Poetry.

"THERE'S ONE OF US IN HEAVEN."

"Unto the stream," the Father said,
"The prize you seek is given,
Take heed, down in yonder bed
Is one with us in heaven."
"I went with joy to the appointed place,
And found it, indeed, a fearful place,
For death is with you, love, reading,
That in my pocket is clay, blood,
In life that's never ending!"

The word was said, the wreath unbound,
And gently down Death's river
The boat sped onward home.
To God the thankful giver
We commit that dear one to our heart
Who, by our side, had lived and striven,
And who, now in his Father's mansion,
Sound your requests in Heaven.

Where that where the palm trees spring
Beneath the ever green blossoms,
Where the ever green
Where the ever green
Where the ever green
