UPSET IN HEAVY SQUALL.

Schooner Garland Turns Turtle and Her Crew Drowns.

Sydney, N.S., Aug. 15.—The schooner Garland was upset in a heavy squall three miles off Lingan Head and four or five of her crew drowned. The vessel was loaded with lumber. Many people witnessed the foundering of the ship from the shore, but were powerless to help.

The Dominion Coal Co.'s steamer Cacouna was despatched to the scene. After steaming about twenty miles from Sydney the steamer encountered the upturned vessel about three miles off Glace Bay, or nearly five miles east of where the upset occurred. There was no sign of life aboard, and altho the ocean's surface for miles around was searched by the Cacouna, no trace of a human being could be found. The schooner was lying on her port side, with two jibs, foresail and reefed mainsail set, and was drifting towards the southeast at the rate of four knots per hour.

SUSTAIN VICE-PRESIDENT.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 15.—The International Brotherhood of Teamsters closed their convention to-day. Former Vice-President Gould was on the rack for more than an hour. His integrity had been brought into question by the committee on officers' reports. The committee stated that it had no accounting of $800 of the $2300 expended by Gould. The convention finally adopted a resolution of confidence in Vice-President Gould.

A Nipissing Beauty.

The muskalonge caught last Monday by Charles Swanson of 216 Bain-avenue, Toronto, measured 3 ft. 10 in. and weighed 20¾ lbs. The fish was caught trolling at West Arm, Lake Nipissing, with a No. 2 star bait and was landed without a gaff.

GRIMSBY PARK.

Editor World: The reports published in some of the newspapers in Toronto that a number of boys at Grimsby Park were guilty of pushing the little daughters of Mr. O'Connor out into the lake in a rowboat and preventing them landing were entirely without foundation. The following letter, received by the authorities of the park from the father and mother, will remove the impression of the incorrect reports.

M. C. Wilkinson, President.

Hamilton, Aug. 11, 1905.

To the Grimsby Park Directors:

Your kind letter received last night. We wish to thank you and the residents of Grimsby Park for your kindness to us in our recent trouble. We assure you the kindness of you all will never be forgotten. We were very much annoyed at reading in some of the Toronto papers that some of the boys pushed the boat back into the water when the children were endeavoring to land. I told the reporters here to correct it in the Hamilton papers. The children got home last night at 9.30. Both were very much exhausted and the elder girl very feverish. However to-day they are much better. We hope you will thank the residents, who did all in their power to aid in the search and were very good to us and our son. Trusting we will never have cause for such anxiety again, we remain yours gratefully,

Mr. and Mrs. E. O'Connor.

Mrs. Hubbard Returns.

St. John's, Nfld., Aug. 15.—Labrador Indians report that Mrs. Hubbard's expedition is returning to the coast, having abandoned the expedition to penetrate the wilderness. She will probably return here on the next trip of the mail boat. Dillon Wallace, however, is pushing forward beyond any white man's previous track.

Big Joe is Dead.

Aylmer, Aug. 15.—Big Joe Menier, who on Wednesday last attempted to murder Mrs. Guay, and then put a bullet in his head, died this morning.

DEMAND UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.

Union of Peasants Passes Resolutions for Assembly.

Moscow, Aug. 15.—A congress of the Union of Peasants has passed resolutions demanding, among other things, that the national representatives in the projected assembly shall be elected by universal suffrage; that the constituent assembly shall be given power to initiate legislation and to control the national finances; that a system of peasant proprietorship shall be established by the handing over to the people of the state domains and the land belonging to the monasteries and other religious institutions; that free education shall be obligatory, and that schools shall be secularized.

LOYAL CANADIAN.

Editor World: Tho earning a living here, I have not found it necessary yet to sacrifice my British birthright for Yankee citizenship. I cut from The New York Herald as per enclosed and offer a loyal substitute for this Yankee's sarcastic suggestion. Let this be the motto on the wall of every Canadian club, whether in Canada, United States or Europe:

The old flag, the old flag,
There's nothing like the old flag.
Let scheming Yankees boast and brag,
There's nothing like the old flag.

Union Jack.

The clipping enclosed reads:

"Editor Herald: The fact that there are more native-born Canadians resident in the United States than there are resident in Canada has so impressed the members of Canadian clubs located in the different cities of the United States than a general feeling has been aroused for the purpose of more thoroughly linking the interests of these native-born Canadians who have crossed the border to better their condition in all things.

