POETRY.

THE AULD COAT.

"Dress drains our cellar dry,
And keeps our larder clean; puts out our fires
And introduces hunger, frost and wo,
Where peace and hospitality might reign."
—COWPER.

Thae jinglin' words sound somewhat fine,
That neebor Clash picked up for nocht,
But bid her try to use sic praise
As still seems faithered by kind thocht;
Slow ploddin' worth she deems a dolt,
She frowns at poortith's simple plan,
And curls her lip 'cause honesty
Canna disguise the daytle-man.*

Dagn linked wi' darn, clout happin clout,
Shaw mair o' sense than dirty debt.
Wha greeds for fashion's blacks and braws
May kind o' rue their cravin' yet;
Sae, wifie, put a wheen mair steeks
In brave auld brown as well's ye can,
Though Snip suld scunner at the coat,
Wha cares? He canna crave the man.

We'll get new claes, lass, in our turn,
Gin we haud hearts and tools in tune,
But we maun lay in meal the noo,
And get the rivin ladies shoon
Try ye to haud the bairns at schule,
And fit for kirk best way ye can;
Should black Meg Clash come owre auld brown,
Just bid her spruish her ain guidman.

Debt winna do to hap thy back
Brave, burthen-bearing poverty,
'Twad hamper thae at ilka turn,
And chafe thy limbs reproachfully.
But upturned soil soon wins new garb,
Sae drive the wark on a' ye can—
The labour clause in Wisdom's law
Reveals the Father's love for man.

Owrie monie, for the sake o' claes,
Drive comfort frae their cauldrife hame,
Syne, girnin' in the doctor's face,
They gie the weather a' the blame;
And ithers scheme and rug and rive,
To shame pale portith frae the lan'—
Poor fools, and blin'—our wants and waes
Bring angels ministering to man.

Yell out, Meg Clash, gnaw through yer lip,
We ken the main cause o' sic din,
Gae busk yer banes in ithers braws,
And put a Sunday face on sin.
Glower conscience out o' countenance,
'Gainst poortith fiercely yelp and ban,
Truth shangan yet shall gar sic curs
Drive yowlin' frae the face of man.

* Daytle-man is a term often used in the South of Scotland. It seems to me an abion of day-toiling, or day tilling, and is ever confined in usage to the day labourer, to distinguish him from the regularly engaged hind or farm servant. I never saw the word in print, nor I heard it made use of in the North.

THE CONSTANT FRIEND.

TUNE—"Happy Land."

There is a constant Friend,
True, true and tried,
Who will thy steps attend,
Near, near thy side.
Oh, how his soothing voice
Makes the aching heart rejoice;
Near may that heavenly voice
Ever abide.

Springs balmy breezes blow,
Then die away,
And summer beauties grow
But to decay;
Earth hath its friendships too,
Transient as the morning dew,
But ne'er a Friend so true
Cheered thy lonely way.

Life's flickering lamp expires,
Short is our stay
Where hope the soul inspires,
Then dies away:
Oh then, beyond the grave,
Every one his Father gave
This Heavenly Friend will save,
In endless day.

"THE WORLD'S STAGE,"—A ROMANCE.

A paragraph is going the rounds of the papers, relating how a man named Frazer was recently arrested near Baltimore, and committed to the jail near Moorestown, N. J., from whence he had escaped, when under confinement, for counterfeiting. The story is touched up with a little romance concerning a sister of his, who is said to have struggled hard for a livelihood in her younger days but who is now a great lady at the Court of France—all of which is true.

This Frazer was once a resident of our country. He came here with Lucien Murat—son of the illustrious Murat and the beautiful Pauline Bonaparte—nephew of the old and cousin by the present Emperor. Lucien assisted by this Frazier and a French chap whose name we cannot recall, undertook to build a "city" on Indian River, between Evans Mills and Theresa. This was some 23 years ago. This trio were a precious set. Horse racing and cockfighting were more industriously attended to than legitimate business; still a grist mill, a few shops, and a store were put up, but in the end went down, under the sheriff's hammer. Thus ended and began the great city of "Joachim." The old mill is still standing as a monument of Lucien Murat's failures in this country. The man who built the mill still holds an expressive memento of Lucien in the form of "I promise to pay," given for eighteen hundred dollars worth of labour performed.

After our adventurers left this country, Frazer went to New-York, and got rich—Murat went to Bordentown, N. J., married Frazer's sister, and remained poor. His wife actually supported him by teaching school. Meantime the brother continued to wax fat and fast. He became noted as a gentleman of wealth, leisure, and pleasure—without giving a thought, it is said, to his relatives, who were then under the frowns of fortune. The throw of the dice-box of destinies which gave France into the hands of Louis Napoleon, also gave peace and glory to Lucien Murat and his very worthy hard working wife. He is now one of the highest dignitaries of the Empire, and she is one of the first ladies of the court. Thus, while the sister occupies the Elysean Bourbon, at Paris, the brother is awaiting his sentence to serve in a New Jersey State Prison. So the "play" goes on.—Watertown Journal.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF THE OLD PLAN OF MANAGEMENT.

LEWIS RICE, Proprietor, respectfully announces that he has resumed the old plan of management as it existed before the recent alteration. Trial of the European system in this Hotel, proves, that although the advantages are great, yet the plan is better adapted for the smaller class of hotels.

The accommodations and conveniences of the House are unsurpassed, and the recent improvements and alterations, for the comfort of guests, have nothing to be desired.

A MEDICAL REVOLUTION!
THE WORLD UNANIMOUS.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
THE GREAT COUNTER IRRITANY!

The virus of disease often makes its way to the internal organs through the pores of the skin. This penetrating Ointment, melting under the hand as it is rubbed in, is absorbed through the same channels, and, reaching the seat of inflammation, promptly and invariably subdues it, whether located in the kidneys, the liver, the lungs, or any other important organ. It penetrates the surface to the interior, through the countless tubes that communicate with the skin as summer rain passes into the fevered earth diffusing its cool and regenerating influence.

SKIN DISEASES & GLANDULAR SWELLINGS.

Every species of exterior irritation is quickly reduced by the anti-inflamatory action of this Ointment, Angry ERUPTIONS, such as SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, TETTER, RINGWORM, SCALD HEAD, NETTLE RASH, SCABIES (or ITCH) &c., die out, to return no more under its application Hospital experience in all parts of the world proves its infallibility in diseases of the skin, the muscles, the joints and the glands.

ULCERS, SORES, AND TUMORS.

The effect of this unrivaled external remedy upon Scrofula, and other virulent ulcers and sores, is almost miraculous. It first discharges the poison which produces suppuration and proud flesh, and thus the cures which its healing properties afterward complete are safe as well as permanent

WOUNDS, BRUISES, BURNS, AND SCALDS

In cases of the fracture of the bones, injuries caused by steam explosions, BRUISES, BURNS, SCALDS, RHEUMATISM, STIFFNESS OF THE JOINTS, and contraction of the sinews, it is employed and warmly recommended by the faculty. This marvellous remedy has been introduced by its inventor in person into all the leading Hospitals of Europe, and no private household should be without it.

UNDENIABLE TESTIMONY.

The Medical Staff of the French and English Armies in the Crimea have officially signed their approval of Holloway's Ointment, as the most reliable dressing for sabre cuts, stabs, and gun-shot wounds. It is also used by the surgeons of the Allied Navies.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Rheumatism,	Sore Throats,
Burns,	Ringworm,	Sores of all kinds
Capped hands,	Salt Rheum,	Sprains,
Chilblains,	Scalds,	Stiff Joints
