Miss Georgie Young has returned to her studies at Smith College.

Mrs. F. P. McColl and Miss Hazel Grimmer, of St. Andrews, were in town during the past week for a brief visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McWha are occupying the Lockary house on Prince William Street.

James Inches, of the 64th Battalion, now at Sussex, has been in town for several days on recruiting business.

Mrs. John Derby, who has been visiting her father, Mr. C. H. Clerke, for several weeks, has returned to her home in New York City.

Miss Etta DeWolfe has returned from a visit in Margaretsville, N. S.

Miss Ramona Osburn left on Saturday evening for Cambridge, Mass., to resume her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay are occupying their new house on Church Street.

Private Leonard Webber arrived from England on Thursday last. He was a member of the 26th Battalion, but his health failed him when in England, and after a severe medical examination, he with others was ordered back to Canada. He is to spend six months at Reid Glade Sanitorium for treatment for tuberculosis. It is a bitter disappointment to Private Webber that he is unable to continue his duty to his King and the Empire. He stood the hard drilling as long as his strength permitted and has returned home, hoping to regain his health that he may again join his regiment.

Mrs. J. D. Lawson has been elected chairman of a committee to take charge of the "soldiers comforts" sent to the trenches by the St. Stephen Women's Canadian Club.

The employees of Ganong Bros. Ltd., Candy Factory, are now working in the evenings making candy for the Christmas trade.

Miss Marjorie Clarke, of St. Andrews, has been a recent guest of Mrs. George J. Clarke.

Mr. David F. Maxwell, C. E., spent Sunday in town with his family.

Mr. George H. Owen, of Portland, Me., was in town last week to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Jennie Laflin.

Miss Sarah Keating has returned from a pleasant visit with St. George friends.

Miss Bertha McLellan has accepted a position in Walter L. Grimmer's confectionery store.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bolz, of Dorchester, Mass., have been visiting friends at Oak Bay this week. They expect to leave for their home the last of the week.

The Women's Canadian Club of St. Stephen, has donated the sum of $25.00 towards purchasing an automobile for Col. Kirkpatrick, of the 55th Battalion.

Mrs. William Dinsmore was stricken with illness while walking on King Street on Saturday evening. She is very ill at her home on Prince William Street much to the regret of her friends.

Misses Elsie and Marion Murchie have returned to Wheaton Seminary at Norton, Mass., to resume their studies.

Mrs. William Snyder, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John N. Wall, leaves this week for her home in Apohaqui.

Miss Lorena Hunt has been enjoying a visit with Fredericton friends.

Mrs. Julia Gillmor has gone to Boston, and will spend the winter there.

Ven. Archdeacon Newnham has returned home from Toronto, after an absence of two weeks.

Mrs. P. Gillen accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mary Gillen, has returned to Woodstock after a few days visit in town.

Miss Dorothy Nason is visiting Sussex relatives. During exhibition week she motored from Sussex to St. Stephen, with Mrs. W. B. McKay, Mrs. J. J. Daley, Miss Della Daley and Mr. Gordon McKay. During their stay in town they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. John P. Nason

Two large packing cases of linen and cotton prepared for use in the Canadian soldier's hospitals in France and England, have been sent by the Red Cross Society, of St. Stephen, during the past week. Much of the material came from the Islands and the lower part of the County.

Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mrs. J. D. Lawson, Mrs. J. D. Richardson, Miss Gladys Blair and Miss Mildred Todd, enjoyed a fine automobile trip to Woodstock and Houlton last week.

Miss Mary J. Eaton, of Pittsford, Vermont, but formerly of Milltown, N. B., has most generously offered to furnish and equip maternity rooms in the Chipman Memorial Hospital. The offer has been accepted by the trustees. Rooms in the west wing and the rooms that have been occupied by the nurses have been selected for this use. The nurses will all be domiciled in the large and spacious house near the hospital, owned by Mrs. John B. Robinson, which is now known as the "Nurse's Home," and is presided over by the matron, Mrs. Maria Burton.

