Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.,

READ the Holiday advertisements.

THE TOBOGAN SLIDE is to be opened for the season this evening.

THE LONDON HOUSE holiday sale offers special inducements to house keepers.

MR FENTON, who succeeds Messrs Ferguson & Co, advertises an attractive holiday stock.

MR STREET of Newcastle makes a splendid display of useful and fancy holiday goods.

PRESENTS for friends, suitable and appropriate for the season are announced by Messrs. Harris and Son.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.—Keep your feet warm and your doctor's bills will be small. Nicol can fit you out with a good warm rig.

ENLARGED.—The Telegraph, which only a few days since appeared in a new dress, is now much enlarged to accommodate its increased advertising patronage.

"THE ST. JOHN "GLOBE" has celebrated its first quarter century as a daily by issuing a triple sheet which is a credit to the journalism of the Maritime Provinces. The Globe is fully up to the times in every respect

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.—The schools in Dist. No. 8, Chatham will be examined as follows:—Miss Baldwin's and Miss Creighton's, this (Thursday) morning, commencing at 10 o'clock; The Convent schools this (Thursday) afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock.

"NEWCASTLE ENQUIRER" requests us to ask the President of the Liberal-Conservative-Independent-Mutual-Benefit Association what is done with the little lots of coal that are being conveyed in the early mornings from the Lockup of the shiretown to the engine house?

THE RINK.—Ice is being made at the Chatham Skating Rink, ready for Christmas. The Directors have not yet determined exactly the manner in which they will arrange for the winter's amusement but will probably be in a position to do so in a very short time.

UNUSUAL.—Mr Henry Burbridge of Shippegan informs us that he has two mackerel which were picked up on the shore there, one on the first and the other on the second of December. They are respectively 6½ and 7 inches long. He reports that others were also found by neighbors. Mackerel in the Bay Chaleur so late in the season are unusual.

A NICE CHRISTMAS GIFT, and one that will be appreciated by father, mother, sister or brother, would be a pair of good warm Overshoes. Nicol has some splendid ones, fresh stock.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Friday last Mr. Michael Driscoll of the Bathurst road cut his foot very badly while at work in the woods, over a mile from his home. Although the foot was almost severed he managed to reach home unaided and was brought to the Hotel Dieu, Chatham.

HIP, LA!—The Advocate of last week gave a prominent editorial place to the following paragraph—

"We can't expect much from the year 1887. Fifteen two, fifteen four and a pair make six, while Father Time may take one for 'his nobs.' However, we'll patiently wait and see what it has for us in its 'crib.'

That reads very much as if the G. W. P. had been attending a "sylvan social."

THE DALHOUSIE FIRE was much more severe in its results to Mr George Haddow then first reports indicated. The insurance investigation showed his loss to have been over $11,000, instead of $7,000 while the insurance was only $4000. General regret is expressed and sympathy felt for Mr Haddow, who was one of the foremost men of the North Shore, and it is hoped that he will soon be on his feet again.

BUSINESS TROUBLE.—Joseph Poirier of Grand Anse, Gloucester Co., has assigned to Mr. John Sivewright of Bathurst for the benefit of his creditors. He has not, by the assignment, made any preferences, but local creditors have been otherwise secured. His liabilities are about $7,000 and assets small, The estate will probably pay 20c on the dollar. W. C. Winslow, Esq. Barrister, of Chatham, has been in Bathurst looking after the interests of creditors.

CONFISCATIONS of fish and game shipped in contravention of the law are becoming quite frequent of late. A heavy seizure of this kind was made at Derby on Tuesday by Overseer Hogan. It consisted, we hear, of partridges, salmon, etc., the salmon according to the Overseer's view, being of the fall run and, therefore, caught during the close season. The value of the car load is put at nearly $1,000. We hope the shippers will be able to show that their intentions were not to evade the law, as claimed by the officer, although the circumstances seem against them.

AGAIN:—The Advocate announced last week that the Indiantown Branch had been opened. A paragraph of similar import had appeared quite often in the same paper on previous occasions, but it always turned out to be a false alarm. This time, however, it appears the running of trains for a few weeks has been determined upon. The railway people were opposed to opening the road, and we had it from very good authority that they never intended to do so. The pressure was too great, however, especially after we had exposed their intentions, and the temporary arrangement above refrred to is the result.

