THIS IS THE KIND OF DOCTORS TO TIE TO.—A German physician has demonstration that early rising is a very bad habit. He has taken the trouble to collect information as to the habits in this respect of several persons who have lived to an advanced age, and he finds that in the majority of the cases the long livers have indulged in late hours. At least eight out of ten persons who attained the age of 80 years and upward were in the habit of not retiring until the early hours of the morning, and remaing in bed until the day was far advanced. On the other hand, he has failed to discover, after careful observation of the health of several early risers, that it was in any degree better than that of several late risers. He thinks that so far from any decided benefit being gained by getting up early in the morning, it rather tends to exhaust physical power and to shorten life.

A writer in the New York Sun on parasites in Mediterranean oranges and lemons says:—"The existence of this dreaded pest was well known to fruit dealers in this city more than thirty years ago, but never before has fruit from the Mediterranean been so thickly covered with parasites as during the last and present year, so much so as to seriously affect the price of lemons and oranges imported from those places. The only variety of West India oranges affected (slightly) by the parasite is imported from Kingston, Jamaica. The injury inflicted, or likely to be inflicted in future, on the Mediterranean lemons and oranges by this destructive insect, is a serious matter for contemplation, and unless an effective plan can be devised to check the growing evil, much loss will ultimately be sustained by growers. The value of lemons and oranges annually imported into New York exceeds $2,000,000.

England annexed the Fiji Islands, in the South Pacific, in 1874. Few are aware of their extent, beauty or fertility. A line drawn around them would describe a figure, the shortest diameter of which would be 260 miles, and the longest over 370. There are in all 250 islands, of which eighty are inhabited. The largest, Viti Levu, is 80 by 55 miles: Vanua Levu is 100 by 25 miles, Taviuni is 25 by 5 miles. The others are much smaller. The aggregate of the whole is greater than that of all the British West Indian Islands—Jamaica, Trinidad, and the Windward and Leeward Islands. They will grow every subtropical product. The Governor is Sir Arthur Gordon. The population is about 140,000. The people were, until a late date, cannibals of the worst character; still they are a stalwart, intellective race; keep themselves and their dwellings remarkably clean, and are capable of a great deal of labor. The Government of the islands is self-supporting; taxes are paid in kind. The Samoa group, upon which Germany is casting a wistful eye, is 300 miles from the Fiji.

A MAY DAY SKETCH.—Babel riding on a dray; rumble-tumble it is May; over all the land to-day this is what the voices say: "lookout, stranger! clear the track;" "tote them up and then come back;" where's that hammer?" "let me pass;" "Molly's mashed the looking-glass;" "come and help me!" "Johnny dear is putting pins into his ear;" "Where can that molasses go!" "take care! There! I told you so!" "Yes the jel; I fitted that right exactly in your hat;" "hurray up the kitchen chairs;" "Baby's tumbled down the stairs." "Here's the oil can; Jenny found it; my blue silk was wrapped around it;" "leave that mule, you reckless chile, he could kick you half mile;" "Oh stop singing!" "Come here, Brown, help me pull this stove pipe down; steady! wiggle it to the south—soot! Why don't you shut your mouth?" "Ow——! there's an awful mouse;" "Which of these can be the house?" "Oh I feel's if I could faint;" "it is!" "it ain't" "it is!" "it ain't!" "Higher! On the other shelf;" "you'er a fool!" "Go there yourself!" "Not a lock upon a door!" "Must we all sleep on the floor?" O, the dickens is to pay! Hurley-burley, it is May.

GODERICH TOWNSHIP.

A Picnic was held in connection with the school of section 2 Goderich Township at the Maitland River Falls on Friday last the 6th of June. In spite of the day being cold quite a number of the friends interested in that section put in an appearance along with the children and a very enjoyable picnic was the result. Before tea the teacher (Mr. Miller) and the children treated the company to some nice singing.

DUNGANNON.

The Sons of Temperance of this place were visited on the evening of the 10th inst., by a very large representation of the Goderich division, the hall being completely filled by members of the order. Refreshments having been served Bro. Gordon Sheriff W. P. of Goderich division occupied the chair and introduced a lengthy and well selected programme of dialogues, recitations, readings etc., all of which were rendered in a manner highly commendable to the ability of the members of that division. The proceedings were much enlivened by music vocal and instrumental. The division closed at a late hour all present being highly pleased with the sociable and pleasant way in which they spent the evening. —Com.

WILL ANCHOR AT

ODDFELLOWS' HALL,

On Wednesday Ev'g, June 11, 1879.

The following prologue has been written for the occasion by

SHERRIFF, THE PEOPLE'S TAILOR.

A Pinafore's a very useful thing
For little children with their chil h wants,
But Gordon Sheriff has a song to sing—
Not of a Pinafore, but $3 50 Pants.
Goderich Manufactures.

He's no "sheer hulk" old B ot-tin Bow'n—ie—
While on H. M. S. Pinafore he plants
His feet. Go hear him pipe all hands to—
And see them winter in $3.50 pants.
From Gordon Sheriff.

Go hear the Opera aye, by all means go,
Encourage native talent. Foreign rants,
And critters, should not have a Show
While Holman's Company wear $3.50 Pants.
From Gordon Sheriff.

Go hear Brandish sing the Mysterious
A strain superb—that very Penelopian boots
Murder on—Marc, 'em—Re-order—Victory—
He's got all wear the famed $1 50 Pants.
Made by Pe Sherriff.

The charming Sallie, and sweet Julia too
Like sky larks, with their cheery morn perhaps,
Brings glories a to the hearts—if not a few—
So Sheriff does with his $1.50 pants.
At Gordon Sheriff's.

Let all turn out on Wednesday morning—
You'll hear what you've not heard for many weeks
And in thy pondering—when you pass
by Gordon—see the boss $3.50 breeks
At Gordon Sheriff's.

NEW MILLS

on the old PIPER MILL property

The subscriber would respectfully inform the farmers in the surrounding country and the people of the town of Goderich, that the above Mills are now completed and in good working order for Gristing and Flouring, also for Chopping. And as the subscriber himself is a practical miller he hopes to be able to give general satisfaction here as he has given where he has milled hitherto. He asks a fair trial.

☞ Flour delivered in any part of the Town without extra charge.