"Solutions have lately been adopted by these different bodies to have a motto, a poem, a poignant epigram engrossed. I would accordingly suggest the following:

"Man never made and nature never produced anything more beautiful than the American flag.

"William Henry Haworth.

KOSHER BAKERS GIVE IN.

MAY PROVE FATAL.

Amherstburg, Aug. 15.—The condition of Mrs. Horton, who was shot by her husband Saturday night is not so favorable. One bullet struck her under the arm, the other went to her abdomen. The latter is causing trouble. Her father, John Lovegrove, will recover.

Saturday at Fort Erie.

The Saturday excursions to Fort Erie via Grand Trunk are very popular, with fast runs to and from the track. The special train leaves Union Station at 11.30 a.m., and arrives at Fort Erie at 2 o'clock, returning after the last race, reaching Toronto at 8.30 p.m. This Saturday there will be seven races on the card, including a steeplechase and the Fort Erie Stake, $1500, at 7 furlongs, in which the best horses at the track are engaged. Round trip $2. Tickets good for three days.

Exhibition Tickets.

The supply of the tickets for the Exhibition at the reduced rate of six for a dollar is limited. Those who wish to avail themselves of this reduction should lose no time in securing these tickets, as they will only be on sale up to the 26th inst., if not all disposed of before.

These tickets can be had from A. F. Webster at the northeast corner of King and Yonge-streets.

Schwab Denies It.

New York, Aug. 15.—Charles M. Schwab said yesterday: I'm not going to Scotland to see Mr. Carnegie, nor am I going to Europe on business in any manner connected with the Russian armor plate contract. I am going abroad to learn how to build the best ships in the world, and my trip at this time concerns itself with nothing else.

To Open Sulphite Mill.

Philadelphia, Aug. 15.—A member of the executive committee of the Lake Superior Corporation says that besides the erection of coke ovens the executive committee is now considering the reopening of the sulphite mill at the Soo.

Repairing the Erin.

'To get More Strength from Your Food.

LOTS of People are starving with a full stomach.

You know, it's not how much we Eat but how much we Digest that makes us Strong, or Brainy, or Successful.

When the Bowels are filled with undigested food we may be a great deal worse off than if we were half starved for want of Food.

Because, food that stays too long in the Bowels decays there, just as if it stayed too long in the open air.

And, you know that a poisonous Gas rises from Decayed food, even in the open air.

That Gas would start a pestilence in a whole neighborhood if the Health Authorities did not compel removal of its Cause.

* * *

Well, when Food decays in the Bowels, through delayed and overdue action, what happens?

This is what happens:

The millions of little Suction Pumps that line the Bowels and Intestines then draw Poison from the decayed Food, instead of the Nourishment they were intended to draw.

This Poison gets into the blood and, in time, spreads all over the body, unless the Cause of Constipation is promptly removed.

That Cause of Constipation is Weak, or Lazy, Bowel Muscles.

You know, there are about thirty feet of Intestines — Bowels — in every human body.

These Intestines are lined with a muscular tissue that tightens when Food touches it.

This tightening, after Food-friction, is what drives that Food on, through its thirty-foot journey, to Digestion, Nutrition, and Elimination.

* * *

When these Bowel-Muscles grow flabby, weak, or lazy from want of Exercise, the Food does not tickle them enough to act.

That's Constipation!

Castor Oil, or "Physic," will help to slide out one load of trouble, but they can't help the Cause.—

In fact, they weaken the Bowel-Muscles more than ever by slackening them, and by doing work for them which they should do for themselves.

When your Arm-Muscles grow flabby they need exercise, to strengthen them—not a sling to support, them.

When your Bowel-Muscles grow flabby they need Exercise to strengthen them—not "Physic" to pamper them.

* * *

There's only one kind of Artificial Exercise for the Bowel-Muscles.

Its name is "CASCARETS," and its price is Ten Cents a box.

Cascarets act like Exercise on the Muscles of the Bowels, and make them stronger every time they force these Muscles to act naturally.

The stronger these Muscles propel the food, the stronger does the friction of the food act on the flow of Digestive Juices.

The more of these Juices that act on Food, the more Nutriment does that Food turn into, and the richer nourishment do the little Suction Pumps of the Intestines draw out of it.

This richer nourishment, in turn, gives back more strength to the Bowel-Muscles, so that they need a smaller dose of Cascarets from time to time than the doses preceding it.

