GENTLEMEN,

Your flattering communication gratifies me much, not that I had previously any doubt of your support at the ensuing Election, but because, coming as it does from so many of the influential inhabitants of this section of the County; it gives me assurance that those who know me best, entertain for me an affectionate regard, and have confidence in my integrity, independence and zeal for promoting the true interests of the Country.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient Servant,
ROBERT THOMSON.

To Col. Hugh MacKay, J.C.P. and others.

To the Independent Freeholders of the COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

Gentlemen,

You are once more about to exercise the highest privilege of British subjects; that, of chosing persons to represent you in the Legislature of the Country—and I beg most respectfully to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages on that important occasion.

After a residence of twenty years among you, you cannot be unacquainted with my political opinions; nor, can you doubt from my past conduct my inclination to promote the public good. I am aware that [illegible] Candidates for public favour; to promise much, when they [illegible] to perform little. Such however has not been the plan hitherto pursued by me, nor do I intend to resort to it now. Should I be distinguished by the honourable Choice at the ensuing Election, I pledge myself to use my best exertions to promote your interests, which are identified with my own, and that, neither Executive influence nor any opposition shall ever, prevent me from doing all in my power to advance the prosperity of the Province in General, and to promote the various interests of this County in particular.

I should have had much pleasure, in paying my respects to you in person; but, as it is impossible (owing to the advanced state of the season and the shortness of the notice,) to wait upon each of you, a call upon a few, might appear invidious; and is at variance with my feelings of equal respect for every upright Freeholder, what ever may be his situation in life. This must be my apology for the omission of the usual observances on such occasions.

I am Gentlemen, most respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
ROBERT THOMSON.

St. George, N. B., 9th December, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTE.

The Subscriber again offers himself as a Candidate to represent you in the next General Assembly.

The past conduct of a Member, furnishes the best assurance of his future course. By this every Candidate should be tried, and his sentence should be in accordance with the result of such trial.

In the case of new Candidates other considerations must of course govern the choice of the Electors.

The present crisis in our public affairs is important, and demands the selection of men in whose fidelity to their interests, the constituency have good reason to confide.

Your most Obedient,
and Humble Servant,
GEORGE S. HILL.

16th December, 1842.

To the Independent Electors of
CHARLOTTE COUNTY.

Gentlemen,

Having received a Requisition from a number of respectable Freeholders of the County, wishing me to come forward as a Candidate at the approaching Election, I have even at this late hour, thought it my duty to comply with their wishes, and shall therefore place myself before you at the Hustings, with a lively hope that you will, after calmly deliberating upon unbiased principle, judge me worthy of your confidence.

I wish it to be understood that I feel myself independent of the frowns or threats of every fellow creature, and wish you to exercise a similar spirit in giving your Votes according to your own judgment, which is the most noble privilege allowed a British subject.

I cannot but consider it unfortunate that I am less known to you than most others who have come out on similar occasions, but as that has been owing to the nature of my occupation, that of a Farmer, which occupies me chiefly at home, I hope it may prove no detriment on this occasion, it, however, puts me under the necessity of saying more about myself, than I should otherwise do, and will accordingly state that I was born among you in this county under the British Government, which I consider the best in the world.

Among its loyal Inhabitants I have industriously spent my days, and have passed the middle age of man, without any reproachful charge having been made against my character.

I am fully aware of the heavy charge that will devolve upon a new House, in settling the embarrassed affairs of the Province. Should you consider that the share of integrity or abilities I am possessed of, can be instrumental in furthering that object, then you will accord me your free voluntary votes which is all I ask. And remain, Gentlemen,

Truly your Friend,
JOSHUA KNIGHT.

Pennfield, 19th December, 1842.

To the Independent Electors of the COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

Gentlemen,

I am a Candidate for your Votes at the approaching Election, under the assurance that a considerable number of you intend to continue my services as your Representative in General Assembly.

From the experience of thirty years as one of the working men of the County, I have obtained a thorough knowledge of your character—your wants—your circumstances, and condition; and from my daily services during fifteen Legislative Sessions, you have had ample means of forming a correct opinion of my Public conduct.

I hope therefore to meet you, not as strangers, but as old acquaintances, and am ready and willing, either to continue my services, or retire, as you in your wisdom may decide.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Your Faithful Servant,
JAMES BROWN.

To the FREEHOLDERS of the
COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

Gentlemen,

By the dissolution of the present House of Assembly, another opportunity is afforded you of electing Representatives, to serve you in the next.

