Mr T. McLean, cattle drover, of Goderich, shipped 40 loads of choice cattle from Lucknow in one week. Last Saturday four loads of superior animals left there for Eastern markets.

The Brussels Post has a new dress, a new heading and an enlarged form. It is a splendid local paper, and Brother Kerr deserves credit for his enterprise. Its weekly cartoon is a new and attractive feature.

"MEN WANTED."—Rev. Manly Benson will lecture on the above subject in Acheson's Hall, on Tuesday evening next. The lecturer is eloquent, and those who have heard the lecture say it is a grand one.

JUSTIN MCCARTHY'S LECTURE.—Arrangements have been made to hold the evening train over at Seaforth until the conclusion of Justin McCarthy's lecture on Tuesday evening next. A large number are going from Goderich to hear this distinguished Irishman. It will be an oratorical and historical treat.

HARVEST HOME.—As THE SIGNAL will be issued a day earlier than it is dated this week, we would remind our readers of the feast prepared in the North street Methodist church this (Thursday) evening. The supper will be sumptuous, the decorations are beautiful, and the concert is said to promise well. Tickets, single, 40c.; double, 75c.; five, $1.00. It will be a genuine Thanksgiving dinner.

"Speaking of the Brussels vagrancy case, detailed in THE SIGNAL last week. The Post says:—Mrs Halliday stated in her evidence that she had opportunities of securing homes for her daughters but she declined to let them go. This is a very strong reason for the erection of a poor house where such people could be sent and kept at a much smaller expense than by the municipal Councils or by the County."

The Court Singers and Walter Pelham gave a very successful entertainment in Acheson's Hall, on Tuesday evening. Pressure on our space forbids any extended notice. The solos, duetts and trios were all admirably given. The male duett "Excelsior," was a perfect gem. Mr. Hooper's piano solo was splendidty rendered. Walter Pelham, the humorist, scored a great success in his character sketches. His type of humor is of an order that can please all classes.

If you wish your sight carefully and correctly fitted with the best spectacles in the world, call at F. Jordan's drug store, Goderich, on the 24th inst, when Mr Laurance the celebrated Oculist-Optician, will be there, and after an examination of the eyes fit you on scientific principles with the B. Laurance, Axis Cut Pebble and other spectacles. Ensuring to you the ability to use your eyes for the most minute employment with great ease and comfort and the certain preservation of your sight.

The lecture on "Shorthand" delivered in the High school on Monday evening was fairly attended by an intelligent and appreciative audience. J. D Swanson occupied the chair. The lecturer occupied an hour in tracing the origin of the present English alphabet, advocating a spelling reform, and elucidating the alphabet and other devices of Phonography. The specimens of shorthand writing on the blackboard were readily read by Miss Climie, and a keen interest in the art was evinced by the audience. A shorthand class will be formed on Monday next in the M. I. rooms.

LEGAL EXAMS.—At the recent examinations for barristers and solicitors in Toronto, a number of Huron boys succeeded in passing creditably. The following passed for barristers, in order of merit:—A. M. Taylor, Brussels; R. S Hays, Goderich; D. O. Cameron, Goderich; E. E. Wade, Brussels; Frank McPhillips, Goderich; J. R. Miller, Goderich. For solicitors:—A. M. Taylor, Brussels; R. Vanstone, Goderich. A. M. Taylor stood second on the entire list for both barristers' and solicitors' examinations.

ATTEMPTED INCENDIARISM.—The fire bug is abroad in Varna. A despatch says:—The inhabitants of our quiet village were shocked by an attempt to burn the premises of Mr James Wanless, lately appointed police magistrate for South Huron. Batting saturated with coal oil was laid at the end of the building and fired. The flames had gotten well under way when first noticed, and were with difficulty extinguished. Great indignation is felt throughout the community. Mr Wanless is determined to hold on his way, and has the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

SCOTT ACT MEETING.—There was a good attendance at the Scott Act meeting held in the Temperance Hall on Friday evening. The chair was occupied by Thos McGillicuddy. Songs were given by Miss Wynn and Miss Nettie Crabb, the "Little Bow of Blue" by the former being a temperance gem ütly presented. Two duetts were sang by Mrs Wolverton and Thos. McGillicuddy Miss Cooke played the accompaniments. Rev. G. R. Turk gave a stirring address on the Temperance question. He was repeatedly applauded and in his hour's address threw out many valuable hints. His address was on the line of practical effort.

