PEDIGREE OF TOWNLEY OF TOWNLEY.

(All Rights Reserved.)

(Continued.)

CECILIA=JOHN DE LA LEGH.

- KATHARINE, dau. of Richard de Balderstone, settlement 10 Edw. III., 1336. =
  - GILBERT DE LA LEGH, son and heir of John de la Legh and Cecilia, alive in 1382; date of second marriage 1344. His seal bearing the shield of three mullets and a fesse is twice recorded by Christopher Townley, 43 Ewd. III. and 6 Ric. II. =
    - ALICE, who survived him, was found by Inquisition 11 Ric. II. 1388 to have held two parts of Townley beside one-fourth of the bailiwick of Blackburnshire, the manor of Hapton, etc., and to have died in 1388. =
      - s.p.
  - s.p.
- RICHARD DE TOWNLEY, escheator 1371 and sheriff of the county of Lancaster 1375 to 1379, when he died. Inquisition p. m. 4 Ric. II., 1381. =
  - ELENA; this name is found in a deed of Alice, widow of Ralph de Stirzaker, 19 Ewd. III., 1345.
- LAURENCE DE LA LEGH, also called de Townley, named in the entail of Cliviger, 1321.

- WILLIAM DE RIGMAYDEN, 7 April, 2 Hen. IV., 1401, had a grant of the wardship of Richard son and heir of John de Townley. =
  - ELIZABETH, died March 27th, 2 Hen. IV., 1401, Inquisition p.m. held 3 Hen. IV. =
    - 2. JOHN DE TOWNLEY, 31 years of age at the date of the Inquisition p.m. of his father in 1381; found heir to his aunt and 38 years old; died 1399. Inquisition p.m. 1 Hen. IV. In 1397 sealed the settlement which he made of his estates "with three mullets and a fesse which was the seale that the De la Leghs formerly sealed withall," v. Christ. Townley's MSS. =
      - ISABELLA, who became the heiress of William, son of Matthew de Rixton; marriage contract 1382; died before 1397.
      - ROBERT and HENRY. Both chaplains
      - ALICIA, wife of Edmund, son and heir of Sir Thos. Dacre; marriage contract 30 Edw. III., 1356.

[illegible] orchard with one John de Thorneton, then deceased.

[illegible] Hen. VI., 1466; alive 1462; [illegible]

[illegible] ALICE survived. MATILDA, married William, son and heir of John, son and heir