From the Old England

"ENGLAND EXPECTS EVERY MAN TO DO HIS DUTY."

To the Editor.

SIR,—Notwithstanding the exultant strains of the Ministerial press, the wily Keshin has proved too knowing a diplomatist for the "Barbarian" Plenipotentiary of Old England. The Emperor withholds the dust, and his officials have again succeeded in throwing sand in the eyes of all the Elliots. Chinese affairs are still at sea, whether to suffer shipwreck or to reach a happy haven, remains to be proved. In lieu of my wonted yarn, I send details of the present state of affairs which have just been forwarded, by the Overland Mail, from Ling Long, the anchorage of H. M. Ship Melville.

In haste, yours,
AGAMEMNON.

THE LAIRD OF COW-LOONS,

Negotiation done into verse, by CHARLES FROTHY, Esq., &c. &c.

TUNE,

"There was an old chap, in the West Countree."

I am the Governor of Hong Kong,
But I do not think I shall be so long,
And therefore good folks, I'll give you a song,
About my negotiations.

As I understand, that very soon
I shall simply write my name Cow-loon,
Which you all must think but a trifling boon
For my negotiations.

If once made a Peer, I shall not care a Pin
For Lord Palmerston, or Commissioner Lin,
In my sleeve at the pair I shall heartily grin,
Hurrah for negotiations.

I had scarcely landed and taken Chusan,
When the Mandarins found I was just the man,
So with pens, ink, and paper, we forthwith began
Milk and water negotiations.

The ships once got as far as the great Peiko,
Where I might have struck a most terrible blow,
Prostrating the Tartar pride quite low,
But preferred negotiations.

It was there that I met with the famed Ke-shin
Who civilly ask'd the old admiral, when
We return'd to Canton, to be gulled again
With fresh negotiations.

Having had at Chusan very little to do,
And finding the Chinamen fought with Samshoo,
On the wings of the western Monsoon we all flew,
To resume negotiations.

The fleet's left in charge of a Commodore,
Who thinks writing of Chops a species of bore,
He requires but my orders and nothing more,
To finish negotiations.

Ke-shin being tardy, I told the rogue
Sir Gordon would shortly visit the Bogue,
With some of the very best methods in vogue
For shortening negotiations.

The Imperial Envoy dreaded a row,
And felt disinclined to Bremer to bow,
So he witnessed the fate of ty-tock-tow,
And then hastened negotiations.

Folks say that the bargain's loosely made,
And differ with me on the law of blockade,
But all these trifles are thrown in the shade,
By my splendid negotiations.

Perhaps you will hear in time for next mail
The Emperor refuses to pay on the nail,
So I'll get for the opium Ke-shin or Lin's Tail,
And conclude my negotiations.

Should the opium merchants want their cash,
And fancy my doings in China rash,
With my taking title home I'll dash,
And cut future negotiations.

Cockpit, H. M. S. Melville, Hong Kong Bay, 24th Jan., 1841.

"BREATHE NOT HIS NAME."—A chip f aristocracy, living in the Broadway, had a very long and difficult name, and on a stranger trying to pronounce it t'other day, his tongue got entangled in his teeth, and he could not get it disengaged until some one advised him to spell the word backwards.—Yankee paper.

Andrew Henderson used to say of any lank person, "He's like laird Murdie's grews,(greyhounds) unca tame abaut the pouch-lids."—Laird of Logan.

MOFFAT'S

Vegetable Life Pills.

THESE Medicines are indebted for their name to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channells of life, and enduing them with renewed tone and vigor. In many hundred certified cases which have been made public, and in almost every species of disease to which the human frame is liable, the happy effects of MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS have been gratefully and publicly acknowledged by the persons benefitted, and who were previously unacquainted with the beautifully philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act.

The LIFE MEDICINE recommend themselves, in diseases of every form and description. Their first operation is too loosen from the coats of the stomach and bowels, the various impurities and crudities constantly settling around them, and to remove the hardened fæces which collect in the convolutions of the small intestines. Other medicines only partially cleanse these and leave such collected masses behind as to produce habitual costiveness, with all its train of evils, or sudden diarrhœa, with its imminent dangers. This fact is well known to all regular anatomists, who examine the human bowels after death; and hence the prejudice of these well-informed men against quack medicines—or medicines prepared and heralded to the public by ignorant persons. The second effect of the Life Medicines is to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder, and by this means the liver and the lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urinary organs.—The blood, which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and the lungs before it passes into the heart, being thus purified by them, and nourished by food coming from a clean stomach, courses freely through the veins, renews every part of the system, and triumphantly mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek.

Moffat's Vegetable Life Medicines have been thoroughly tested, and pronounced a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn and Headache, Restlessness, Ill-temper, Anxiety, Langour and Melancholy; Costiveness, Diarrhœa, Cholera, Fevers of all kinds; Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsies of all kinds, Gravel, Worms, Asthma and Consumption, Scurvy, Ulcers, Inveterate Sores, Scorbutic Eruptions and Bad Complexions, Eruptive complaints, Sallow, Cloudy, and other disagreeable Complexions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, common Colds and Influenza, and various other complaints which afflict the human frame. In FEVER and AGUE, particularly, the Life Medicines have been most eminently successful; so much so that in the Fever and Ague districts, Physicians almost universally prescribe them.

All that Mr. Moffat requires of his patients is to be particular in taking the Life Medicines strictly according to the directions. It is not by a newspaper notice, or by any thing that he himself may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by the results of a fair trial.

Moffat's Medical Manual, designed as a domestic guide to health.—This little pamphlet, edited by W. B. Moffat, 375 Broadway, New-York, has been published for the purpose of explaining more fully Mr. Moffat's theory of diseases, and will be found highly interesting to persons seeking health. It treats upon prevalent diseases, and the causes thereof. Price, 25 cents—for sale by Mr. Moffat's agents generally.

These valuable Medicines are for sale at the Circulating Library, in this city.

HEADACHE.

DR. E. SPOHN, a German Physician of much note, having devoted his attention for some years to the cure and removal of the causes of the NERVOUS AND SICK HEADACHE, has the satisfaction to make known, that he has a remedy which, by removing the causes, cures effectually and permanently this distressing complaint. There are many families who have considered Sick Headache a constitutional incurable family complaint. Dr. S. assures them they are mistaken, and laboring under distress which they might not only alleviate, but eradicate by the use of his remedy.

It is the result of scientific research, and is entirely of a different character from advertised patent medicines, and is not unpleasant to the taste.