THE BAND CONCERT.—We would have liked to have seen more at the above concert, held on Thursday of last week in Victoria Opera House. The Doherty Band, of Clinton, kindly assisted on the street and on the stage, and kept up their reputation as talented musicians. Sims Richards, the Toronto tenor, has a fine voice, and left an excellent impression. He is a good singer, and a very fair reciter. Miss Wynn, our popular local vocalist, sang very well, and was warmly applauded and encored. Mr Belcher also was warmly received in his bass solos. Mr Reaves, of Clinton, seemed popular with those in the gallery in his tenor solos. The piano accompaniment was played by Miss Cooke. The instrument was one of the Dominion Co's (Bowmanville) uprights and gave much satisfaction. The town band are worthy of a better patronage than that given last week.

WEDDING BELLS.—On Wednesday of last week a very interesting event took place in town in the marriage of Mr. Walter D. Alexander, station agent of the Michigan Central R R. at Niagara Falls and Francis Ida, eldest daughter of our townsman, Mr. J. H. Williams, which was celebrated in St. George's church by Ven. Archdeacon Elwood and Rev. Wm. Johnston. The bride was assisted by Miss Wilkinson, and was arrayed in mid-brown satin. the bridesmaid was dressed in garnet satin. The bridegroom was aidad by Walter A. Becker, of Niagara Falls. The church was filled with a large concourse of the ladies of Goderich, with a sprinkling of the sterner sex. After the ceremony the bridal party and a number of friends were driven to the residence of the bride's father, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of. The happy couple left for the east on the midday train, amid the congratulations of friends and showers of rice. THE SIGNAL'S slipper again takes its flight.

A score or more of young Lfberals are expected to be added to the club at its next meeting. Every Liberal from 18 to 40 years of age should join. The members of the club are enthusiastic over its peospects.

Benmiller.

Charles Treble of the customs dept., Fort Erie, is visiting his relatives in this vicinity.

We are sorry to learn that Master Lewis Stevens has taken a relapse and stands a poor chance to recover.

Rev. Mr. McDowell, of Wingham, lectured in Zion church on the 10th inst on Orangeism. The rev. gentleman is certainly an able lecturer, although we take issue with him on many points relative to the usefulness of that body he so much extolled.

Leeburn.

The I. O. G. T. entertainment came off on Friday evening, and drew forth a good audience. The programme was interesting to all. The readings of John Horton and Linklater were amusing, and S. B. William's reading, "How Noah was brought to the matrimonial crisis," kept all in roars of merriment. F. B. Linfield gave a stirring recitation, "No License," while a pretty duett was sweetly sang by sisters Edith Horton an McManus. Harry Horton, from Paramount, an old Leeburn favorite, sang several songs in his usual hearty manner, and drew loud applause. E. Richards, of Paramount, made his debut to a Leeburn audience by a song, and his Dutch recitations brought down the house. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered him and Harry for their assistance. Both gave suitable replies. A dabate followed on the subject, "Resolved that Love has more power than Fear." J. G. Clutton and J. B. Linfield were for the affirmative and J. Linklater and A. H. Clutton for the negative. H. Horton, umpire, decided in favor of the former.

Miss Bessie Jefferson, with Ellen and Maud E. Hillier visited here last week.

Harry Horton, teacher, and Edwin Richards, of Paramount, took part in an entertainment last week. The former showed him the lake, the Point Farm and the great windmill at Dunlop.

John A. Taylor, a nephew of Dr. Taylor's, of Goderich, preached an able discourse at the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

TALK OF FLORIDA!—One of our farmers has had peas in bloom in his field on the sixth of this month. Wouldn't it be fun if he had green peas to flavor his Christmas turkey?

Nile.

The public school examination took place here on Friday. Although the day was wet and roads muddy, over thirty visitors put in an appearance. The scholars answered readily the questions put to them by their teachers, Thos. H. Alton and Miss Bella Scott, and Messrs Woods and Pentland. The singing in the junior department was much appreciated by the visitors, thus reflecting much credit upon Miss Scott for the manner in which she has trained the pupils to sing. Prizes were awarded to all the pupils according to the number of marks obtained during the term and a written examination on all the subjects.
