large framed photograph of the members of the class was presented to the college by George E. Feaneey, who made brief and appropriate remarks.

YARDS IN BUFFALO TIED UP BY STRIKE

Buffalo, N.Y., April 29. — Railroad yards in Buffalo were tied up tonight by a resumption of the strike of switchmen and yard conductors. Dissatisfaction with the settlement terms, under which the men returned to work on April 17, was given as the reason for the second walkout.

Edward C. Holohan, president of the yardmen's association local, the "outlaw" union, said tonight that the walkout was complete, and that every railroad in the city was affected.

Daniel N. Dinan, supt. of the New York Central, and spokesman for the officials of the railroads here, admitted that freight operations in the Buffalo district were badly crippled, but said that there was no interference with passenger schedules.

Mr. Dinan said that no demands had been served on the railroads, and that the yardmasters had informed him that the men had left their posts without any notice.

The first walkout of yardmen in the Buffalo district was settled a week ago last Saturday, when the men, by a vote of 790 to 298 voted to return to work without any concessions from the railroads, but with the understanding that their demands would be considered by the railroad labor board.

Lack of Living Wage Blamed for Social Evils

Brantford, April 29—(Special).—The Trades and Labor Council last evening, while supporting the campaign against social diseases, declared that lack of a living wage for girls was at the bottom of the evil. The council recommended co-operation to bring down the high cost of living, attacked the cost of potatoes, and urged the city council to lay in a stock of coal so that there would be no fuel famine here next winter. Daylight saving was opposed.

SPRING ASSIZE DOCKET.

For the spring assizes, which open on Monday first, there are two criminal and fifty-six civil cases listed. Joseph Kelly is charged with attempted murder of P. C. Dawson, whom, it is alleged, he shot at on Merton street while the constable was on duty, and Harry Freeman is charged with manslaughter.

In the civil list the action for slander by W. E. Turley against Harry Flynn, which was traversed from the last sitting of the court, will be heard.

The Toronto Street Railway Co. are defendants in seven cases.

LIVERPOOL STRIKE PROVES A FAILURE

Attempt by Irish Section of Dockworkers on Behalf of Sinn Feiners a Fizzle.

Liverpool, April 29.—An attempt by the Irish section of the dockworkers to carry out their threat to hold up traffic if the hunger striking prisoners were not released from the Wormwood Scrubs Prison, has failed. More than 80 per cent. of the men returned to work this afternoon, and there were plenty of substitutes for the Irishmen who did cease work.

The only somewhat serious development today was that the Irish boats were held up temporarily.

The lord mayor of Liverpool, Burton W. Ellis, today communicated to a deputation from the Irish Self-Determination League a telegram he received yesterday from Edward Shortt, secretary for home affairs, with regard to the treatment of Irish prisoners in the Wormwood Scrubs Prison.

"The deputation you received yesterday," the telegram says, "is misinformed regarding the Irish prisoners in Wormwood Scrubs. Their custody is legal and their treatment humane. Those who by their refusal of food are endangering their lives are being carefully tended, and, if necessary, will be removed to a hospital. The detention of these men has been rendered necessary by the atrocious murders which prevail in Ireland and the terrorism which prevents the trial of the murderers and their accomplices."
