ROBERT OF LINCOLN.

BY WILLIAM C. BRYANT.

Merrily singing on briar and wood,
Near to the nest of his little dame,
Over the mountain-side or mead,
Robert of Lincoln is telling his name,
Bob-o'-link, bob-o'link,
Spink, spink, spink;
Snug and safe in that nest of ours,
Hidden among the summer flowers.
Chee, chee, chee.

Robert of Lincoln is gaily dress'd,
Wearing a bright black wedding coat;
White are his shoulders, and white his crest,
Hear him call in his merry note,—
Bob-o'-link, bob-o'-link,
Spink, spink, spink;
Look, what a nice new coat is mine,
Sure there never was a bird so fine.
Chee, chee, chee.

Robert of Lincoln's Quaker wife,
Pretty and quite, with plain brown wings,
Passing at home a patient life,
Broods in the grass while her husband sings
Bob-o'-link,-o'link,
Spink, spink spink;
Brood, kind creature; you need not fear
Thieves and robbers while I am here.
Chee, chee, chee.

Modest and shy as a nun is she;
One weak chirp is her only note.
Braggart and prince of braggarts is he,
Pouring boasts from his little throat,—
Bob-o'-link, bob-o'-link.
Spink, spink, spink,
Never was I afraid of man;
Catch me, cowardly knaves, if you can.
Chee, chee, chee.

Six white eggs on a bed of hay,
Flecked with purple, a pretty sight,
There as the mother sits all day
Robert is singing with all his might
Bob-o'-link, bob-o'link,
Spink, spank, spink;
Nice good wife, that never goes out,
Keeping house while I frolic about.
Chee, chee, chee.

Soon as the little ones chip the shell
Six wide mouths are open for food,
Robert of Lincoln bestirs him well,
Gathering seeds for the hungry brood.
Bob-o'link, bob-o'-link,
Spink, spank, spink;
This new life is likely to be
Hard for a gay young fellow like me.
Chee, chee, chee.

Robert of Lincoln at length is made
Sober with work and silent with care;
Off is his holiday garment laid,
Half forgotten that merry air,—
Bob-o'-link, bob-o'-link,
Spink, spank, spink;
Nobody knows but my mate and I
Where our nest and our nestlings lie.
Chee, cacc, chee,

Summer wanes; the children are grown;
Fun and frolic no more he knows;
Robert of Lincoln's a humdrum crone;
Off he flies, and we sing as he goes
Bob-o'-link, bob-o'-link,
Spink, spank, spink;
When you can pipe that merry old strain
Robert of Lincoln came back again.
Chee, chee, chee.

DEEP SHAVING.—People on this side of the water, who have occasionally submitted to such vulgar shaving as two or three per cent. a month, may find some consolation in seeing how large slices the Jews take out of the aristocracy of England, when some of the virtuous members of that class fall into the hands of these honest and merciful money changers. We copy from the New York Tribune:

"The interest charged by these usurers is 20 per cent, for three months, or 80 per cent, per annum; but as the interest is paid at the end of each three months, or compound interest charged, it really amounts to 120 or 130 per cent. annum. The principal, in this way, is usually prepaid in about nine months. All that follows is gain, and so enormous have been those gains that the parties conducting this merciless traffic in the blood and heart and honor of many of the youth of England, have risen from poverty to enormous wealth and lives in costly palaces, surrounded by the most gorgeous appliances of luxury and art. The extent of Mr. Villiers' transactions in the discount line may be judged from his having once negotiated a bill for thirty-five thousand pounds a Christian usurer of the name of Temple. The acceptor of the bill was Lord Gardown, and the amount paid for the accommodation for three months was five thousand pounds

WHAT SIERRA LEONE IS.—A worthy, weather-beaten old sea captain once gave me a perfectly definite notion of what Sierra Leone is, in one little anecdote. "Sierra Leone, Sir," he said: "I'll tell you what Sierra Leone is like. A black fellow, Sir, goes into the market. It's as hot as ——, well—anything. He buys a melon for three farthings—and what does he do with it? The black fellow, Sir, hasn't a rag on. He's as bare as a robin. He buys his melon, cuts it in halves, and scoops out the middle. He sits in one half, covers his head with the other, and eats the middle. That's what he does, Sir." I saw Sierra Leone in all its tropical glory, cheapness of produce, darkness of population, gigantic vegetation, and primitive state of manners, immediately.—Dicken's Household Words.

AN EXPLANTION.—In addressing a jury upon one occasion, the celebrated Mr. Jeffrey, found it necessary to make free with the character of a military officer who was present during the whole harangue. Upon hearing himself several times spoken of as 'the soldier, the son of Mars,' boiling with indignation, interrupted the pleader:

'Don's call me a soldier, sir, I am an officer.

Mr. Jeffrey immediately went on—

"Well gentleman, this officer, who is no soldier, was the sole cause of the mischief that occurred.

Editing a newspaper is like making a fire.—Everybody supposes he can do it "a little better than anybody else." We have seen people doubt their fitness for apple pudding, driving oxen, or counting lath, but all our experience we yet never met with the individual who did not think he could "double the circulation" of any paper in two months.—Exchange Paper.

GENERAL EMANCIPATION.—In the late revolution in Peru the slaves were all set free. Echenique, one of the leaders, promised to free all who would join his banner, but Castilla beat him at his own game, and promised freedom unqualifiedly to all. He was successful, and Echenique had to save himself by flight.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE FOR ASTHMA!!

OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY FIVE YEARS OF AGE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Weston, (Book Store,) Toronto, dated the 9th October, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—Gratitude compels me to make known to you the extraordinary benefit an aged parent has derived from the use of your Pills. My mother was afflicted for upwards of four and twenty years with asthma and spitting of blood, it was quite agony to see her suffer and hear her cough; I have often declared that I would give all I possessed to have cured her; but although I paid a large sum for medicine and advice, it was all to no purpose. About three months ago, I thought perhaps your Pills might benefit her, at all events I resolved to give them a trial, which I did; the result was marvellous; by slow degrees my mother became better, and after preserving your remedies for nine weeks, she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health, although seventy five years old.

I remain, Sir, your obliged,

(Signed) THOMAS WESTON.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DROPSY!!

AFTER BEING TAPPED THREE TIMES.

Copy of a Letter from Anthony Smith, Esq., Halifax, Nova Scotia, dated 26th August, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I desire to add my testimony to the value of your Pills, in cases of dropsy. For nine months I suffered the greatest torture with this distressing complaint; was tapped three times, and finally given up by the doctors; having become in appearance as a skeleton, and with no more strength in me than a child just born. It was then that I thought of trying your Pills, and immediately sent for a quantity, and commenced using them. The result I can scarcely credit even now, although true it is. After using them for four weeks, I felt much better, and by persevering with them, at the expiration of two months, I was completely cured. I have since enjoyed the best of health.

I am, Sir, yours sincerely,

(Signed) ANTHONY SMITH.

ASTONISHING CURE OF GENERAL DEBILITY AND LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter from James Reeves of Charlottetown, Prince Edwards Island, dated 17th Nov. 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I am happy to say that your Pills have restored me to health after suffering for nine years from the most intense general debility and langour, my liver and bowels were also much deranged for the whole of that time. I tried many medicines, but they were no good to me, until I had recourse to your Pills, by taking which and following the printed directions for seven weeks I was cured, after every other means failed to the astonishment of my neighbours, acquaintances and friends. I shall ever feel grateful to you for this astonishing restoration to health, and will recommend your Pills to all sufferers, feeling it my duty to do so.

I remain Sir, your humble servant,

(Signed) WILLIAM REEVES.