Local and General

Mr. Robert Clarke has returned from a hunting trip to MacDougal Lake. While there he was fortunate enough to bring down a fine moose.

The property on Montague street owned by Spencer Farmer has been purchased by Everett Denley. Mr. Denley and his family intend taking possession at once.

The steamer St. Andrews is now running on her winter schedule. Travellers may no longer go to Eastport and return the same day. The boat goes down on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and returns on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Mr. Walker, of Toronto, who purchased the corner lot of the old Hatch Farm at the head of the town, has already begun to improve it before building his house. A hedge of cedar has been planted parallel to the St. John road, and the bushes that had grown wild have been removed. The owner is to be congratulated on his selection of a site, for the view over the harbor and Bay is magnificent.

The house on Queen street occupied by Mr. Arthur Rogers is being greatly improved. The house was formerly one-and-a-half story. The roof has now been raised to make another complete story, and a large ell has been added at the back.

The annual meeting of the St. Andrews Women's Canadian Club will be held in Memorial Hall on Monday, October 4, at 4 p. m. Reports for the past year will be received, and officers elected for the ensuing year. All the ladies of the Town are invited to attend.

Rev. Dr. Stewart, of Halifax, conducted the services in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. In the evening he preached a stirring war sermon.

The members of Seaside Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will attend divine service in the Baptist church, Sunday morning next, October 3.

Rev. R. W. Weddall went to Saint John, on Monday evening, to attend the Annual Conference Special Committee of the Methodist Church, to meet in that City on Tuesday.

The Committee is composed of the President and Secretary of the Conference, with the chairman of the several Districts, and a number of prominent laymen.

The Committee has power to consider and decide upon all matters affecting the Conference which could not have been provided for at the time of the Sitting of the Conference.

Among its first duties will be to decide the time and place of meeting for the next Annual Conference.

The Annual Rally Day Sunday School Service of the Methodist Church was postponed last Sunday owing to the severe storm, and will be held on the coming Sunday evening, October 3.

C. G. S. Curlew, Captain Milne, was in port this week, riding out the storm.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

The Charlotte and St. John Counties' Teachers' Institutes are in joint session to-day at St. Stephen, and the meetings will close to-morrow. The schools throughout the two Counties are closed while the Institutes are in session.

CHATHAM FAIR

Chatham, Sept. 27.—Chatham's seventh biennial fair opened this evening, and promises to be a greater success than ever. Judging by the quality of the exhibits the fair should be more successful than any, although the attendance was interfered with by the rough weather. In the absence of Lieutenant-Governor Wood, who was unavoidably detained elsewhere, the fair was opened by Premier Clarke. Other speakers were Hon. John Morissy, Hon. J. A. Murray, Mayor Stothart, of Newcastle, and Mayor Hickey, of Chatham. The guard of honor was furnished by a squad from the 73rd Regiment under Sergeant-Major Duncan.

RETURN OF GALLANT CANADIAN OFFICER

Major Percy A. Guthrie, M. L. A. for York Co., N. B., who was wounded at Givenchy and rescued from the Hesperian, arrived in St. John last Friday and was given a great reception; but a still greater reception was accorded him on his arrival at Fredericton on the following day. Major Guthrie was very seriously wounded, and his life was despaired of for a long time. He has not yet fully recovered, and bears the marks of the suffering he has undergone; but complete recovery is only a question of time. He hopes to be able to return to the front. His example should be an inspiration to those who are holding back when their country needs them so much.

Mrs. Thomas Gifford is visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patterson, and child, of St. Stephen, were in town recently.

Word has been received of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. E. Parker, Vancouver, on September 23. Mrs. Parker was formerly Miss Hazel Maloney.

Mr. Warren Stinson has gone to Renforth to join his wife and son.

The many friends of Mr. John Pendlebury, lighthouse keeper, regret to hear of his serious illness.

Miss Muriel Davis has returned from a pleasant visit in Woodstock.