This reduction of dose continues till the worst case of Constipation is comfortably, naturally, and nutritiously cured.

But, one big dose won't take the place of ten small doses of Cascarets.

Because, it needs only one Cascaret at a time to stimulate all the Bowel-Muscles enough, without purging, discomfort or loss of nutrition.

Six Cascarets, at a time, would act like the Whirlwind Cathartic you are used to, but six would do less good than one Cascaret at a time.

Because, Six would drive the food through so fast you would get little nutrition from it, and would waste Digestive Juices needed for the next four meals.

If you want a "purge" with all the "gripes," burnings, inside irritation, weak feeling, and stomach upsetting, of common Cathartics, don't use enough Cascarets at a dose to produce that.

But, if you want the same natural action that a six-mile walk in the country would give you, (without the weariness) take one Cascaret at a time, with intervals between, till you reach the exact condition you desire.

* * *

Then, carry the little ten cent "Vest Pocket" box constantly with you, and take a Cascaret whenever you suspect you need it.

One Cascaret at a time wil promptly cleanse a foul Breath, or Coated Tongue, thus proving clearly its ready, steady, sure, but mild and effective action.

A coming Headache can be warded off, in short order, by a single Cascaret, and the cause removed.

Heartburn, Gas-belching, Acid-risings in the throat, and Colicky feeling are sure signs of Bowel trouble from food poisons, and should be dealt with promptly.

One Cascaret will stop the coming trouble, move on the Bowel load, and free the Digestive Juices, if that one Cascaret is taken from the Vest Pocket box as soon as the first signs are noticed.

* * *

Don't fail to carry the Vest Pocket Cascaret Box with you constantly.

Form the habit!

Because, you know you won't walk to a Drug Store, nor back to your room, every time your Bowels ought to have a Cascaret.

Therefore, "Wear" them with you, like your watch, or your lead-pencil, and note the splendid effect on your Health and Spirits.

All Druggists sell them—over ten million boxes a year, for six years past.

You can try Cascarets FREE before you buy. Write for Free Sample and booklet, "The Curse of Constipation," best ever printed on the subject. Address Sterling Remedy Company, 374 St. Paul Street, Montreal. 663

A ROAST FOR MR. WHITNEY WRIT IN PROSE AND RHYME

A Party Warrior Who Would Show No Mercy to Liberal Office Holders.

Editor World: In your issue of Aug. 1 Mr. B. McAllister of Cobourg made some kindly comments regarding my letter in your issue of July 22, which were highly appreciated, not only by myself, but all those in this district who favor honesty, justice and inflexible integrity in political matters. We are fully in accord with Mr. McAllister, in stating "that the present Grit officeholders were appointed by a government that was not elected by the honest vote of the people, but by all sorts of fraud and corruption." This is acknowledged by the honest men of the reform party regarding the two last elections won by them. A friend of mine, a rank Reformer, said to me, "You won these elections, but we simply robbed you out of them." When the Grit party resorted to almost all kinds of piratical buccaneering methods to secure the spoils of office it certainly is in very poor taste for the independent and Grit press to prate about the Conservatives introducing the spoils system or to question their right to dispose of what they won honestly among the honest and worthy adherents of their own party. Regarding the claim that Premier Whitney will lose the respect of the best element of the Conservative party by dismissing Grit officials I will say that the Ross government was not overthrown by that class, but by the fighting men of the rank and file. Tacitus says: "There is more of violence as well as of perseverance amongst the masses." A wise government, therefore, will always be cautious of provoking this description of men to opposition or resistance. Cornelius Nepos says: "No government is safe unless it be fortified by the good will of the masses." These solid axioms would indicate that Premier Whitney need not be alarmed by such Grit sophistry.

