PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

Inviting the co-operation of Christians to extend the circulation of THE MONTHLY ADVOCATE, we commence its publication with an issue of 1,000 copies. We would esteem it a special favor, if all those who receive copies of this Magazine, would show it to their friends, and endeavour to establish clubs in their localities. It is only in the anticipation of a large patronage that we feel justified in offering the inducements stated below.

Regarding the principle upon which the ADVOCATE is established see "Introductory Remarks." In addition to the general Editorial Department, a special Editor will have charge of the Youths' Column, which will be found an interesting feature of the Magazine. The Home Circle will have a prominent place devoted to its interests. Missionary and other religious intelligence will be given from month to month. Original articles will be contributed by able writers at home and abroad. Current literature, passing events, &c., will be duly noticed in its columns.