The many St. Andrews friends of Miss Maud Crisp, a daughter of a former Methodist minister here, will be interested to hear of her marriage to Mr. Alfred Estey to-day in St. John. Miss Crisp received much social attention before the happy event. Her St. Andrews friends tendered her a handkerchief shower by mail.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richardson are being congratulated on the arrival of a young daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mallory, Mr. Frank Mallory, and master Henry Mallory, are on a motor trip to Woodstock and vicinity.

Mrs. A. C. Coleman, of New Glasgow, who has been visiting friends in town, returned to her home on Saturday.

Mr. Tom Rogers, of the American Can Co., St. Andrews North, who has enlisted, was given a dance on the eve of his departure. During the evening he was presented with a gold wrist watch and fourteen dollars. Although Mr. Rogers is an American, he felt that the cause of the Allies was right, and he is trying to do his share in fighting for Great Britain.

Rev. Mr. Fraser spent Sunday at McAdam Junction, to assist with the communion service.

Miss Mackubin has closed "Oriole Cottage" and returned to Baltimore.

Rev. A. W. Meahan, of St. Andrews, is in Town.—St. John Globe, Sept. 23.

We were favored last week with a pleasant visit from Mr. L. P. Simpson, of Campobello, a time-honored friend of THE BEACON, who reported that the Island has had a large number of visitors during the past summer, in spite of the unpleasant weather that prevailed during August. The attractions of Campobello are many and varied, and the hospitality of the people is unbounded.

MARRIED

SMITH–MATTHEWS

The wedding of Miss Flossie M. Matthews, daughter of Mr. Wm. C. Matthews, of Wilson's Beach, N. B., to Winthrop H. Smith, Portland, Me., took place on Tuesday evening, September 7, at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church, Portland, Rev. Geo. R. Stair officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside at 225 B Street, Portland, Me.

BARRY–ELDRIDGE

A pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Eldridge, Beaver Harbor, on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 22, when their youngest daughter Hazel Irene and Mr. John Barry were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred Ellis, Rector of Musquash Episcopal Church, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives. The wedding march was played by Miss Carrie Wright. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked very charming in a gown of white satin with bridal veil and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and ferns. The bride received many beautiful gifts. After a dainty luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Barry left on a trip to Nova Scotia, after which they will reside at Beaver Harbor.

THOMPSON–DALY.

St. George, N. B., Sept. 22.

Rev. J. W. Holland united in marriage in St. George's church on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Bessie Daly, of Pennfield, and Daniel Thompson, of Beaver Harbor. The bride looked charming in white satin, with white picture hat, and was attended by Miss Margaret Connors; the best man was William Connors. After a lunch at the bride's home in Pennfield, the happy couple left on the N. B. Southern for a wedding trip. They will reside in Beaver Harbor.

OBITUARY

MR. WILLIAM NEWMAN

On Friday, Sept. 17, Mr. William Newman, Wilson's Beach, was stricken with paralysis, and on Monday he passed to the Great Beyond. There are left to mourn three children—Mrs. Freeman Fitzgerald, with whom he made his home, and Edward and Freeman; four sisters, Mrs. Sarah Malloch, Mrs. James Malloch, Mrs. Henry Langmaid, and Mrs. Margaret Cross; and one brother, Lincoln Newman. Mr. Newman was a very quiet man, but much liked and respected. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. A. Currier in his usual impressive manner.

CAPT. JAMES L. ANDERSON

The funeral of Captain J. L. Anderson, for twenty-five years a resident of Vancouver, and an oldtime master mariner and Gloucester fishermen, took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence on Melville street. The pall-bearers were Captain Harvey Copp, Captain Dixon and Captain Wilbus, representing the Shipmasters' Association, and Brothers Tmitheringale, W. A. Ball and F. Woodhead, representing the Knights of Pythias, of which order the deceased was an old member.—Daily Province, Vancouver, B. C., August 18.

Capt. Anderson was well-known in Charlotte County, especially at Beaver Harbor and on Grand Manan, having been engaged for many winters in carrying frozen herring from those places to New England ports. He also fished mackerel out of Gloucester, Mass., for many years.