THE HIGH TEA and fancy sale in the Johnstone School House, Napan, by the ladies of St John's Church came off on Monday evening and was a great success. A large number went out from Chatham and, notwithstanding the prevailing snow-storm, report that they had a delightful time. Much credit is due to the ladies of Napan for the fine spread provided, which was first class in quality and abundant in quantity. The sale department was in a temporarily constructed annex which was also attractive The net proceeds were more than $100.

THE CHORAL UNION met for its first music-practice in Temperance Hall, Chatham, on Tuesday evening. The attendance was large. Although the new stock of Music books had not arrived several anthems and other selections were sung, and two hours pleasantly and profitably spent. Owing to the Temperance [illegible] evening's practice, Mrs S. [illegible] kindly offered the Union a suitable room at her residence, and the regular meeting of next week will, therefore, take place there. The selections to be taken up will be from "The Messiah" together with one or two Secular pieces "Here in Cool Grot," "Winds Whistle Cold" etc. Several new members presented themselves on Tuesday evening.

THE TORY LEADERS went out to Black River on Saturday night to organize a parish association there. Included in the party were Messrs. John Galloway, Michael Cowhig, Daniel Desmond, J. L. Stewart, Michael Doyle, Jas. T. Connors and Wm Muirhead. The Advocate says that the meeting organized itself into a "liberal conservative" association, Mr. Donald McBeath being elected President Mr. Andw. White, vice President and Mr. Wm. V. Ullock, Secretary. Speeches, says the Advocate, were made by Messrs. John Galloway, J. L. Stewart and Mr. McBeath. We are informed that other gentlemen to whom it makes no reference also had the floor and that the mistake was again made of electing at least one man to office who refused to serve.

INTERFERING WITH AN OFFICER.—A few days ago Fishery Overseer Wm. Irving went to the smelt fishing stand of Mr. Jas. Currie for the purpose of having him take out a license as required by the fishery regulations. He was treated as an intruder however and in attempting to seize a net was assaulted and badly beaten. He, thereupon, applied to the Police Magistrate for a warrant for Currie, charging him with aggravated assault He also entered complaint against Thomas Currie for using abusive language to him. The latter was fined $2 and costs and Jas. Currie's case was sent up to the County Court for trial. Mr. Tweedie has raised some new points in connection with the matter and will make it lively for the prosecution, no doubt. If Fishery matters were more reasonably managed we have no doubt that they would work more smoothly.

THE ADAMS MINE.—The Leadville Chronicle of 27th Nov, reports the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Adams Mining Co. The net profits of the year were $235,032.39. The thanks of the stockholders were voted to the Manager—Mr Samuel Adams—and the Board of Directors was requested to reappoint him as Manager at an increased salary. The same paper says:—

Mr. Arthur D. Williams, who attended the Adams stockholders' meeting yesterday, it appears, was delegated by New York parties for the express purpose of securing a board of directors inimical to James Dunne, the late secretary of the company. The object of this opposition is not stated, and the only explanation that can be offered is the fact that through Mr. Dunne important neighboring properties have been antagonized, and the interests of the Adams imperiled. If this statement is true the company is to be congratulated on the prospective change in the office of secretary.

A FIRE ALARM about seven o'clock on Wednesday evening of last week was caused by what proved to be a narrow escape for Mr. Timothy McCarthy, wheelwright and ladder maker, who lives in apartments on the upper floor of his workshop on Church Street, near the Station road. Living alone it is his custom to retire early, and on Wednesday evening he lay down, leaving his lamp lighted and a brisk fire in the stove near his bed. A lot of clothing was on a rack, near which the lamp was placed. Whether from the heat of the stove or some other cause the oil in the lamp exploded and set fire to the clothing which blazed up quickly. Some passers by saw the fire through the window and gave an alarm, breaking open the door and assisting Mr. McCarthy with snow and water to extinguish the flames. The damage done was not great but it was fortunate that the fire did not occur at a later hour when assistance might not have been so promptly on the spot.