In coming again before you, for your suffrages, I wish it to be distinctly understood, that I do so at the desire and request of a very large proportion of the constituency of both Town and County.

I am not as has been said by some, thrusting myself among you for support at the ensuing contest, I come before you, because I have every reason to believe that I shall be welcome, and because I know, and as most of you have been pleased to say, that I have done my duty.

Gentlemen, I am not now nor never have been a time server, I stand forward as a man of the People—as a man determined to support their rights and privileges, regardless of the frowns or sneers of the few, who would be the rulers of the land. In conclusion let me say, I have my enemies, they also are your enemies; do not let them defeat you,—be stirring—be at the Polls—do your duty—and I will do mine.

It was my intention had the Election commenced at an earlier period of the year, to have made you all a personal call, but the lateness of the season, will not allow me to do so but in a very partial manner, and which I trust you will not construe into disrespect.

With best wishes for yourselves and families, believe me to be,

Your most devoted, and
Obedient Servant,
JAMES BOYD.

To the FREEHOLDERS of the
COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

Gentlemen,

The House of Assembly of this Province having been dissolved, you are again called upon to exercise one of the most important privileges conferred by the British Constitution, that of electing fit and proper persons to represent you in our Provincial Parliament, and this too, at a time, when from the state of public affairs in the Province, it peculiarly behoves you to choose with judgment and discretion.

I should not, at such a time have voluntarily offered myself to your choice, feeling myself incompetent I fear, properly to discharge the duties which will devolve on your Representative; but having received a REQUISITION from some of my fellow townsmen, and been urged by many of you in other parts of the County to offer as a Candidate, I am induced to do so, and therefore solicit your suffrages and support at the approaching Election.

Should I succeed in becoming one of your Representatives, I can only say, that as far as my humble abilities can be of use, they shall be at your service; and that I shall endeavour fearlessly and independently, to promote the interests of the County I represent.

I am Gentlemen,
Your faithful Servant,
GEO. D. STREET.

WILLIAM KER.

St. Andrews New Brunswick, Dec. 8, 1842

To the FREEHOLDERS of the
COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

Gentlemen,

I am informed by high authority, that there will be an Election in the ensuing month for a new House of Assembly, under the Quadrennial or four yearly bill passed last session. The last election I pledged my services to you for seven years which have not expired; and you have also my pledge to offer myself to you again, under circumstances which it is said will occur. Therefore, I feel myself bound to redeem my word, and do hereby offer myself to your consideration, and solicit your votes to return me as one of the Representatives for our County to the ensuing House of Assembly.

My political principles, I believe, are well understood by you all, I shall therefore only say that I am naturally a Friend of the People, because I am but one of them—I am a decided enemy to every tax on the people, because they would all be unnecessary under a wise administration. I abhor all corruption, and the lavish and improvident expenditure of the public wealth such as was shamelessly exhibited during the late administration of this Province, which has left us most heavily burdened. I will oppose with all my ability, all associations and conspiracies against the public weal or social order, peace and good will among all classes of society in this Province. I know no enemy, and am opposed to none, but the Devil and his willing associates. I have known and been associate on public service, with the present Chief Administrator of our Province, more than thirty years, and am well acquainted with his integrity and talents, both far above my commendation; and will support with all my ability, every measure (with a very few and trivial exceptions) proposed from him during last session of the legislature, if again submitted for our consideration.

Many of our body, my friends will be disfranchised by the present Election law, because their appearance at the places of Polling, will so many be impossible, and to many more be too expensive and uncertain. A new election law will therefore be necessary, and for which I will propose or support any bill to extend the elective franchise to all Leaseholders, who contribute to the support of our Government, in conformity with the principles now in operation in our Mother country.

I hold a very honorable situation, and am entrusted with the conduct of a very important service under the Home Government, and quite independant of the Province Treasury; which service has the benefit of this and our sister Province, for its exclusive object. This service at a very heavy expence to the Mother Country, resulted from the intense interest felt for the welfare of this Province, by His Excellency our Governor. Nevertheless my situation leaves me as independent of the Provincial Government as of Henry O'Neil the butcher, whom I am proud also to reckon among my friends, whose votes and interest I now solicit at the ensuing election.

Messrs. ROSS AND DRYDEN, AND Mr. T. WYER junior, have been good enough to offer their services to wait upon the Electors of the County, on my behalf, and I shall be obliged by your giving them, a favorable reception on my behalf, as the public service, requires my absence to Washington for some time.

W. F. W. OWEN,
A Freeholder of Charlotte County, N. B.
