Toronto Team to Play Cornwall.

The team that will represent the Toronto Lacrosse Club to-morrow in the game with the Cornwalls at the Island will be selected this evening. The twelve will have several changes from the last game. The personel of the Cornwall team is not known yet either, but the visitors intend to bring along with them the strongest team they have yet placed in the field this season. They do not consider themselves as out of the race for the championship yet and will come prepared to make the local team work every minute of the time. A despatch from the Factory Town says that the Cornwalls are quite confident that they can trim the Toronto. They did it last season on the Rosedale grounds, and they claim to believe that history will repeat. The reserved seat plan for the game is on view at Harold A. Wilson's, West King street.

Brampton Won at Georgetown.

Georgetown, July 10.—The championship C. L. A. match here to-day, between Georgetown and Brampton, resulted in a victory for Brampton by 6 goals to 5. Orr of Toronto acted as referee.

Senior League To-Morrow.

There will be lots of baseball of the real genuine kind on the old U.C.C. grounds to-morrow in the Senior League series. The acquisition of champion Heintzmans has placed the league on a good footing, and there is every indication that the two games to-morrow will be replete with fast plays. The clever fielding Cadets, with Jeff Blakey in the box, will contest on a 2 o'clock fixture with the Crescents. Claude Armstrong will serve up the benders for the champions. In the second game, the Heintzmans, who will make their first appearance, will have the Park Nine as their opponents. Molson and Pickard, for the former, and Stevens and Williamson, for the latter, will be the batteries.

ATTACK OF NATIONALISTS

Dillon Declares Irish Constabulary Does Not Prevent Crime, But Creates It.

REAL CRIMINAL ATTORNEY-GENERAL

Government Charged With Jury Packing—Vote to Cut Estimates Defeated.

London, July 10.—The vote on the Irish estimates in the House of Commons to-day furnished the Nationalists with an opportunity for an attack on the British administration of Ireland and the operations of the Irish constabulary, which body of men John Dillon (Nationalist) declared were maintained not to prevent crime, but to create it. Mr. Dillon specified instances where, he alleged, force was instrumental in obtaining the conviction and imprisonment of innocent persons, and charged the government with winking at these malpractices in order to obtain justification for its policy of coercion.

T. P. O'Connor (Nationalist) declared that, politically speaking, the real criminal was the Attorney-General for Ireland, the Right Hon. J. Atkinson, because he practised jury-packing.

Sir Robert T. Reid (Liberal) said he considered the action of the Irish police to be dastardly, adding that it has been admitted that they were a discredit to the Irish executive. He further asserted that matters would never be remedied until self-government for Ireland put an end to jury-packing.

This brought Attorney-General Atkinson to his feet with a hot retort that Sir Robert, who now professed such lofty and noble sentiments, had remained for three years a member of the administration, and had indulged in jury-packing to an extent unknown to the present government.

The Chief Secretary for Ireland, Geo. Wyndham, admitted that there was much truth in what Mr. Dillon had said in regard to specific cases, but the charges were not applicable to the whole police force.

After further debate, Mr. Dillon's motion to reduce the estimates was defeated by 195 to 102 votes.