It is expected that the match, married vs single will be played as soon as the one now on is decided.

Let's Have a Look at Him!

We did not receive last week's Advocate in time to notice in the ADVANCE of 9th, its remarks headed, "a game of bluff." In our edition of 2nd we published the following statement made by the Advocate of 1st:—

"It was only a few months ago that a prominent gentleman, who was appointed president of the liberal association of Chatham without ever being consulted in the matter, epudiated the action of that body with indignation. The editor of the Advance on that occasion, we believe, came up to Newcastle to induce the above mentioned gentleman to change his opinion."

Our comment on the above was as follows:—

"The above is correct with the following exceptions. No prominent gentleman save the one who now occupies the position was ever named as the president of the Liberal association. Consequently no such gentleman ever repudiated such action of that body with indignation or otherwise; the editor of the ADVANCE never went to Newcastle to induce the gentleman refered to to change his opinion or to make any [illegible] statement of the Advocate [illegible] that paper. It desires anybody to believe anything it says, hereafter must give the name of the gentleman referred to and also state exactly what he says. Who is the man? Let us have his statement, clear and unequivocal. We are anxious to know who the inventor of the story is and the extent to which a certain molehill is being magnified into a mountain."

The Advocate of the 8th weakened as follows:—

A GAME OF BLUFF.—We made the statement last week that a prominent gentleman in Newcastle had been appointed "president" of the Liberal Association at Chatham without his knowledge, which he afterwards refused to accept, and that the editor of the Advance had besought him to reconsider his refusal. We wrote the word "vice president," but the compositor accidently left out the word "vice" and the "vigilant" proof-reader also overlooked it. The Advance takes this error for the basis of a long-winded denial, and says he is "anxious to know who the inventor of the story is." The Advance as well as the general public know who the gentleman is, as the whole circumstance was published in the Advocate at the time it occurred. The editor of the Advance also knows that he afterwards had a conversation with the gentleman referred to with the object of inducing him to reconsider his action, and that the gentleman positively refused. The bellowings of the Advance editor about bringing the statement home in the same "bluff game" he has always used when he gets in a tight place.

It will be observed that the Advocate makes some ingenious changes in its original statement, and it hopes that between these and its charges against its compositor and proof-reader it will escape the consequences of its unfounded assertions. We now beg to state that our denial of last week applies fully to the Advocate's change of base. No such officer was named and declined nomination; no such gentleman repudiated such action of the Chatham Liberal Association; the editor of the ADVANCE never went to Newcastle to induce the gentleman to reconsider his action, nor did he ever have any such conversation as referred to by the Advocate with anyone. The fact that the Advocate will not name the person on whose authority its statement is made indicates that it has either made the story out of nothing, or been imposed upon by some fellow who has been drawing a long bow in order to make himself of consequence in the eyes of his associates. Who is the man? Give us his name and his statement! Is he ashamed of his identity, or is he "a false creation of the heat oppressed brain" of Brudder Gardiner?" If the Advocate expects people to believe its statements hereafter, it must clear this matter up. Its indirect references will not do. Ananias' fate should warn it. Evasion of the points on which we challenge it must be abandoned. Shimei or Rabshekah would wilt over being caught at such nubbling prevarication. The great wriggler must steer a straight course for once. If anyone stuffed our contemporary with the yarn it has published and is now forbidding it to disclose his name, that ought to convince it of the righteousness of exposing him, for no man claiming to be respectable is justified in imposing upon others for his own glorification; and the wrong seems the greater when the attempt is made on people of the Advocate's simplicity—not to say imbecility. In any case we hope to get at the truth, and beg of the Advocate to either give us the facts, admit it was hoaxed, or candidly state that it invented the story, or was oblig d, by party exigencies to publish it after some friend had done the inventing.

Demurrage.

HARLEY, MATHEW, & CO. v. STEWART AND ANOTHER.

On Friday, the 10th inst., this case was concluded before Mr. Justice Grove and a special Jury in the Queen's Bench Division. The hearing lasted four days.