The money to man the piratical craft of the Ross government was largely raised by the eight thousand officeholders. A Conservative average estimate for each of the offices of one hundred dollars amounts to the enormous sum of eight hundred thousand dollars for campaign funds. As I am only dealing with the officeholders I will not comment on other nefarious means of the late Ross government to raise campaign funds or what they secured from Reform hotelkeepers and other sources. The grave questions now before us are the buccaneering army of officeholders that will threaten the existence of the Whitney government at the next election, and the weak and vacillating weather cock fronts that Premier Whitney has at different periods presented to us, and which are causing the greatest alarm in the rank and file of those who sacrificed so much as well as the life of our revered and honored organizer, Mr. Miscampbell, to overthrow the Ross government that reeked with the filth of moral depravity. Bill Devery of New York said: "If a man fools me once it is his fault, but if he fools me twice it is my fault." Premier Whitney will not fool the electorate or play them false the second time. There is ample evidence that a nudum pactum or naked agreement existed between Premier Whitney and the electorate during the campaign by which if the Ross government was defeated the political atmosphere was to be disinfected so that the putrefaction of the late government would smell less infernally in the nostrils of our neighbors to the south of us, and the world at large. We applied the ax and the worm eaten, maggot bitten, fly blown trunk fell. The thousands of roots and tendrils representing the feeders of the trunk or officeholders are still healthy and flourishing with the pernicious leaven of the old Pharisees, hypocrisy, lying and treachery and must be rooted out.

I will picture a scene from our own campaign that will be familiar to many in other ridings as very many similar scenes occurred during the campaign. I will quote from a speech by M. B. Morrison, M.L.A., representative for West Hastings: "Gentlemen there are 12,000 office-holders backing up this rascally Ross government, and if you elect us, gentlemen, our honored leader, Mr. Whitney, will turn all these scoundrels out of office and put honest men in their places—(Hurrah for Whitney! Rah! Rah!)—and if my leader, Mr. Whitney, refuses to put them out, gentlemen, I will tender to my leader my resignation, gentlemen—(Hurrah for Morrison! Rah! Rah! Tiger, etc.). To quiet the crowd, G. Dulmage sang:

For Morrison is the coming man to give the Grits a fall, He'll call out Hastings stalwarts and force them to the wall.
He'll skirmish thru the riding and stir up every vote.
Oh, the man who holds our banner he is the heart of oak.

E. Guss Porter is the man who carried Hastings riding;
He swept the country fore and aft and all the Grits went hiding.
When he marshaled up his workers, the "Ontario" had to say:
"He gave the boys two dollars and three fingers of whiskey."
The ballot-box it told us was only a
Porter sell,
But Porter took an action for criminal libel.

(Hurrah for Porter, and He's a Jolly Good Fellow, etc.).

On the same platform were Sir Mackenzie Bowell, H. Corby, M.P., E. Guss Forter, M.P.; W. B. Northrup, M.P.; J. W. Johnson, Major R. J. Graham and others who either by their silence or by approving words endorsed all that was said by our candidate. No one doubts that all such statements were made with the knowledge and approval of Premier Whitney, and unless I am mistaken some of his own speeches conveyed the same meaning. Yet in the face of such facts he very recently stated to some of our prominent citizens that it was not his intention to change any of the officeholders unless for very grave reasons. The thunder of such words has soured the milk of human kindness inthe breasts of the workers in this section, and to us there appears to be a fatal impediment in his veracity, his honor and his integrity that merits a space on the same tablet in the temple of fame with such execrated names as Cap. Sullivan, Frank Sullivan, J. R. Stratton and B. O. Lott and his pirate crew who ran against the rocks when they tried to beat Guss Porter with their bogus ballot-box. Premier Whitney evidently, like Ananias and Sapphira, wishes to keep back part of the price of his election and elevation, or has he betrayed us like Judas Iscariot, into the hands of our enemies? If so, we would suggest he follow the example of Judas and relieve the party of the heaviest burden it ever carried in the way of a leader. Mr. McAllister states that the feeling is widespread; that there should be a change in the offices, and I will add that the feeling is spreading that we have a government of lions led by a stag, and from that proud array of commanding ability, culture and profound erudition a worthy leader should be elected to succeed the present leader, who, notwithstanding the advantages of social culture and education, he has never risen or displayed talents above mediocrity unless it be an egotistical autocratical, tyrannical, despotism. Some evidence of such feeling was apparent in this section when Premier Whitney attended a picnic here July 3. Not a carriage met him at the station. Not one attended his from the grounds returning, and as it slowly wended its way up Front-street it attracted about as much attention as an empty hearse. As the writer watched it, in his mind he was reading the Trojan war and the downfall of Hector, who returned laden with the spoils of Achilles. Alas, how changed from that Whitney, at whose sight not so long ago a thousand manly and loyal voices shouted in wild enthusiasm for the great compaign leader of the Conservative party. Notwithstanding the fact that the most popular, most loved and most respected man in six ridings rode in the same carriage, it passed in the gravest silence that seemed to indicate the hush of nature before the tornado or the rustle of the leaves before the coming storm. The gentleman I refer to was once:

