WHY HAVE TURKEYS NO FUTURE STATE OF EXISTENCE?

Because they have their necks twirled (next world) in this. Why do so many smart dressers go to Crawford's for their tailoring? Because they get fine, imported materials, tailored in first-class style, more reasonably at Crawford's than anywhere else in Toronto.

EX-TORONTO PLAYERS HELPED.

Dineen and Freeman Were Boston Stars Against Pittsburg.

Dineen of Boston was in great form in the final game, and held the Pirates down to a few scattered hits. He did his best work when the shoe pinched, but can thank Criger for getting out of two tight holes. One was in the fourth innings. Leach was on third, having reached it on the hit-and-run game, with Hans Wagner on first. Wagner started to steal second. Criger made a feint to throw to second. The bluff made Leach start for the plate. That was what Criger wanted, for he shot the ball back to Collins, who returned it in time to nail Wee Tom at home. Again, in the sixth, by a very lazy throw, Criger caught Phillippe napping at first base after Beaumont had fanned.

It was a fast game and full of good features. The ground was soft and muddy, making the footing insecure, the fielding was very sharp, Leach, Collins, Parent, Beaumont and Sebring doing splendid work. Parent's running backward one-hand catch in the opening innings was magnificent, and Leach's fast play of a bunt by Collins was a very fine display of speedy fielding and thinking.

In the fourth the Bostons practically decided the game by scoring two runs. Freeman raised a terrific din by clouting out a three-bagger to the ropes. Parent's bunt went safe, as Phelps was too eager to field it. On La Chance's out Parent advanced. Then Ferris came to the rescue with a terrific drive over Hitchcy's head, scoring both Freeman and Parent. In the sixth, on La Chance's three-bagger and a single by Ferris, the Bostons scored their third run. The crowd acted like crazy men after the game, and elevated Collins, Dineen, Freeman, Ferris and other players on their shoulders.

Queen City Pigeon Club.

The Queen City Homing Pigeon Association flew its sixth and last race on its schedule for young birds off on Saturday, from Charlotte, Mich., to Toronto, a distance of 396 miles. William Taggart, National Express agent, wired that he released the pigeons at 7.03 a.m., standard time; no wind; weather clear. The race proved to be the most disastrous flight ever flown by this association, owing no doubt to the strong cold northeast wind blowing. Not one pigeon out of 59 returned the same day. The pigeons to arrive at their lofts on Sunday were T. Sander's Shorty, at 9.26 a.m.; J. Bustin's fleet, at 11.30 a.m. and O. Parm's & J. Marsh's White Cap, at 1.34 p.m. G. Newburry, J. Platt, A. Burgess, W. Knight, C. Stirly, G. North, B. Helghington and W. Smithson had no returns when the two days' time limit expired. J. Platt proved to be the winner of the handsome silver medal donated to the association by an admirer of the pigeons, to the member making the most points from the 100, 200 and 300 mile race. Mr. Platt won the 100 and 200 mile races.

The fastest of the horses from the Belle Mead stud were sold yesterday at Sheepshead Bay. The top price was $3500, paid by R. Ellis for Tella Ponsa.

Tom Corbiz, the Dunkirk welterweight boxer, who was to have met Mike Ward, the Canadian champion, for Port Huron next Wednesday night, had a rib displaced in Buffalo yesterday while training with Al Limerick, the Buffalo giant. Corbiz's physician says he cannot box for three weeks, and a postponement has been asked for.

SEIZURE OF KITTY D.

W. M. German, for Owners, Argued She Was in Yankee Waters.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—Judge Hodgins of the Vice-Admiralty Court to-day heard argument of counsel in the case arising out of the seizure of the Kitty D., an American fishing boat, by the Canadian revenue cutter Petrel. W. M. German, K.C., Welland, for the owners of the Kittie D., argued that the boat was well within American waters at the time of the seizure; that the international line was 11½ miles from either shore; that the seizure was nearer the American shore than were the nets of the Kittie D., which were later searched to see if they had come from the American shore. Newcombe, K.C., Deputy Minister of Justice, and Mr. Kinnear of Port Colborne, appeared for the Crown, and argued that the Petrel was sailing in an ascertained course, and, according to nautical calculations, was in Canadian waters at the time of the seizure. C. H. Ritchie, K.C., Toronto, held a watching brief for the United States. Judgment was reserved.
