STRAWBERRIES SCARCE AND DEMAND IS KEEN

Very Light Shipments of "Made in Canada" Brand on the Market.

NEW CARROTS ARRIVE

Home Grown Tomatoes Becoming Plentiful—Asparagus is Decreasing.

Strawberries were scarce. None of the imported came in, and only very light shipments of the "made in Canada" variety, and as the demand was keen, being much too great for the supply, they brought slightly higher prices, selling at 11c to 16c per box. Wm. Wallace Armstrong of St. Catharines, and Geo. Gedeby, Queenston, shipped in some of the best on the market to McWilliam & Everist.

The first Canadian new carrots for this season arrived yesterday from Chas. G. Syer of Bartonville to Belknap & Son, for which they were asking 50c to 60c per dozen bunches. They had not sold, any, however, and the carrots were so small it did not look as if they would receive even those prices.

Gooseberries were shipped in in slightly larger quantities and there were some of better quality, ranging in price from 40c to 60c per 11-quart basket. Geo. Pepper of Lorne Park shipped in some of the best on sale yesterday to H. Peters and H. C. Davis of Freeman, some fairly good ones to White & Co., H. Peters and the Wentworth Orchard Co.

Asparagus is gradually decreasing in quantity and the bulk of it is becoming rather seedy—and has declined slightly in price, the most of it selling at $1 to $1.50 per 11-quart basket; some really choice bringing $1.75.

Home grown hothouse tomatoes are beginning to come in very freely, and the prospects are that the shipments will be exceptionally heavy from next week on. Yesterday the bulk of the choice No. 1's brought 17½c to 18c per lb.; a few extra choice selling at 20c per lb., while some rather overripe ones sold as low as 15c per lb.; the No. 2's bringing 10c.

Canadian hothouse cukes are hard to sell, as most of them do not begin to compare with the imported hothouse, and even the best quality are not quite so good. Yesterday they brought from 75c to $1.50 per 11-quart basket, the imported ones going at $1.75 to $2 per basket of 24 to 30.

Watermelons are coming in freely, three cars arriving yesterday and selling at 60c to 75c each.

H. Peters
had a car of watermelons, selling at 60c to 75c each; a car of late Valencia oranges at $4.25 to $4.50 per case; a car of Mississippi tomatoes at $1.25 to $1.35 per 4-basket crate; a car of Georgia cukes at $2.25 to $2.50 per hamper; a car of mixed vegetables in crates; carrots at $4.50; beets at $3.50 (about 100 bunches); cauliflower at $4.50 to $5 (about 2½ dozen).

had a car of late Valencia oranges, the Royal Taste brand, selling at $4.50 per case.