The owners of the steamship Gwalia were the plantiffs, and Messrs. R. A. & J. Stewart, merchants, of Cardiff and St. John, (N. B.), were the defendants. The action was brought to recover a sum of £393 6s. 3 l., alleged to be due from the defendants as charterers of the Gwalia, which was loaded at Bathurst with deals, battens, and boards for the east coast, and with reference to the amount claimed for balance of freight the defendants admitted their liability and paid £214 into Court. Sir W. Phillimore, Q. C., and Mr. Aspinall appeared for the plantiffs; and Mr. B. F. Williams, Q. C., and Mr. Jones for the defendants.

The main question at issue in the action was as to liability of the defendants for six days' demurrage at £30 per day. The cargo was to be delivered and taken from alongside the steamer as fast as required by the master during ordinary working hours. Demurrage at the rate of £30 was to be paid to the steamer if longer delayed.

The plaintiffs stated that the loading might and should have been completed in six, whereas it occupied fourteen days. It was contended that if any delay occured it was not due to any fault or omission on the part of the defendants, but arose through the state of the weather, or in consequence of the refusal of plaintiffs' captain to grant reasonable facilities for expediting the work.

The learned Judge having summed up, the jury retired to consider their verdict and were locked up from 1.30 till 4 o'clock, but being unable to agree they were discharged.—Timber Trades Journal Nov. 27.

Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

The New Brunswick Trading Company of London. Limited.

The general meeting of the shareholders of this company was held at their offices, 147, Fenchurch Street, on the 19th inst., when there were present Messrs. John Rideal, John T. Matthews, G. H. Sawtell, William Tucker, Joseph Parsons, Nathaniel Bridges, James Hawes; J. C. Darby, A. J. Tucker, L. L. Bevan, and others. The directors submitted their report and statement of accounts for the past year. The gross profits amounted to £17,849 9s. 7d., and after providing for all charges, working expenses, salaries, rents, &c., and writing off half the preliminary expenses, viz., £750, there remained a net profit of £10 797 3s. 5d. for appropriation.

Out of this (after providing for 6 per cent. dividend on the preference shares) a dividend of 8 per cent. on the ordinary shares was declared, leaving a balance of £3,362 5s 5d, the balance, subject to directors' remuneration, being carried forward to the next account. The two retiring directors, Mr. Richard Geo. Guy and Mr. Jonathan C. Darby, were re-elected for the ensuing year. The auditors, Messrs. Prideaux, Booker, and Frere, were also re-elected.

It was stated at the meeting that the company had done a large business in the United States, and arrangements were being made for doing still more in that direction.

General satisfaction was expressed by the meeting at the present favourable position of the company and its prospects. —Timber Trades Journal, Nov. 27.

VOTERS' LISTS.

Beginning with this number of the ADVANCE, we intend to publish the lists of Voters for Northumberland, as prepared by the Revising Officer under the Dominion Franchise Act, omitting, of course, some of the particulars given in the official list, such as the situation of qualifying property, names of relatives, where qualification is derived through them, etc. The order in which the districts will be placed, will be that in which they appear in the official list, as follows:—

Newcastle, Nos. 1, 1½, 2, 2½, 3.——Chatham, Nos. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.——Ludlow, No. 9.——Blissfield, 10.——Blackville, 11, 12——Derby, 13.——Northesk, 14.——Parts of Northesk and Southesk, 15, 16.——Nelson, 17, 18.——Glenelg, 19, 20.——Hardwicke, 21.——Alnwick, 22, 23, 24.——Rogersville, 25.

We shall continue to publish the lists each week (in the order above given) until all are disposed of. It will, probably, take about six weeks to publish the whole. We shall print no extra copies of the paper, above those required for our regular patrons and to fill any orders that may be received a week in advance of publishing day, so parties who may wish to secure the numbers containing the lists will do well to order at once. The cost of the numbers containing the complete lists for the County will be 25cts.

In this issue will be found three lists for the parish of Newcastle, together with the boundaries of each.

The names which have no figures attached are those of voters who are qualified either as owners of real property or upon income.

The figure, 1, denotes that the voter is qualified as the son or other relative of owner.

The figure 2, denotes that the qualification is that of tenant.

An asterisk (*) denotes a voter who is a non-resident.
