may be bored further down, and still other damage produced. At New Orleans, on the 31st, the fall of rain was greater than has been known for ten years. In all parts of the city the streets were deeply submerged, and for several hours the whole population was more or less water-bound.

(Later.) The river still continues high. The water runs over the Levee in several places on this side the river, near the city, but the damages have been repaired. On the opposite side a crevasse of 3000 feet is overflowing the plantations. —Other crevasses are reported above, each doing immense damage.

Frightful consequences are likely to ensue along the Lower Mississippi, which is higher in some places than ever was known, occasioned by the combined floods from the upper rivers. The Missouri and Illinois rivers are both higher, and rising, and their tributaries are at flood height.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—Three Lives Lost.—A melancholy accident occurred at the entrance of the harbour yesterday afternoon, by the upsetting of a gig, in which were Mr. Walter Walsh, Branch Pilot, and three young men, named Michael Collins, Wm. Corkery, and John Bridges. A signal having been made for a ship two boats started, but the one in which Walsh and his companions were being the foremost, was struck by a sea, when to the southward of the Bell Buoy, and turned end over, throwing all on board into the water. They alternately got on the keel and endeavoured to cling there. Meanwhile the other boat, containing three Pilots and another person, had reached the ship, which proved to be the Pilgrim, and prompt notice having been given on Partridge Island of the disaster, by firing a gun and lowering the signal flag half-mast, the ship tacked and stood for the unfortunate boat, but before assistance arrived young Bridges was the only one remaining, the others having been washed off and lost. When conveyed to the ship he was much exhausted but by skilful treatment he soon recovered. Nearly an elapsed Before Bridges was rescued, and it was done time before that the others disappeared. Mr. Walsh leaves a wife and two children to mourn their bereavements. Collins and Corkery leave widowed mothers, who were their principal support. Mr. Walsh's untimely fate will be deeply deplored by all who knew him. He was much esteemed in the community.

Much credit is awarded to Mr. Cline, the Pilot of the Pilgrim and to the officers and crew of that vessel, for the skillfulness with which she was managed and whose boat rescued the survivor. The life boat, at Sand Point, was speedily manned, and proceeded to the spot but too late to render any assistance.—New Brunswicker.

[We learn that the boat has been picked up, but neither of the bodies have as yet been found.]

CRIME IN NEW YORK.—Mysterious murders appear to be the order of the day. Human life is certainly getting to be cheaper than ever. Dead men found in the river, with stones hung around their necks, and dagger-thrusts in the sides!—Dead women, shockingly mutilated, haralled up, and sent on by railroad, right into the heart of the city, nobody knows from where or by whom! What are we coming to? Transactions like these every other day, almost, yet nobody ever hanged. —New York Express.

LORD ROSSE'S ALLEGED PREDICTION.—For some months past idle rumours have prevailed to the effect that the Earl of Rosse had declared it as his belief that the approaching summer would be one of the hottest ever witnessed in Ireland. Upon this absurd report another was founded, that the noble Earl had erected houses for the shelter of his cattle from the expected tropical heat of the summer; and that many gentlemen, relying upon the distinguished reputation of Lord Rosse as an astronomer, had followed his example in preparing accommodation to stall-feed their stock during the hot season. It is a lamentable evidence of credulity, even among educated people, that all these ridiculous tales were believed by many. But they are now completely disposed of in the following communication, which we have received from Lord Rosse:

"The Castle, Parsonstown, March 24.

Lord Rosse presents his compliments to the editor of the Evening Post, and having observed a quotation from the Limerick Reporter, in which his name is associated with some conjectures as to the approaching season, he begs to say that he has never expressed any opinion on the subject." —Dublin Evening Post.

VANCOUVER'S ISLAND.—Under the title of Notes of a Traveller, La Minerve publishes some interesting facts regarding the mission of M. Demers in this Island. The Indians of the island numbered about thirteen thousand, and consist of different tribes, speaking different languages, with mutual hatreds and antipathies of caste. About five thousand of them have been baptized. The efforts of the mission have done much to civilize and unite them.

THE 100TH REGIMENT.—The recruiting of troops for H. B. M. 100th regiment, which has been going on in Canada for some time past, has been prosecuted so successfully that 723 men of the required number have been enlisted, and are now stationed at Montreal. These recruits are furnished with a uniform that has been in store since the war of 1812.