"Our gallant leader Corby, who so often led the way, Whose plume was ever waving in the thickest of the fray.
In twelve long years of battle he made his foemen feel
They never had a warrior quite worthy of his steel.
When he marshalled up his workers—now yield, you Grits, you must.
Wherever they resisted they always bit the dust.
But that horseman threatens Corby that no warrior can defy.
Whate'er may be his mandate there's not to reason why.
The sorrow of his workers is felt without alloy,
But they say there is no sorrow without some little joy.
In bringing up old battles of how we whaled the Grits,
When Corby was our leader, the way
we gave them fits.
But victory is nothing, only a minor part.
It is thinking of his kindness, both of his hand and heart.
When we parted with our leader our hearts were filled with pain, Knowing that we would never see his like again.
May health come back to Corby and happiness galore,
Is the wish of every worker along old
Quinte's shore.
No tongue or pen can do justice to the inflexible honor, virtue and integrity of our old leader, not even that fine picture by Juvenal:
"An honest guardian, arbiter, just be thou;
Thy station deem a sacred trust;
With thy good sword maintain thy country's cause.
In every action venerate its laws.
The lie suborned, if falsely urged to swear;
The torture wait thee, torture firmly bear;
To forfeit honor think the highest shame,
And life too dearly bought by loss of fame;
Nor to preserve it, with thy virtue give
That for which only man should wish to live."

We want a man as leader with the same inflexible characteristics of our old leader, H. Corby, ex-M.P., and then every nundum pactum or campaign promise could hold up its head and say, I know that my redeemer liveth.

HELD PRISONERS BY SHARKS.

Man Eaters Chase Swimmers in Long Island Sound.

Stamford, Conn., Aug. 15.—William Rockett, a groom employed on the estate of the late William Ziegler, went swimming yesterday in the Sound near the Ziegler mansion at Collender's Point. With Rockett was Joseph Gaffney, coachman for the A. Floyd Delafield family.

Two sharks followed the men, darting in again and again to make a snap at the fugitives. As the water was shoal the man-eaters seemed wary of getting between the swimmers and the shore. Because of this the men were able to reach a rock safely.

Marcus Hansen, son of the captain of Mrs. Ziegler's yacht, and Joseph Crane, the Ziegler coachman, went out in a rowboat and took the men off, after driving the sharks away.

CANADA CUP RACES.

New York World: What the America's Cup races are tto deep-sea yachting the contests for the Canada Cup are to inland waters. Failing the ocean contest this year, the blue ribbon event of the Great Lakes arouses along the northern border an interest only less intense of International sport. The victory of the Temeraire over the Iroquois yesterday, leaving chaleinger and defender each with a race to her credit, promises a spirited struggle for the lake trophy.

The Canada Cup is the outcome of a suggestion by Commodore Beatman of the Lincoln Park Yacht Club in 1896, and was first won by a boat of the Royal Canadian Club. In 1899 the cup again passed into the possession of the Chicago Yacht Club, which held it until 1901. In that year the Invader took it back to Canada, defeating the Detroit Cadillac, which had been selected from nine competing American yachts to defend it. In 1903 a Rochester yacht, the Irondequoit, defeated the Strathcona in three consecutive races after the Canadian boat had won two. It was then decided to race 30-footers in place of the 40-foot boats previously entered.

The course selected for this year's contests is in Lake Ontario, off Charlotte. Five races are to be sailed, three on a nine-mile triangular course and two on an eight-mile course to windward, each course to be sailed twice over. The evenly matched performances of the rival boats thus far make the outlook a favorable one for good sport.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—The [illegible] of the National Guard only have been granted authority to enter Canada bearing arms. They purpose visiting Toronto the 4th of next month.

Delightful Trip to 1000 Islands.

Leave Toronto 9 a.m., by the fast Montreal Express (Grand Trunk, of course) (cafe parlor car serves best of everything to eat or drink) for Gananoque, where there is a delightful inn, and at 3.30 p.m., take steamer through the islands for Alexandria Bay, the principal resort, reaching there early in the evening. Try it. City Ticket Office, northwest corner King and Yonge-streets.

Windsor Salt

For the table, for cooking, for butter-making. It is pure and will not cake.
