Lord Northcliffe On Seasickness

Gentlemen:—Your letter of the 14th of September reached me on my return to England from a journey to Newfoundland and back, during which I have seen and heard abundant evidence of the fact that Mothersill's Seasick Remedy appears to be, in nineteen cases out of twenty, an absolute cure for mal-de-mer, and also for what Americans call "Car-Sickness." I have taken it on many occasions, with excellent effect and no after-effect. You are quite at liberty to make use of this letter, as I think it a duty to express my opinion on the subject. Yours truly,

Happenings of the Week

Society this week was at its best. There are a number of visitors in the city and a certain amount of entertainment has been in their honor. Then there was the theatre, Canadian Club and skating. Drawing room teas are becoming more popular, the lack of formality and preparation makes them appear delightful. Hostesses are becoming very original and the decorations are worthy of special mention. The weather does seem a bit discouraging but the younger set is already counting on a better time for out of door sports next month.

Treatregoers this week had the very unusual advantage of hearing Edward Terry and his excellent company of English actors and actresses. Terry is wonderful, and his company gave him splendid support. He was at his best in Sweet Lavender, if it could be called best, as all were so good. Society turned out in full force nearly every evening and packed houses were the rule at every performance.

The Protestant Orphans' Home will hold a reception next Thursday evening from seven o'clock until ten, at the Home on Brittain street.

Mrs. J. Bright Cudlip entertained the friends of her daughter, Miss Edith Cudlip, on Tuesday evening of this week.

Ronald Leavitt, Herbert deVeber, Campbell McKay, Charles Inches, Ian MacLaren, Jim Hazen and Wallace Alward.

Quite a number attended the Monday evening skating club this week. The ice was not very good. Tea was served between the bands. Among the skaters noticed were Mr. Russell Sturdee, Mrs. Percy W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. Homer Forbes, Miss Vivien Barnes, Miss Nettie Bridges, Miss Frances Hazen, Miss Alice Green, Miss McAvenny, Miss Jean Trueman, Miss Jean White, Miss Kathleen McInerney and Miss Mary MacLaren.

Since John Quit Drinking

By John's Wife

I'm the happiest little woman,
In all this little town;
And my merry laugh and singing,
Takes the place of sigh and frown,
For JOHN HAS QUIT HIS DRINKING
And is like himself once more;
And the world is just a paradise
With such happiness in store!

One day I read some verses—
"Mary's Miracle," the name,
And I said, that's John exactly,
And I'll send and get the same.
So I sent for GOLDEN REMEDY,
(As sly as sly could be)
And I put it in John's supper
And I put it in his tea.

And it didn't taste a little bit;
Had no odor, so, you see—
It was smoothest kind of sailing
For little Doctor Me.
And I watched and prayed and waited,
(And cried some, too, I guess),
And I didn't have the greatest faith,
I'm ashamed now to confess.

And John never thought a minute,
He was being cured of drink,
And soon he's as well as any one,
It makes me cry to think!
Just makes me cry for gladness,
I'm so proud to be his wife—
Since he is cured of drinking,
And leads a nice, new life.

"Since John he quit a-drinking!"
I can't say it times enough!
And hates and loathes a liquor
As he would a poison stuff,
And when I say my prayers at night,
As thankful as can be—
I pray for John the most of all—
Then GOLDEN REMEDY.