LORD JAMES AN ORANGEMAN.—We have great pleasure in announcing that Lord James Butler, a distinguished Scion of the famous House of Ormond, was on Monday, initiated as a member of the Orange Institution, in Trinity College Lodge. Lord James is not the only convert made to Orangeism by the letter of Ex-Lord Chancellor Brady. The tyrannical conduct of the late Irish Executive was decidedly beneficial to our cause and it is worthy of note that the effect of the Brady letter was exactly the reverse of what its concoctors designed. The noble Brother, received on Monday into the Orange Institution, is married to a sister of Lord John Russell, who, we could wish, would follow his noble relative's example, and adopt and act upon Protestant and Orange Principles.—Devonshire Protestant.

Lord George Berresford, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland has retired from the active duties of his Diocese at the ripe age of 85, a period when one would think every man would be willing to retire. He has been a Bishop 52 years. Dr. O'Brien, Bishop of Ossory and Ferns, is his successor.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARABIA.

New York, April 29.

Arabia arrived this morning.

Parliament met on Monday after recess. In Commons notice was given of a Bill to abolish property qualification now required by members of the House.

New French Minister Duke Malakoff, reached London 15th, and was well received.

It is expected the Queen will visit Prussia the present summer.

The city of Christiana, Norway, was nearly destroyed by fire. Loss 10,000,000 francs.

Some additional telegraph items from India.—Sir Colin Campbell remained at Lucknow restoring order. Some further skirmishing in which rebels were defeated.

MARKETS—Breadstuffs dull and unchanged. Provisions quiet. Consols 96 3-8ths. to 96 1-2. Sugar 6d. to 1s. cheaper on lower sorts. Teas lower; common congou 11 3-4d. Some descriptions Ceylon Coffee 1s. to 2s. lower.

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURED HATS.—At MAGEE'S Hat Store, 27, North side of King street, will be found a superb assortment of fashionable HATS of the very best description. A Hat can be furnished by Mr. Magee in six hours' notice, if required, made by Conformateur measure, and most approved style. Walk in and see, gentlemen!—Nothing looks so bad in the bright spring sunshine as a shabby Hat.

☞ HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are infinite benefit to persons suffering from nervous tremors and general feebleness. They renovate the nervous system, and brace the muscles as well as give tone to the stomach. Their purgative action is unaccompanied by pain, and as they have powerful stomachic as well as aperient and purifying properties, they literally carry on the work of invigorating the digestion, relieving, the secretions at one and the same time—This can not be said of any other medicine in existence.

IMPORTANT TESTIMONIAL.

34, Wine street, Bristol.

SIR,—It is with much pleasure I have to inform you of the benefit I received from your Lozenges. I was attacked with the typhus fever, during which time I had a violent cough, so that it kept me awake the greater part of the night. A friend persuaded me to try a box of your "COUGH LOZENGES" which I did and am happy to say that with only one box of your valuable compound I was quite free from cough.

You can make what use of this you please, for I think such valuable medicine ought not to go unnoticed.

I remain, Sir, your obedient Servant,

CURTIS ON MANHOOD—SHILLING EDITION.
A MEDICAL ESSAY ON NERVOUS & GENERATIVE DISEASES.

Just Published, the 77,000 with numerous plates, in a sealed envelope price 1s., or sent, post-paid, by the Author, to any British possession for 1s. 8d.

MANHOOD: THE CAUSE AND CURE of PREMATURE DECLINE, with Plain Directions for Perfect Restoration to Health and Vigour; being a Medical Review of the various forms and modern treatment of Nervous Debility, Impotency, Loss of Mental and Physical Capacity, whether resulting from Youthful Abuse, the Follies of Maturity, the Effects of Climate, or Infection, &c.; with Observations on a new and successful mode of detecting Spermatorrhœa and other Urethral Discharges, by Microscopic Examination; to which are added, Curious and Interesting Cases, with the Author's Recipe of a Preventive Lotion.

By J. L. CURTIS, Surgeon, 15, Albemarle Street, Piccadilly, London.

"CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—The professional reputation of the author, combined with his twenty years' experience as medical referee in the treatment of nervous debility, &c., fully accounts for the immense circulation which this popular and ably-written medical treatise has obtained."—Sunday Times, 23rd Mar. 5, 1856.

"CURTIS ON MANHOOD.—It is the duty of all men to study the laws of their being no less than those of their mind. In the pages of this work will be found golden rules for regulating the one and preserving the other."—Mark Lane Express, March 31, 1856.

"We feel no hesitation in saying, that there is no member of society by whom the book will not be found useful—whether such person hold the relation of a parent, preceptor, or a clergyman."—Sun, Evening Paper.

Sold also by PIPER & Co., 23, Paternoster-row, London.
